VALLECITO (CALAVERAS COUNTY)—At this historic town, October 1, a bell monument was dedicated by the grand officers, headed by Grand President Jesse H. Miller. Atop a pedestal of stones and quartz from the river bed and the local mines is a bell cast in 1853, brought to the historic town and hung in a large oak tree. The bell was used to call the Vallecitos together for all purposes. Last February, during a heavy windstorm, the old tree was felled, and it was then decided to build a monument featuring the bell. A bronze tablet is inscribed:

"One of California's important earlyday mining towns, named by the Mexicans, meaning Little Valley. Gold was discovered here by the Murphy Brothers, in 1849. It was originally called 'Murphys' Old Diggins.' This bell was cast at Troy, N. Y., in 1853. After being brought around the Horn, it was purchased from the ship with funds contributed by earlyday residents, then brought to Vallecito and erected in a large oak tree in 1854. It was used to call the people together for all purposes until February 16, 1939, when a strong wind blew the old tree down. This monument was erected by popular subscription, and dedicated by the Grand Parlor of the Native Sons of the Golden West on the first day of October 1939."

John R. Williams, superintendent San Joaquin County schools and a member of Stockton No. 7, was chairman of the day and delivered the opening address. Other speakers were Superior Judge J. A. Smith of Calaveras County and Grand President Jesse H. Miller. The dedicatory ceremonies were conducted by the Grand President, Grand Second Vice-president Edward T. Schnarr, Grand Third Vice-president Lloyd J. Cosgrove and Grand Secretary John T. Regan.

1940 Committee Active.

Bakersfield—The Bakersfield 1940 Grand Parlor Committee had a very interesting meeting at Taft, October 2, in conjunction with an elaborate chicken dinner served by Clinton Letlow of Taft No. 276. Chairman Carl Luick appointed Wallace Weller head of a committee to arrange for a series of Thanksgiving shoots to be held two and one-half miles north of Bakersfield November 5, 12 and 19.

With President Frank Espitalier presiding, Bakersfield No. 42 initiated four candidates October 11. James Vizard addressed the initiates, and a dutch supper was served by Ralph Damon and Bernard Boisseranc.

City Gets Flags for Public Park.

Watsonville—Watsonville No. 65 was host October 11 at a district meeting largely attended by members of Santa Cruz No. 90, Santa Lucia No. 97, Salinas, and Gabilan No. 132, Castroville. With District Deputy James P. Call presiding, four candidates were initiated. Speakers included Grand Trustee Wayne Millington, C. A. Collins, President Warren Penniman of Santa Cruz, George G. Radcliff and Matt McGowan. At the meeting's conclusion refreshments were Watsonville Parlor presented to the city October 12 a new flagpole in the City Plaza and United States of America and California State (Bear) Flags. Manuel Lawrence was master of ceremonies, and Past Grand Lewis F. Byington delivered a stirring patriotic address. For the Parlor, State Senator James B. Holohan presented the flags and the pole, which were accepted by Mayor C. H. Baker. The colors were raised by a delegation of soldiers from the Monterey Presidio headed by Corporal Paul Peery. Rev. Ross Williams gave an invocation, and Rev. Thomas Farrell pronounced a benediction. Chairman P. A. Callaghan of the city park committee spoke briefly. Instrumental and vocal music was supplied by the Watsonville High School band, Merton Carlyon conducting, and the girls' Treble Clef Club of the school, led by Miss Josephine Breen. Previous to the presentation ceremonies the Parlor entertained at luncheon.

AN INEXPENSIVE CHRISTMAS GIFT that will be enjoyed throughout the year is THE GRIZZLY BEAR. Sent anywhere in the United States for $1.50; lower rate for clubs of five or more. Remember your friends with a year's subscription for 1940.

High School Dedicated.

Halfmoon Bay—Under the auspices of Seaside No. 95, the Halfmoon Bay Union High School was dedicated October 15 by Past Grand Harmon D. Skillin, Past Grand Chas. A. Koenig, Grand Second Vice-president Edward T. Schnarr, Grand Third Vice-president Lloyd J. Cosgrove, Grand Secretary John T. Regan, Grand Trustee

Wayne R. Millington and Grand Historian Dr. Peter T. Conmy. Preceding the ceremonies there was a parade, participated in by local civic and fraternal organizations. Dr. C. A. Shields, president Halfmoon Bay Union High School District, presided at the program, and among the speakers were Miss Pansy J. Abbott, superintendent San Mateo County Public Schools; Mrs. Barney Ralston, John J. McGrath, Grand Trustee Millington and Past Grand Skillin. Instrumental and vocal music was provided by the school's band, student body and glee club.

A United States of America Flag was presented the school by the American Legion, and Seaside Parlor, through Judge Manuel Bettencourt, presented a California State (Bear) Flag. On behalf of the school, Principal Ellis R. Benson accepted the flags and welcomed the 400 in attendance at the ceremonies. Vista del Mar No. 155 N.D. presented and planted a tree, which was formally dedicated by Grand President Orinda G. Giannini. Frank J. Bernardo and John V. Souza laid the cornerstone. Seaside's arrangements committee included Judge M. J. Bettencourt, chairman, Secretary Joseph Renard, President William P. Deeney, Andrew F. Gilcrest, Dr. C. A. Shields and Edward S. Gonzales.

"Kelly Nite" Honors Oldtimer.

Sebastopol—Sebastopol No. 143 featured "Kelly nite" October 20, in honor of Jim Kelly, a member of the Order a half-century, and there was a large turnout of members of all the Sonoma County Parlors. The occasion was also the official visit to Sebastopol of Grand Trustee Wayne Millington, who was the main speaker of the evening. Other visitors and speakers were Grand Marshal Louis Bosch, District Deputy Ray Tynan and President Jack Scribner of Sonoma No. 111.

A large class of candidates was presented for initiation by the county Parlors, and the ritual was exemplified by a team made up of visitors. At the conclusion of the ceremonies a banquet was served, and there were many enthusiastic talks. The Sonoma County Parlors participated in the fiesta parade at San Rafael, Marin County, October 22.

N.S.G.W.—NEWS PARAGRAPHS—N.S.G.W.

San Francisco—Grand President Jesse H. Miller of California No. 1 is making fine recovery from an operation for appendicitis.

Berkeley—Under the auspices of Berkeley No. 210, the grand officers, headed by Grand President Jesse H. Miller, will dedicate the Hall of Justice Sunday, November 12. An exceptionally large attendance is expected at the ceremonies.

San Jose—Grand Treasurer John A. Corotto of San Jose No. 22 entertained the following at a barbecue at his home September 30: Junior Past Grand Joseph J. McShane, Grand Second Vice-president Edward T. Schnarr, Grand Third Vice-president Lloyd J. Cosgrove, Grand Secretary John T. Regan, Grand Trustees Wayne R. Millington and Richard M. McCarthy, Past Grands Judge Frank H. Dunne, Lewis F. Byington, William P. Cauby, James F. Hoey, Judge Fletcher A. Cutler, Charles L. Dodge, Chas. A. Koenig and Harmon D. Skillin. John was an excellent host, and his guests enjoyed the day immensely.

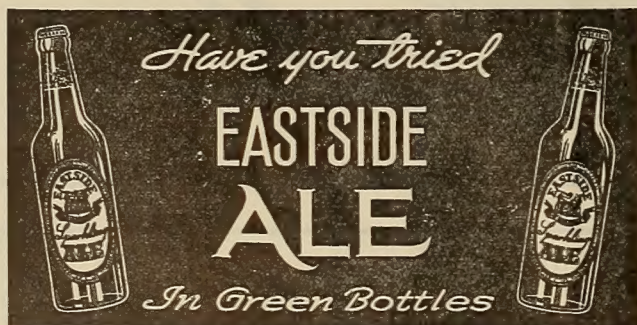

Woodland—Grand Trustee Charles A. Redding officially visited Woodland No. 30, and plans for a membership drive were outlined. Other visitors were Grand Outside Sentinel George Bruno and District Deputy Parker Kelly. A banquet, with entertainment, followed the meeting.

Elk Grove—Elk Grove No. 41 had its annual dance for the benefit of the homeless children October 14. The arrangements committee included Leonard Hastie, Marvin Jones, Milan Johnston, Ralph Ehrhardt and Lester Harrison.

Redwood City—Members of Redwood No. 66 were guests October 26 of Bonita No. 10 N.D. at a potluck dinner.

Downieville—Downieville No. 92 dedicated its new banquet hall with a dance and supper October 14. Members of Naomi No. 36 N.D. were special guests.

San Diego—Due to the untiring efforts of Deputy Grand President Albert V. Mayrhofer of San Diego No. 108, the historic Mission Hills Cemetery has been rehabilitated and surrounded by a picturesque adobe fence. In memory of the deceased Pioneers buried there, re-dedication ceremonies will be held during November.

PROCEEDINGS N.S.G.W. GENERAL ASSEMBLY PAST PRESIDENTS

OROVILLE (BUTTE COUNTY)—THE General Assembly of the N.S.G.W. Past President Association met in annual session October 21, with Governor General Frank W. Boyle presiding. Representatives were present from San Francisco Assembly No. 1, East Bay Counties Assembly No. 3, Fred H. Greely Assembly No. 6, San Joaquin Assembly No. 7, General John A. Sutter Assembly No. 10 and Arrowhead Assembly No. 14. Reports of Governor General Boyle, Director General James F. Stanley and Secretary-Treasurer General John T. Regan showed the Association has grown in membership and increased its finances.

State President Mattie M. Stein of the General Association N.D.G.W. Past Presidents, accompanied by Florence D. Boyle, Past Grand President N.D.G.W., Grand Director Loretta Ross and Chairman O'Brien of the Oroville committee to entertain the visiting womenfolk, were visitors and addressed the Assembly. Representing the Grand Parlor N.S.G.W. were Grand First Vice-president Henry S. Lyon, Grand Second Vice-president Edward T. Schnarr, Grand Third Vice-president Lloyd J. Cosgrove, Grand Trustees R. G. Power and Richard F. McCarthy, Grand Inside Sentinel Walter N. Bailey and Grand Historian Dr. Peter T. Conmy; all addressed the Assembly.

At memorial ceremonies, Richard M. Hamb of East Bay Counties Assembly delivered a eulogy in memory of Justice Emmet Seawell, Past Grand President N.S.G.W. and a member of that Assembly. All deceased past presidents of the past year were eulogized by Irving D. Gibson of General John A. Sutter Assembly.

On invitation of Arrowhead Assembly, Crestline, San Bernardino County, was designated as the meetingplace of the General Assembly's twentieth (1940) annual session. The following officers were elected:

Walter E. Hiskey of Arrowhead Assembly, Governor General; Lee J. Stirling of East Bay Counties Assembly, Lieutenant Governor General; James F. Stanley of San Francisco Assembly, Director General; John T. Regan of San Francisco Assembly, Secretary-Treasurer General; Joseph G. Fitzhenry of General John A. Sutter Assembly, Marshal General; A. M. Nishkian of San Francisco Assembly, Guard General; Harold B. Farley of East Bay Counties Assembly, Sentinel General; Frank P. Smith of East Bay Counties Assembly, Law T. Freitas of San Joaquin Assembly and Judge Donald E. VanLoven of Arrowhead Assembly, Trustees General; Al C. Weber of East Bay Counties Assembly, Organist General.

At a banquet in the evening Grand Trustee Power acted as toastmaster, and Mayor W. K. Palmer extended Oroville's welcome. Speakers included Governor General Hiskey, Director General Stanley, Junior Past Governor General Boyle and Grand Second Vice-president Schnarr. At the banquet's conclusion delegates and their ladies attended a grand ball at the Oroville Auditorium.

Ventura—Cabrillo No. 114 presented the Ventura County Superior Court with a California State (Bear) Flag October 2. Judge Robert M. Clarke of Ramona No. 109, Los Angeles, a former superior judge of the county, told of California's early history. Adolfo Camarillo, for the Parlor, presented the flag, which was accepted by Superior Judge Louis C. Drapeau, also a member of Cabrillo. The Parlor participated in the Cabrillo parade October 12.

Cambria—Cambria No. 152 had as visitors October 11 Grand Trustee Walter C. Richards and Assistant Grand Secretary Harold J. Regan, who participated in reorganization discussion. Plans for initiation during November are progressing. At the meeting's conclusion a banquet, prepared by El Pinal No. 163 N.D., was enjoyed.

San Leandro—William G. Muntz, charter member of Estudillo No. 223, died September 26. He was born at Vallejo, Solano County, November 8, 1871. At his widow's request, the funeral services were conducted by Grand Second Vice-president Edward T. Schnarr, Grand Secretary John T. Regan, Grand Trustee Richard M. McCarthy and Supervising Deputy William Dombink. "Billie" Muntz represented Estudillo at many Grand Parlors of the years gone by.

Oakland—The drum corps of Fruitvale No. 252 entertained at a basket social October 28. The corps will have a turkey whist November 17.

OLD BODEGA

Dr. Peter T. Conmy

(WRITTEN ESPECIALLY FOR THE GRIZZLY BEAR.)

ABOUT THIRTY MILES NORTH OF THE entrance to San Francisco Bay, on the west coast of Marin County, is a small but sheltered harbor known as Bodega Bay. Historians of the past have often confused the location of Drake's Bay and Bodega Bay, using the terms interchangeably. It is now well established and settled that Drake's Bay is south of Point Reyes, and that Bodega Bay is an inlet of the coast several miles north of the famous point of land. Due to the fact that the Russians had a settlement known as Bodega on Bodega Bay in the early nineteenth century, the erroneous impression, shared by many people, that the discovery of the small harbor was due to them has arisen. Such, however, was not the case, as will be explained below.

The year 1775 brought a renewed interest in the northern waters of the Pacific. None of the great navigator-explorers—Cabrillo, Drake, Viscaïno, Cermeno—had penetrated much beyond Cape Mendocino. At the request of the King of Spain, the Viceroy in 1775 determined upon a new attempt to ferret the mystery of the north coast. Accordingly, March 16, 1775, there were sent out from the harbor of San Blas, in Mexico, the following vessels, namely, (1) the San Antonio, under Quiros, with supplies for San Diego Mission; (2) the San Carlos, under Manrique, with supplies for Monterey; (3) the Santiago, under Captain Heceta, and (4) the schooner Sonora, under Francisco Bodega y Cuadra.

The last two named were to follow the San Carlos as far as Monterey and then proceed into the northern waters for general exploration. Within a week after leaving San Blas, however, the Santiago and the smaller Sonora lost sight of the San Carlos and wended their way up the coast alone. After sailing for over two months they found themselves in the latitude of Monterey, but decided not to turn in, as the aim of their expedition was exploration of the north. Hence they sailed on, the smaller Sonora always following the larger Santiago.

They passed Point Arena and Cape Mendocino, and June 9th reached what is now known as Trinidad Bay in present Humboldt County. They called the river which empties into the ocean at that point the Principio. Today it is known as Little River. The name Trinidad was probably given because they were near the feast of the Most Holy Trinity, known in popular language as Trinity Sunday. After about a week at Trinidad, during which time they mingled with the natives, who were friendly, they again set sail.

In July rough weather separated the Santiago from the Sonora. August 11th the former turned back, due to the illness of most members of the crew. The Sonora under Bodega, however, sailed further north than any Spanish navigator had ever before penetrated and, according to the records, reached the fifty-eighth degree of latitude before again turning toward the south.

The southward journey of the Sonora was without special event. It followed the coast carefully, and October 3rd entered what is now known as Bodega Bay, and which was named after the commander, Lieutenant Juan Francisco de Bodega y Cuadra. Those aboard did not land, but talked to the Indians who, friendly enough, came out to greet them in small boats. The following day a storm came up and, feeling the newly-found harbor unsafe, Bodega set sail, reaching Monterey the 7th of October and San Blas November 20th.

It was almost twenty years before Bodega was again prominent in Spanish Californian affairs. Feeling that the British were planning to fix San Francisco Bay as the northern boundary of Alta California and to claim for themselves what was beyond, the Spanish determined to fortify and settle Bodega. March 20, 1793, the Viceroy ordered both, and further, that a road be built from San Francisco to Bodega. August 5th a lieutenant, sergeant and ten men were sent across the bay, to what is now Marin County, to open the road and to meet a sea expedition which would arrive at Bodega. Shortly thereafter this project was postponed a year, and seems to have been abandoned after that time.

No Spanish settlement was built north of San Francisco Bay until when, in 1817, Mission San Rafael was founded at what is now the county seat of Marin County. The only other north bay settlement was Sonoma Mission, built in 1823. The obvious purpose of both these missions was to people the country so that a foreign power might not claim it.

In September 1806 Moraga explored the country around Bodega Bay. The most thorough exploration of that part of California, however, came in 1809. January 8th of that year the Russian explorer, Kuskof, arrived in Bodega Bay from Alaska and remained there over seven months, not setting sail again until August 29th. Kuskof's report was most flattering to Bodega and vicinity. He recommended the area as suitable for agriculture, trade, fishing and hunting. On the basis of his study, the Russian company functioning in Alaska sought and obtained the permission of the Czar to found a post there.

Kuskof came down the coast again in 1811 and spent several months at Bodega, which he called Rumiantzof Bay, in honor of the Imperial Chancellor of Russia. In 1812 the Russians founded Fort Ross, situated above Bodega about fifty miles. Bodega, however, remained as a small fishing settlement and was also the harbor for the Russians as long as they remained in California.

The word "bodega" is the Spanish for cellar, and this gave rise to the erroneous impression that the place Bodega was so called because of the Russian storing places there. The Russians did have cellars there, it is true, and did use it as a port, but the bay takes its name from the brave old Spanish navigator-explorer Juan Francisco Bodega y Cuadra, who discovered it October 3, 1775. In case the reader should wonder why, as Bodega's name was Bodega y Cuadra, the bay is not called either Bodega y Cuadra Bay, or just Cuadra Bay, it should be explained that it is a Spanish custom to add the mother's maiden surname after a man's name, as also a married woman hers after her husband's. Thus the navigator's name was Bodega, Cuadra being his mother's maiden name, and not his family name.

CALIFORNIA

(WM. W. TAYLOR,

Hollywood Parlor No. 196 N.S.G.W.)

Men may disgrace you. But still Above their petty plans and greedy Fingers, I see your mountain tops Bathed in a glory beyond man's power To defile. Your lakes reflect a Grandeur born of the ages that no Man can dim, or claim by right of Conquest or price. You are the Gateway to understanding and peace. The answer to that inner longing of Those who love you, not for your Place in the sun, but for your Majestic beauty. A beauty which Tells that eternal story of the Master's hand beyond.

Armistice Day, November 11, is to be generally celebrated throughout California. It is a legal holiday.

AUTUMN LEAVES

Another autumn with its thinning trees,
And I stand silent in a misty dream,
And see brown clusters whirl with every breeze
A part of mother nature's wildest scheme.
A world of shadows and a world of light
In ever-changing quiet mystery,
With memories that burn like fire at night,
And leave the coldness of the stars to me.
Ah, faded leaves, with what remembered grace
You danced above me in your summer green,
And there was love and romance every place,
And beauty's lyric miracle was seen.
The glory of the summer time you gave,
And now your clustered leaves look like a grave.

BETTER DECIDE YOUR ANSWER
BEFORE YOU VOTE ON 30-THURSDAY:

ARE YOU WILLING TO PAY YOUR SHARE?

Count the cost, California voters—count it carefully—NOW—before your vote makes 30-Thursdays the law. For IF it becomes law YOU PAY from then on!

"I am Against It"

—says President Roosevelt

President Roosevelt warns against 30-Thursdays: "It would constitute a 25 per cent income tax which would fall far heavier on the poor than on the rich."

WORKING Californians would pay for every "dollar" warrant issued to the privileged class of Non-Workers established by this fantastic and Dictatorial plan.

Then (in addition) a new 3 per cent tax on gross income, or gross transactions tax, would be levied against every cash transaction. A vicious, pyramiding tax, applying to each turnover—all in addition to all present taxes. That means . . .

A NEW TAX ON FOOD
A NEW TAX ON CLOTHES
A NEW TAX ON BUSINESS
A NEW TAX ON THE FARMER
A NEW TAX ON THE CHURCH
A NEW TAX ON YOUR PAYCHECK

It's all written in the Act. Don't be fooled—or careless. Count the cost to You! If 30-Thursdays passes, YOU PAY!

ALTURAS—THIS MODOC COUNTY community witnessed a celebration September 28 that will long be remembered—the dedication to Loyalty, Cooperation, Progress and the Ideals of American Democracy of the $147,000 modern Modoc Union High School building under the auspices of Alturas No. 159, with Deputy Neva Asher as mistress of ceremonies. At 2 p.m. a parade led by the school's uniformed band moved from Legion Hall to the main entrance of the building, where flag-raising ceremonies were conducted by Clifford Harter Post of the American Legion.

The large audience then assembled in the school gymnasium, where Charter Member Dorothy Gloster introduced Grand President Orinda Gunther Giannini, who delivered a masterful dedicatory address. Other speakers, representing various high school interests, included Principal Harry Wandling, the faculty; Dr. John Stile, the board of trustees; Mrs. Hallie Tierney, superintendent Modoc County schools; Brunell Christensen, the student body, and Mrs. Gertrude French, the alumni association. Mr. Pierston spoke for the PWA, the building being a project of that Federal Government agency.

The formal dedicatory ceremonies were conducted by President Lelah Faulkner, Past President Mabel Cary and Vice-president Rita Smirl. On behalf of the Parlor, Past Grands Catherine Gloster and Irma Laird presented to the school silk United States of America and California State (Bear) Flags. At 6:30 p.m. Alturas was hostess to the alumni and friends at a homecoming banquet. Deputy Asher was the toastmistress and many speakers responded to her call. Vivian Warner gave a report of the activities of the Girl Scout troop sponsored by the Parlor. Delegations from Natusqua No. 152, Standish, and Susanville No. 243 were guests of No. 159 at this function.

At the banquet's conclusion Grand President Giannini paid her official visit to Alturas. Supervising Deputy Clara Gibson was also a visitor. One candidate was initiated. On the Parlor's behalf, President Faulkner presented to the Grand President a gift suggestive of the locality.

Charter Members First Parlor Honored.

Stockton—Charter members of Ursula No. 1, Jackson, the "mother" Parlor of the Order, were honored by the San Joaquin County Parlors September 26. A dinner was followed by a meeting with Joaquin No. 5 at which Mrs. Georgia McCall presided. Autumn berries and flowers were combined with Mexican serapes and rugs in decoration of the meetingroom. Supervising Deputy Algie Gossett had charge of the program. Miss Clarice Cook delivered the welcome address, to which Charter Member Emma Boarman-Wright of Ursula responded.

Grand Vice-president Hazel B. Hansen was the featured speaker of the evening. Mrs. Verna Weesner gave a reading; Mrs. Dio Butenuth, accompanied by Mrs. Lulu Schneider, rendered vocal selections; Mrs. Norma Hodson spoke on "San Joaquin County Pioneers," and the glee clubs of El Pescadero No. 82, Tracy, and Stockton No. 256, led by Mrs. Vanadine Huch, favored with selections. Miss Alice Buckle presented gifts to the honored guests. Among the many others in attendance were Charter Members Mary Ellen Fontenrose, Flora Ferrero, Henrietta O'Neill and Annie Fullen McGee of Ursula Parlor; Past Grands Carrie Roesch-Durham, Mamie G. Peyton, Mattie M. Stein and Pearl Lamb; Clara Stier, Ida Safferhill and Hattie Wyman, fifty-year members of Joaquin Parlor. In arranging for the gala occasion, Supervising Deputy Gossett was assisted by San Joaquin County Deputies Evelyn Wells, Frances Germain, Hattie Mae Goodban, Willa Wilson, Viola Andres and Elizabeth Adams.—G.L.S.

"All members are earnestly urged to remember The Grizzly Bear Magazine, which is recommended to every Native Daughter as a means of education, inspiration and entertainment, most beneficial in its every influence, and worthy of a place in every home."—Past Grand President Bertha A. Briggs, Chairman Grand Parlor N.D.G.W. Publicity Committee.

Americanism the Keynote.

Pittsburg—A dinner attended by more than 120 preceded the open district meeting of the Contra Costa County Parlors—Stirling No. 146, Pittsburg, Richmond No. 147, Donner No. 193, Byron, Las Juntas No. 221, Martinez, and Antioch No. 223—October 19. The keynote of the occasion was "Americanism." The Parlors portrayed by tableaux the principles and the projects of the Order. Further entertainment was furnished by dancers from Antioch, an accordion band from Byron and the Las Juntas drill team from Martinez.

Supervising Deputy Leslie Clement was chairman of the evening. Speakers, and their topics, included Grand President Orinda G. Giannini, "Americanism;" Judge A. F. Bray of the Contra Costa County Superior Court, "California History;" Chairman William Buchanan of the Board of Supervisors, "Highlights in Contra Costa History." Among others in attendance were Grand Secretary Sallie R. Thaler, Grand Treasurer Agnes M. Curry, Grand Trustee Emily Ryan, Past Grands Mamie Peyton, Amy McAvoy and Edna Briggs. Supervising Deputy Clement presented Deputies Ruth Boltzen, Lena Azeveda, Rose Noia and Jethel Swearingin, and Parlor Presidents Elma Lawrence, Lorraine Adams, Mildred Goodbar and Bernice Viera. The evening closed with a most impressive tableau in which the Goddess of Liberty was impersonated by Elinor Aljets while "God Bless America" was sung by Georgia Montgomery.—L.O.V.

Columbus Day Observed.

Chico—Annie K. Bidwell No. 168 had its annual pioneer get-together, with a program and refreshments, for oldtimers of this city and surrounding territory. Flowers were presented

Mrs. Catherine Murray, born in Alameda County in 1847, the oldest woman present, and Mrs. Nora Arnold, No. 168's oldest member. The Parlor's radio programs have been resumed under the supervision of Mrs. Lucy Morrow. They are given the second Friday of the month at 1:30 p.m. over KHSL, Chico. The October subject was "History of Chico State College," which will soon celebrate its fiftieth anniversary.

October 12, Annie K. Bidwell observed Columbus Day. A fitting program included an instructive talk on "The Method of Teaching Art" by Mrs. Martha Bain, art supervisor in the Chico public schools. Many interesting drawings showing the free expression of children were displayed. The story of Columbus was depicted in a variety of ways, showing what each child learned from the story. The Parlor's annual rummage sale October 7 to 14 was a decided success; Lucy Girdler was in charge.—C.B.H.

Tri-Counties District Meeting.

Hollister—The annual district meeting of the Parlors of Santa Cruz, Monterey and San Benito Counties—Santa Cruz No. 26, El Pajaro No. 35, Watsonville, Aleli No. 102, Salinas, Junipero No. 141, Monterey, Copa de Oro No. 105, Hollister, and San Juan Bautista No. 179—will be held November 4 near Santa Cruz City. "California Women" will be the theme.

The festivities will open with a 7 o'clock dinner Saturday evening. This will be followed by a program of skits, when each Parlor will depict the life of some noted California woman. Grand President Orinda G. Giannini will be the guest speaker. A bedtime frolic will close the evening, and a hike through the redwoods is scheduled for Sunday morning. Plans for the affair are in charge of Supervising Deputy Mary G. Antonetti.

N.D.G.W.—NEWS PARAGRAPHS—N.D.G.W.

Stockton—Grand President Orinda Giannini officially visited Joaquin No. 5 October 10. In observance of Columbus Day, Mrs. Edna Williamson read an appropriate article, and on the Parlor's behalf Past Grand Mamie G. Peyton presented a gift to the Grand President. Others in attendance were Past Grand Carrie Roesch-Durham, Supervising Deputy Algie Gossett, Grand Trustee Ethel Enos and Deputy Evelyn Wells. A dinner preceded the meeting. Decorations of the evening featured autumn colors.—G.L.S.

Napa—Eshcol No. 16 had a surprise potluck dinner, served outdoors, for Sidonia Geiger, outgoing president, September 27; she was presented a beautiful bag. October 17 several members of the Parlor attended the official visit of Grand President Orinda Giannini to La Junta No. 203, Saint Helena. October 23 Eshcol entertained its past presidents.—E.I.

Downieville—Mrs. Elizabeth McCarty, in point of membership Naomi No. 36's oldest member, died October 3, survived by a son. She was born in Sierra County August 18, 1863.

San Jose—The annual dinner of the Santa Clara County Pioneer Association October 10 was attended by President Cecile Dose and several members of Vendome No. 100. The Parlor sewing club, Mrs. Winifred Laffey, chairman, was entertained by Mms. Julia Waddington and Ward Farnsworth during the past month. October hostesses for the afternoon card parties were Mms. Doline Kooser and Ada Fox. The annual homeless children benefit of the joint N.D. and N.S. Parlor will be held December 8.—C.G.

"All members are earnestly urged to remember The Grizzly Bear Magazine, which is recommended to every Native Daughter as a means of education, inspiration and entertainment, most beneficial in its every influence, and worthy of a place in every home."—Past Grand President Bertha A. Briggs, Chairman Grand Parlor N.D.G.W. Publicity Committee.

Hollister—Members of Copa de Oro No. 105 were taken via travel talks of Ellean Hansen, Oda Hogan and Hilda Bell over the United States and into Canada September 20. An informative talk on the United States Constitution was given by Pauline Saufnauer. Refreshments were served at appropriately decorated tables. September 22, Alta Trowbridge was tendered a surprise house-warming at her new home, and was the recipient of a set of pottery and other gifts. After an hour at games and singing "The Cavalcade of the Golden West" trekked to the attractive garden of Edna Hansen for buffet refreshments. October 4, Copa de Oro was addressed by G. W. Jean on "Thirty Every Thursday." Seasonal refreshments were served at prettily decorated tables.

Oakland—Aloha No. 106 has arranged with

EXTEND KINDNESS TO LESS FORTUNATE

TO THE SUBORDINATE PARLORS, Native Daughters of the Golden West. November 11, 1918, was a day which brought much rejoicing to the people of all the world. Armistice Day has always been celebrated by us with a fervent prayer of thanks that peace has been our blessing, and through our Veteran's Welfare Work we have endeavored to bring some small comfort to those who sacrificed so much for us.

"With conditions as they exist in Europe today, we have a keener realization of the privileges we enjoy as American citizens. Let us also accept the responsibility which is ours, and make our influence felt as American women, as California women, that our nation might not again know the horrors of war. Our sympathies go to the people of those other nations, in their hour of trial.

"President Roosevelt has proclaimed Thursday, November 23rd, as Thanksgiving Day throughout our land. We have so much to be thankful for! If we will remember those less fortunate, by extending some kindness to some one of our sisters, some friend, or some needy family, the greatest joy that can come will be our reward.

"May this Thanksgiving Season bring to each of our members a renewed faith, and a greater appreciation of our privileges as Native Daughters of the Golden West and the glorious heritage of our nativity. We must do our part in preserving for future generations the blessings which are ours today, those blessings which came to us only through the great sacrifice of the Pioneers of our State.

"To each member of our Order I extend my personal greetings for a joyous Thanksgiving Holiday, and I take this opportunity to express my heartfelt thanks for the many kindnesses which have been extended to me.

"Sincerely and fraternally,

Orinda G. Glannini

"Grand President N.D.G.W.
"San Francisco, October 20, 1939."

John Angel to give a fifteen-minute talk on current events the first Tuesday of every month. The second monthly whist party was held October 10 at the home of Irma Murray. The Parlor joined with Athens No. 195 N.S. for a Halloween party October 31. The past presidents dinner September 26 was in honor of Ann Sukk.

Sacramento—La Bandera No. 110 honored Financial Secretary Genevieve Didion at a pink surprise party October 6. The meetingroom was beautifully decorated with pink dahlias and roses. Some 120 members and guests were present, and Mrs. Didion received many lovely gifts. Historian Estelle Peterson presented a short program. Past Grand Edna B. Briggs, chairman of the evening, was assisted by Mms. Clara Weldon, Lucille Huntoon, Mae Sydenstricker and Flora A. Schmittgen, and the Misses Ruth and Ada Peterson. The Parlor's drill team, Miss Olwen Henley captain, has resumed activities after a well-earned month's vacation. Mrs. Ernestine Ward visited the New York World's Fair.—F.A.S.

Etna—Eschscholtzia No. 112 and Mountain Dawn No. 120, Sawyers Bar, were officially visited in joint session here September 29 by Grand President Orinda Gunther-Glannini, who was accompanied by Grand Secretary Sallie R. Thaler. President Genevieve Denny of No. 112 presided. Mrs. Glannini gave an excellent talk on "Americanization." Mrs. Emma D. Evans of Fort Jones, a member of Eschscholtzia past 83 years of age, gave an interesting and enlightening talk on the early day history of the community, in which she is well versed. Mrs. Minna Kane-Horn entertained with musical selections. Prior to the meeting a chicken pie supper was served. Lovely fall flowers adorned both the lodgeroom and the banquetroom. In one end of the latter, Chairman Amy Derham had an interesting and valuable display of relics.—E.P.

AN INEXPENSIVE CHRISTMAS GIFT that will be enjoyed throughout the year is THE GRIZZLY BEAR. Sent anywhere in the United States for $1.50; lower rate for clubs of five or more. Remember your friends with a year's subscription for 10.00.

Sierraville—Imogen No. 134 welcomed Grand President Orinda Glannini on her official visit September 22. The meetingroom was attractively decorated with autumn flowers and leaves. Two candidates were initiated. The Grand President gave an enlightening talk on Americanism and the beautiful Sierra Valley. Other

A LARGE NUMBER OF MEMBERS AND friends of Californiana Parlor No. 247 N.D.G.W. October 10 enjoyed a very delightful luncheon and program honoring Christopher Columbus, discoverer of America. The tables were appropriately decked, the speakers' board being centered with a replica of the Santa Maria, flying the Spanish flag. Columbus stood by its side, with the sea at his feet. Flowers and various pictured scenes added to the charming effect. At the speakers' table with President Beatrice Wahrmond and Program Chairman Mrs. Alphonse B. Fages were a group of prominent women, who pleased their hearers with their remarks.

Miss Althea Warren, director of the Los Angeles Public Library, spoke on literature; she said that in 1850 there were no women librarians, but now only one-twenty-fifth are men. Miss Helen Wadsworth, president Ruskin Art Club, paid high compliment to Orpha Klinker, a native daughter artist specializing in adobes and pioneer portraits. Mrs. Leland Atherton Irish, executive manager of the Los Angeles Symphony, in speaking of music stated that women took a musical place in Los Angeles fifty years ago. Miss Jane Humphreys, first president of both the Los Angeles and the State Business and Professional Women's Clubs, blamed women for any hardships which their sex suffer in their work. Miss Eleanor Miller, state assemblywoman for eighteen years, wished more women would recognize their power. Miss Grace Stoerner, Past Grand President, gave an illuminating talk on what women are doing in the financial world. Grand Trustee Mary B. Noerenberg spoke interestingly on civic participation. Mrs. Hazel Hansen, Grand Vice-president, impressed those assembled with a list of the worthwhile projects of the Order.

Mrs. Edith Adams invited the Gertrude Sewing Circle of the Parlor to be luncheon guests November 6; oldtime members are especially invited. Armistice Day will be honored at a luncheon November 14; Right Rev. Martin Keating will speak on "America's Blessings." On behalf of Californiana, President Wahrmond presented Charter Member Mary Emily Foy a life membership.—O.L.

TO CELEBRATE FIFTY-FIFTH BIRTHDAY.

The first of the "Know Your California" quizzes being conducted in Los Angeles Parlor No. 45 N.S.G.W. by C. Harry Davis was won October 13 by First Vice-president Carroll M. Manley. Past Grand John T. Newell was a close second. The prize was a book on California missions. The second quiz will be conducted by Past President Davis November 10. A hundred questions pertaining to the history and the historic places of California will be asked.

Saturday, November 18, Los Angeles' fifty-fifth institution anniversary will be celebrated with a dinner-dance. The occasion will also honor Grand Trustee Walter E. Smith, a member of the Parlor. The committee of arrangements will announce the details in due time. November 24, initiation will be followed by entertainment and refreshments.—F.F.

STATE OFFICIAL ADDRESSES N.S.

Lieutenant-Governor Ellis E. Patterson addressed the Native Sons Friday Luncheon Club October 20, being introduced by Louis A. Dunl. John O'B. Bodkin was chairman of the day. Navy Day, October 27, Lieutenant Lall Kane of the United States Naval Reserve was the guest speaker.

The luncheon club meets every Friday at 12:15 noon in room 1126 of the Rosslyn Hotel. All Native Sons and their friends are welcome. John B. Haas is the president, and Hervey Lindley Kitchen is the secretary-treasurer.

"JAMBOREE OF THE SOUTH."

The "Gay Way Carnival" of Los Angeles Parlor No. 124 N.D.G.W. at Plummer Park October 21 was a most enjoyable and successful affair. It was given under the auspices of the history and landmarks committee, Juliette DeNublia and Ella Steinbeck co-chairmen, and the proceeds will go toward furnishing the Parlor's room at historic San Fernando Mission. To increase Parlor funds, a blanket club has been started; for details, consult Chairman Olinda Thomas.

November 8, Los Angeles will have a potluck supper at the home of Lillian Spinner; after partaking of a variety of foods sewing for the homeless children will be in order. November 15, the Parlor is sponsoring a "Jamboree of the South" in which all local N.D. Parlors have been asked to join. Each group is to furnish a number for the program, which should prove a rare treat. Refreshments will be served. November 29, members will be permitted to view the inner workings of the Southern California Telephone Company's plant; Juanita Porter has the trip in charge.—E.T.N.

"SHERIFF'S NIGHT."

November 17 will be "sheriff's night" at Ramona Parlor No. 109 N.S.G.W., and a large turnout of members of the Order is anticipated. Sheriff Eugene W. Biscailuz of Santa Monica Bay Parlor No. 267 will be the guest of honor, and invitations have been extended the sheriffs of Santa Barbara, Kern and San Bernardino Counties. The evening's festivities will begin with a 6:30 p.m. supper, after which entertainment features will be presented in the lodge-room.

With President David Schumacher presiding, Ramona initiated a class of five candidates October 13. Past presidents of the Parlor had a reunion the night of October 28. Past Grand Herman C. Lichtenberger was master of ceremonies, and the occasion was greatly enjoyed.

November 15, many members of Ramona will pay a fraternal visit to Long Beach Parlor No. 278. District Deputy Clarence S. Hunt, president of that Parlor and a past president of Ramona, will be honored by the initiation of a large class of candidates. For free transportation, get in touch with Secretary Joe Fonte.

HARVEST FESTIVAL DINNER-DANCE.

Canoga Park—Topanga Parlor No. 269 N.D.G.W. honored Mrs. Priscilla Johnson of Chatsworth with a stork shower October 13. Among the beautiful gifts she received were many hand made by members of the Parlor. President Louise McNary and Outside Sentinel May Packer of Los Angeles Parlor No. 124 were visitors. Refreshments were served.

Saturday, November 4, Topanga will celebrate its first institution anniversary with an informal dinner-dance at Woodland Hills Country Club. The affair will be in the nature of a harvest festival, and guests may wear appropriate costumes. President Clara Tucker will be the hostess of the evening. Tickets and arrangements are in charge of Grace Rizer. All Natives and the general public are invited.

TO HAVE ANNUAL BANQUET.

Long Beach—Long Beach Parlor No. 154 N.D.G.W. had a surprise bridal shower October 19 for Third Vice-president Mary Virginia Provasnik, who will be wedded to Charles Broaded November 4. At the head of a T-shaped table was a huge silver bell overflowing with gifts. Individual placecards carried out the silver and white motif. Special guests were Supervising Deputy Olinda Thomas, Deputy Emma Costello, and President Louise McNary and Mae Packer of Los Angeles Parlor No. 124. Birthdays of members born in September and October were also celebrated. Another baby has been adopted by No. 154.

The semi-monthly meetings of the Parlor's thimble club are well attended, and rapid progress is being made on a quilt for the Christmas cheer fund, lap quilts for veterans and baby layettes for homeless children. Civic Chairman Ruth Johnson plans the organization of a California All States Society. Long Beach Parlor will have its annual banquet November 16, and several candidates will be initiated. Arrangements are in charge of a committee including Minnie Wagner, chairman, Jessie Ehrman, Kittie Dillon, Mary Wilson and Ellen Rogers. History Chairman Margaret Burch announces that the evening of December 2 has been chosen for members of the Parlor to join in browsing around Olvera street in Los Angeles.—R.J.

ANNUAL BAZAR.

Glendale—Verdugo Parlor No. 240 N.D.G.W. was visited October 10 by Supervising Deputy Olinda Thomas, and President Louise McNary and members of Los Angeles Parlor No. 124 N.D.G.W. Grand Vice-president Hazel B. Hansen delivered an interesting talk. The rummage sale of October 4 and 5, Mrs. Maude Molen chairman, was most successful. Mrs. Marguerite Piuma had a luncheon and card party, and Mrs. Florence Cook had a breakfast, followed by cards, at her home; both were greatly enjoyed.

President Ethyl Kern, Deputy Evalyn Wilson and several members of Verdugo visited Los Angeles Parlor October 18. Sewing for the bazar was in order October 20 at the home of Mrs. Flora Thomas. The Americanism committee of the Parlor, Mrs. Phyllis Hirst chairman, presented a California State (Bear) Flag to Judge Lowe. Mrs. Julia Laurie has announced the evening of November 14 as the date for the Parlor's annual bazar, which will be held at the Masonic Temple. All Natives are invited. A country fair will be featured, and those who so desire may play cards.—A.S.

PARADE OF MILLINERY.

East Los Angeles Parlor No. 266 N.D.G.W. had a dinner October 10 at which Judge E. P. Woods and Walter E. Smith, Grand Trustee N.S.G.W., were guests of honor. Myriads of California poppies decorated the tables. A millinery parade was put on by members of the

CALIFORNIA BANK
FEELING "LOAN-SOME"

Believe it or not, as Mr. Ripley would say, California Bank has over one hundred million dollars in resources. Cash on hand far exceeds liberal reserve requirements and that makes the Bank feel "loan some" they'd like to lend it to businesses and people who need it. If you happen to need it, they—a legitimate credit need, that is, drop in and talk it over with the manager of any neighborhood office of California Bank.

Parlor, and Mrs. E. Eckman and Dorothy Camy were declared the prizewinners. Eddie Ross entertained with guitar selections.

TO DEDICATE NEW CITY HALL.

Santa Monica—Santa Monica Bay Parlor No. 267 N.S.G.W. had a booster rally October 20 for the benefit of the homeless children fund; Tom Hume and Lee Conger were in charge. A large class of candidates will be initiated November 21.

Under the auspices of the Parlor, the grand officers, with Past Grand Eldred L. Meyer presiding, will dedicate the new Santa Monica City Hall Saturday, November 25. Arrangements are already under way for Santa Monica Bay's annual lobster "feed," an outstanding southland event, to be held Tuesday, December 12.

THEATER PARTY A SUCCESS.

La Reina Parlor No. 267 N.D.G.W. entertained at a card party October 26. The proceeds will be used in the Christmas charity and homeless children work of the Parlor. Among other things, a children's Christmas party is being planned.

La Reina had a theater party September 21 and, despite the extremely hot weather, it was a success. A similar party will, it is expected, be held in the future.

FLOAT IN ROSES PARADE.

The Interparlor Committee N.S.G.W. and N.D.G.W. will have an entry in the Pasadena Tournament of Roses parade New Year Day 1940. The theme will be "The Twentieth Century in Flowers." Funds are now being accumulated, and anyone who so desires may contribute.

Competitive designs for the float will be accepted by the Committee up to and including December 1, and a cash prize of twenty-five dollars will be awarded the owner of the selected design. Any one may enter the contest. Those interested should contact Fred Leonetti, 102-A E. Broadway, Glendale, for details.

Several suggested plans for advancing the interests of the Orders in the southland are being considered by the Interparlor Committee. Meetings are held the third Monday of each month at Plummer Park Clubhouse, 7377 Santa Monica Blvd., and all Natives are welcome to attend.—G.A.

SAN PEDRO—DECLARING IT "WANTS to keep out of war, but feels that our merchant marine should continue to function on the Pacific," the San Pedro Chamber of Commerce sent the following telegram to United States Senators Hiram W. Johnson and Sheridan Downey: "We are opposed to those portions of proposed neutrality act which might prohibit American ships from plying on trade routes far removed from war zone or might restrict the usual intercourse of trade with British dominions."

ACTIVITIES RESUMED.

San Pedro—With President Tom Allender presiding, Stephen M. White Parlor No. 263 N.S.G.W. resumed its regular Friday night meetings, and arranged a program of fall and winter activities. Several visitors from Ramona Parlor No. 109, Los Angeles, and Long Beach Parlor No. 278 were in attendance.

October 13, Bert Mackley gave the Parlor a highly entertaining account of a visit to the Golden Gate International Exposition, San Francisco. October 18, Stephen M. White Parlor met jointly with Long Beach Parlor for initiation.

CARD PARTY HUGE SUCCESS.

San Pedro—Rudecinda Parlor No. 230 N.D.G.W. had initiation October 12, and birthday handkerchief showers for Anna Menveg and Josephine Cassidy were held. Chairman Lucy Guzman and committee served refreshments at a table decorated with Hallowe'en favors. The card party of October 26 was a huge success; refreshments were served after the games.

The Florencita Thimble Club, an auxiliary of the Parlor, had regular meetings, with luncheons, at the homes of Chairman Dessie Buyo, October 3, and Virginia Bruckner, October 18. Rudecinda has plans under way for a turkey card party in December.—R.B.

DON'T FAIL TO GIVE.

The sixteenth annual fund-raising appeal of the Los Angeles Community Chest began October 26, when volunteers approached more than 2,000 major establishments and several hundred business firms. General solicitation will be launched November 8. The goal has been set at $3,221,720, which is the minimum if completeness of service is to be reached by the Community Chest agencies during the coming year.

AN INEXPENSIVE CHRISTMAS GIFT that will be enjoyed throughout the year is THE GRIZZLY BEAR. Sent anywhere in the United States for $1.50; lower rate for clubs of five or more. Remember your friends with a year's subscription for 1940.

The California Farm Bureau Federation is to have its twenty-first annual convention at San Diego City November 13-16.

The Western Safety Conference is to hold its fifth annual convention November 12-16 at Oakland, Alameda County.

"Almost every man who has by his life-work added to the sum of human achievement of which the race is proud, of which our people are proud, almost every such man has based his life-work largely upon the teachings of the Bible."—Theodore Roosevelt.

SILK UNITED STATES OF AMERICA AND California State (Bear) Flags were presented, respectively, by Blackstone American Legion Post and the N.S.G.W. Extension of the Order Committee, representing the twenty-two San Francisco Parlor, to the California Supreme Court in session at San Francisco October 3. The presentation addresses were made by J. A. Pardini of the Legion and Grand President Jesse H. Miller of the Native Sons.

The ceremony opened with a brief statement by Chief Justice William H. Waste of Berkeley Parlor No. 210 N.S.G.W., who informed the assembly that the last State Legislature passed a measure providing that the national and the state flags must be displayed in every court of record. Isadore B. Dockweiler of Ramona Parlor No. 109 N.S.G.W., Los Angeles, who was instrumental in having the bill passed, was also a speaker.

Among the many others in attendance were Junior Past Grand President Joseph J. McShane, Grand Third Vice-president Lloyd J. Cosgrove, Grand Secretary John T. Regan, Past Grand President Lewis F. Byington, Chairman Joseph E. Tinney of the San Francisco Extension of the Order Committee and Judge George W. Schonfeld.

HOMELESS CHILDREN BENEFIT.

The San Francisco N.S.G.W. and N.D.G.W. Homeless Children Committee will have its annual ball for the benefit of the homeless children at the Civic Auditorium Saturday evening, November 25. This year the benefit will be a costume affair, and all members of both Orders are expected to be garbed accordingly.

AN INEXPENSIVE CHRISTMAS GIFT that will be enjoyed throughout the year is THE GRIZZLY BEAR. Sent anywhere in the United States for $1.50; lower rate for clubs of five or more. Remember your friends with a year's subscription for 1940.

N.D.G.W. DISTRICT MEETING.

Plans are being made by Supervising Deputy Rena Taube and the San Francisco County deputies for a Native Daughter district meeting to be held Friday evening, November 10, at Native Sons Building, 414 Mason street. All Native Daughters are cordially invited to attend.—E.M.P.

BREAKFAST AT N.D. HOME.

Alta No. 3, Golden State No. 50, Fremont No. 59, La Estrella No. 89 and Portola No. 172 Parlor were hostesses at the October 8 breakfast at the Native Daughters Home. Elizabeth Muller presided, Anita Johnson led in the flag salute and Past Grand President Dr. Mariana Bertola gave the invocation.

Simeon Sheffield, the guest speaker, had for his subject "Americanism." Musical selections were contributed by Lola Horgan, Mrs. Block and Miss Heimen. Addresses were made by Grand Trustee Emily E. Ryan and Past Grand President Mae B. Wilkin. Dr. Bertola, chairman of the Grand Parlor Home Committee, gave an inspiring talk and invited all to be present December 15 and hear the talk on the "Anniversary of the Bill of Rights." Among the donations to the Home was $10 from the hostess Parlor. The singing of "God Bless America" and "The Star Spangled Banner" concluded the occasion.—E.G.F.

N.S.G.W.—NEWS PARAGRAPHS—N.D.G.W.

Grand Secretary Sallie R. Thaler announces that a daylight parlor of the Order of Native Daughters of the Golden West will be instituted at San Francisco Saturday afternoon, December 9, by Grand President Orinda Giannini. The parlor is being organized by Ann S. Dippel of Mission Parlor No. 227.

Las Lomas Parlor No. 72 N.D.G.W. sponsored a reception in honor of Grand Trustee Emily E. Ryan October 3. Dancing and refreshments followed a program of music. Among the 250 in attendance were Grand Trustees Loretta Cameron and Ethel Enos, Grand Organist Mae O'Keefe, Past Grand Maes Mae B. Wilkin, Mae Himes-Noonan and Evelyn I. Carlson, Supervising Deputy Rena Taube, Deputy Helen O'Connell.—F.H.W.

The feature event on the October calendar of Stanford Parlor No. 76 N.S.G.W. was the "Italian night" the 17th. Special food and entertainment were provided. John Dondero was in charge.

A ritual contest between South San Francisco Parlor No. 157 and Utopia Parlor No. 270 N.S.G.W., October 18, was won by the former with a score of 907 to 897. As the high scores indicate, the officers of both Parlor gave excellent renditions of the ritual. Jack Reid of South San Francisco, district deputy for Utopia, was highly praised for his accomplishment in training the officers of Utopia.

Golden Gate Parlor No. 158 N.D.G.W. added three new names to its membership roll October 9. October 14 the Parlor's drill team won third prize in a competition held by the Daughters of Norway. Mrs. Clara Strohmeier "pinch hit" for Grand Marshal Claire Lindsey, who is ill, and visited the children in San Francisco Hospital on Hallowe'en.—L.D.L.

Ever mindful of its civic duty, the drill team of Dolores Parlor No. 169 N.D.G.W. stood at attention as the torch inaugurating the 1939 Community Chest drive was lighted. Mrs. Anchar Nelson (Audrey Becker) was recently honored at a dinner and miscellaneous shower. Hallowe'en decorations and fun galore featured the October 25 social of the Parlor at which members of Dolores Parlor No. 208 N.S.G.W. were guests. Past Grand Evelyn I. Carlson directed the activities.—J.E.

"All members are earnestly urged to remember The Grizzly Bear Magazine, which is recommended to every Native Daughter as a means of education, inspiration and entertainment, most beneficial in its every influence, and worthy of a place in every home."—Past Grand President Bertha A. Briggs, Chairman Grand Parlor N.D.G.W. Publicity Committee.

Castro Parlor No. 178 N.D.G.W. entertained Castro Parlor No. 232 N.S.G.W. at a Hallowe'en party. Dancing was enjoyed, games were played and a light supper was served. Mms. Louise Straessler, chairman, Kathleen Bertetta, Muriel Hayes, Virginia McGuire, Tessie Schimel, Georgia Nelson and Bessie Wester constituted the committee that arranged the enjoyable evening.—B.W.

Twin Peaks Parlor No. 185 N.D.G.W. had an old-fashioned bazar October 24 at which lovely hand-made articles, appropriate gifts for Christmas or the bride-to-be, were placed on sale.—E.H.

Grand Historian Dr. Peter T. Conmy of Presidio Parlor No. 194 N.S.G.W. was the main speaker at the annual observance of Juan Rodriguez Cabrillo Day in the Civic Auditorium September 28.

With President Helen Scannell presiding, Utopia Parlor No. 252 N.D.G.W. initiated four candidates October 10. A surprise shower was given Mrs. Esther Craig, who was presented with a lovely gift from the members. October 19 Past President Pauline Mockel was honored at a dinner. A Hallowe'en party was enjoyed October 24; the hostesses were Pauline and Edna Mockel, Catherine and Gladys Cook.—K.S.

Past Presidents Association No. 1 N.D.G.W. was officially visited October 16 by Chief President Mattie M. Stein of the General Assembly, who was presented with a bouquet of beautiful roses. Following an impressive initiation Mrs. Stein gave an interesting talk on "Peace." A light supper was served at tables prettily decorated with favors made of California poppies. Mrs. Mae Marchand was chairman of the evening.—B.W.

"Governments, like individuals, cannot go along indefinitely unless the income is sufficient to meet the expenditures."—United States Senator Pat Harrison.

"Today is the time to be happy! No matter how young or how old, it's always today that must bring us the blessings our fortunes unfold."—Lawrence Hawthorne.

GRIZZLY GROWLS

CLARENCE M. HUNT.)

QUOTE FROM THE ARMISTICE DAY proclamation of President Franklin D. Roosevelt: "In the tragic situation in which the world finds itself today, with the destructive forces of war once again unleashed, it is appropriate for the people of the United States to reflect upon that hour of Nov. 11, 1918, when the voices of war were silenced, and to look forward even now to a time when a just and enduring peace shall be established among all the peoples of the earth."

The conflict raging in Europe is the main topic of conversation throughout the United States. Naturally, the people are giving it much thought, for there is growing fear that this Nation may be "eased" into the war. Propaganda, sponsored by foreigners, to bring that about is rampant. Here are opinions on the European situation expressed in and out of the Federal Congress the past month by nationally known real Americans:

United States Senator Hiram W. Johnson: "I speak with all the emphasis I can command, because I believe that we are on the brink of a precipice and that if we obey the commands that are issued to us—if we obey the commands of Britain and France—we are liable to be forced over the precipice."

Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh: "I do not believe that repealing the arms embargo would assist democracy in Europe, because I do not believe this is a war over democracy. This is a war over the balance of power in Europe—a war brought about by the desire for strength on the part of Germany and the fear of strength on the part of England and France."

United States Senator Bennett Champ Clark: "I have no time for nazism, fascism or communism. But I despise no less the Tory statesmen of France and England who deliberately broke down the liberal government of Germany. The tear-rusted, bloodstained gold which the United States got from the ill-omened trade in the World War has never been anything but a curse to us."

National Commander Raymond J. Kelly of the American Legion: "Stay clear! The waging of modern warfare necessitates singleness of control of all essentials of modern living. Power temporarily abrogated to those who govern are not later relinquished either easily or gracefully. If we refuse to be misled into war, the United States can be in a position to restore some semblance of order to the wreckage which other segments of the human race will have wrought. For us to become a belligerent would only bring with it the real danger of our sinking with the wreck."

United States Senator William E. Borah: "Did the cry for repeal [of the embargo provision of the Federal Neutrality Law] originate with, or does it spring from, the people of this country? Did the voice of labor initiate the agitation for repeal? Did the call for rejection come from the farm, the pulpit, or the pew, from the homes of America, from the families of America? Whence came the call? It came from the war lounds of Europe! If the purpose of the Embargo Act was to keep us out of war, what is the purpose of repealing it; to get us into war? Oh, no; I would not say the purpose but the inevitable effect of repealing it, in my judgment, would be to get us into war."

Herbert Hoover, former President of the United States: "We cannot create liberty and self-government in Europe. We cannot reconstruct Europe. The social regeneration of nations must come from within; it cannot come from without. America has a duty wholly to her own people. From them is coming a stern demand that we must not again sacrifice our youth for a useless hope. Our duty to our sons is to hold reason in power over emotion. It is to hold the long vision of America's future. It is to keep out of these wars!"

The American Red Cross will have its annual membership rollcall November 11-30. The dues of all will go to finance the increased activity of this worthy organization. Now as never before does the Red Cross need the co-operation of all, to serve humanity most effectively. Do your bit!

Propertyowners of California should not fail to vote at the November 7 special election called by the Governor. They have been forced to dig up about $800,000 additional taxes to meet the expense of the call. And they'll have to dig deeper unless they vote right.

CURB the oil hog!

CRACK DOWN ON THE OIL RACKETEERS!
For years a few unscrupulous, profit-mad Oil Barons have been throttling California's leading industry — draining the life's blood from your greatest natural resource. These merciless, self-appointed dictators have needlessly wasted your oil and caused millions of barrels to become isolated in the earth, never to be recovered.

STAMP OUT THE OIL PIRATES!
PROPOSITION 5 will break the money-grabbing racket of these Oil Racketeers. It prevents corruption, prohibits waste, enforces conservation and insures the consumer low-priced gasoline.

PRACTICE RECIPROCITY BY ALWAYS PATRONIZING GRIZZLY BEAR ADVERTISERS

In Memoriam

MARIAN O. CONROE

When the Grizzly Bear Magazine was first published in 1934, it was a small, modest publication. It was the work of a few women who were interested in the welfare of the Native Daughters of the Grizzly Bear. They were the ones who had the vision to see that there was a need for a publication that would give the members of the Order a place to express their thoughts and feelings, and to share their experiences with one another. It was a labor of love, and it was a labor that was well worth the effort. For today, the Grizzly Bear Magazine is a well-established and respected publication, and it is a testament to the vision and dedication of those who started it.

Grizzly Bear Magazine and The Daly City Record for publication. It was a labor of love, and it was a labor that was well worth the effort. For today, the Grizzly Bear Magazine is a well-established and respected publication, and it is a testament to the vision and dedication of those who started it.

WILLIAM G. MUNTZ.

Officers and Members of the Order of the Grizzly Bear, Sons of the Golden West, and the Grizzly Bear Magazine, in respect to the memory of our departed Brother and Charter Member William G. Muntz, herewith submit the following:

Whereas, On September 26, 1939, Brother William G. Muntz passed from this life, and his body lies beyond the portal that we call the Grand Parlor on High, thus leaving a void in the ranks of the Order, but to us there remains the memory of his devotion to our Order, his pride in its achievements and his intense loyalty to its ideals, we hereby submit the following:

Resolved, That in the death of William G. Muntz, this Parlor has lost a loyal member, his family a devoted husband and father, and his friends a valued companion. Be it further Resolved, That we extend our sympathies to the family of Brother William G. Muntz in this hour of their affliction, that a copy of these resolutions be transmitted to them from this Parlor, that a copy be spread upon the minutes of this Parlor meeting, and that a copy be sent to The Grizzly Bear Magazine for publication.

Respectfully submitted,
 EDWARD KING,
 L. J. ASHWORTH
 A. LOPES,
 GEORGE TUTTLE,
 Resolutions Committee.

SAN BERNARDINO

SAN BERNARDINO—ARROWHEAD PARLOR No. 110 N.S.G.W. will have a large class of candidates for initiation at its Crestline Clubhouse November 4. It is expected that other southern California Parlors will also present candidates. The ritual will be exemplified by Grand President Jesse H. Miller, Grand Second Vice-president Edward T. Schnarr, Grand Third Vice-president Lloyd J. Cosgrove, Grand Secretary John T. Regan, Past Grand President Eldred L. Meyer, Grand Trustees Walter C. Richards and Walter E. Smith. Supper will be served prior to the ceremonies, and entertainment will be provided. James A. Olivias is chairman of the occasion.

October 15 Arrowhead had its first annual picnic for members and their families at Crestline. A noontime dinner was followed by dancing and games. Elmer Hoiem was chairman of the day. E. L. Spackman, professor of history and government at San Bernardino Junior College, addressed the Parlor on present-day affairs in the United States October 25. Past Grand President Walter D. Wagner, a member of Arrowhead residing in San Francisco, recently met with an accident which resulted in the breaking of his leg; he is now well on the road to recovery.

TO SEW FOR RED CROSS.

Ontario—Mrs. Daisy C. Kiler has succeeded Mrs. Marion Pierce as president of Ontario Parlor No. 251 N.D.G.W. Deputy Betty Sanders was a visitor September 28, when committees for the winter term were announced. The members voted to sell Christmas cards for the benefit of the Parlor. October 5 the Parlor sewing club met at the Alta Loma home of Mrs. Marion Pierce; a contributed luncheon was served at noon.

At Ontario's October 14 meeting it was voted

SANTA

(JAMES FRENCH DORRANCE.)

SANTA BARBARA—SANTA BARBARA Parlor No. 116 N.S.G.W. and Reina del Mar Parlor No. 126 N.D.G.W., acting through a joint legislative committee—Sylvia Griffith, chairman, Frank Huffman, Ida Ireland and Paul Sweetser—have made a careful study of the legislation to be voted on at the November 7 special election and recommendations have been sent all the members of both Parlors.

Calling attention to the fact that the Natives "stand pledged to preserve in every possible way the priceless heritage of commonwealth security handed down from pioneer days," the committee urges the members to use their influence "in bringing out a vote that will be conclusive in demonstrating that California is not ready to overthrow that which has taken so many decades to build."

The two Parlors co-operated to make a success of the annual fashion show and bridge party of Reina del Mar at Samarkand Hotel October 25. Fashions of men were included, Roy E. Gammill of Santa Barbara Parlor supplying the clothes and students of Santa Barbara State College wearing them. Mrs. C. M. Andera had charge of the exhibit of women's apparel. The show was directed by Mms. Elizabeth Coen and Ben Ashley.

Santa Barbara Parlor has awarded a scholarship at the Santa Barbara State College for the 1939-40 school year to Cliff Romer, senior class president and outstanding lineman on the football team. Junior members of Reina del Mar Parlor recently entertained at an enjoyable "dog patch sochul."

to sew for the Red Cross. October 17 several members journeyed to the Playa del Rey home of Mrs. Bee Herzberg to join in the celebration of her birthday. October 27 the Parlor had a Halloween party.—D.K.

WORKING HARD FOR BAZAR.

San Bernardino—Members of Lugonia Parlor No. 241 N.D.G.W. are spending much time and energy making plans for the annual fall carnival. In the past the affair has been both a social and a financial success. October 10 a sociable was enjoyed; appetizing refreshments were served by Rena Churchill and committee.

The sewing club of the Parlor, which has all-day sessions, with a potluck dinner at noon to which business women are invited, is working hard making articles for the coming bazar. During October the club met at the homes of Ada McNerny, Etta Reed, Mildred Meyer, Sylvia Gregory and Eleanor Jones.—M.B.

CHRISTMAS WITH FREMONT IN 1843

Dr. Peter T. Conmy, Grand Historian N.S.G.W.

(WRITTEN ESPECIALLY FOR THE GRIZZLY BEAR MAGAZINE.)

THERE IS SOMETHING ABOUT THE celebration of Christmas that makes people of all creeds, in all places and under the most peculiar circumstances want to observe the day in some manner. In the wilderness of the Frontier, in the frigidity of the Arctic and in the intense heat of the Tropics, Christmas is, to those who know about it, a day apart. Why this is so, is not hard to explain. To those who belong to the Christian religion, it is the birthday of the Founder. To those who do not claim Christianity as their own, it is a day on which a great figure is to be honored. In this article the reader is taken back to the year 1843 and shown a glimpse of the manner in which the great pathfinder, John C. Fremont, and his brave men spent the holiday season.

Before proceeding to a direct presentation of the Christmas observance by Fremont and his party, it may not be amiss to insert a few words about the background of the expedition in which he was engaged at that time. In 1842 he had headed an expedition to Oregon through the Rocky Mountain country. Successful in this, he spent the winter of 1842-43 writing his account of the journey. After this was completed, in March 1843, he began to plan a second expedition to the Far West. The projected expedition had as its aim the continuing of the Oregon pathfinding from South Pass, where he had turned back in 1842, on to the Columbia River. It was not planned to cover California, but as fate would have it he entered the area before his return to the States. Fremont's report to the United States Government of both the 1842 and the 1843-44 expeditions was printed by D. Appleton & Company of New York in 1846, and it is from facts contained therein (a primary source of history) that the present article is compiled.

A table on pages 183-186 of the report divides the 1843-44 expedition into two parts, namely, the outward journey and the homeward journey. The journey outward began May 29, 1843, in Kansas, and consisted of 2,766 miles of travel, ending at The Dalles, Oregon, November 4th, and Fort Vancouver, November 6th. The homeward journey began at The Dalles, November 25th. It was decided to return by a different route than the westward march had taken. Fremont desired to explore the Klamath country; he also wished to find St. Mary's Lake and a river known as the Buenaventura. By December 10th the party had traveled two hundred and fifty miles, and had reached Tlamath, or Klamath, Lake. He resumed the journey December 12th, turning eastward so as to eventually reach St. Mary's Lake, as Humboldt Lake in Nevada was then known. At this stage of the trek, the weather became severely cold and progress was indeed difficult. December 16th the climate became more favorable, hence they named a body of water which they came upon as Summer Lake. At this time they were three hundred and eighteen miles from The Dalles. From Summer Lake they moved in a general southeasterly direction. The 20th of the month they discovered Lake Albert, which Fremont named after the chief of the army corps to which he belonged. They remained at Lake Albert two days, setting out the 22nd. The expedition was now in a hard country. Fremont writes in his report for this date as follows:

"Today we left this forbidding lake. Impassable rocky ridges barred our progress to the eastward, and I accordingly bore off towards the south, over an extensive sage plain. At a considerable distance ahead, and to our left, was a range of snowy mountains, and the country declined gradually toward the foot of a high and nearer ridge immediately before us, which presented the feature of black precipices, now becoming common to the country. On the summit of the ridge snow was visible; and, there being every indication of a stream at its base, we rode on until after dark, but were unable to reach it, and halted among the sage-bushes on the open plain, without either grass or water."

The party awoke the morning of the 23rd to find the thermometer at 38 degrees, and Fremont wrote, "The country has a very forbidding appearance, presenting to the eye nothing but sage and barren ridges." This date also (the 23rd) they saw about ten miles in the distance a small lake and proceeded at once toward it. They traveled seven miles this day and reached the lake, which is described in the diary for the 24th as follows: "We found the water of the lake tolerably pure, and encamped at the farther end. There were some good grass and canes along the shore, and the vegetation at this place consisted principally of chenopodiaceous shrubs."

The activity of the party for the 24th, Christmas Eve, consisted in moving to the other end of the lake, a distance of fourteen miles, where they encamped for the night. The lake was called Christmas Lake. The expedition was then somewhere on what is now the Oregon-Nevada boundary, 446 miles from The Dalles. The diary entries for the days immediately preceding Christmas contain no mention of the coming great holiday. However, the party must have been aware of the approach of Yule, because they were awakened the morning of the 25th by the howitzer which was fired in honor of the event. Due to the need for pressing on, Fremont and his party had little time for sentimental relations this Christmas. In the absence of anything better, and recognizing the need for something out of the ordinary in connection with the event, he gave his men brandy with coffee and sugar, the only things he had to serve such a purpose. This done, they proceeded on their way, covering fourteen miles that day. The complete diary entry for the day is reproduced here:

"We were roused on Christmas morning, by a discharge from the small arms and howitzer, with which our people saluted the day and the name of which we bestowed upon the lake. It was the first time perhaps, in this remote and desolate region, in which it had been so commemorated. Always on days of religious or national commemoration, our voyagers expect some unusual allowance; and having nothing else I gave them each a little brandy (which I kept carefully guarded, as one of the most useful articles a traveler can carry) with some coffee and sugar, which here, where every eatable was a luxury, was sufficient to make them a feast. The day was sunny and warm; and, resuming our journey, we crossed some slight dividing grounds into a similar basin, walled in on the right by a lofty mountain ridge. The

Christmas Bells

(MINNA MCGARVEY.)

(Written Especially for The Grizzly Bear.)

The old piano wakens to a touch so loved and light

And echoes of "O Tannebaum" ring through the room tonight;

The stately tree seems list'ning to its own familiar song—

But oh, the years are many, and oh, the years are long—

"O Tannebaum, O Tannebaum!"

A troupe of strolling singers wending down the starlit street

Are singing Christmas carols, in voices clear and sweet,

An old, old song is drifting out upon the frosty air

The story of the manger and of Bethlehem, the fair.

"Silent Night, Holy Night!"

The cooing of the pigeons from the rafters overhead,

The muted lowing of the kine, the shifting of their tread,

Was His first lowly lullaby throughout the night so still,

When shepherds came adoring from their vigil on the hill.

"Adeste Fideles!"

From out a vast cathedral a flood of music swells

To mingle with the pealing of the wild, triumphant bells,

Ascending higher, sweeter, where the angel voices ring

A glad exultant chorus in greeting to The King.

"Noel, Noel!"

plainly beaten trail still continued, and occasionally we passed camping grounds of the Indians, which indicated to me that we were on one of the great thoroughfares of the country. In the afternoon I attempted to travel in a more eastern direction; but after a few laborious miles, was beaten back into the basin by an impassable country. There were fresh Indian tracks throughout the valley, and last night a horse was stolen. We encamped on the valley bottom, where there was creamlike water in ponds, colored by a clay soil and frozen over."

Fremont continued on during the days between Christmas and New Year without making much progress, because of the snow and the impassable nature of the country. New Year Eve he wrote the following: "Here we concluded the year 1843, and our New Year's eve was a rather gloomy one. The result of our journey began to be very uncertain; the country was singularly unfavorable to travel; the grasses being frequently of a very unwholesome character, and the hoofs of our animals were so worn and cut by the rocks, that many of them were lame, and could scarcely be got along." Nevertheless, Fremont was undaunted. The next morning the march was continued and twenty miles were covered.

From the description of the manner in which these brave explorers spent the two great holidays of the winter, one gains some idea of the sacrifice, personal and physical, which exploration demanded. Ninety-six years later, in this year of grace 1939, one may ride in the dead of winter along paved highways, in comfortable autocars, and with auto camps and towns interspersed all the way, through the same country that Fremont explored. Such is the result of a century of progress!

THE LETTER BOX

Comments on subjects of general interest and importance received from readers of The Grizzly Bear.

SAYS BODEGA BAY IN

SONOMA, NOT MARIN, COUNTY.

Editor Grizzly Bear: May I call your attention to an article printed in the November issue of The Grizzly Bear entitled "Old Bodega," by Dr. Peter T. Conmy, Grand Historian N.S.G.W. It seems that this writer has placed Bodega Bay in Marin County, whereas it is situated in Sonoma County, approximately fifty miles north of San Francisco and about fourteen miles west of Sebastopol.

The writer has been very familiar with Bodega Bay for upwards of fifty years and, unless everyone is mistaken, what is known as Bodega Bay is located as stated above. For your information, the United States Government, through its army engineers, has already approved the appropriation of $537,000 for the improvement of this bay.

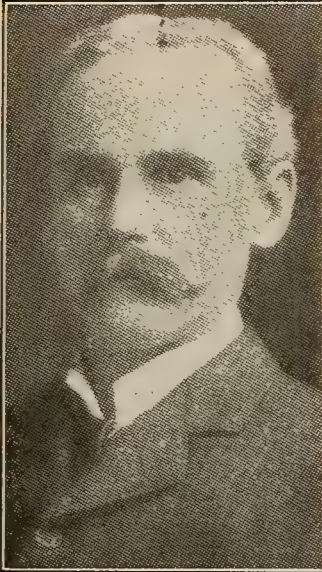

It is my opinion that the author of this article has confused Bodega Bay with Drake's Bay, which is located in Marin County and which is a small inlet near Point Reyes Lighthouse, while Bodega Bay is a large body of water between the Estero Americano and the Russian River and has quite a settlement on its shores.—J. P. KELLY, member Sebastopol Parlor N.S.G.W. Sebastopol, November 10, 1939.

The above was referred to Dr. Peter T. Conmy, Grand Historian N.S.G.W., writer of the article to which J. P. Kelly refers. Here is his reply:

"Upon investigation I find that Bodega is in Sonoma County, but just a little bit beyond the Marin boundary. He [J. P. Kelly] is wrong, however, when he assumes that I confused Bodega with Drake's Bay. I stated that Drake's Bay is south of Point Reyes, and Bodega north of it. I did, however, in my own mind confuse Bodega Bay with Tomales Bay, which is an inlet around the northern side of Point Reyes. Some of the old maps do, carelessly, place the name Bodega where Tomales Bay is located. Instead of being thirty miles north of San Francisco, Bodega is about sixty-five miles north of San Francisco, and a good distance above Point Reyes. It is, as said above, in Sonoma County."

A thriving harvest of Christmas trees from National Forest lands in California is reported by forest rangers. Regulated cutting of the trees is permitted by the United States Forest Service except in the Angeles, Cleveland, Los Padres and San Bernardino National Forests.

FAIRFAX H. WHEELAN, Founder Children's Work.

MEMBERS OF THE Junior Auxiliary of the Order of Native Daughters of the Golden West who are trying to know their California history, making clothes for the babies and manifesting a live interest in everything pertaining to Native Daughterism, and young eligibles who are old enough to join a Parlor, are not conscious, as a whole, of the indebtedness of the N.S.G.W. and the N.D.G.W. to the founder of the work for the Homeless Children, Fairfax H. Wheelan. This Native Son of Pacific Parlor No. 10 was firmly convinced that a vital interest in the "Children of today would mean an equal concern in the men and women of tomorrow."

Fairfax Wheelan devoted much of his busy life in the years 1908, 1909 and 1910 endeavoring to convince California men and women that caring for California children could be considered a job thoroughly consistent with their uniting for the common purpose of serving their state. He assured them there are hundreds of children born each year who, without their care and aid, might never know a home, affection, thoughtful training, and might never be given the chance to become decent citizens of California—or of any other state.

THE CHRISTMAS GAME.
"Gee! Maybe I'll get in as substitute."

HOMELESS CHILDREN

A Worthwhile Non-sectarian Endeavor Sponsored and Supported by the Orders of Native Sons and Native Daughters of the Golden West.

SANTA CLAUS GOT HERE A LITTLE AHEAD OF TIME WITH SISTER.

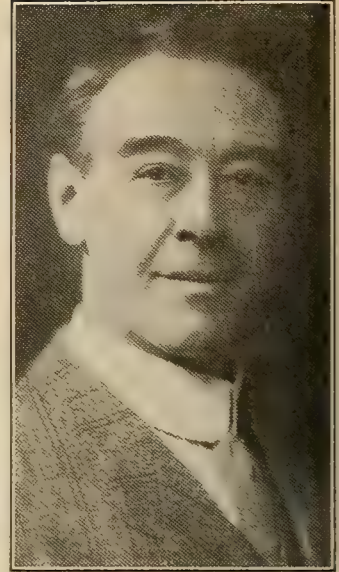

Wheelan served as a member of the N.S.G.W. and N.D.G.W. Central Homeless Children Committee until ill health made active service impossible, and death claimed the good man. The young members have been denied the inspiration of looking into his keen, brown eyes and kindly face, or knowing his kindlier nature, but they have caught his vision and, responding heartily, have been instrumental in helping to place 5,277 children in homes for adoption from 1901 to November 18, 1939.

Another Native Son about whom many of these younger members have heard from their parents was Senator Charles M. Belshaw, Past Grand President of the Native Sons, who served as the first chairman of the Central Committee and, until his sudden death, was an enthusiast year in and year out in the work for the children. "The Homeless Children is an obsession with 'Charley'," his friends used to say. Whether guest or host at a Christmas dinner, a New Year party, a birthday celebration, a gathering of business associates or friends who had served with him in the California Legislature, all were imperturbed by this zealous Native Son of General Winn Parlor No. 32, and they responded with generous contributions to the cause he so ardently sponsored.

The pictures of these two outstanding Sons of California in this issue of The Grizzly Bear will interest the young, and bring to the minds of the older members their sincere enthusiasm, and their willingness to work, not intensively once a year,—although both fully recognized this need,—but at ALL times and in ALL places, ever ready to affirm, from deep conviction, that those who find the way to bring happiness to and opportunity for a child have made the Angels sing.

For twenty-eight years, members of the Orders have generously supported the work and accepted responsibility, and fine men and women have served on the Central Committee and on local committees. The Native Daughters have found much to do in supervision, sewing, visiting, establishing the Milk Fund and, in their communities, speaking the necessary and friendly word of encouragement to wistful ones, denied children of their own, who have been patiently awaiting their turn to be considered for a child who needed them, and who, upon receiving a child, would say: "If we hadn't been compelled to wait as long as we have we should not have found Billy," or "We never could have found a child so wonderful as Betty." After twenty-eight years, hundreds of parents are able to say: "Our son" or "Our daughter has been a comfort and great joy to us since the day he" or "she came to us."

The Native Sons may not be particularly interested in baby clothes or "Thrice Told Tales" by the members of the "Only Child in California Club," but they are ever ready to protect the Christmas, when families gather to observe the Blessed Day, is almost here. Ahead is New Year, when old friends and new acquaintances meet to enjoy holiday cheer and to give thought to the year 1940.

Old Santa Claus will be on hand as usual December 24, willing to do his full part. Two hundred and twenty children live in homes whose chimneys he has been gazing wistfully down for nine, ten, thirteen years, hoping to find a stocking hanging from the mantle in the fading light of the fire.

Santa Claus may go looking for a stocking not so small, and in some nursery find and recognize a tiny face and figure, carefully tucked in a new crib, that he remembered having seen the previous year and wishing at that time that he carried milk and orange juice and codliver oil in his pack, instead of a fluffy doll and a colored

CALIFORNIA FIFTY YEARS AGO

Thomas W. McAuliffe, Historian Sacramento Parlor N.S.G.W.

(COMPILED EXPRESSLY FOR THE GRIZZLY BEAR MAGAZINE.)

DUE TO WINTER STORMS, DECEMBER 1889 was a disastrous month in California. Both the Central Pacific and the Santa Fe Railroads were blockaded by snow and train service was paralyzed. A passenger train was snow-bound in the Sierra Nevada at Gold Run, Placer County, for eight days. An eight-day tieup at Barstow, San Bernardino County, was lifted December 30, and 2,000 sacks of mail and a large number of passengers were landed at San Bernardino City. Snow was twenty feet deep at Sierra City, Sierra County.

High water prevailed throughout the state. The Sacramento River went out of its banks and flooded Yolo County. The Santa Ana River overflowed and damaged many Orange County orchards. The Laguna Rancho in Los Angeles County was a lake five miles in length and twenty feet in depth.

A landslide at Middle Creek, Shasta County, December 1 knocked a railroad train down a deep embankment. Engineer Charles R. Baxter was killed.

While making an inspection December 16 of the damage done by the rush of water, O. W. Wilson was drowned in Rose Canyon, San Diego County.

Farmer J. H. Backus of Santa Paula, Ventura County, was crossing a bridge December 13 weakened by the rains. It gave way and he was precipitated into a deep stream, sustaining injuries from which he died the following day.

Although the weather was stormy and disagreeable, Christmas Day, December 25, was celebrated throughout California.

Donation day, proposed several years previously by Mrs. Hason, an invalid, was observed at Grass Valley, Nevada County, December 20. Each pupil took to school a stick of wood or some potatoes. A parade was formed and, led by the Salvation Army band, paraded the business district. Coin and a quantity of groceries were collected and, with the pupils' donations, distributed among the needy.

The mining camp of Deadwood, Siskiyou County, burned December 1.

Godfrey Rittinger of Colfax, Placer County, while riding in his buggy December 2 toppled over dead.

Mrs. Thos. Consolation was cremated near Lincoln, Placer County, December 7, when her home on the Ira G. Holt ranch was destroyed by fire.

At Fresno December 9, A. H. Cummings was awarded a $17,000 judgment against J. D. Fiske for malicious arrest.

Former Police Chief Cuddy of Los Angeles was fined $750 by Judge Erskine M. Ross for attempting to bribe a juror.

The Downieville, Sierra County, stage was held up December 15 by a lone highwayman near Nevada City. The passengers were relieved of $145.

George McQuade, sheriff of Tuolumne County, died December 16 at Sonora.

William J. Cady, member of the Society of California Pioneers, died December 12 at San Francisco.

Sporting Editor Ben Benjamin of the San Diego Union publicly chastised Editor W. G. Smith of the San Diego Evening Sun December 19.

The distillery and other property of the Fresno Vineyard Company were seized by United States internal revenue collectors December 19. It was the largest seizure ever made in California.

rattle. Thoughtfully, he will stroke his long, white beard and say: "Um, um! I know now what has happened," and immediately he will slip some extra toys on the foot of the crib and, ever conscious of the dread that some little one might be missed, will softly whisper:

"If I should miss any little ones around these parts, these goodhearted folk will hear about it, and the toys will be delivered to the children Christmas morning." And, as he looks up at the wintry sky and pulls his collar about his ears, he will smile and say: "By jove! These California Native Sons and Native Daughters surely know their HOMES!"

General W. H. Dimond was confirmed as superintendent of the United States Mint at San Francisco December 20.

Sixteen miners lost their lives in a cavern at the Lane Mine, Angels Camp, Calaveras County, December 22.

A cavern December 24 at the Kennedy Mine, Jackson, Amador County, resulted in the death of James S. McDonald, who had just gone to work.

While preparing breakfast December 26, the clothing of Mrs. Elizabeth McKay of Eureka, Humboldt County, caught fire. She was frightfully burned, and soon died.

Coming in contact with the anchor chain of the United States Navy's Albatross at Vallejo, Solano County, December 25, a pleasure boat upset and three members of the war vessel's crew—John Enright, Robert Padgett and W. W. Lee—and a lame newsboy were drowned.

Pioneer David Hinds, Santa Cruz City's second mayor, died there December 2.

The schooner Barbara went ashore at Shelter Cove December 12 and was a total loss.

At the Manzanita Mine near Nevada City, Nevada County, the face of the old hydraulic bank, 600 feet high, split off December 14 and did considerable damage.

Editor W. Ellis of the Woodland, Yolo County, Mail was arrested for libel December 18.

Sixty carloads of wine were shipped East from Livermore, Alameda County, December 13.

Willabaugh Cole and George Gard were appointed United States Attorney and United States Marshal, respectively, for the southern district of California.

First Mate Chas. Stevens and Second Mate Wm. Higgonson of the ship Durham drowned in San Francisco Bay December 22.

Daniel G. Barton, who made $350,000 in San Francisco in four years and squandered it in riotous living, died December 23 at Cucamonga, San Bernardino County.

Athletic Park in Los Angeles City was opened December 20. The dedicatory address was delivered by W. H. Workman, former mayor.

The Lyceum Theater building burned in San Francisco December 27, and four bodies were taken from the ruins.

While intoxicated, James Madison Eubanks of Los Gatos, Santa Clara County, shot and killed his 16-year-old daughter December 22.

In Placerville, El Dorado County, was a cracked pane of glass originally set in the log cabin of a Pioneer on Hangtown Creek in 1848. Upon the glass were the following lines, scratched by the late Professor William Frank Stewart, whose signature was at the bottom: "Touch me gently, Friend of Mine, I am all that is left of '49. Many a long-forgotten Face hath pressed me in my good old place. Many a heart, e'er true and warm, hath watched through me the coming storm. A moral on my Face is cast, which all must truly learn at last: Man's hopes and fears are all, alas, like me, a broken Pane of Glass."

Holiday Greetings

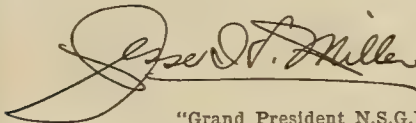

TO ALL OFFICERS AND MEMBERS of Subordinate Parlor, Native Sons of the Golden West—Dear Sirs and Brothers: Greetings!

"During the past year our Order has been making splendid progress in carrying on the work for which it was conceived and organized. From all parts of the State have come encouraging reports of progress and fraternal co-operation. As Grand President, I have a profound feeling of gratitude for the splendid support which is being accorded me, and to each and every one of you I wish to express my thanks for the work done in building a stronger Order of Native Sons of the Golden West.

"I wish to extend to you, one and all, my sincerest hope and wish that the coming Christmas holiday will bring to you and yours the true feeling and spirit of the season, to the end that as Americans we can appreciate the true meaning and spirit of the words 'Peace on Earth, Good Will to Man.'

"As the New Year, 1940, approaches, permit me to express my earnest and heartfelt wish that the New Year will find you enjoying all the blessings of Health, Happiness and Prosperity, and that this New Year will bring to you and yours the realization of your fondest hopes and wishes.

"A Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year! Sincerely and Fraternal yours,

"Grand President N.S.G.W.

Oldtimers' Resting Place Dedicated.

San Diego—Historic Mission Hills Cemetery, the last restingplace of more than 3,000 oldtimers, was dedicated to the memory of the Pioneers by San Diego No. 108 November 26. A five-foot granite boulder, weighing about two tons, contains the names of the individuals and the organizations that contributed to the restoration of the cemetery.

Judge William J. Collard presided at the ceremonies, and the speakers included Bishop Buddy, President Henry W. Hache of the Parlor, Mayor P. J. Benbough, Herbert Legge, representing the WPA in southern California, and Deputy Grand President Albert V. Mayrhofer. Instrumental music was furnished by the Bonham band.

High School Students Compete.

Elk Grove—The twenty-third annual history oratorical contest sponsored by Elk Grove No. 41 and Liberty No. 213 N.D. for Elk Grove High School students was held November 10. George Morse, student body chairman, was declared the winner; his subject was "Portola, the Trail Blazer of California." In second place was Henry Penner, who spoke on "One Man's Life."

Other contestants, and their subjects, were: Kenneth Bailey, "Sacramento the Indomitable;" Robert Mullen, "The Saga of the Sierra;" Francois Sylvia, "Joaquin Murieta, Ghost of Sonora;" Nancy Batey, "Trail's End;" Pauline Gobel, "The University Fulfills a Dream;" Ida Loretz, "The Spirit of the Franciscan Fathers."

Cambria Parlor Reorganized.

Cambria—Cambria No. 152, instituted a half-century ago, was reorganized November 18 under the direction of Past Grand Hartley Russell, Grand Trustee Walter C. Richards and Grand Secretary John T. Regan. From all indications it will carry on in the future as in the past. Fifteen candidates were initiated, the ritual being exemplified by the following:

President, Grand Secretary John T. Regan; junior past president, District Deputy John M. Reid, South San Francisco No. 157; senior past president, J. M. Soto, Cambria No. 152; first vice-president, Past Grand Hartley Russell; second vice-president, Supervising Deputy James P. Call; third vice-president, Dan J. Collins, South San Francisco No. 157; marshal, Grand Trustee Walter C. Richards; inside sentinel, George W. Gillespie, charter member Cambria No. 152.

The following newly-elected officers of the Parlor were installed by Deputy Reid: Charles Camozzi, president; Leo A. Nock, first vice-president; Roy M. Evans, second vice-president; Edwin Soto, third vice-president; Donald E. Evans, recording and financial secretary; Lloyd A. Jung, treasurer; Archie Soto, marshal; George W. Gillespie, Tony Williams and J. M. Soto, trustees. At the meeting's conclusion a banquet was served by El Pinal No. 163 N.D.

Organize for Admission Day.

Sacramento—The local Natives have begun preparations for the three-day statewide celebration of Admission Day here next year. At a meeting November 18 the following officers of a general committee were elected: June J. Longshore, Sacramento No. 3, chairman; Edward E. Reese, Sunset No. 26, vice-chairman; Albert W. Katzenstein, Sutter Fort No. 241, secretary; L. P. Ferron, Sutter Fort No. 241, treasurer. Committee members from Sacramento County Parlor include:

La Bandera No. 110 N.D., Past Grand Edna B. Briggs, Genevieve Didion, Elsie O'Brien; Sutter No. 111 N.D., Leona Blakely, Christena Finley, Marnia Bundy; Coloma No. 212 N.D., Florence Morris, Grace McNeil, Emily Hansen; Liberty No. 213 N.D., Katherine Martin, Dora Gerrich, Muriel Barrett; Rio Rito No. 253 N.D., Mildred Stout; Sacramento No. 3 N.S., J. N.S.G.W.—NEWS PARAGRAPHS.—N.S.G.W.

Sacramento—Sunset No. 26 started November 13 a series of whist parties. Clyde Corcoran is the general chairman.

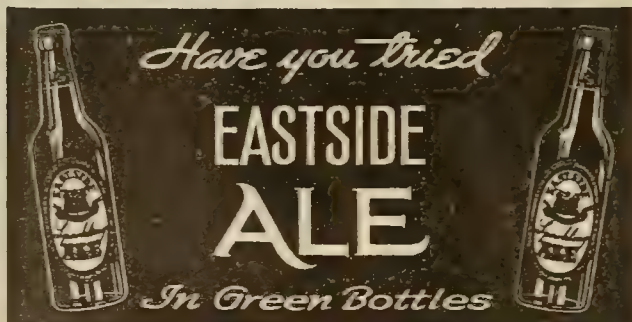

Petaluma—John William Murphy, long an enthusiastic member of Petaluma No. 27 and a delegate at many Grand Parlor, died November 15 at Oakland, survived by his wife and a son, Dr. John M. Murphy, also a member of No. 27. He was born at Petaluma, September 9, 1864.

Santa Rosa—Charles Oliver Dunbar, collector United States customs for northern California and a long-time member of Santa Rosa No. 28, died at The Geysers, November 5, survived by his wife and a son. He attended several sessions of the Grand Parlor, and served the Order as grand outside sentinel, grand inside sentinel, grand marshal and grand trustee. He was born at Glen Ellen, Sonoma County, May 24, 1871.

Woodland—James William Monroe, sheriff of Yolo County for twenty-eight years, died November 1, survived by his wife and seven children. Born at Winters, Yolo County, August 5, 1867, he was a charter member of Woodland No. 30 and represented the Parlor at the Fortieth and the Sixty-second Grand Parlor.

Saint Helena—Saint Helena No. 53 will have its annual turkey dinner December 4. Members of the softball team will be special guests. The committee of arrangements includes J. L. Goodman, Francis White and Raymond Palmer.

Napa—Napa No. 62 entertained several visitors from Saint Helena and Vallejo October 30. Grand Outside Sentinel George Bruno, Frank

Harrison and George Flanagan were among the speakers. December 9 the Parlor will have a "fun frolic" for the benefit of the homeless children.

Vallejo—"Golden Ideas," staged by the drum corps of Vallejo No. 77, attracted a large crowd November 14. The Parlor presented a California
State (Bear) Flag to the Vallejo City Council
November 17. Police Judge Rolland L. Pope made the presentation address.

Weaverville—Robert Lee Carter, who served Trinity County for forty-two years as clerk, recorder and auditor, died November 4 at San Francisco, survived by his wife and two children.
He was born at Hayfork, Trinity County, November 19, 1863, and was affiliated with Mount Bally No. 87.

Ferndale—Ferndale No. 93 was the host when, November 20, Grand Trustee R. G. Power paid an official visit to the three Humboldt County Parlor—Humboldt No. 14, Eureka, Arcata
No. 20 and Ferndale—in joint session here. A dinner preceded the meeting, which was followed by a special entertainment attraction prepared for the occasion.

Livermore—Grand Historian Dr. Peter T.
Conny November 30 addressed Las Positas No.
96 on "The Life of General John A. Sutter." The Parlor is arranging for its annual Christmas tree party for the less-fortunate children of Livermore Valley.

Salinas—Santa Lucia No. 97 initiated a class of candidates November 6, the ritual being exemplified by a team of past presidents headed by Everall Adcock. A supper, in charge of Frank Lanini and George McDougall, preceded the ceremonies.

Oakland—Officers of Piedmont No. 120 visited South San Francisco No. 157, October 25, to compete in the Parlor's semi-annual ritual contest. The final score: South San Francisco 934, Piedmont 911. A banquet followed the ritual ceremonies. Grand Trustee Richard F. Mc-Carthy was among the speakers of the evening.

Murphys—Dr. George F. Pache of Chispa No.
139, a true example of "the country doctor" who practiced real charity as well as his profession, died December 12 at Stockton. He was born at Stockton June 30, 1865, and was a delegate at several Grand Parlor.

Lower Lake—Lower Lake No. 159 had its eleventh annual dance for the benefit of the homeless children November 23.

Fort Bragg—Alder Glen No. 200 and Fort Bragg No. 210 N.D. had their annual whist party for the benefit of the homeless children November 10. Refreshments were served.

Los Banos—Los Banos No. 206 November 17 presented United States of America and California State (Bear) Flags to the local Justice Court. President Emil Polletta made the presentation address, to which Peace Justice D.
Oliver Germino responded.

Napa—Napa-Solano Assembly No. 11 of Past
Presidents has reorganized and elected George Bruno governor and Elmer Miller recording secretary. Installation and initiation will be held December 2.

THE ANNUAL DISTRICT MEETING conducted by the San Francisco County N.D.G.W. deputies November 10 was most successful. The theme of the occasion, "Friendship," was carried out in the friendship chains carried by the deputies who, gowned in American beauty moire taffeta and carrying silver wreaths, made a beautiful picture as escorts.

President Ann Duddy and a capable corps of officers exemplified the ritual in a very inspiring manner. Grand President Orinda G. Giannini, the speaker of the evening, had for her subject "Friendship." Among the many others in attendance were Grand Vice-president Hazel B. Hansen, Grand Secretary Sallie R. Thaler, Grand Treasurer Agnes M. Curry, Grand Trustees Ethel C. Enos, Loretta M. Cameron, Emily E. Ryan and Dora Brayton, Grand Organist Mae E. O'Keefe, Past Grand Presidents Dr. Mariana Bertola, May Boldeman, Mae Himes Noonan, Evelyn I. Carlson and Anne C. Thuesen.—E.M.P.

FIFTY-EIGHTH BIRTHDAY REUNION.

Pacific Parlor No. 10 N.S.G.W. had its fifty-eighth anniversary reunion in Native Sons Hall November 14. It was an oldtimers night, and many of the old faithfuls, including three charter members hail and hardy at the age of 83, were in attendance.

Bert Paolinelli was chairman of arrangements. Chas. Steinbach filled the president's station with ability and vigor, and Joseph F. Tinney gave an eloquent resume of the Order's accomplishments. It was inspiring to sense the enthusiasm of the older members and to hear them relate the joy that was theirs in having participated in the Order's endeavors to keep alive the traditions of California. After the meeting a buffet supper was served under the direction of Cornelius Ryan, and then followed an array of entertainment. The occasion, which overflowed with goodfellowship, will long be remembered.—E.S.

ALAMEDA COUNTY DEPUTIES HOSTESSES.

The Alameda County deputy grand presidents were hostesses at the N.D.G.W. Home breakfast November 12. Supervising Deputy Olinda Kardoza presided and extended a welcome. The colors were presented, and the salute and the pledge to the flag were given. Prayer was offered by Grand Secretary Sallie R. Thaler.

The guest-speaker, Chris. B. Fox of Athens Parlor No. 195 N.S.G.W., judge of the Oakland Municipal Court, spoke on "Armistice Day and Our Status in Regard to War at the Present Time." Other speakers were Grand President Orinda G. Giannini, Grand Secretary Thaler, Past Grand Presidents Dr. Mariana Bertola, Mae B. Wilkin and Evelyn I. Carlson, Grand Trustees Emily Ryan and Dora Brayton.

Approximately a hundred members of the Order were in attendance, including representatives of twenty-three Subordinate Parlors and the following Alameda County deputies: Anna Lewis, Marion White, Edna Dobbels, Roumilda Rose, Florence Hills, Katherine Plumb, Irma Caton, Gertrude Dalton, Mae Fields, Marie Silva and Esther Ragon. The gathering adjourned in respect to the memory of the late Past Grand President Eliza D. Keith.—S.R.T.

N.S. HISTORY BOARD MEETS.

The California History Board of the N.S.G.W. Grand Parlor met November 16 in the office of Grand Secretary John T. Regan. In attendance were Grand Historian Dr. Peter T. Conmy, who presided, Rev. Thomas J. McKeon, Emmett P. Joy, William C. Latham, Frank C. Merritt and Joseph E. Tinney.

The Board discussed the matter of the history of the Bear Flag Party on which the Order's University of California history fellow has been working four years.

N.D.G.W.—NEWS PARAGRAPHS.—N.S.G.W.

Minerva Parlor No. 2 N.D.G.W. and California Parlor No. 1 N.S.G.W. enjoyed a spaghetti dinner, cooked by Minerva's members, at the Grizzly Bear Club November 14. A short program of silent "flickers" and music was followed by dancing. The occasion was greatly enjoyed, and the Parlors plan more social activities.—E.M.P.

Mission Parlor No. 38 N.S.G.W. was officially visited November 15 by Grand Trustee Raymond D. Williamson. In his honor, Chairman Howard Stewart of the good of the order committee arranged an "international night."

South San Francisco Parlor No. 157 N.S.G.W. had its twentieth annual Armistice Day banquet, in commemoration of the ending of the greatest war in the world's history, November 8. Two hundred members attended. Past Grand Judge Fletcher A. Cutler spoke of the wars in which the United States of America participated, and at the conclusion of his lengthy discourse received a tremendous ovation. Grand Trustee Wayne R. Millington was also a speaker. Billie Sarcander, the boy accordionist, favored with selections; he is a son of Bill Sarcander of South San Francisco Parlor.

The pillowcase whist of Dolores Parlor No. 169 N.D.G.W. November 3 was a financial and social success; Past Grand Evelyn I. Carlson was the chairman, and George Stelling of Dolores Parlor No. 208 N.S.G.W. directed the play. Two candidates were initiated November 10, and Emma O'Meara presented a program. November 11, Charlotte Arrigoni and Rose Spaelti visited Letterman Hospital; greetings were extended and cigarettes were distributed to the veterans. The Parlor's drill team, which won a trophy at the San Rafael fiesta, participated in the homeless children benefit ball. Myrtle Bottini and Ellen Rahill have returned from a month's visit in Honolulu.—J.B.

Castro Parlor No. 178 N.D.G.W. will have its annual Christmas dinner party December 20: Mrs. Eva Kearse is in charge of arrangements. Mrs. Mae Waring headed the committee that arranged the Parlor's participation in the homeless children benefit ball.—B.W.

Grand Historian Dr. Peter T. Conmy of Presidio Parlor No. 194 N.S.G.W. is scheduled to lecture before Pacific Parlor No. 10 N.S.G.W. December 5, and San Francisco Parlor No. 49 N.S.G.W. December 14.

"All members are earnestly urged to remember The Grizzly Bear Magazine, which is recommended to every Native Daughter as a means of education, inspiration and entertainment, most beneficial in its every influence, and worthy of a place in every home."—Past Grand President Bertha A. Briggs, Chairman Grand Parlor N.D.G.W. Publicity Committee.

Castro Parlor No. 232 N.S.G.W. November 18 presented a California State (Bear) Flag to Peter J. Mullins, a member of the Parlor, presiding judge of the San Francisco Municipal Court. Participating in the ceremonies were Grand Trustee Raymond D. Williamson, Past Grand Harmon D. Skillin, James A. Toner, Leonard Worthington, Emmet B. Hayes, A. J. Branagan, Edward F. Mancuso and John Murphy. James B. Storey, a charter member of Castro, died November 12, survived by his wife and a daughter; he was born at San Francisco, September 5, 1870.

Utopia Parlor No. 252 N.D.G.W. entertained at a corned-beef and cabbage dinner November 14; Past Grand Evelyn I. Carlson and Betty Both were guests. November 28 a successful whist party was held; Edna Mockel was the chairman.—K.S.

President Anita Gambini entertained members of Past President Association No. 1 N.D.G.W. at cards November 6. Mrs. Anne Dippel is chairman of the Association's annual Christmas party, to be held December 18.—B.W.

SAN BERNARDINO

CRESTLINE (SAN BERNARDINO COUNCIL) At the meeting of Arrowhead Parlor No. 110 N.S.G.W. November 4, attended by large delegations from all the southland Parlor, twenty-five candidates were initiated—twenty-four for Arrowhead and one for Compton Parlor No. 273. The ritual was exemplified by the following:

Grand Secretary John T. Regan, president; Past Grand President Eldred L. Meyer, junior past president; Past Grand President Chas. A. Koenig, senior past president; Grand President Jesse H. Miller, first vice-president; Grand Second Vice-president Edward T. Schnarr, second vice-president; Grand Third Vice-president Lloyd J. Cosgrove, third vice-president; Supervising Deputy Grand President Roy Tarleton, marshal; Grand Trustee Walter E. Smith, inside sentinel; Grand Organist Roger Johnson, pianist.

At the conclusion of the ceremonies addresses were made by Grand President Miller, and State Assemblyman Gordon W. Corwin, who represented the initiates. Previous to the initiation the 150 in attendance were guests of Arrowhead at supper. November 5 the visiting grand officers were the guests of Judge Donald E. Van-Luven, a former grand trustee.

Through Senator Miguel Estudillo, the Parlor presented a California State (Bear) Flag to the American Legion November 7. The annual Thanksgiving dinner for members and their families was served November 29. December 6 Arrowhead will present a fifty-year-membership pin to Associate Justice Jesse W. Curtis of the California Supreme Court.

SANTA

BARBARA

(JAMES FRENCH DORRANCE.)

SANTA BARBARA WITH GRAND PARLOR admonition in mind, members of Reina del Mar Parlor No. 126 N.D.G.W. assembled with Thanksgiving motif the evening of November 21 in the interest of veterans welfare. The program, presented under the direction of Mrs. Henry Griffith, featured Mrs. Muriel Edwards, a Native Daughter who has won national recognition in the educational field and who has served several terms as Santa Barbara County superintendent of schools.

Her subject was "Our County Schools." She indicated that the splendid facilities of the schools were in part due to the fact that they were able to reach out into the wealthy agricultural and oil areas of the county for support; declared that the rural areas were alive to the responsibilities and opportunities of citizenry in these changing times; expressed the opinion that in no other county of California was the child receiving better training to meet his obligations to the state, and complimented Reina del Mar on its endeavor to preserve historic landmarks.

Juniors to Extend Christmas Cheer.

The afternoon of December 2 the Parlor will offer at El Encanto, on the Santa Barbara Riviera, an important program dedicated to the interests of child care, the committees on homeless children and milk fund serving as hostesses. From 3 to 5 o'clock Miss Dorothy Schlingman, secretary of the Los Angeles branch of the N.S.G.W. and N.D.G.W. Central Homeless Children Committee, and members of the child care section of the Santa Barbara County Council of Social Agencies will be guests of honor. The affair will close the social program of the administration of Mrs. Eugene Ireland, who will be assisted in receiving by her corps of officers, Mms. Wesley McCormick and John D. Ross, Grand Parlor deputies, and members of Grand Parlor committees.

Reina del Mar's Juniors, headed by Misses Mary Ronk and Doris Moses, in charge of the Parlor's participation in the community Christmas cheer movement, will arrange an entertaining program for the evening of December 19. Admission will be a toy, which will go to some underprivileged child. The civic committee, of which Mms. William Wegener and Fred Davis are co-chairmen, is in charge of the Christmas participation of the Parlor.

ANNUAL THANKSGIVING FEAST.

Determined to celebrate Thanksgiving regardless of differences of opinion throughout the nation as to the day of November that should be proclaimed, Santa Barbara Parlor No. 116 N.S.G.W., under the presidency of Frank Huffman, enjoyed its annual Thanksgiving feast the evening of November 16. The turkeys were handled by Captain I. A. Bonilla and the good of the order committee. A large class of candidates was also initiated, the ritual being exemplified by a team headed by Paul Sweetser.

Governor General Walter E. Hiskey, 1501 South McClay street. Preceding the meeting, at which officers will be nominated and elected, a barbecued steak dinner will be served at 7 o'clock.

SUCCESSFUL CARNIVAL.

San Bernardino—Lugonia Parlor No. 241 N.D.G.W. had a very successful carnival October 27. After the meeting Hazel Poole surprised by having a social; cakes and coffee were served.

November 14, a potluck supper was followed by the initiation of two candidates. Under good of the order Wilma Roberts gave a reading and the Parlor quartet—Thelma Nett, Nola Noyes, Marguerite McKenzie and Margaret Boehm—rendered two selections. Deputy Marguerite Mize was among the many visitors.—M.B.

A soil management extension school for growers of deciduous fruits, grapes, field crops, forage crops and alfalfa will be conducted at Ontario, San Bernardino County, December 5 by the University California College Agriculture.

"ORIGINAL" NATIVE SON DEAD.

San Francisco—Charles William Welch, affiliated with Niantic Parlor No. 105 N.S.G.W., died November 18. He was one of the original charter members of the Order, his name being No. 45 on the list filed with the secretary of state at the time the Order was incorporated. Welch was born at San Francisco, March 28, 1855.

HOLLISTER—THE PARLORS OF DISTRICT No. 27, comprising Santa Cruz, Monterey and San Benito Counties, had their annual district overnite meeting near Soquel November 4 and 5. The theme was "California Women in History and Romance." Supervising Deputy Mary Gregory Antonetti was in charge of plans. Ninety-five were seated at the supper tables, bright with autumn foliage, blossoms and fruits. Song sheet covers were fashioned as autumn leaves; Leona Geyer was the song leader.

Pearl Reid, former grand trustee, and Presidents Dorothy Barber of Santa Cruz No. 26, Vira Albough of Aleli No. 102, Salinas, and Erma Pivetti of Copa de Oro No. 105, Hollister, gave sketches of the fraternal activities, respectively, of Past Grands Stella Finkeldey, Mae B. Wilkin, Ariana W. Stirling and Bertha A. Briggs. An interesting story of Sara Eleanor Royce, pioneer woman of note, was related by Grand President Orinda G. Giannini.

Following the supper, Aleli No. 102 gave three colorful scenes from "Ramona;" San Juan Bautista No. 179 honored Pioneer Mothers of the Donner Party; Copa de Oro No. 105 featured Phoebe Apperson Hearst, benefactress and friend of education, in a candle lighting ceremony; El Pajaro No. 35, Watsonville, broadcast a sketch of Gertrude Atherton, noted writer; Santa Cruz No. 26 presented shadow pictures of the life of Mrs. A. S. C. Forbes, originator of the mission bell signposts.

During the midnite frolic Santa Cruz presented several clever skits, after which community singing and story telling were enjoyed until an early morning hour, and buffet refreshments were served. During the Sunday morning breakfast hour there was a round table discussion of matters of importance to the participating Parlors. A pleasant hike through the redwoods terminated the happy occasion.

Past Grand Passes.

San Francisco—Past Grand President Eliza D. Keith, affiliated with Alta No. 3, passed away November 6. She was born at San Francisco, January 17, 1859, and for more than thirty-five years taught in the city's schools.

Miss Keith was elected Grand President at the Sixteenth (San Francisco 1902) Grand Parlor, and presided at the Seventeenth (Red Bluff 1903) Grand Parlor. At the time of her passing she was, as Historian of the Order, compiling a history of the Order and had completed some forty-nine years. She was a recognized authority on parliamentary procedure.

School Dedication.

Coalinga—Under the auspices of Coalinga No. 270, the new auditorium of the Coalinga High School was formally dedicated October 28. President Freida Martin presided, and greetings were extended by Rachel Dozier. Grand President Orinda Giannini was the principal speaker of the evening. On the Parlor's behalf, Margaret O'Connor presented a California State (Bear) Flag, which was accepted for the school by President R. B. Dunsmuir.

At the conclusion of the ceremony, Grand President Giannini was honor-guest of the Parlor at a dinner at the home of Christine Jensen.

Come Out and Help the Kiddies.

San Jose—The annual card party of San Jose No. 81 and Vendome No. 100, and San Jose No. 22 and Observatory No. 177 N.S. will be held December 8 at Scottish Rite Hall. An invitation to attend is extended the general public. "Come out, everybody," urges Clara A. Gairaud, "and help the kiddies!" State Chairman Sue Mattei and Margaret Farnsworth paid a visit to the Veterans Hospital at Palo Alto and left five boxes of apples, twenty-two decks of cards and a quantity of magazines.

The sewing club of Vendome, Winifred Laffey chairman, has taken a lead in social affairs. During November Ella Graham and Margaret Farnsworth opened their homes for parties. The past presidents club of the Parlor had a Thanksgiving party at the home of Marian Martin November 15; Beldon Gallagher, Lucy Blackwell, Lotta Koppel and Julia Waddington were the social hostesses. Ada Fox and Hulda Hertz were recent southland visitors.

Nineteen Initiated.

Los Banos—Grand President Orinda Giannini paid an official visit November 1 to Lomitas No. 255, and in her honor nineteen candidates were initiated. The hall was attractively decorated with greenery and brown chrysanthemums. Other visitors included Grand Trustee Ethel Enos, Supervising Deputy Eleanor Lewis and Deputy Lillian Stammerjohn. The grand officers and the initiates were conducted to places of honor by an escort team, gowned in peach and green, which included Dorothy Cesario, Celestine Vignau, Anne Alberti, Josephine Foletta, Mary Castelucci and Gloria Papaleo. The Grand President complimented the Parlor on its progress. A short entertainment program preceded the serving of refreshments.

Members of the Parlor and their guests were entertained at a potluck dinner November 15 by the losing team of the membership drive. For the benefit of the homeless children, Lomitas will have a card party December 6. In charge of arrangements are Loraine Toscano, chairman, Ange Perneti, Mary Castelucci, Deila Souza, Blanche Degregori, Jean Jerome, Velda Negra and Laureatte Stockton.

Many at School Dedication.

San Andreas—In the presence of twelve hundred adults and schoolchildren, the officers of San Andreas No. 113 dedicated the new San Andreas Elementary School November 14. A flag drill by pupils of the school preceded the program, at which Grand Inside Sentinel Doris Treat presided.

Superior Judge J. A. Smith gave an interesting account of San Andreas' early history, Grand President Orinda G. Giannini addressed the assemblage on "Education." William Grant sang "I Love You, California," and Grand First Vice-president Henry S. Lyon of the Native Sons stirred his hearers with a discourse on "Americanism."

A plaque inscribed "San Andreas Elementary School, Dedicated to Loyalty, Truth, Progress and the Ideals of American Democracy by the Native Daughters of the Golden West," was unveiled by President Gwendolyn Wyllie, assisted by Past President Gertrude Leonard and First Vice-president Anne Peterson. Others in attendance were Grand Treasurer Agnes M. Curry, Grand Trustees Emily E. Ryan and Loretta M. Cameron, Grand Outside Sentinel Nora H. Gray and Supervising Deputy Emma Boardman-Wright.

Armistice Day Radio Program.

Fortuna—Under the auspices of the Humboldt County Parlors—Reichling No. 97, Fortuna, Oneonta No. 71, Ferndale, and Occident No. 28, Eureka,—a special Armistice Day program was broadcast over KSEM, Eureka, November 11. The young people who appeared on the program are students at the Fortuna Union High School, and the Native Daughters are grateful to them and their instructor, Miss Dorothy Dale of the school faculty, for their assistance.

Grand Trustee Ruth H. Sesna arranged and announced the program, which included: Vocal solos, "My Little Gray Home in the West" and "De Koven's Recessional," Miss Nancy Crane of Rio Dell; violin solos, "Lullaby by Brahms" and "The Londonderry Air," Miss Meta Johnson of Loleta; piano solo, "My Buddy," Miss Mona Bittencourt of Fortuna, accompanist of the occasion; taps, Victor Soares of Scotia. The Native Daughters of Humboldt County plan a series of programs on other patriotic occasions, and are appreciative of the co-operation of KSEM.—G.S.

N.D.G.W.—NEWS PARAGRAPHS.—N.D.G.W.

San Francisco—Saturday afternoon, December 9, a new parlor will be instituted here by Grand President Orinda G. Giannini, assisted by Grand Secretary Sallie R. Thaler and other grand officers. All members of the Order are invited to be present.

Oakland—The Alameda County N.D.G.W. and N.S.G.W. Homeless Children Committee will hold a turkey whist Saturday evening, December 16, at Scottish Rite Auditorium, 1547 Oak street. Tickets are fifty cents each.—G.I.F.

"As the holidays draw near your Committee on Veterans Welfare wishes to remind you of the debt we owe our veterans. Although the Government has provided for their care and hospitalization, an added thought—a word of cheer or a little remembrance—expresses our gratefulness for their service. . . . In order that we may be able to procure acceptable gifts before the Christmas rush, we are asking that your Parlor send in a donation at the earliest possible time."—Sue Mattei, chairman Grand Parlor Veterans Welfare Committee, 1131 Martin Ave., San Jose.

Napa—Eschol No. 16 had its annual card party for the benefit of the homeless children November 20. Bertha Vidy headed the committee that worked hard to make the affair a success. Members of the Parlor were guests of Napa No. 62 N.S. at a reception and dance November 13.—E.I.

Murphy—Ruby No. 46 entertained veterans of the World War and their families November 10. President Mary Walsh welcomed the guests. Marshal Annie Lombardi led the flag salute, and with Mrs. Eva Stephens accompanying at the piano the assemblage sang "The Star Spangled Banner." Whist was played, fifteen tables being in operation. Pumpkin pie and coffee were served.—F.D.

Sonora—Dardanelle No. 66, Golden Era No. 99, Columbia, and Anona No. 161, Jamestown, in joint session here were officially visited by Grand President Orinda Giannini. Grand Vice-president Hazel B. Hansen and Grand Trustee Ethel Enos were also visitors. Four candidates were initiated. From the hostess Parlors, Mrs. Giannini received a gold nugget as a memento of her visit. Refreshments were served at the meeting's close.

Sutter Creek—November 9, Anapola No. 80 had an Armistice Day program which included a reading, "No Armistice for Him," by Edith

Holiday Greetings

"OFFICERS AND MEMBERS SUBORDINATE Parlors Native Daughters of the Golden West Dear Sisters: CHRISTMAS, the birthday of our Prince of Peace, will soon be with us, and what a blessed time of the year this is,—this season of affectionate giving.

"This Holiday brings to us a closer bond of friendship and love—one for another. Our thoughts turn to the many fraternal friendships we have made, and we seek in some small way to show our gratitude, for our lives have been enriched. May this spirit of Christmas abide with you through all the year, bringing you peace and contentment.

"This is the season when we can do much good through our welfare work. The joys that we give come back to us ten-fold. Let us give, not only in a material way, but let us give friendship and understanding, for 'The heart is not a treasury that is impoverished by giving, but a power which is strengthened and enriched by loving.'

"When we unite in our Parlors to celebrate this Day of Days, let us pause and contemplate our many other blessings—the blessing of living in our bountiful State of California, the blessings of peace, the comforts and the protection afforded by our great Nation.

"As we face another New Year, let us do so with courage, and understanding and faith, and a resolve that we will do our utmost to achieve for the glory of the Native Daughters of the Golden West and California.

"This Day would not be Christmas to me without a thought of you in it. On other days I may be busy with many things and forget the blessing of your friendship, but on Christmas Day, when the world is shut out and we are alone with those we love, my thoughts turn to you in gratitude. Your life has helped mine; your friendship has been precious to me. I give you greeting on this happy day and wish you the joy of a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

"Sincerely and fraternally,

Orinda G. Giannini

"Grand President N.D.G.W.
"San Francisco, November 20, 1939."

Murphy, and the singing of "God Bless America" and "The Star Spangled Banner" by the Parlor members. November 18, the Parlor had its annual Thanksgiving dance at the Sutter Creek Auditorium.—M.S.

Salinas—Aleli No. 102 November 9 complimented its past presidents, nineteen of whom were present and received attractive gifts. Court whist was a diversion, and a display of childhood pictures of the honor-guests created amusement. In observance of Armistice Day, Miss Rose Rhyner recited "In Flanders Field," and the assemblage sang "God Bless America." Delicious refreshments closed the occasion.—H.T.

Hollister—The annual card party of Copa de Oro No. 105 for the benefit of the homeless children was a huge success, and $160 has been sent the Central Committee. Halloween was the theme of the November 1 social hour. The meetinghall was appropriately decorated, and buffet refreshments were served at tables adorned with autumn blossoms, fruits and vegetables.

Oakland—The drum corps of Aloha No. 106 participated in the Armistice Day parade November 11. The monthly card party was held November 21 at the home of Grand Secretary Sallie R. Thaler. The Halloween party held jointly with Athens No. 195 N.S. October 31 was greatly enjoyed.

San Luis Obispo—In celebration of their birthdays, Anna Schlicht and Cora Tognazzini entertained San Luisita No. 108. The hall was attractively decorated, games were enjoyed and delicious refreshments were served. The Parlor sympathizes with Secretary Agnes M. Lee, whose sister, Rose C. Lee, recently passed away.—C.T.

"All members are earnestly urged to remember The Grizzly Bear Magazine, which is recommended to every Native Daughter as a means of education, inspiration and entertainment, most beneficial in its every influence, and worthy of a place in every home."—Past Grand President Bertha A. Briggs, Chairman Grand Parlor N.D.G.W. Publicity Committee.

Hayward—Hayward No. 122 was officially visited November 9 by Grand President Orinda G. Giannini, who was accompanied by Grand Secretary Sallie R. Thaler, Grand Trustee Emily E. Ryan, Grand Organist Mae E. O'Keefe, Supervis-

THE PAST PRESIDENTS ASSOCIATION of Ramona Parlor No. 109 N.S.G.W. was organized at a dinner gathering Saturday evening, October 28. By right of seniority, Past Grand President Herman C. Lichtenberger was named president and dean, and Ray Howard was elected secretary. It was unanimously voted to hold a dinner-meeting annually the fourth Saturday of October. Acting for Mrs. John Forster, Past President Howard presented a painting of the late State Senator Reginaldo F. DelValle, Ramona's first president.

Speakers of the evening included Past Presidents Edwin A. Meserve (1893-4), Isidore B. Dockweiler (1897), Robert Todd (1899), State Senator Henry E. Carter (1899), Harry J. Le-lande (1903), William J. "Bull" Durm (1904), Charles R. Thomas (1913), J. Paul Kiefer (1914) and "Oom Paul" Lichtenberger (1893), who eulogized United States Senator Stephen M. White, deceased, Ramona's charter past president. One of the most interesting talks was that of J. W. Diss, who related long-past events.

Among the many others present were Past Presidents William Calderwood, Ralph Harbison, Walter Odemar, Charles Easton, John Off Jr., Frank Zeigler, Joseph Coyle, Frank Moore, Charles Bright, Bernard Lee, Walter Baskerville, Charles Straube, Martin Hauser, Lon McCoy, David Lee, Fletcher Ford and Hervey Kitchin; President David Schumacher, Vice-presidents William Blaha and Ralph Clavelot, Marshal Robert Bushnell, Frank Howe, Jesse Hamman, Rowland Fontana, George Amos and Victor DeGrazia of Ramona; Past Grand President John T. Newell of Los Angeles Parlor; Supervising Deputy Roy Tarleton and Judge Stanley Sargent of Compton Parlor.—H.L.K.

POINSETTIA BENEFIT BRIDGE.

Californiana Parlor No. 247 N.D.G.W. observed Armistice and Thanksgiving Days at a delightful affair November 14. Mrs. Marcella Palethorpe and committee served a delectable luncheon to sixty guests. Mrs. Hattie Davis and Miss Grace Vejar decked the tables with tiny jars filled with blossoms, flags placed here and there, and patriotic place baskets containing candies.

At the speakers' table, centered with a globe of the world over which soared a white dove with an olive branch in its mouth, were Program Chairman Mrs. Alphonse B. Fages, Right Rev. Martin Keating, speaker of the day, Dr. Charles W. Decker, Colonel R. I. Follmer, Milo D. Aylward, Edward Thatcher, Mrs. Martha Decker, Mrs. Ernestine Aylward, Grand Trustee Mary B. Noerenberg, President Beatrice Wahrmond and Mrs. Walter Harris.

Following an invocation, Mrs. Harris presented to the Parlor for the president's station a United States of America Flag, stating it was very dear to her as a memento of the World War; she led in the pledge of allegiance to the flag. The topic of Rev. Keating's address was "America's Blessings." He stressed the solidarity of the peoples of the United States, and stated that from this oneness the world may be guided back to God. He contended that although America is still worth dying for, the country must be made worth living for.

At the meeting which followed the luncheon, Californiana, on suggestion of Ernestine Aylward, veterans welfare chairman, "adopted" three veterans,—two men and one woman—who will be given one dollar per month each for needed extras. Welfare Chairman Flora Jacobson asked for food for Christmas baskets. Endorsement was given Dr. Barrow's plan to mark a path in the high Sierra in honor of his deceased wife, Dolores, a member of the Parlor. Captains Martha Decker and Isabel Fages of the membership contest now under way reported success. Grand Trustee Noerenberg was presented a birthday cake at a tea which closed the afternoon. November 1, Mrs. Edith Adams entertained the Gertrude Sewing Circle at a duck luncheon at her spacious home. Much good work was accomplished, and a jolly time was enjoyed.

Californiana will have a poinsettia bridge tea benefit for general philanthropy at the Women's Athletic Club, December 7, 2 p.m. Tickets are one dollar each. Marion Johnson, ways and means chairman, is in charge of arrangements. For reservations phone WH 2934. At the December 12 luncheon-meeting, Lindley Bynum of the Huntington Library will speak on "Buried Treasure," and officers will be elected. A Christmas party will be held December 26 at 3 p.m. Little girls of the El Jarobe Club, directed by Miss Eleanor Hague, will present "Christmas in Old Mexico." Children and grandchildren of the Parlor's members will bring gifts costing not less than twenty-five cents for the entertainers.—O.L.

FIFTY ORPHANS TO BE CHRISTMAS GUESTS

Los Angeles Parlor No. 45 N.S.G.W. celebrated its fifty-fifth institution anniversary with a dinner dance in honor of Grand Trustee Walter E. Smith November 18. Twenty-five couples participated and had a delightful time. The second "Know Your California" quiz, conducted by C.

Harry Davis November 10, was won by Carroll M. Manley, winner of the first quiz, with Grand Trustee Smith a close second.

The third "Know Your California" quiz will be conducted December 8 by Past President Davis, a prize goes to the winner. December 22, Los Angeles will have its annual Christmas party for the children of its members and fifty orphans. Owen S. Adams, who has ably managed this affair for several years, has again volunteered his services as chairman. December 29 the Parlor will have initiation, to be followed by a program of entertainment and refreshments.—F. F.

JAMBOREE DRAWS CROWD.

The jamboree staged by Los Angeles Parlor No. 124 N.D.G.W. November 15 was a real social success, 160 members of the southland Parlors having joined in the fun. Grand Trustee Mary Noerenberg, attired in the installation gown of Past Grand Grace S. Stoermer, presented a very unusual skit. Supervising Deputy Olinda Thomas and her deputies sang "Sun Bonnet Sue." Juanita Porter was manager of the "caba-ret" skit presented by Los Angeles. Other Parlors participating in the program were La Reina, Lugonia, Californiana, Long Beach, Topanga and Rudecinda. President Louise McNary was the stage manager and announcer.

December 6, Los Angeles will initiate a class of candidates. December 16, the sewing club of the Parlor will be entertained at the home of First Vice-president Helen Lee, 3146 West Seventy-sixth street. The hostess will be assisted by Lucile Cline, Jeanne Clos, Loretta Casten, Virginia Diver, Myrtle DeLuce, Grace DuCasse, Elsie Ruiz, May Sherwood and Jacquelin Wilson. Tea will be served at four. December 20 the Parlor will have its annual Christmas party for members, with Helen Lee in charge. The refreshments committee will consist of the book officers and the trustees, who will be assisted by eleven new members.—E.T.N.

SPEAKERS ADDRESS N. S. CLUB.

Guest speakers at the Native Sons Friday Luncheon Club during November were: 3rd, Presiding Justice Minor Moore of the Appellate Court; Prentiss Moore, chairman of the day. 10th, Superior Judge Clarence L. Kincaid; John D. Home, chairman of the day. 17th, Dr. Adamantios Th. Polyzoides of the University of Southern California, who told of "The War as I Saw It Coming in Europe;" Dr. Rockwell D. Hunt, chairman of the day.

The Luncheon Club meets every Friday at 12:15 noon in room 1126 of the Hotel Rosslyn, Fifth and Main streets. Always a worthwhile program and goodfellowship. All Native Sons and their friends welcome.

ANNUAL FALL BANQUET.

Long Beach—with the fall motif of horns of plenty used in decorating the table, Long Beach Parlor No. 154 N.D.G.W. entertained at a banquet November 16. Guests included Grand Vice-president Hazel B. Hansen, Past Grand Grace S. Stoermer, Grand Trustee Mary B. Noerenberg, Supervising Deputy Olinda Kirby-Thomas, Deputy Emma Costello and the three candidates who were initiated at the meeting which followed. December 2, members and families of the Parlor and of Long Beach Parlor No. 278 N.D.G.W. will tour new Chinatown and Olvera street in Los Angeles.

Officers of No. 154 will be elected December 7. Past presidents of the Parlor, with Mrs. Kate McFadyen as chairman, are making arrangements for the annual Christmas party, to be held December 21. A dinner will precede the meeting, at which a program will be presented, gifts will be exchanged, and the names of "secret sisters" will be revealed.—R.J.

LIFELONG FRIENDS FORM PARTNERSHIP.

August M. Nardoni and Frank J. Longo, lifelong friends and members of Ramona Parlor No. 109 N.S.G.W., have formed the Nardoni & Longo Insurance Agency, Inc., with offices at 312 West First street. Nardoni has long specialized in bonds of all kinds, and Longo is well known in the life and accident insurance field. They are organized to write insurance and bonds of every nature.

FIRST ANNIVERSARY OBSERVED.

Canoga Park—Topanga Parlor No. 269 N.D.G.W. entertained in honor of husbands and fathers October 29. A skit, "The Wedding," was presented, after which refreshments were served. In celebration of its first institution anniversary, the Parlor had a dinner-dance November 4. President Clara Tucker was the hostess, and among the many guests were Deputy Ruth Ruiz and President Ethel Kern of Glendale Parlor.

"LOW-DOWN" ON

LOW INTEREST RATES

If you're borrowing on the installment plan, you can get a "low-down" on where you can get the lowest interest rate at the California Bank. For instance: You borrow, say, $100. The Bank adds $5 interest (plus $1 on those loans which include the mortality feature), and that's absolutely all it costs you. You have a full year in which to repay the loan in easy monthly installments. Ask at any neighborhood office of California Bank. (California Bank is the Bank to see for Auto Loans, too). (Adv't) members of Topanga gathered at the Chatsworth home of Mrs. Dorothy Pogue November 8; luncheon was served at noon and the afternoon was devoted to sewing. Two candidates were initiated November 10. A shower in honor of Mrs. Jean Hill and her little daughter, Joyce, followed the ceremonies; both received many lovely gifts.—L.J.C.

LOBSTER FEAST.

Santa Monica—With Past Grand Eldred L. Meyer in the president's chair, Santa Monica Bay Parlor No. 267 N.S.G.W. had its annual past presidents night November 14. Movies were shown and refreshments were served. November 21 the ritual team of Glendale Parlor No. 264 paid a visit.

Tuesday, December 12, at 6:30 p.m., Santa Monica Bay will have its annual lobster feast, an outstanding southland event to which all Native Sons are invited. Entertainment will follow the dinner, and an all-round good time is assured. Lee Conger is chairman of the arrangements committee. December 19 the Parlor will initiate a large class of candidates.

THEATER PARTY.

La Reina Parlor No. 267 N.D.G.W. entertained members and their escorts at a November 24 party. A program was followed by dancing. December 3 the Parlor will have a theater party at the Gateway Players Club. Following "The Booby Prize" refreshments will be served.

FRATERNAL VISIT PAID.

Headed by President David H. Schumacher, thirty-six members of Ramona Parlor No. 109 N.S.G.W. paid a fraternal visit November 15 to Long Beach Parlor No. 278 N.S.G.W. The officers of No. 109 exemplified the ritual, and five candidates—four for Ramona—were initiated.

Among the many other visitors were Grand Trustee Walter C. Richards, Supervising Deputy Roy Tarleton, and delegations from Hollywood, Santa Monica Bay, East Los Angeles, Compton and Stephen M. White Parlors.

Ramona's December calendar includes: 8th, initiation, followed by refreshments. 15th, open meeting, preceded by 40-cent dinner; movie, "Deep Sea Fishing." 22nd, Christmas tree party.

THEATER PARTY FOR FLOAT FUND.

The Interparlor Committee (Southern District) N.S.G.W. and N.D.G.W., under the vigorous chairmanship of Fred Leonetti, is now meeting every Monday night, 8 o'clock, at Plummer Park Clubhouse, 7377 Santa Monica boulevard. The meetings are well attended and there is much enthusiasm. Grand Trustee Walter C. Richards is so impressed with the committee's accomplishments he has made a substantial cash donation to the float fund.

To raise funds for a float to be entered in the Rose Tournament parade at Pasadena, the Interparlor is sponsoring a night at the Hollywood Community School of the Theater, 1743 North New Hampshire, Saturday evening, December 2. Admission, 40 cents. A rollicking comedy, "Escort Service," will be presented.

PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS.

Albert V. Mayrhofer (San Diego NS) was a visitor last month from San Diego.

Ben Hofman (Ukiah NS) of Ukiah, Mendocino County, was a visitor last month.

Raymond Haight (Hollywood NS) and wife left last month for a visit to Hawaii, T. H.

Superior Judge Henry M. Willis (Ramona NS) and wife were recent visitors in Washington, D. C.

Chas. A. Koenig (Past Grand NS) and daughter, Miss Claire, of San Francisco were among last month's visitors.

THE DEATH RECORD.

Mrs. Juana Dominguez Sepulveda Ruiz, mother of Frank A. Ruiz (Ramona NS), died recently. She was born at Calabasas in 1859, and was the widow of Francisco Ybarra Ruiz, born in Los Angeles County in 1840; she was a daughter of Don Pedro and Soledad Dominguez Sepulveda, also Los Angeles County natives.

Roscoe W. Griffin, affiliated with Ramona Parlor No. 109 N.S.G.W., died November 10. He

SAN PEDRO—RUDECINDA PARLOR NO. 230 N.D.G.W. had as a guest-speaker November 9 Caroline Porter, who told about the Community Chest drive and emphasized the necessity of everyone contributing to such a worthy cause.

November 15, President Lucy Ascolei and fifteen members of the Parlor were guests of Los Angeles Parlor No. 124 N.D.G.W. at an amusing jamboree party. Victoria Schott and Rowena Berenstein put on a skit. Rudecinda's contribution to the program.

The Florencita Thimble Club of the Parlor had its November 1 meeting and luncheon at the home of Catherine Morris; Catherine Bragg was hostess. November 15 the club gathered at the home of Lucy Guzman for work and luncheon; Lillian Craul was hostess.

Plans have been completed by Rudecinda for a turkey card party, to be held December 14. Letitia Sarciaux is chairman of the arrangements committee.—R.B.

NEIGHBORING PARLOR VISITED.

San Pedro—Headed by President Tom Allender and District Deputy Dewey Richards, several members of Stephen M. White Parlor No. 263 N.S.G.W. attended the birthday party of Santa Monica Bay Parlor No. 267 N.S.G.W. October 25. Initiation was held and refreshments were served.

Stephen M. White and Rudecinda Parlor No. 230 N.D.G.W. have purchased a bedroom suite which is to be placed in the historic Banning home at Wilmington.

was born at Carlsbad, San Diego County, July 20, 1889.

Edmond L. Casey, father of Edmond L. Casey Jr. (Ramona NS), died November 12.

Daniel Benjamin Martin, affiliated with Ramona Parlor No. 109 N.S.G.W., died November 13. He was born at Los Angeles, October 24, 1888.

Mrs. Ella B. Home, mother of John D. Home (Ramona NS), died November 18.

Louis H. Livermore, treasurer Ramona Parlor No. 109 N.S.G.W., died November 21, survived by his mother, Mrs. Amanda Soto-Livermore. He was born at Concord, Contra Costa County, August 14, 1872.

BAZAR AND COUNTRY FAIR.

Glendale—With President Ethyl Kern of Verdugo Parlor No. 240 N.D.G.W. presiding, Civic Chairman Olive Zimmer November 14 presented an interesting program. C. Leonard Edney gave an inspirational talk on "Armistice Day," and Mrs. Elsie Bledsoe sang "God Bless America." Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Burke entertained to the delight of all.

November 28, Deputy Marcella Palethorpe was a visitor, and several candidates were initiated. The Parlor's fourteenth birthday was celebrated, along with the anniversaries of members born in October, November and December. Chairman Margaret Doulin provided a grand party. The sewing group was entertained at a spaghetti feast at the home of Mrs. Leonora Pagliuso November 1.

Verdugo will have its annual bazar and country fair December 7 on the third floor of Masonic Temple, 234 South Brand boulevard. A turkey dinner will be served at 7:30; price, fifty cents. For reservations call Mrs. Harriette Weeks, Citrus 1-2398. Husbands and children of the members will be special guests of the Parlor at a December 20 Christmas party; Mrs. Mary Miller is in charge of arrangements. E.M.K.

NATIVE DAUGHTERS

ing Deputy Orinda Giannini and Deputy Elton Reason. Charter Members Flora Harder, Matilda Grindell, Alice Smalley, Louisa Thompson and Lily Towell were also members of honor. President Mildred Schilling was assisted in entertaining the many visitors by Minnie Souza, Viola Garms, Ruth Gansberger, Kathryn Braumcoeller, Florence Hills, Edna Dobbel, Irene Jamieson, Ethyl Young, Aldine Pennycoff, Helga Hoyer, Mazze Lopes and Bernice N. R.M.G.

Marysville—Grand President Orinda Giannini officially visited Marysville No. 162, October 25, and delivered an inspiring address, in the course of which she stressed the Order's projects. Among others in attendance were Past Grandesses Esther R. Sullivan, Florence D. Boyle and Edna B. Briggs, Supervising Deputy Ruth Clark, District Deputies Elisabeth McCurry and Edythe McKinsey, and representatives of ten Subordinate Parlors. With President Anna Heisch presiding, three candidates were initiated. Past Grand Sullivan, general chairman of the evening, was assisted by Ina Wells, Helen O'Brien, Ruth Clark, Josie Baker, Mary Monahan, Mary Meade, Nellie Newbert, Elsie Schofield and Ruth Gailigan.

Oakland—Grand President Orinda Giannini officially visited Fruitvale No. 177, Bahia Vista No. 167 and Bear Flag No. 151 in joint session here November 2. With President Mary Alberts presiding, the officers of Fruitvale initiated seven candidates. On behalf of the hostess Parlors, Grand Trustee Dora Brayton presented Mrs. Giannini a football containing a gift, and on behalf of Fruitvale No. 252 N.S. Grand Second Vice-president Edward T. Schnarr and President Charles Eiferle presented her a bouquet. Entertainment and refreshments brought the evening to a close. Marie Silva, chairman of the occasion, was assisted by Esther Regan.—H.S.

Georgetown—Grand President Orinda Giannini officially visited El Dorado No. 186, and was presented with a gift. Other visitors were Grand Outside Sentinel Nora Gray, Supervising Deputy Henrietta Hume, Deputy Ruth Lyon and a delegation from Marguerite No. 12, Placerville.

San Leandro—El Cereso No. 207, at a Halloween party October 27, honored Recording Secretary Mary Tuttle, Financial Secretary Mae Focha and Treasurer Caroline Hatherly, and each was presented with a gift by the Parlor. Refreshments were served at tables decorated with Halloween favors. Julia King was chairman of the occasion.

AN INEXPENSIVE CHRISTMAS GIFT that will be enjoyed throughout the year is THE GRIZZLY BEAR. Sent anywhere in the United States for $1.50; lower rate for clubs of five or more. A Gift Card will go to each subscriber. Remember your friends with a year's subscription for 1940.

Byron—Donner No. 193 observed its twenty-eighth institution anniversary and received an official visit from Grand President Orinda Giannini November 15. Two candidates were initiated, and Mrs. Giannini gave a very interesting talk on the Order's projects. A skit featured the activities of the Parlor. Gifts were presented Grand President Giannini, Supervising Deputy Leslie Clement, Deputy Lena Azeveda and three charter members.—A.P.

Modesto—Morada No. 199 and Modesto No. 11 N.S. had a successful public party November 8; fifty-six tables of whist were in operation, dancing was enjoyed and delicious refreshments were served. Members of Morada having birthdays in September, October and November were honor-guests of the Parlor November 22, when six candidates were initiated; Iris Goularte was chairman of the evening. Plans are well under way for the Parlor's annual Christmas party for less-fortunate children. Edna Hunsucker and Marguerite Johnson are co-chairmen of the annual party for members. The rummage sale held by the ways and means committee was a financial success, and the sewing club is very busy filling orders for Christmas gifts and cards. A doll has been purchased for the Brownie Pack sponsored by the Parlor; the girls in this very lively group range in years from six to ten. Morada will have charge of the dedication of the new Stanislaus County Hall of Records December 2.—E.C.E.

San Diego—San Diego No. 208 sponsored a successful party, October 25, the proceeds of which will be used for welfare work; Mrs. Fern Cummins was the chairman. November 18 a bazar, with a barn dance and a country fair as side attractions, was held by the Parlor's ways and means committee, Mrs. Helen Jourdin chairman. A very large crowd attended, and there was fun aplenty for young and old. Deputy Virginia Burke entertained the past presidents November 27.—S.M. successful card party for the benefit of the homeless children November 7. Chairman Pauline Jennings and Elizabeth Dillon. The Parlor's drill team participated in the local Armistice Day celebration.

Santa Ana—Santa Ana No. 235 had a hobo costume party celebrating the birthdays of Olive Witt and Catherine Crumley. Prizes for the best costumes went to Mae West, Margaret Mize and Hazel Flaherty. Deputy Ruth Ikerds was a guest. The Parlor's thimble club met at the homes of Ann Head and Myrtle Ellis. The members are busily engaged making articles for a cedar chest.—G.A.R.C.

Supervising Deputy Margaret Carlisle, who was assisted by Georgia Sanders, El Tejon No. 239 initiated five candidates November 3. In attendance at the meeting were Grand Trustee Evalyn G. Towne, Deputies Dorothy Root, Irene Feliz and Mary B. Hampson. Short talks were followed by refreshments served by Thelma Gleason and committee. November 13 many members, headed by Georgia Sanders, assisted in the Red Cross drive; dinner was served the workers by Ada Bartholomew. November 17 a radio program titled "Aims and Objects of Our Order" was presented by Margaret Carlisle, Georgia Sanders, Jennie Brown, Ella Bozeman and Thelma Gleason. A recent rummage sale, with Mary Freear as chairman, was very successful. President Winifred Bowen has planned many worthwhile activities.—E.B.

Placencia—Grace No. 242 has adopted its seventh baby, a boy named Albert in honor of the husband of Recording Secretary Mary Rothaermel, who is improving from a long, serious illness. A baby daughter was born to Adele Enfield-Lockrem November 6. Native Daughters sewing for the Red Cross have been highly complimented for their efficient work. The Parlor is making plans for Christmas parties for families December 7, and the annual Spanish dinner under the supervision of Lucana McFadden.—N.M.C.

Albany—Albany No. 260 donated United States of America and California State (Bear) Flags to the Green Patrol drill team November 8, and a donation was also sent the Veterans Hospital at Livermore. A skit, "The Two Bridegrooms," was presented by D. Olufsen, M. Rutan, H. Taylor, M. Vargas, E. Ball, N. Sherwood, N. Graham, A. Madison and E. Foley. Refreshments were served by the social committee, and dancing was enjoyed. Two candidates were initiated November 22. A telephone whist was held November 28 at the homes of Mae Rutan, Thelma Goss and Grayce Garfinkle.—H.T.

Avenal—Las Flores No. 262 has received many compliments for the lovely float entered in the Kings County Armistice Day parade held here. The theme of the float, covered with California poppies, was "Homes for Homeless Children." A young couple stood at the entrance of a vine-covered bungalow greeting a nurse who was bringing them their bundle of joy.—L.B.

Fresno—Wawona No. 271 had a joyous Halloween party in charge of Norma Dupzyk, Lucile Skoegard and Margaret Bettencort. Captain Margaret Smith and the membership team conducted a blanket sale, which netted a very nice sum. Edith Bartholomew, "mother" of Wawona, had charge of the Fresno County exhibit at the State Grange gathering in Chico. On her birthday, President Dorothy Jean Helm was honored at a handkerchief and potted plant shower. An escort team has been organized.—M.C.

Berkeley—Sequoia No. 272 had a very successful turkey whist November 9. A sizeable sum was also realized from disposal of a chest of drawers. A Christmas party and initiation will be held December 14. Drill team practice is held every week under the guidance of an expert drillmaster.—B.W.

Fresno City has authorized the spending of $853,000 for a new city hall and improvements to the Fresno High School.

The Institute of World Affairs is to have its seventeenth annual session at Riverside City, December 10-15.

Congratulations to the Dies Investigating committee of the Federal Congress, which had the "guts" to make public the names of Federal Government employees who are members, or on the mailing list, of the American League for Peace and Democracy, said by the committee to be communist controlled.

Chairman Dies of the committee declared in a radio address: "I know the Federal Government has communists in key positions and nothing will deter me from exposing them to the people." Hurrah for Dies, and more power to him!

The California State Government ended the first quarter of the 1939-40 fiscal year with a $48,600,669 general fund cash deficit, a "small" increase of $32,785,969 over the same date last year.

So, the State Comptroller declares the State Government must either cut expenses drastically or vote new taxes. Have a heart, Comptroller! How can the political machine function properly if expenses are cut?

In California, the dollarized T$h$a$n$K$-$g$!$v$!$n$g D$a$y was, by proclamation of the Governor, recognized as a legal holiday. Tradition commercialized!

United States Senator Key Pittman of Nevada, chairman Senate Foreign Relations Committee, predicts the next Federal Congress will declare an embargo against exports to Japan. May the prediction be fulfilled!

The Federal Government payroll has reached a record high—$20,310. And, consistently, the public debt, too, is at a record high. Building and supporting a political machine is expensive—to taxpayers!

Suggestion has been made that the young men of California unite and run out screwballs and crackpots with which the state, particularly the southern section, is infested. No better service could be rendered California!

"America has developed the conditions that led to dictatorship in other countries," declared Dr. F. Wilhelm Solmann, addressing an assemblage of New Jersey schoolteachers. He should know, having been Germany's pre-nazi interior secretary.

The old question of attempting to divide California into two states is again being given serious consideration, according to newspaper reports. The idea, repugnant to all loyal Californians, must be suppressed!

THE OLD CHURCH

Like some old saint who sits alone in dreams,
The quaint church sleeps in ragged robes of weeds,

A sacred shrine where holy prayer seems
To linger—and whose open door still pleads.
The hallowed walls could tell of birth and death,
Of worshippers who knelt in humble love
And prayed with closed eyes and halting breath
To guide them from this earth to home above.
The slender windows, with revealing light,
A halo made above some mother's head,
Whose blessed faith could pierce the darkest night,
And whose calm face meant more than sermons said.
O, church of sagging roof and crumbling walls
Your holy voice of yesterday still calls.

James Samuel Knox, speaking in Los Angeles, remarked: "From the end of the World War until 1932 some 5,000,000 foreigners entered the United States. If they hadn't, we would have had no unemployment during that period. We admit 130,000 foreigners now; yet we say America can never put our people to work because there aren't enough jobs to pass around."

LOS ANGELES

WELL-KNOWN EDUCATOR HONORED.

A portrait of Dr. Rockwell Dennis Hunt of Ramona Parlor No. 109 N.S.G.W. was presented the University of Southern California by the graduate students October 31. Dean of the graduate school, Dr. Hunt has been associated with U.S.C. for thirty-one years, and is well and favorably known as an educator and author. The painting was presented by Frank H. Sparks, representing the graduate students, and was accepted by President Rufus B. Von Klein Smid.

LOS FIESTEROS ENTERTAIN.

Los Fiesteros de Los Angeles entertained at Plummer Park November 5 a crowd that filled the auditorium to capacity. "Carmelita," written by Marion Parks-Partridge of Californiana Parlor No. 247 N.D.G.W., was presented by Tallman Trask, Nelson H. Partridge and Hope Chamberlin Tuttle. California songs were rendered by Alfonso Fages and Carmelita Verdugo.

C. Harry Davis of Los Angeles Parlor No. 45 N.S.G.W. was the program chairman, and Mms. Arthur Holliday and Matilda Murdock were chairmen, respectively, of decorations and refreshments. Special guests of the occasion were Mary B. Noerenberg, Grand Trustee N.D.G.W., Louise McNary, president Los Angeles Parlor N.D.G.W., and Walter E. Smith, Grand Trustee N.S.G.W.

STATE FLAG GIVEN STATE BUILDING.

Following the Armistice Day parade November 11, the Native Sons of the Golden West presented a California State (Bear) Flag to the California State Building. Charles A. Son presided, and Grand Trustee Walter E. Smith presented the flag, which was accepted by Appellate Court Justice Thomas White. Isidore B. Dockweiler was also a speaker and told the history of the Bear Flag.

(COMPILED EXPRESSLY FOR THE GRIZZLY BEAR MAGAZINE.)

THE MUCH-PUBLISHED "GAY NINETIES" started off anything but gay in California. January 1890 was ushered in with raging elements, snow and rain falling everywhere in the state. Railway blockades and washouts were reported from all sections.

The Central Pacific introduced the rotary snowplow in the high Sierra where, in some sections, three locomotives were required to keep the plow in action. Not until the end of the month was the blockade there raised, allowing transportation to again become normal.

January 2 the first Santa Fe train in eleven days arrived at San Diego from Los Angeles.

In Downieville, Sierra County, snow fell steadily for forty-eight hours, and a snowslide January 3 resulted in the deaths of Mrs. Rich, her daughter and son, and Mrs. Ryan.

Because of snow and ice, the narrow-gauge railroad running between Nevada City, Nevada County, and Colfax, Placer County, had great difficulty in operating. January 7 the snow was six feet deep at Hell's Delight, and three locomotives were required to get a train up the Gold Hill grade.

Mrs. Patrick Cunningham died January 7 near La Porte, Plumas County. Because of the snow's great depth, her remains had to be temporarily buried in the snow.

Several buildings at Dutch Flat, Placer County, caved in January 14 from the weight of snow on them. Snow on the ground at Onion Valley, El Dorado County, measured eleven feet January 23. Houses at Howland Flat were buried under twenty-five feet of snow.

Snow caused the roof of the Douglas City, Trinity County, cabin of Pioneer John Farrelman to cave in January 24 and he was crushed to death.

Chico, Butte County, was visited January 15 by a terrific wind that did much damage.

The entire Salvation Army was placed in jail at Pasadena, Los Angeles County, January 1.

A Santa Fe passenger train bound for San Diego was wrecked near San Juan Capistrano, Orange County, January 1, and Engineer H. C. King was killed.

The residence of I. T. Mooney caught fire at Downieville, Sierra County, and his wife and daughter were cremated.

Joe Casey, son of the Casey who was hanged by San Francisco Vigilantes in 1856 for the murder of James King of William, editor of the Bulletin, killed Dan Mattheson in a Williams, Colusa County, saloon January 2.

Getting too close to Batter Dennis McCarthy, 16-year-old George Smith was struck by a bat and killed during a January 4 baseball game at San Francisco.

The Citrus Fair which opened at Oroville, Butte County, January 7 was a great success.

Triplets, two boys and a girl, were born January 4 at Marysville, Yuba County, to Mrs. Archie Ferguson.

Malcolm McLeod, who undertook to carry via snowshoes the mail from Nevada City to Washington, in Nevada County, was frozen to death January 5.

At Tehama Town, January 7, A. J. Clark shot and killed his brother during a family quarrel.

The case of Henry T. Gage against John G. Downey, former Governor of California, for possession of the 22,000-acre Warner ranch in San Diego County, went to trial January 9 at San Diego City.

The Biddle will case of San Luis Obispo was, after many years' litigation, compromised January 9. Mrs. Plummer, a disinherited daughter, received $105,000.

For accepting Christmas gifts from the pupils, Acting Principal Barbara Bauman and Teacher Ida Shaw of the Emerson Primary School, San Francisco, were suspended January 8.

The Guerneville Blade began publication January 15 at Guerneville, Sonoma County.

For robbing mail pouches in Trinity, Shasta, Yuba and Placer Counties, Frank Williams was indicted by the United States Grand Jury at San Francisco January 15.

Ernlau Painter, who organized the California College of Pharmacy in San Francisco, died January 15 at New York City.

Alexander McGee, carrying the mail in Tulare County from Camp Badger to Moore & Smith's sawmill, was frozen to death January 13.

General M. G. Vallejo, born July 7, 1808, at Monterey, died January 18 at his Sonoma home. The Grand Parlor N.S.G.W. was represented at the largely attended funeral ceremonies by Past Grand President Dr. Charles W. Decker and Grand Secretary Henry Lunstedt.

As a result of cigaret smoking, the Girls High School, San Francisco, was totally destroyed by fire January 12.

Rev. Elias Birdsoll, rector of St. Paul's Episcopal Church in Los Angeles, resigned January 18. He was the oldest Protestant minister in that city.

A scheme to divide San Diego County, sponsored by Oceanside businessmen, got under way during the month.

Paul Sweet, who arrived in Santa Cruz in 1840 and established California's first tannery, died at his ranch near that city January 21.

Addison C. Niles, a former justice of the California Supreme Court, died January 17 at San Francisco.

Two masked highwaymen January 21 held up the Southern Pacific's southbound passenger train between Tulare and Goshen, and got away with $2,500.

Miss Lizzie Simpson was killed by a cable car on the Downey avenue bridge in Los Angeles January 26.

The California State Bank of Sacramento January 28 sued the Sacramento Bee for $25,000 libel.

Three Chinamen were killed by a snowslide near Dutch Flat, Placer County, January 29.

At a foreclosure sale January 24, the Nadeau Block in Los Angeles was sold to Joseph Harrill of Visalia for $238,000.

Quite a commotion was caused in Sacramento by the suicide of William F. Huntoon, cashier of the Peoples Savings Bank.

A 75,000-ton ice crop was this month harvested and stored at Boca, Nevada County.

Mrs. Sorona Halbud, wife of a Riverside attorney, January 27 committed suicide at San Bernardino.

Mrs. Harriet Hutchins, wife of Rev. R. G. Hutchins, January 14 committed suicide in Westlake Park, Los Angeles.

Six hundred twenty-one prisoners were confined in the Folsom State Prison January 1.

The Baker Block in Fresno, completed in December, was destroyed by fire January 18.

Captain James Morrison was washed overboard from the schooner Olga in San Francisco Bay January 20 and drowned.

S. W. Garness, San Francisco money broker, was shot and killed by D. H. Arnold, former

All doubt as to the loyalty of California to the Union was cast aside in the fall of 1861, when Leland Stanford was elected Governor on a platform of loyalty to the Union.

STATEHOOD FOR HAWAII

Admiral Yates Stirling of the United States Navy had in a recent issue of Liberty a timely article contending Hawaii should not be granted statehood because of its Oriental majority, upon whose loyalty to America he cast serious doubt. Samuel Wilder King, Congressional Representative from Hawaii, and Lawrence M. Judd, former Governor of that Territory, had an answering article in Liberty setting forth reasons for statehood, but minimizing the race question. The California Joint Immigration Committee, with which the Order of Native Sons of the Golden West is identified, answered King and Judd, and sent that answer to Liberty, which declined to give it publication. Containing interesting and vital data on the Hawaiian statehood question, the answer of the California Joint Immigration Committee is here published.—Editor.

"SAMUEL WILDER KING, DELEGATE IN Congress from the Territory of Hawaii, and Lawrence M. Judd, former Governor of that Territory, make many interesting statements in their answers in Liberty of September 2nd to Admiral Yates Stirling, U.S.N., who contended in Liberty of June 17th that Hawaii is not to be trusted with statehood. But they appear to be more concerned with beclouding issues and evading facts than in discussing the subject realistically and frankly.

"Mr. Judd, for instance, dwells at some length upon the taxes paid annually by Hawaii into the Treasury of the United States, its great industrial development and the comparatively high wages paid, and the value of goods bought from the mainland each year, as reasons why statehood should be granted. But he fails to state that as Governor in 1931 he vetoed a resolution of the Territorial Legislature requesting statehood, declaring then that such a request should be postponed until time had shown how the Asiatic majority would exercise its control of the franchise. Why does he advocate statehood now?

"The population of Hawaii as of 1938 is 411,485, of which 261,786 or 63 percent are Asiatics (including Asiatic-Hawaiians), and 153,539 are Japanese. The latter constitute 58 percent of the Asiatic group and 37 percent of the total population. A large majority of these Orientals are, as Mr. Judd insists, American citizens by right of birth, but in the Annual Reports of the Governor of Hawaii, and in the United States Census, they are classified as Japanese, Chinese, Filipinos and Koreans—American born. Orientals, American and foreign born, are thus classified in the Census, for California and every State in the Union. This is not race prejudice, as claimed by Mr. King; it is long established procedure. Thus is explained the statement of Admiral Stirling, which both gentlemen profess not to understand, that 'Hawaii is an Oriental land, overrun with a mixed population . . . mostly Oriental, many of them from the dregs of Asia.' Mr. King tries to create the impression that Hawaii is no different from any other American community, but every tourist will tell of the almost completely Oriental aspect of the population; and the domination of trades and retail business by the Japanese is too well known to be denied. Even in that much publicized melting pot of Hawaii, the Japanese do not intermarry with those of other races to any extent. They maintain their racial purity and hold themselves a community apart.

"Both Mr. Judd and Mr. King fail to state that more than 66 percent of the American born Japanese of the Territory, even those registered as voters, have dual citizenship. That is, because they were registered at birth with the Japanese Consulate by their parents, and have since failed to expatriate,—although free to do so by simple notification under Japanese law—they are citizens of both the United States and Japan. Is this conducive to confidence in their Americanism? The custom of registering American born Japanese at the Consulate still continues, 778 having been so registered in 1934. Many of these children are sent to Japan in early childhood to be educated, and when they return at maturity they are practically alien Japanese immigrants. There are about 50,000 of these Kibei Shimin, as they are called, in Japan at the present time.

"Mr. King quotes from a majority report of the Committee of the Senate and House of Representatives which visited Hawaii in 1937 for the purpose of investigating the statehood question, to the effect that Hawaii showed its loyalty by exceeding its draft quota during the last war. It would be interesting to learn just how many of those drafted were ever permitted to leave the Islands for active duty. In spite of many complimentary statements by its various individual members, the Congressional Committee recommended that statehood be not yet granted. The printed transcript of the hearing discloses the fact that many people really feared to testify against statehood, being afraid of offending both the ruling wealthy class and the Asiatic majority. The transcript of the Congressional Committee hearing on statehood in 1935 was so edited by a prominent Hawaiian educator that practically no important statements against statehood appeared therein.

"No mention is made by either Mr. King or Mr. Judd of the 178 Japanese language schools of the Territory, where 41,173 young American citizens are taught daily, after public school hours, the language and culture of Japan. These schools are maintained by the Japanese community at a cost of from $500,000 to $800,000 per year (exclusive of textbooks which are printed in Japan), and are alien directed and controlled. Of the 705 teachers in these schools (mostly Shinto-Buddhists), 416 are alien Japanese! The Honolulu Advertiser published a lengthy article on the subject of these language schools on October 13, 1935, and said in conclusion, 'The community feels that Japanization at present plays a dominant part in the purpose of the language school.' There are also a few Chinese and Korean schools in the Territory.

"Since only about 24 percent of the Japanese of the Territory are aliens, for whom are the several Japanese language papers published? They are alien owned and controlled, have larger circulation than the English papers, and frequently are quite inimical to America and its spirit.

"In 1935 there was in use in the public schools of Honolulu a textbook on Japan compiled under joint auspices of the Cultural Relations Society of Japan (Professor N. Royama coming from Tokyo to assist in its preparation), the Institute of Pacific Relations and the Territorial Board of Education. It contained misstatement and propaganda, to induce favorable opinion on the part of teachers and students, of Japan's present course in Asia and of her persistent attempt to force repeal of the exclusion measure of the Immigration Restriction Act of 1924. The book was later withdrawn under criticism and rewritten.

"In 1920 during the sugar strike in Hawaii, practically all Japanese, both American and foreign born, united in an alleged attempt to gain control of the plantations. Later a group of planters went to Washington and asked Congress to allow them to bring otherwise inadmissible labor into the Territory for a specified stay, to meet the emergency existing in the shortage of agricultural labor. Said Walter F. Dillingham, Chairman of the Group, 'The Japanese now has money he never had before and has determined to use that money and the strength of his numbers to leave the established industries without necessary labor and enter into competition with these established industries or actually acquire them.' Some of these planters acknowledge privately that the safety of the Territory and of the country itself calls for a Commission form of government should any change be made.

"Were statehood granted, many alien Orientals, now barred, would probably be able to migrate to the mainland. They would, of course, congregate in California; and California wants no more alien Orientals.

"That Hawaii contributes heavily in taxes to the Treasury of the United States is not denied, nor is it denied that it is an enlightened and extremely prosperous community. The ruling Caucasian oligarchy wants statehood because it would profit thereby financially and politically. Certain inequalities in sugar quotas work a hardship on that industry, the largest in the Islands. Possibly this condition, and perhaps others, could be improved. But the welfare and safety of the one hundred and thirty million Americans in the rest of the country should not be jeopardized by turning over the government of its most important military defense to an Asiatic majority whose loyalty remains in some doubt. That would be, in Admiral Stirling's words, leaning on a very slender reed, propagandists to the contrary notwithstanding."

The San Fernando Valley Poultry Breeders Association will have its annual midwinter show January 12-14 at North Hollywood, Los Angeles County.

"It is the first job of America to restore genuine self-respecting jobs in productive enterprise."—Herbert C. Hoover.

JUSTICE IN EARLYDAY SAN FRANCISCO

GERALD J. KENNY
(Castro Parlor No. 232 N.S.G.W.)

WHILE LAUDING THE DEEDS OF the Pioneers who carved out this commonwealth, California, from the wilderness, it is well to consider early-day justice in San Francisco. The first recorded crime there was a murder, in 1838. Galindo, the grantee of the Lake Merced Rancho, killed one Peralta. The alcalde or chief magistrate was Francisco de Haro, and he was bothered about the matter of detaining the accused, Galindo, because San Francisco, or Yerba Buena as it was then called, had no jail. So he wrote letters to five of the principal citizens of San Francisco, requiring them to help guard the prisoner—Nathan Spear, after whom Spear street is named; Captain Richardson, builder of Yerba Buena's first dwelling and captain of the port of San Francisco; Juan Fuller, the town's first laundryman butcher and who, besides using Yerba Buena Island as feeding and breeding ground for his goats, which gave the island its pet name, was town treasurer for a time; Francisco Caseres, a merchant, and Jacob Primer Leese, who opened the first store here. Alcalde De Haro, who gave his name to De Haro street, thus succeeded in having his prisoner guarded, and finally the accused was removed to San Jose, where there was a jail. It would be considered quite humorous today if the mayor of San Francisco called on some leading citizens to guard a prisoner, yet in 1838 that's just what the chief magistrate of this city was forced to do.

The city was fairly peaceful for a number of years, until along came the discovery of gold at Sutter's Mill by Jim Marshall, January 24, 1848. The influx of gold-seekers brought tough characters from everywhere to San Francisco. There was no state government—California was not yet a state—and the municipal government under Alcalde Leavenworth, the Leavenworth who gave his name to a street, was powerless to cope with the sudden growth of population and its accompanying bad men.

An organization calling themselves The Hounds, and later The Regulators, drew to itself all the disreputable individuals who came to town. They set about taking toll from the inhabitants of foreign birth and backed up their demands with violence. They had headquarters on Kearny street, near Clay, which they called Tammany Hall. Sunday, July 15, 1849, they returned from a marauding excursion on what is now the Oakland side of the bay and, under the leadership of one of their lieutenants marched up the south flank of Telegraph Hill where Chilians, Peruvians and other people of Latin blood had their homes. There they robbed, assaulted and fired upon their victims and left after destroying the tents in which the poor people lived.

San Francisco's stalwart citizens called a mass meeting the next day in Portsmouth Square. The town was roused. The few police were powerless. The mass meeting organized, and W. D. M. Howard was chosen chairman. San Brannan made an impassioned speech, and 230 special constables were sworn in and armed with muskets. That same afternoon some twenty of The Hounds were picked up and placed on board the United States ship "Warren," for there was no safe place on shore in which to jail them.

The citizens proceeded to engage the best legal talent to conduct the trials. Senator Gwin acted as one of the judges, as did James C. Ward. Hall McAllister, Francis J. Lippett, Horace Hawes and Frank Turk appeared as prosecutors. A jury was drawn and after an orderly trial Sam Roberts, leader of The Hounds, and some eight others were found guilty. Roberts and one Saunders were given ten years at hard labor, and the others lesser sentences.

Things were fairly peaceful in the city for the next two years, but in 1851 increasing lawlessness led to the organization of the Vigilance Committee of 1851.

A lawless group of so-called Sydney Cove bad men and convicts, settled along Pacific street and Broadway from Kearny to Battery. Murders became of frequent occurrence and robberies were daily events. Arrests were made but few convictions followed. Finally the robbery of a safe from a place of business on Lombard Wharf, now Commercial street, brought matter to a head. One John Jenkins did the job and a he was making off with the strong box he was seen and followed. He dropped the safe into a small boat and made off, but was captured.

Jenkins was taken to the rooms of the Vigilance Committee on Battery street near the corner of Pine. The bell of Monumental Engine Company was rung, and eighty members of the Committee came on the run. Two hours later, at midnight, the bell of California Engine Company was tolled, thus advising the town that a death sentence had been passed. A little before 6 o'clock, June 11, 1851, Sam Brannan mounted a sand dune and briefly explained what the Committee had done. Then he told the crowd that the execution would take place within the hour at Portsmouth Square, and he asked if the crowd approved. A thunder of "Ayes" answered, and there were but a few feeble "Noes." Jenkins was hanged to a cross beam holding the eaves of the south end of the Custom House, that then stood in Portsmouth Square, bounded by Clay street, Brenham place, Washington and Kearny streets. Before the 1851 Committee disbanded, there were three other executions—those of Stuart, Whittaker and McKenzie.

There is one thing that must not be lost sight of, and that is the frontier character of San Francisco from 1849 to 1859. Here was a town into which poured every rogue and rascal driven out of his home surroundings, and these miscreants hoped here to ply their nefarious livelihoods amid rich pickings. The stalwart citizens who made up the bulk of the population were forced to take matters into their own hands; either that or admit they were weaklings.

Political corruption was the cause indirectly of the flaring up of San Francisco's wrath in 1856, and the immediate cause was the murder of James King of William, editor of the San Francisco Bulletin and member of the 1851 Committee.

King discovered that one James Casey, a politician, had served a prison term in New York before coming to San Francisco and published the fact in his newspaper. Casey met King on Washington street just west of the crossing of Montgomery street the afternoon of May 14, 1856, pulled out his pistol and shot King. Casey surrendered to Sheriff David Scannell, afterwards famous as chief of the Fire Department, and was whisked off to the Broadway jail. King lingered until May 18. But the night of King's shooting, the old members of the Committee of 1851 got together and formed the Vigilance Committee of 1856. The shooting of King was all that was needed to outrage the public. Shortly before, United States Marshal Richardson had been killed by one Charles Cora, a case of plain murder, and strangely the jury could not agree. This also provoked public indignation.

Some 6,000 of the best citizens of San Francisco were enrolled, formed into companies, armed and drilled. It was a time of determination. At a given signal the various units left their armories and marched to the Broadway jail between Kearny street and Grant avenue. There was no Columbus avenue then. An artillery company brought a cannon to bear upon the jail door, and the leaders of the Committee, Coleman and Bluxome, stepped forward to parley with the sheriff and his guards.

A time limit was set for the surrender of both Casey and Cora. Before the time expired the prisoners were given up, placed in carriages and driven to Fort Gunnybags, the Committee's headquarters on lower Sacramento street. There they were tried, and the forms of law were so far followed that counsel was appointed for the prisoners. The result of the trial was a death sentence for both.

As the bells were tolling for the funeral of James King of William, Casey and Cora were hanged. Two more malefactors were disposed of by the Committee of 1856, Brace and Hetherington, and August 18, 1856, but ninety days after its reorganization, the Vigilance Committee of 1856 held a grand review of its more than 3,000 members and disbanded.

There were many good citizens of San Francisco who disagreed with the actions of the Committee, men who believed that the law should take its course. In this group who did not approve of the Vigilantes were Governor Neely Johnson, General William T. Sherman and Supreme Justice David Terry.

After the Committee of 1856 disbanded, there followed a proper regard for the orderly processes of law. San Francisco was more of a settled community. The flush days of the gold rush were past. Men had acquired permanent homes, and had brought their women to live here. Men became proud of their city. This was no longer the wild and woolly West, but the metropolises of the West.

EXACT SITE HISTORIC SONOMA

"NASH" ADOBE IS LOCATED.

The exact site of the adobe house in Sonoma where Lieutenant William Tecumseh Sherman arrested John H. Nash, loquacious alcalde and self-appointed chief justice of the community, in June 1847, and brought a change in Sonoma County politics, has been determined by Professor G. W. Hendry and Dr. J. H. Bowman of the University of California. It was supposed the historic adobe is one still standing on East First street in Sonoma. Long-forgotten court records, however, revealed the exact location otherwheres.

The so-called Nash adobe was built on the site now occupied by a branch bank and a harness shop at the southeast corner of the historic Plaza and Broadway. H. A. Green, lawyer and lumberman, was the builder. Nash, a bachelor, went to live there previous to 1847. In that year Governor Mason ordered him to give up his office in favor of the newly-appointed alcalde, the former Governor Boggs of Missouri. Nash refused and Governor Mason turned the matter over to the army.

Lieutenant Sherman, stationed at Monterey, marched through central California with a small body of troops to Sonoma, took Nash into custody, and returned him to Monterey, where he was soon released and went to the mines. Later the adobe was turned over to Sonoma County by Green and converted into the county court house when Sonoma was named the county seat.

THE SAN FRANCISCO (1939) GRAND Parlor made provision for the holding of a ritual contest among the Subordinate Parlors, and Grand President Jesse H. Miller named the following committee to have charge of the contest: Law T. Freitas of Stockton No. 7, chairman, June J. Longshore of Sacramento No. 3 and Robert W. Brazelton of Arrowhead No. 110, San Bernardino.

Under date of December 1 the committee communicated with all Parlors, urging their participation in the contest, and stipulating, among other things: "Officers elected and installed for the term January-June 1940 shall compete. No substitutions shall be allowed." A first prize of $125 and a second prize of $75 will be awarded winning teams selected in the northern and the southern districts of the state, and they will compete for the championship at the Bakersfield (1940) Grand Parlor.

Additional information regarding the ritual contest may be obtained by addressing Chairman Freitas, Belding Building, Stockton, or Grand Secretary John T. Regan, 414 Mason street, San Francisco.

Making Fine Progress.

Cambria—Grand Trustee Walter C. Richards paid his third visit December 16 to Cambria No. 152, which has been reorganized and is making fine progress. He was accompanied by Grand Organist R. ger Johnson, Hampton Neergaard and Mat Soares of Stephen M. White No. 263, San Pedro, and Joe Costello of Compton No. 273. Supervising Deputy James Call of District No. 2 headed a large delegation from Santa Clara County Parlors.

Eight candidates were initiated, the ritual being impressively exemplified by the following: Supervising Deputy Call, president; Sam Marinello, Mountain View No. 215, first vice-president; Joe Lawrence, San Jose No. 22, second vice-president; E. Lorentz Jr., San Jose No. 22, third vice-president; Grand Trustee Richards, marshal; Simon Semichy, San Jose No. 22, inside sentinel; Harold Semichy, San Jose No. 22, junior past president; Matt Soares, Stephen M. White No. 263, senior past president; Grand Organist Johnson, pianist. Cambria now has a membership of thirty-five, with several applications on file.

Enthusiastic addresses were made by Grand Trustee Richards, Supervising Deputy Call, President Ernest Lorentz Jr. and Secretary Joseph Lawrence of San Jose Parlor, and Marinello. Following the meeting refreshments were served, and those seated about the festive board had a fine time singing oldtime songs to the piano and guitar accompaniment of Roger Johnson and John Soto Sr. Arrangements for the evening were in charge of George Gillespie, a fifty-year member of Cambria, and J. M. Soto.

Reception for Grand Officers.

Placerville—Placerville No. 9 and Marguerite No. 12 N.D. had an informal reception December 2 for Grand First Vice-president Henry S. Lyon and Grand Outside Sentinel Nora Gray. Ellsworth Willard was master of ceremonies, and entertainment was provided by Evelyn Lyon, Norma Keltz, Agnes Schiff, George McKee, Ethel Wickes and Ruby Wright. Dancing was in order, following a grand march led by Grand Vice-president Lyon and wife, and a buffet supper was served. Among the many attending were Past Grand Bertha A. Briggs, Genevieve Didion and May Lucas of the Native Daughters, from Sacramento, and George Hofmeister, No. 9's only living charter member.

Placerville Parlor had its annual New Year dance December 30. The arrangements committee included Harold Duden, chairman, Lorin Waldron, A. J. Orelli, J. G. Leonardi, Bob Hook and Chris. Orelli. At election of officers Ogden Hook was elected president of the Parlor.

Institution Anniversary Observed.

Centerville—Washington No. 169 observed its forty-ninth institution anniversary with the initiation of a large class of candidates. The officers of the Parlor, with Judge Allen G. Norris acting as president, exemplified the ritual in a masterful manner and received many compliments.

A turkey supper followed the ceremonies, with Judge Norris as the toastmaster. Speakers included Grand President Jesse H. Miller, Grand Trustee Richard F. McCarthy, visiting grand officer of the Parlor, and Frank T. Dusterberry, one of Washington's two surviving charter members. Also in attendance were Junior Past Grand Joseph J. McShane, Grand Second Vice-president Edward T. Schnarr, Grand Third Vice-president Lloyd J. Cosgrove, Grand Secretary John T. Regan, Grand Trustee Wayne R. Millington and Past Grand Chas. A. Koenig.

N.S.G.W.—NEWS PARAGRAPHS.—N.S.G.W.

With Grand President Jesse H. Miller presiding, the grand officers will dedicate a high school at Grass Valley, Nevada County, January 21. Eben K. Smart is chairman of the committee of Quartz No. 58 that has charge of arrangements.

Sacramento—Sacramento No. 3 had a large number of visitors, among them Grand First Vice-president Henry S. Lyon, Grand Inside Sentinel Walter N. Bailey and Supervising Deputy Albert W. Katzenstein, November 30. Several candidates were initiated, and refreshments were served. The arrangements committee for the evening included J. G. Fitzhenry, R. C. Cothrin, Wm. Kelly and M. E. Kempster.

Ione—Ione No. 33 initiated December 6 Noel W. Stewart, son of Charter Member Harry Stewart. On the Parlor's behalf, President Joe Saunders presented a gift to the elder Stewart in honor of his eighty-first birthday. Lester Gillum was elected president for the January-June term. At the meeting's close a chicken supper was provided by George Yager and Will Flithian.

Grass Valley—Quartz No. 58 had its annual Christmas party December 18 under the chairmanship of Harold Hansen. After group singing and an elaborate program Robert Payne, disguised as Santa Claus, distributed gifts to the many present. During the evening two candidates were initiated. Delicious refreshments were served at the meeting's close.

Auburn—Wendell T. Robie of Auburn No. 59, a ski enthusiast, attended the annual meeting of the American Olympic Winter Sports Committee at Minneapolis, Minnesota.

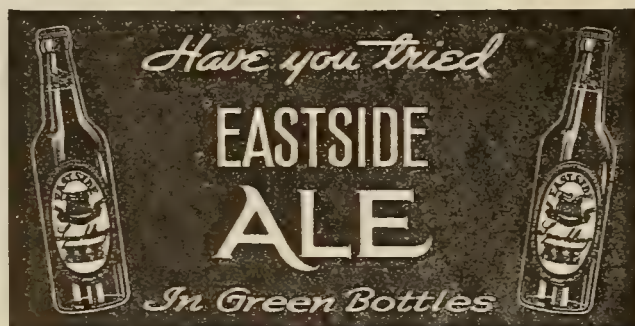

Napa—Napa No. 62 held its first annual fun frolic for the benefit of the homeless children December 9. Games provided entertainment and good music was furnished for dancing. The affair was a great success.

San Rafael—As its annual benefit for the homeless children, Mount Tamalpais No. 64 sponsored a dinner and card party November 29. The function was a huge financial and social success, the profits running well over $200, the largest amount ever raised for the "kiddies" by the Parlor. Leslie R. Dietz and Charles B. White were co-chairmen of the committee in charge. They placed milk bottles in several stores, and a goodly sum in small coins was obtained from them. Officers-elect of Mount Tamalpais will be jointly installed with those of Marinita No. 198 N.D. January 22; admission only by invitation.—M.A.A.

Colusa—Colusa No. 69's corral night, the annual homecoming and rollick, December 5, was largely attended. A turkey supper and entertainment preceded the meeting. Grand Trustee Charles A. Redding paid his official visit and in the course of an address said that organizations such as the Native Sons "safeguard the democratic ideals of the commonwealth and are of vital importance to the future of the state, politically, socially and spiritually."

Ukiah—Ukiah No. 71 and Ukiah No. 263 N.D. had their annual joint Christmas party for members and their families December 18. The arrangements committee included Albert Bechtol, Fred Figone, Harry Carr, Dan Cohen, D. Donati, Alma Zimmerman, Eva Brucker, Mary Acuff and Elizabeth Evans. Harry Carr has been elected president of Ukiah No. 71.

WANT NO TAMPERING WITH LAWS

RESTRICTING UNDESIRABLE ALIENS.
Editor Grizzly Bear: The Japanese press of San Francisco is already suggesting that provisions for naturalization, immigration quota and land ownership for Japanese be discussed if a new treaty, to take the place of the abrogated Treaty of Commerce and Navigation of 1911 with Japan, is negotiated in January 1940.

These matters are governed by specific laws. The naturalization law of 1790, as amended, limits naturalization to "free white persons and to aliens of African nativity and to persons of African descent." Section 13c of the Immigration Restriction Act of 1924 provides that "No alien ineligible to citizenship shall be admitted to the United States" as an immigrant for permanent settlement; and the owning and leasing of land is governed by laws of the individual states.

The Treaty was abrogated as a punitive measure against Japan for infringing on American rights in China. It is to be expected that the President will not recommend, nor will the Senate ratify, the grant of any concession to Japan which would nullify these laws and go counter to the desire of California and the Pacific Coast, as a treaty is the supreme law of the land. From these states, where is centered practically the entire Oriental population of continental United States, came the original demand for exclusion of ineligible aliens. And from these states has come determined opposition to any weakening of the prohibition against Oriental immigration into this country, under quota or otherwise. Yours very truly, JAMES K. FISK, Chairman California Joint Immigration Committee, San Francisco, December 9, 1939.

NEW IDEAS FROM GRIZZLY.

Editor Grizzly Bear: Morada Parlor No. 199 N.D.G.W. has gained many new ideas through reading in The Grizzly Bear of the activities of other Parlors, and enough praise cannot be given for the interesting articles which each issue contains.

May The Grizzly Bear Magazine serve us for many more years, thereby filling a need in the home of every member of our Order. Sincerely and fraternally in P.D.F.A., MORADA PARLOR No. 199 N.D.G.W., by MARY J. BLAINE, recording secretary, Modesto, December 17, 1939.

CO-OPERATION APPRECIATED.

Editor Grizzly Bear: On behalf of the national officers of the American Red Cross I wish to transmit our deep appreciation for the splendid co-operation of The Grizzly Bear Magazine in the annual membership campaign of our organization.

Your generous contribution of space has enabled us to reach a larger audience of Americans. This support is doubly important this year because of the heavier responsibilities placed on the Red Cross by events here at home and abroad. Sincerely yours, G. STEWART BROWN, National Director Public Information Service, Washington, D. C., December 4, 1939.

PAYS TO ADVERTISE.

Editor Grizzly Bear: I received an order from Chicago, Illinois, through my advertisement in The Grizzly Bear. J. A. GREGORY, Gregory's Floral Shop, San Bernardino, December 11, 1939.

MOUNT DIABLO'S MAKEUP

TO BE SHOWN BY PANELS.

A graphic display of how Mount Diablo, Contra Costa County, would look if taken apart and exposed to the deepest portion of its foundations, is to be installed on the mountain by the University of California in the near future.

The display will be in the form of a number of roadside panels set at key points, geologically speaking, from the top to the bottom of the mountain. Each panel will reveal the geologic formation and fossil life over the area that may be readily viewed from that particular panel.

Through trailside and roadside panels, the geologic formation of the whole mountain will be explained in considerable detail. The cases holding these dioramic panels will also contain a number of the fossils found in the area that can be seen from the panel itself, thus completing the picture not only of geologic but of earliest biologic life.

"Associated effort requires consideration for others, a conception of liberty which is not for one's self alone, but a willingness to accord the same liberty to others, and the attrition of intercourse and goodfellowship and kindly feeling."

CATALINA ISLAND, TWENTY MILES off southern California, may be 30,000,000 years older as a land area than other islands of the channel group or of parts of the coastal mainland itself. Such is the theory advanced by Dr. Francis P. Shepard of the Scripps Institution of Oceanography, Dr. U. S. Grant of the University of California at Los Angeles, and R. S. Dietz of the University of Illinois, after making a geological study of the island. It disputes a former theory which claimed that Catalina Island was the same age as others in the channel group.

The former theory held that all islands off southern California had been uplifted from the sea during the Pleistocene times. The discovery of marine fossils and wave-cut terraces on Catalina were offered as evidence that it, too, had been uplifted at the same time as the others. A re-examination of this evidence indicates that Catalina has been elevated since Miocene times—possibly 30,000,000 years earlier than the Pleistocene age.

The existence of shell deposits and rounded pebbles on Catalina shows merely that the island has been elevated since Miocene times, or that they may have been carried there by Indians. The flat summits of the mountains and the poorly-developed terraces probably date back to a pre-Pleistocene age.

BAZAR A HUGE SUCCESS.

Glendale—All officers of Verdugo Parlor No. 240 N.D.G.W., with Mrs. Ethyl M. Kern as president, were re-elected for another term December 7. Bill Davis, a San Fernando veteran, was "adopted" at the suggestion of Mrs. Elsie Bledsoe. Three veterans are being taken care of, and Christmas gifts were sent them December 21. The bazar of December 7 was a huge success, and attracted a large crowd. The turkey dinner was delicious—the very best ever being the unanimous opinion of those who partook. Mrs. Evalyn Wilson is forming an escort team, and to raise funds for the team a paper drive is in progress.

Verdugo had a Christmas party December 20 for the families of its members. Motion pictures delighted the children and husbands, and musical numbers were presented by Miss Phyllis Overton, Miss Barbara Wilson and Patsy Knotz. Santa Claus arrived with a sack of presents and candy for the children, and he also distributed beautiful gifts provided by the "secret sisters." Community singing, and refreshments served by Mrs. Margaret Donlin and a special group, ended a most enjoyable and exciting evening.

January 23 will be past presidents night at Verdugo, and an interesting program is being arranged. Many members of neighboring Parlors are expected as guests of the occasion. Grand Vice-president Hazel B. Hansen, who spent the holidays at home, and Deputy Marcella Palethorpe will be among those present.—E.M.K.

EIGHTY CHILDREN MADE HAPPY.

Los Angeles Parlor No. 45 N.S.G.W. had its annual Christmas party December 22, and entertained eighty children and seventy-five adults. A very enjoyable program was rendered, with Grand Organist Roger M. Johnson and his daughter, Donna Jean, at the piano. Robert M. Pesqueira sang "Silent Night" and other Christmas selections, and Rene LeMoine played the harmonica. Rufus Vezlerian, as Santa Claus, distributed hundreds of toys and numerous packages of nuts and candies to the children. All enjoyed refreshments of ice cream, cake and coffee. Owen S. Adams was the general chairman of arrangements.

The third "Know Your California" quiz, conducted by C. Harry Davis December 8, was won by President-elect Carroll M. Manley, winner of the two previous contests. The fourth quiz, billed for January 12, will be conducted by Manley. January 26, Los Angeles will have initiation, followed by entertainment and refreshments.

BRIDES TO "SHOW OFF" COOKING.

President Louise McNary of Los Angeles Parlor No. 124 N.D.G.W. entertained her officers with a delicious buffet supper at her home, and a lavish program of activities for the ensuing term was planned. Deputy Evalyn Wilson was also present. During the past two months the Parlor adopted two babies—one being named Louise, after President McNary, and the other will be called Nick or Carol in recognition of the Parlor's method of performing a charitable deed during the Christmas holiday season. Because of so many requests, another blanket club of fifty is to be sponsored; see Olinda Thomas if interested.

At the January 3 meeting of Los Angeles plans for the new term will be presented. The sewing club will meet January 13 at the home of Elsie and Dorothy Quackenbush, 3313 Flower drive. Refreshments will be served. At these gatherings a great deal of sewing for the homeless children is accomplished, and the members are afforded an opportunity to become better acquainted. January 17, the Parlor's recent brides will have an opportunity to "show off" their cooking abilities, as they have charge of the party for that evening. The committee includes Evelyn Arlen, chairman, Olinda Thomas, Nelle Graves, Mabel Owen, Marguerite Cogswell, Roberta Hartnack, Letha Papineau and Emma Copple.

If you have not visited the Griffith Park Planetarium you may do so by joining the pilgrimage arranged by the Parlor's history and land-

BIRTHDAY DINNER.

Compton. At a largely attended birthday dinner December 5, Compton Parlor No. 273 N.S.G.W. honored its past presidents and several prospective members. The feast of turkey was prepared and served by Compton Parlor No. 258 N.D.G.W. Past Presidents in attendance included Roy Hecock, Roy Hood, Fred Smith, Hector Hecock, Walter Hopcraft, Don Castillo and Roy Tarleton.

At the meeting following the dinner, Supervising Deputy Roy Tarleton presided. The speaker of the evening was Chester French of Long Beach Parlor, who gave a very interesting talk on "Our Neighbor, Mexico," relating many personal experiences while traveling throughout that country. Other speakers were Judge Leonard Kaufman, Ralph Harbison, Judge Stanley Sargent and District Deputy Clarence S. Hunt. Grand Trustee Walter C. Richards, a member of Compton, paid an official visit to the Parlor December 19. Don Castillo was elected recording secretary. The Parlor has changed its place of meeting to 126 East Magnolia avenue.

"CHRISTMAS IN OLD MEXICO."

The December 12 luncheon-meeting of Californiana Parlor No. 247 N.D.G.W. brought out a goodly attendance. Christmas greens and red berries garlanded the room, and bright flowers adorned the tables. At the speakers' table were President Beatrice Wahrmond, Program Chairman Isabel Fages and the guest speaker, Lindley Bynum, field representative of the Huntington Library. His subject was "Buried Treasure," and he gave a fascinating account of his search throughout the state for valuable documents, etc. A delicious luncheon was served by Marcella Palethorpe and committee.

At the business meeting, officers were elected, Mrs. Wahrmond being again chosen president. Announcement was made that Chairman Isabel Monroe and the history and landmarks committee will be hostesses at the Banning home, Wilmington, and that in February the historic La Brea pits will be plaqued. Chairman Marion Johnson reported the ways and means committee cleared $75 for general philanthropy at the delightful event at the Women's Athletic Club December 7. A turkey, donated by Matilda Murdock, brought $10, which went to the Natives' Tournament of Roses float fund.

The Parlor's Christmas celebration December 26 was a gala occasion. Miss Eleanor Hague of Pasadena brought El Jarabe Club of twenty graceful dancers and singers, who presented "Christmas in Old Mexico." The entertainers, together with the children and grandchildren of the members, enjoyed the tree, were presented gifts and served refreshments. Chairman Flora Jacobson of the philanthropy committee presented Christmas baskets to several families.

At the January 9 luncheon-meeting of Californiana, Mrs. Mildred Vance Brown, assistant curator of history at the Los Angeles Museum, will speak on "Old Laces and Fans." January 15, Miss Minnie Joughin will be luncheon hostess to the Gertrude Sewing Circle at her home, 2338 West Twenty-second street. For reservations phone RO 2450.—O.L.

JOINT N.S. INSTALLATION.

Officers-elect of Los Angeles No. 45 and Hollywood No. 196 Parlors N.S.G.W. will be jointly installed January 17 at the meetingplace of the latter, 5400 Hollywood boulevard. District Deputy O. Benton Worley will officiate, and Carroll M. Manley and Arthur Green will be installed as the respective presidents.

The ceremonies will be open to the public, and all Natives, their families and friends are invited. A program of entertainment after the installation will be followed by dancing and refreshments.

PAST PRESIDENTS SERVE DINNER.

Long Beach—The December 21 meeting of Long Beach Parlor No. 154 N.D.G.W. was preceded by a dinner served by the past presidents, with "Mother" Kate McFadyen as chairman. The tables were adorned in a Christmas motif, and an appropriate program was presented. Around a beautifully decorated tree gifts were exchanged, and the names of "secret sisters" were revealed with much merriment. Mrs. Nell Cooke

MODESTO—STANISLAUS COUNTY'S new four-story, modern-design, $250,000 Hall of Records was formally dedicated December 2 by Morada No. 199. The impressive ceremonies, attended by 1,000 persons, were broadcast. Grand Trustee Ethel C. Enos, mistress of ceremonies, and President Herbert Paul of Modesto No. 11 N.S. welcomed the throng, and Grand Marshal Claire Lindsey led the assemblage in the flag salute.

Grand President Orinda G. Giannini was the principal speaker; her topic was "Americanism—What It Means To Us," and her timely remarks, containing much food for thought, were well received. On behalf of Morada Parlor, Supervising Deputy Eleanor Lewis presented a California State (Bear) Flag to the Board of Supervisors, and it was accepted by Chairman C. C. Crowell, who briefly outlined the history of the various government seats of Stanislaus County.

The dedicatory ceremonies were conducted by President Aldiva Buran, Deputy Ethyl Gardner and Past President Geraldine Stutchman. President Buran presented the plaque, which is inscribed: "Dedicated by Morada Parlor, Native Daughters of the Golden West." Vocal selections were rendered by Miss Margery Hughson, accompanied by Miss Dorothy Kazian at the piano, and the Modesto male quartet. Instrumental numbers were played by the Stanislaus County Boys Band in natty new uniforms of blue and gold. Among the others in attendance were Grand Vice-president Hazel B. Hansen, Grand Trustees Emily Ryan and Loretta Cameron of the Native Daughters; Hartwell Summers, Leo Hammett, J. G. Veneman and Frank Raines of the Stanislaus County Board of Supervisors; County Surveyor George D. Macomber and Russell G. DeLappe, architect of the imposing building.

Morada Parlor had a reception December 2 honoring Grand Trustee Ethel C. Enos. More than a hundred guests were entertained with a musical program, and refreshments were served at a table appointed in varying shades of rose. Visiting officials included Grand President Orinda Giannini, Grand Vice-president Hazel B. Hansen, Grand Marshal Claire Lindsey, Grand Trustees Emily Ryan and Loretta Cameron, Supervising Deputies Rena Taube and Eleanor Lewis, Deputies Lorraine Toscano, Ethyl Gardner, Lillian Stammerjohan, Mae Waring, Mae Shea and Helen O'Connell, and State Chairman Junior Auxiliaries Bess Elmore.

December 18, Morada celebrated its twenty-seventh institution anniversary and had its annual Christmas party. Pearl Gordon was mistress of ceremonies, and the charter members were honor-guests. President Aldiva Buran extended a welcome, and Grand Trustee Enos spoke briefly on "Remembering." Christmas decorations prevailed, and gifts were distributed from a lighted tree. In memory of their brother and husband, respectively, a beautiful United States of America Flag was presented the Parlor by Ann Osborne and Katherine Gomes. Six candidates were initiated November 22, and additional candidates will be initiated January 10.

December 6, Morada and Modesto No. 11 N.S. had their monthly public whist party. Sixty-two tables were in operation, and dancing and refreshments followed the play. The January party is billed for the 17th. December 20, the Parlors had their annual Christmas party for less-fortunate children. Some one hundred, most of them wards of Stanislaus County, were entertained.

Membership Roll Increasing.

Petaluma—Petaluma No. 222 welcomed Grand President Orinda G. Giannini on her official visit November 21. There was a large attendance, including twelve charter members of the Parlor. A turkey dinner, served at tables decorated by Jennie Fadelli with autumn leaves and flowers, preceded the meeting at which President Pearl Hickey presided. Five candidates were initiated. On the Parlor's behalf, Martha Skoff presented a gift to Mrs. Giannini. Supervising Deputy Alice Munz was among the many visitors. Elsie Delloca Riccoli was chairman of the enjoyable evening, which concluded with refreshments served at prettily decorated tables.

Six candidates were initiated December 19, when Deputy Leopolda Vier was a visitor. A Christmas tree party followed the meeting, and Santa Claus distributed gifts. Delicious refreshments were served by Amelia Bayless, Dee Battaglia and Bessie Bello. The Parlor will have a New Year party January 2; Zoura Tompkins and Pearl Hickey are the co-chairmen.—A.B.

"Encourage historical pilgrimages to increase interest in and a reverence for the pioneer days. Stress the meaning of California names, and use your influence that they be retained. Mark all historic spots and make an effort to restore landmarks. Historical spots and landmarks keep alive the memories of the past and give an interesting publicity to your vicinity."—Past Grand Esther R. Sullivan, chairman Grand Parlor History and Landmarks Committee.

San Jose Activities.

San Jose—Grand President Orinda G. Giannini officially visited San Jose No. 81 and Vendome No. 100 at a largely attended joint meeting December 7. Among other guests were Grand Secretary Sallie R. Thaler, Grand Trustee Emily Ryan, Past Grand Bertha A. Briggs and Evelyn I. Carlson, Supervising Deputy Alice Roll, Deputies Louise Carto and Henriette Marcotte. Four candidates were initiated for San Jose Parlor, and the Grand President gave a talk on California history. Decorations were in keeping with the Christmas spirit. Gifts were presented, including a corsage of orchids to Mrs. Giannini from San Jose No. 22 and Observatory No. 177 N.S. Previous to the meeting dinner was served.

Vendome members enjoyed the annual Christmas tree party December 27. Mrs. Horton Kooser has been elected president. Officers of the Parlor will be installed jointly with those of Observatory N.S. January 10. The sewing club had four social affairs during December. Mms. Harry Faulkner, Willard Barkley, Winifred Laffey and William T. Roberts were the hostesses. The past presidents club had its annual Christmas party at the San Jose Country Club. Mrs. Alfred Moore was elected president for 1940. Hostesses were Mms. Urban Sontheimer, Fred Withycombe and Malcolm Donald. Miss Frances Chargin of Los Angeles, a member of Vendome, spent the Thanksgiving holidays with her parents.

Santa Clara County Past Presidents Association No. 3 had a jolly Christmas party December 12. Social hostesses were Misses Martha Waddington, chairman, and Elsie Fisher, Mms. Ella Graham and Dora Dunn. A program was presented and refreshments were served. Miss Dorothy Salas was elected president, and Mrs. Claire Borchers reported for the welfare committee, which has aided many needy families.—C.G.

"All members are earnestly urged to remember The Grizzly Bear Magazine, which is recommended to every Native Daughter as a means of education, inspiration and entertainment, most beneficial in its every influence, and worthy of a place in every home."—Past Grand President Bertha A. Briggs, Chairman Grand Parlor N.D.G.W. Publicity Committee.

GRAND PRESIDENT'S OFFICIAL ITINERARY.

San Francisco—Grand President Orinda G. Giannini will officially visit the following Subordinate Parlors on the dates noted:

JANUARY 1940.

20th—Orinda No. 56, San Francisco.

25th—Sequoia No. 272, Berkeley.

29th—Eshcol No. 16, Napa.

N.D.G.W.—NEWS NOTES.—N.D.G.W.

Jackson—Mrs. Ellen Douglas Boarman-Harrington, charter member Ursula No. 1 and Permanent Member of the Grand Parlor, died November 23 in Albany, Alameda County. She was born at Lancha Plana, Amador County, June 4, 1862, and was a sister of Secretary Emma Boarman-Wright of Ursula.

Sacramento—Miss May A. Terry, charter member Califa No. 22, died in San Francisco November 29. She was born at San Francisco, January 23, 1866.

Murphys—Ruby No. 46 celebrated its fiftieth institution anniversary with a turkey dinner and entertainment December 11. Among the many in attendance were Past Grand Carrie Roesch-Durham, who helped institute the Parlor in 1889, Charter Members Maggie Mercer and Mary Kaler, and Deputy Gertrude Leonard. Life memberships were presented the charter members, and Ruby received as a gift from its members a piano.

"The schoolgirl of today is the woman of tomorrow, and much depends upon our guidance of her activities prior to membership in the Order of Native Daughters of the Golden West. Therefore, it behooves us to instruct her in the rudiments of our organization, and we can do this by forming Junior Auxiliaries."—Bess Elmore, chairman Grand Parlor Junior Auxiliaries Committee.

Merced—Veritas No. 75 extended Christmas cheer—provisions and gifts for the children—to several needy families. The history and landmarks committee is very active, and the Parlor is gaining in membership.—F.B.

Sutter Creek—Amapola No. 80 was entertained December 14 with colored pictures of Honolulu shown by Mr. Fuher of that city. Refreshments were served at a table beautifully decorated in a Christmas motif.—M.S.

NEW LINK IN N.D.G.W. CHAIN

YERBA BUENA PARLOR NO. 273 N.D.G.W. was instituted with 125 charter members at San Francisco Saturday afternoon, December 9. Grand President Orinda G. Giannini, who officiated, was assisted by Grand Vice-president Hazel B. Hansen, Grand Secretary Sallie R. Thaler, Grand Treasurer Agnes M. Curry, Grand Marshal Claire Lindsey, Grand Trustees Emily Ryan, Dora Brayton and Ethel Enos, Grand Organist Mae O'Keefe, Past Grand Presidents Anne C. Thuesen and Emma G. Foley, Supervising Deputy Grand President Rena Taube and deputy grand presidents of San Francisco County. The Parlor was organized by Ann S. Dippel.

Supervising Deputy Taube, assisted by the deputies, installed the Parlor's officers, as follows: President, Mary Augusta Cuneo; past president, Lucille Keogan; first vice-president, Grace Butterfield; second vice-president, Virginia Gottung; third vice-president, Ethel Newall; marshal, Sara Buckley; outside sentinel, Mabel Osborne; inside sentinel, Pearl Herman; trustees, Gertrude O'Donnell, Gertrude Tubbs and Josephine Hayes; organist, Rose Seibert; financial secretary, Lillie Robinson; recording secretary, Helen Doble; treasurer, Loretta White.

Grand President Giannini extended the Order's greetings to Yerba Buena, the thirty-first Native Daughters Parlor in San Francisco, announced the appointment of Ann S. Dippel as No. 273's deputy, and presented a silver-mounted gavel to the Parlor. The following gifts were presented also: United States of America Flag, by Mary Cuneo; California State (Bear) Flag, by Irene Schonfeld; ballot box, by Kittie Mulaney; small American Flag for president's station, by San Francisco deputies; Holy Bible, by Grace Butterfield.

Remarks were made also by Grand Vice-president Hansen, Past Grand President Dr. Mariana Bertola and Organizer Dippel. Past Grand Presidents Carrie Roesch-Durham, Mae Himes-Noonan, Mae B. Wilkin, Evelyn I. Carlson and Mary E. Bell were present also. More than 150 members of the Order were in attendance at the institution.

CHILDREN'S BENEFIT GREAT SUCCESS.

The annual homeless children benefit ball of the San Francisco N.S.G.W. and N.D.G.W. Homeless Children Committee, held in the Civic Auditorium November 25, was the usual great success, some 5,000 being in attendance.

Jesse H. Miller, Grand President N.S.G.W., and wife; Mrs. Orinda Giannini, Grand President N.D.G.W., and husband, and Fred Kockler, chairman of the committee, and wife led the grand march, one of the longest and most colorful ever witnessed in the Civic Auditorium. Both Orders received many compliments for the colorful display of the occasion.

STATE FLAG GIVEN N.D. HOME.

At the December 10 breakfast at the Native Daughters Home the hostesses were Mission No. 227, James Lick No. 220, Sans Souci No. 96, Oro Fino No. 9 and San Francisco No. 261 Parlors. Ann S. Dippel was chairman, and Josephine Morrissey, Julia Owen and Henrietta Brown were the co-chairmen. Twenty-three Parlors were represented.

N.S.G.W.—NEWS PARAGRAPHS.—N.D.G.W.

Oro Fino Parlor No. 9 N.D.G.W. had its annual turkey whist party December 18. Marie Lewis was the general chairman.

Grand Historian Dr. Peter T. Conmy addressed Pacific Parlor No. 10 N.S.G.W. on "The Founding of San Francisco" December 5; the splendid talk was well received. Grand President Jesse H. Miller, Grand Secretary John T. Regan and Past Grand Chas. A. Koenig were among the visitors. Jack Kast was elected president for the new term.

Stanford Parlor No. 76 N.S.G.W. sponsored a December 19 extraordinary Christmas event—"lovely ladies, masterful men, sensational show, delicious delicacies." Kris Kringle (Carl Boegershausen) was assisted by Gnomes Ray Arata, Elmer Collett, Art Poheim and Frank Schmidt, and Munch-King (Frank) Morris. Stanford's luncheon club—A. W. Boyken chairman, Theo. Schmidt secretary—had its annual stag Christmas luncheon December 16.

South San Francisco Parlor No. 157 N.S.G.W. reached the highest membership-mark in its history December 27, when several candidates were initiated. At the installation of Daniel J. Collins as president in July, he urged the members to co-operate with him in bringing the Parlor membership to its peak during his term of office. His aim was achieved, which shows what determination can accomplish.

Dolores Parlor No. 169 N.D.G.W. had a delightful Christmas party December 13, when two candidates were initiated. A decorated tree, wreaths and bouquets of holly adorned the hall, and Ida Corrigan impersonated the dispenser of Yuletide gifts. Officers were elected, Charlotte Arrigoni being chosen president; they will be installed January 24 at public ceremonies. Commemorating its thirtieth anniversary, the Parlor will have its annual banquet January 20.—J.B.

Chairman Alice Lane and the welfare committee of Castro Parlor No. 178 N.D.G.W. visited the kiddies at San Francisco Hospital and distributed toys and Christmas goodies. Lorene Marshal has been elected president for the January-June term. Installation will be held jointly with Castro Parlor No. 232 N.S.G.W. in January.—B.W.

Past Presidents Association No. 1 N.D.G.W. has elected Mae Shea of Orinda Parlor No. 56 president for the ensuing term. Installation will be held jointly with San Francisco Assembly No. 1 N.S.G.W. Past Presidents the first part of February.—B.W.

OLDTIMER PASSES.

Mrs. Elizabeth Spengemann-Bernhard, who came to California via Cape Horn in 1872 and settled in San Francisco, died there November 29. She was a native of New York, aged 83. Surviving are three children, among them Charles H. Spengemann of Hesperian Parlor No. 137 N.S.G.W., a former grand trustee.

The Golden Gate Exposition will reopen on San Francisco's Treasure Island May 25 and continue through September 29.

SAN BERNARDINO

SAN BERNARDINO—THE MOST SUCCESSFUL meeting of Arrowhead Parlor No. 110 N.S.G.W. in a long time was that of December 6. The festivities began with a dinner prepared by Louis Brandhoff and served under the direction of John Anderson Jr.

On the Parlor's behalf, Senator Miguel Estuillo presented to Associate Justice Jesse William Curtis of the California Supreme Court aapel button, emblematic of fifty years' continuous membership in Arrowhead. In responding, Justice Curtis related incidents of his earlier days in San Bernardino. Joseph Hapeman Wagner of Midpines, Mariposa County, was also to have received a fifty-year emblem, but ill health prevented his attendance; Jerome B. Kavanaugh stated, however, that the emblem, together with life membership, would be forwarded to him.

Other speakers who stressed the ability, integrity and high standing of Justice Curtis included Superior Judge Henry M. Willis of Los Angeles County, a past president of Arrowhead, at now affiliated with Ramona Parlor No. 109; Robert M. Clarke, former Superior Court judge of Ventura County; Rex B. Goodcell, former superior court judge of San Bernardino County, and Superior Judge Ruben S. Schmidt of Los Angeles County. Rex Estudillo spoke in behalf of the candidates for membership, of which group he was one. President Leon Gregory was in charge of the arrangements for the highly successful affair.

December 16, Arrowhead had a Christmas tag at the Crestline Clubhouse; J. Bruce Jordan was the chairman. An excellent dinner was served, and a real time was enjoyed. Chairman Betty Graydon of the Los Angeles N.S.G.W. and J.D.G.W. Joint Homeless Children Committee was a guest speaker December 20.

CHRISTMAS-BIRTHDAY PARTY.

Ontario—Observing its eighth institution anniversary, Ontario Parlor No. 251 N.D.G.W. had Christmas and birthday party December 19. Each member of the Parlor brought her own family, and a child who would otherwise have had very little Christmas cheer.

Varda Hawkes was the story lady and entertained with Christmas stories. Participating in

SANTA BARBARA

CELBRATING SAINT BARBARA DAY, birthday of the patron saint whose courage, faith and constance are believed to be exemplified in the day-by-day life of Santa Barbara, Reina del Mar Parlor No. 126 N.D.G.W. entertained at El Encanto on the Riviera, the drawingrooms of which were beautifully decorated with winter flowers. Accented particularly were the Parlor's twenty-nine years of participation, with Santa Barbara Parlor No. 116 N.S.G.W. In a statewide adoption program that has placed over 5,000 children in happy homes, and twenty-two years of sponsorship of the Family Milk Fund, now supported through the Community Chest, which distributes thousands of quarts of milk for the nourishment of under-privileged children.

Reina del Mar's adherence to the Children's Charter was emphasized by the presence of members of the Child Care Section of the County Council of Social Agencies, of which Alfred Fauerso of Santa Maria is chairman. The honoree of the occasion was Miss Dorothy Schlingman of Los Angeles, assistant secretary of the Native Sons and Native Daughters Central Homeless Children Committee. Mms. Eugene Ireland, Parlor president, William Wegener and Henry Griffith are scheduled to lead Reina del Mar through 1940, with Treasurer Dr. Anna E. McCaughy aiding. Children's Charter emphasis was directed by the civics committee of the Parlor, Mms. Wegener and Fred Davis co-chairmen, with Mrs. Fred Acres advising as Grand Parlor representative.

CHRISTMAS PROGRAMS RADIOED.

Santa Barbara Parlor No. 116 N.S.G.W. had a pre-Christmas buffet supper December 21, with A. C. McAfee, chairman of the good of the order committee, in charge. Through the efforts of James A. Sloan, the homeless children's fund was considerably enlarged. A program was presented under the direction of Captain W. H. Rutherford of the State Highway Patrol and Captain I. A. Bonilla of the Santa Barbara Fire Department. Captain Rutherford will succeed Frank Huffman as Parlor president in January.

The Native Daughters presented two radio programs over station KTMS dealing with the history of early Christmas celebrations in Santa Barbara. The first, dedicated to Mrs. Maria De la Guerra Taylor and dealing with Christmas in the Spanish period, had President Ida Ireland and Past President Dorothy Yule as principals. In the second program, dedicated to Pioneers of the American period of occupation, Miss Mary Ronk, Mrs. William A. Birss, Mrs. William Russell and Dan Stodden participated.

The Juniors of Reina del Mar Parlor presented "Christopher's Candle" to an appreciative audience December 19. In the cast of Anne Coulter Martin's one-act play were Irene Nottini, Barbara Simpson, Lucy Pensa, Owena O'Neill, Barbara Corby, Neil Welsh, George McCrea Jr. and Harold Halder. Barbara Corby directed. Frances Martini served as prompter, and Doris Mae Moses was property manager.

The program were the following children: Mary Jean Van Fleet, Gilbert Stafford, Ronald Van Fleet and Elizabeth Graves. An attraction of the evening was a beautifully decorated birthday cake.

DOINGS OF N.S. PAST PRESIDENTS.

Santa Ana—At the December 7 meeting of Arrowhead Assembly No. 14 Past President Association N.S.G.W. held at the home of Governor General Walter E. Hiskey, the following officers were elected: Harold G. Lord, governor; Lynn A. Reed, junior past governor; John P. Paralleu, first vice-governor; Harry T. Honn, second vice-governor; Dr. R. L. White, third vice-governor; Jerome B. Kavanaugh, marshal; Guy Dunlap, inside sentinel; Walter R. Glesler, outside sentinel; Ben J. Lassere, trustee.

The next meeting of the Association will be held at the meetingplace of Ramona Parlor No. 109 N.S.G.W., 1816 South Figueroa, Los Angeles, Friday, January 26. Dinner will be served at 6:30, and will be followed by entertainment.

A new road to Paradise is under construction in Santa Barbara County. It will provide access to the upper Santa Ynez River Valley areas.

Newport-Balboa, Orange County, have voted $130,000 bonds to repair storm-damaged piers.

RECORD CROWD FEASTS ON LOBSTERS

Santa Monica—The annual lobster feed of Santa Monica Bay Parlor No. 267 N.S.G.W. drew a record-breaking crowd December 12 from all the southern California Parlors. Big delegations came from Bakersfield No. 42, Arrowhead No. 110 of San Bernardino, Santa Barbara No. 126 and Santa Ana No. 265. The dinner was excellent, and those having the affair in charge—President Albert Seaman, Ralph Eisenhart, Lee Conger, Milton Eisenhart, George Korb, Joe Baudeette, Richard Laventhal, Tony Treosti, Jack Silver, Arthur Leonard, John J. Smith and Dominic Conterno—were showered with praise.

Sheriff Eugene W. Biscailuz was master of ceremonies—and was he a master at extracting shekels from the pockets of all, visitors and members alike! Brief talks were made by Past Grand Eldred L. Meyer, Leo V. Youngworth, Grand Trustees Walter C. Richards and Walter E. Smith, Governor General Walter C. Hiskey of the Past Presidents Association, Supervising Deputy Roy Tarleton, District Deputy Gus Dinmore of Santa Barbara, President Leon Gregory of Arrowhead, Past President Carl Luick of Bakersfield, "Bill" Reuter, Ben Hiss, Walter Odemar and others.

December 19, Santa Monica Bay had initiation, and President Seaman and his officers exemplified the ritual in faultless manner. Past Grand Meyer spoke enthusiastically of the Order and its endeavors, stressing particularly the year-around work for the homeless children and the efforts to keep ineligible-to-citizenship aliens out of the country; he urged the reading and support of The Grizzly Bear, the Natives' official magazine. Officers were elected, Lee Conger being chosen president. Installation will be held January 16, with District Deputy Dewey Richards officiating. Initiation will be held January 23. Lee Winters will be in charge of the many activities planned for 1940.

has been elected president of the Parlor for the January-June term.

Officers of the Parlor will be jointly installed with those of Long Beach Parlor No. 278 N.S.G.W. January 18 at public ceremonies in the Masonic Temple, 835 Locust avenue—R.J.

TURF CLUB LIBERAL.

Canoga Park—Topanga Parlor No. 269 N.D.G.W. had a visit from Betty Graydon, who gave a splendid talk on the adoption of and the caring for homeless children. The Hollywood Turf Club made a donation of a hundred dollars to the Parlor to be used for young children.

December 6 the homeless children committee met with Grace Kizer. Luncheon was served at noon, and the afternoon was devoted to sewing. Officers of the Parlor were elected December 8; they will be installed January 12. A native son in a veteran hospital was adopted. December 22, Topanga had a Christmas party.—L.J.C.

N.D.G.W.—NEWS PARAGRAPHS.—N.S.G.W.

Signaling the opening of the Christmas out-of-door season in southern California, the Women's Community Service of the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce sponsored a largely attended high-noon luncheon December 5. Miss Grace S. Stoerner, Past Grand President N.D.G.W. and president of the Auxiliary, presided. The table of Los Angeles Parlor No. 124 N.D.G.W., artistically arranged by Misses Ann Schiebusch and Grace Norton, was awarded the sweepstakes prize. Mrs. Paul D. (Lou) Robinson, Charter member of the Parlor, was among the number seated at the table.

The calendar of Ramona Parlor No. 109 N.S.G.W. for January 1940 includes: 12th, public installation of officers, with William R. Blaha as president; entertainment and refreshments will follow the ceremonies. 19th, initiation. 26th, monthly dinner, 40 cents, 6:30; Arrowhead Past Presidents Assembly will join the Parlor at the festive board.

Glendale—Glendale Parlor No. 264 N.S.G.W. had its fourteenth anniversary dinner and observed Christmas December 14. A program of entertainment was arranged by Les Schellbach. The occasion also inaugurated a 1940 membership campaign, and several eligibles were among the many in attendance.

La Reina Parlor No. 267 N.D.G.W. had election of officers December 14, and Lura Pesqueira was chosen for president. A Christmas party followed the meeting. Gifts were exchanged, and cans of food which the members had brought were given, with a Christmas tree, to a worthy family.

WILMINGTON SAN PEDRO

THE FORWARD LOOKING HARBOR DISTRICT OF THE GREAT SOUTHWEST

SAN PEDRO—STEPHEN M. WHITE Parlor No. 263 N.S.G.W. had a Christmas party for all Natives and their children December 22. From a large, decorated tree Santa Claus distributed candy and toys among the children. The enjoyable affair was in charge of Fred Newman, Harry Fairall, John Henderson, Dewey Richards and Matt Soares. Tom Allender has been retained as president for a second term. Officers will be installed with those of Rudecinda Parlor No. 230 N.D.G.W. at joint public ceremonies January 12.

January 19 the Parlor will stage its annual stag party, and plenty of fun is assured. The price of admission is but fifty cents. A contest between San Pedro and Wilmington members for new recruits is under way. The losers will have to serve the winners a turkey dinner. The contest will close March 1, and "Bill" Reuter promises the Parlor's membership will be materially increased.

"OPEN HOUSE" AT BANNING MANOR.

San Pedro—At election of officers December 14, Rudecinda Parlor No. 230 N.D.G.W. selected Mrs. Dessie Bujo president to succeed Mrs. Lucy Ascolei. Chairman Letitia Sarciaux reported the turkey card party was a great success. In celebration of Christmas, a turkey dinner was served December 15 at the home of Mrs. Bujo. "Secret Sisters" of the year were revealed, and names for the new year were drawn. A beautifully decorated tree held a great many exchange gifts. Dancing and community singing were enjoyed.

The Florencita Thimble Club had its regular meeting and luncheon at the home of Margaret Kreider December 6. At election of officers, Mrs. Katherine Mooney was chosen chairman. The annual club dinner will be held in January. Rudecinda will be "open house" hostess at the historic Banning Manor some time in January. At that time the furniture purchased by the Parlor and Stephen M. White Parlor No. 263 N.S.G.W. will be displayed.

N.S.G.W. had initiation December 20, the ritual being exemplified by the prize-winning team of Compton Parlor. Grand Trustee Walter C. Richards was a visitor and speaker.

The N.S.G.W. Friday Luncheon Club had its fourth annual Christmas jinks December 22, and many of the oldtimers joined in the fun. The table centerpiece was a decorated tree from the House of Kitchin, flowers and holly were supplied by A. Goldenson, and refreshments were from the "Grapes of Haas." Santa Claus (Captain William Anthony Meyers) had as helpers Secretary Hervey L. Kitchin, George Amos and many others. December 8, Ralph Arnold, geologist and petroleum engineer, addressed the Club on "Earthquakes in California." Charles Son was chairman of the day.

PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS.

Louis Gairaud (Observatory NS) and wife of San Jose were recent visitors.

United States Senator Hiram W. Johnson (Sunset NS) of San Francisco was a visitor last month.

Dwight C. Freeman (Santa Monica Bay NS) has been elected commissioner of finance of Santa Monica.

A native daughter arrived at the home of Superior Judge George A. Dockweiler (Ramona NS) December 5.

Walter C. Richards Jr. (Compton NS) of Wilmington, son of Walter C. Richards (Grand Trustee NS), was recently wedded to Miss Elva Mae Oakes, queen of the 1939 Wilmington Fiesta. The honeymoon was spent in San Francisco.

THE DEATH RECORD.

James Lee Colvin, husband of Mrs. Flora Colvin (Los Angeles ND), died December 7.

Adolfo G. Rivera, affiliated with Ramona Parlor No. 109 N.S.G.W., died December 19. Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Dolores Rivera, and a sister, Mrs. Lucy Malin (Los Angeles ND). He was born at Los Angeles October 3, 1870, and was an authority on earlyday Los Angeles County history.

TO CONTINUE SEARCH FOR OLD TRAIL.

The National Park Service will not give up its quest for the trail that a bold band of Argonauts, headed by Father Silvestre Velez de Escalante, attempted to cut through the wilderness from Santa Fe to Monterey, California, one hundred and sixty-three years ago.

According to Jesse L. Nusbaum, senior archaeologist of the service, the first searching party succeeded in uncovering sufficient information to warrant a second attempt, although there is little hope of finding an inscription left on a big rock in the Arizona desert by Father de Escalante, which would have given new clues as to the location of the trail.

Governor Culbert Olson, appearing before the United States Senate Civil Liberties Committee in San Francisco December 6, advocated giving thousands of Filipino and Hindu workers in California "the opportunity of becoming American citizens."

Which is equivalent to advocating the letting-down of the Federal immigration bar, the repeal of the State Alien Land Law, and the surrender of California and the Pacific Coast, the White man's paradise, to the Japs.

For, if the right of citizenship be granted Filipinos and Hindus, it must, in justice and fairness, be granted also to Japs and all other aliens now ineligible to citizenship. And if the ineligible-to-citizenship prohibition be repealed, all laws and regulations based thereon would be automatically nullified, and California and the Pacific Coast would be overrun by hordes of unwanted Orientals and Asiatics.

It's a "cinch," however, that Governor Olson does not express the wish or the will of a vast majority of the citizens of California in this matter. He and his clique may favor crowning the Japs' "peaceful invasion" with success, but a vast army of Whites will oppose the scheme.

In session at Stockton, the Associated Farmers of California passed this resolution: "We deplore the Governor's recommendation that citizenship be extended to the 16,000 Filipinos and the 1,500 Hindus engaged in agriculture here, as an encouragement of groups of these races to take the place of the white workers and citizens of this State. We further regard this simply as a political move at the expense of our white citizens."

The California Joint Immigration Committee, representing the California State Federation of Labor, the California Department of the American Legion, the Order of Native Sons of the Golden West, the Immigration Study Commission and other Californians of national standing, sent to Governor Olson, through Chairman James K. Fisk, a protest stating, in part:

"Filipinos, whom you mention particularly, besides underbidding and crowding out white labor in certain rural areas of California, have displaced many white workers in the cities, mostly women and men over 40 years of age working in restaurants, hotels and institutions. Their moral record is decidedly low, particularly where white women are concerned, over whom they are in constant trouble with the law. Hindus, although not as numerous nor as troublesome as the Filipinos, are undesirable as immigrants and citizens, since they too tend to lower the American standard of living. It is a proven fact that Orientals are absolutely unassimilable with the basic white population, forming as they do, distinct racial blocs. . . .

"The California Joint Immigration Committee contends that to grant to alien Asiatics the privilege of citizenship, as suggested by you in your statement to the LaFollette Committee, a privilege bringing with it the right of entry under immigration quota, would tend to lower American living standards and would be contrary to the welfare of the citizens of California and to the Nation as a whole."

State Assemblyman Seth Millington addressed the Chamber of Commerce of Grass Valley, Nevada County, and "if all the people could have heard the straight-from-the-shoulder talk," said the Union of that city, "they would have a much better idea of the manner in which California is governed and the monumental waste that has been saddled upon the taxpayers of the state." Millington, a member of the "economy bloc" of the last Legislature, said, quoting the Union:

"The manner of dispensing relief is a burden to the people of California through their generosity in giving relief and pensions in excess of any other state in the Union. A man with a large family receives more on relief than he could possibly earn as a laborer, and each year he adds to his income by increasing the size of his family. The man can only be in the state a year before he is entitled to relief."

"State offices in many instances are greatly over-manned and the use of automobiles by state employees is something that should be brought to the attention of every taxpayer. All taxes levied on corporations are reflected in higher gasoline prices, higher electric rates, etc., so that the slogan that the corporations, and not the individuals, pay the tax is a delusion."

"Under the present state and national government administrations there seem to be two schools of thought—those who would put a premium on indolence and those who would put a premium on industry. Those who favor the indolent seem to have the larger following at the present time."

"I favor adequate relief and pensions, but I do not believe in the indiscriminate distribution of state funds regardless of whether they go into the pockets of the undeserving or those who are entitled to them."

The address of Assemblyman Millington impressed his audience. "If California had a majority of his type in the State Legislature and in public offices," commented the Union, "there would be no doubt of the future of California."

"TWENTIETH CENTURY SPORT," SANTA BARBARA'S SWEEPSTAKES PRIZEWINNER PASADENA TOURNAMENT ROSES PARADE. This most gorgeous nautical float depicted three racing sloops rounding a weather marker; one of them has rounded the marker, and the others are approaching it. The sloops were fashioned of white carnations, wine colored pompons and bronze chrysanthemums, with sails of white stock. The marker was of white chrysanthemums, with a flag of brilliant red carnations. The sea was of blue delphinium, and the foam churned by the rocking boats was of white candytuft. Encircling the float was a fringe of leaping porpoise made of cornflowers and light delphiniums.

THE ANNUAL JOINT INSTALLATION of officers of Santa Barbara Parlor No. 116 N.S.G.W. and Reina del Mar Parlor No. 126 N.D.G.W. took on the aspect of a civic celebration when, the evening of January 23, the impressive ceremony was carried out at the Montecito Country Club. The Sons began their fifty-third year of Santa Barbara community endeavor, the Daughters their fortieth year.

There was wide response to the thousand invitations sent to Barbareños active in one or another phase of community life. Through the year the membership of the two Parlors act as bridge-builders in many community events, particularly the annual Old Spanish Days Fiesta that is held in the light of the August moon. And, too, they are active in the preservation of regional history and in the marking of landmarks, and are highly regarded for the efficiency of their child adoption program. These and other achievements of the Parlors were referred to by Francis Price, who delivered a stirring address.

Past presidents had the installation in charge, with Mrs. Dorothy A. Yule and Frank O. Huffman as co-chairmen. Aids to Deputies A. C. Dinsmore and Mrs. Wesley McCormick, who conducted the ceremonies, included A. J. Janssens, Mrs. L. V. Brady, Paul Sweetser, Mrs. Bertram Hall, John L. Stewart, Mrs. Katherine Leslie, A. C. Royce, Mrs. John D. Ross, C. W. McCormick, Mrs. Robert Phelan, John P. McCaughey and Mrs. Martin Coan. Captain W. H. Rutherford and Mrs. William Wegener became the new presidents.

Mrs. John D. Ross and A. C. Royce were joint chairmen for the reception which followed the installation. A Native Daughter past president pin was presented Mrs. Eugene Ireland by Mrs. Fred Acres, and Past President Frank Huffman of the Native Sons received an emblematic pin from Paul Sweetser. A musical program included solos by Vernon Duncan, accompanied by Miss Josephine McBride. Dancing rounded out the evening.

The joint roster committee of the Parlors, with Mrs. R. J. Schuld, Mrs. M. C. Harrison and Frank Huffman as chairmen, had a busy January, with four wedding anniversaries recognized by the presentations of bowls of golden flowers. Couples honored were Mr. and Mrs. F. F. Pierce and Mr. and Mrs. Carlos S. Bottiani, married sixty years; Mr. and Mrs. John Hartner, fifty years, and Mr. and Mrs. Owen O'Neill, thirty years.

ONTARIO—THE SEWING CLUB OF Ontario Parlor No. 251 N.D.G.W. met January 10 at the home of Voda Austin. Irma Anderson was surprised with a layette shower. January 25 the club met at Edith Osgood's home.

Members of the Parlor are collecting articles for a rummage sale to be held in the near future.

Deputy Betty Saunders installed Ontario's officers January 25. At a meeting here January 30 called by Supervising Deputy Matilda Enfield, the deputies and the presidents of the Parlors in District No. 33 made plans for a district meeting when Grand President Orinda Giannini visits in the southland.

NEW MEMBERSHIP CONTEST.

San Bernardino—Officers of Arrowhead Parlor No. 110 and Santa Ana Parlor No. 265 N.S.G.W. were jointly installed January 17 by District Deputies Harry C. Fulton and James A. Olivas, James A. Marks and Julian Lecrivain becoming the respective presidents. After the ceremonies refreshments were served by John Anderson Jr. and committee.

Those members of the Parlor who sponsored at least two initiates during 1939 were honor-guests at a dinner January 29. After a sumptuous feast a first-class show was presented. The City of San Bernardino now has a new seal, the design for which was recommended by the Parlor.

Arrowhead has a new membership contest under way. Past Grand President Walter D. Wagner has provided a first prize of $20, to be awarded the one who brings in the most eligi-

OLDEST LIVING THINGS

HAVE NO NATURAL ENEMIES.

Oldest of living things and greatest in size are the Sequoia Gigantea, or California Big Trees, large groves of which are conserved in Yosemite, Sequoia and General Grant National Parks, California. None have been found which have died from insect attack or disease. Aside from fire and lightning, the Big Trees have no natural enemies. They are wonderful resisters of fire. Only man can prevail against the majesty and virility of these patriarchs of another age.

Now and then a tree is found which, having been weakened by fire or undermined by water, is prey to the high winds and eventually becomes a windfall. But the tenacity of life which attains a degree in the Sequoia not found in any other tree enables it to renew its bark and survive even when bad burns have penetrated for some distance into its trunk.

BUSINESS GIRLS ENTERTAIN.

San Bernardino—January 16 the business girls of Lugonia Parlor No. 241 N.D.G.W. entertained the members of the sewing club at a potluck supper at the home of President Hazel Poole. After dinner the remainder of the evening was devoted to sewing at the home of Eva DeLong.—M.B.

CALIFORNIA FIFTY YEARS AGO

Thomas W. McAuliffe, Historian Sacramento Parlor N.S.G.W.

(COMPILED EXPRESSLY FOR THE GRIZZLY BEAR MAGAZINE.)

THE MONTH OF FEBRUARY 1890 IN California was a repetition of January, so far as the weather was concerned, and the so-called gayeties of the '90s were conspicuous by their absence. In their stead, rain, snow, blockades and washouts featured the month. Rain fell almost continuously.

In Canyon Creek, Modoc County, the farmers were hemmed in by the snow, and were unable to get to town to obtain coaloil. So, they resorted to the old-fashion pitch pine knots for light. They were hauling fuel on hand sleds, too.

The Siskiyou County stockmen lost heavily by the storms. Since the first of the year a Mr. Davis of Butte Creek had lost 1,500 of his 6,000 cattle.

Postmaster Bryan of San Francisco was ordered to send mail for the northern part of the state by steamer every four days until the snow blockade was raised.

The first mail in three weeks arrived February 10 at Susanville, Lassen County, and the first stage from Downieville, Sierra County, since January 13 arrived at Nevada City, Nevada County, the same day.

Lake and Mendocino Counties were short on food supplies, owing to the storms blocking traffic on the railroad.

John Dwyer, a blacksmith, was frozen to death February 22 at Forest Hill, Placer County.

Farmer Bost of Squaw Valley, Modoc County, had to kill his horses to obtain food for his family. He was cut off from the world by the snow, and all of his cattle had frozen to death.

Five locomotives operating a snowplow left the rails at Cape Horn, Placer County, and two of them, with the plow, went down an embankment sixty feet. Brakeman John Williams was killed.

The first railway excursion to the snowline at Truckee, Nevada County, and way stations left Sacramento February 15. The excursionists encountered a wild and stormy night, and all longed for the comforts of their homes.

A sharp earthquake shock was felt February 9 at San Bernardino and San Diego.

Washington's birthday, February 22, was fittingly observed throughout the state.

The hotel at Pine Gold, near Fresno Flats, burned February 19. A roomer went to bed with a lighted pipe, fell asleep and set the bedclothes afire.

Editor Walter G. Smith of the San Diego Sun was arrested February 21 on a charge of libel preferred by Attorney George Monteith.

The California State Board of Trade was incorporated February 20.

D. Donnelly fell from a railroad train that was crossing Sutter Creek, Amador County, February 20 and was drowned.

Mrs. Mary Johnson was burned to death in her Stockton home February 21.

El Cajon Pass, San Bernardino County, was closed by a landslide February 21.

A party of New England grocers toured the state during the month, and were entertained in several communities.

Nearly 1,000 schoolchildren participated in Arbor Day exercises at Fresno February 28.

Two masked highwaymen held up the Marioposa stage at Black Rascal Creek February 27, and took the express box and mail bags.

Truman Farman, a resident of Gilroy, Santa Clara County, since 1856, dropped dead there February 27 while playing croquet.

The cornerstone of the State Reform School at Whittier, Los Angeles County, was laid February 12. Among the speakers were Governor Robert W. Waterman, Secretary of State William C. Hendricks and Stephen M. White. Among the many others in attendance were three former California governors, Pio Pico, John G. Downey and George Stoneman.

The State Supreme Court decided February 1 the Los Angeles police court had no legal existence.

Pioneer George H. Abbe, member Sierra County Board of Supervisors, died February 3 at Sierra City.

Edward Snook was shot and killed by Peter Chalmers, a waiter, in the Sacramento City Plaza February 3. The tragedy caused a sensation in the Capital City.

Captain William Gray, discoverer of the Almaden quicksilver mine in Santa Clara County, died February 5 at San Jose.

Charles H. Baroden murdered Mrs. J. A. Price in her Eureka, Humboldt County, home February 2. They previously resided in Placerville, El Dorado County.

In the San Francisco office of the Guaranty Endowment Association, J. F. Naughton shot and killed Mark M. Herr February 1.

The room of Governor R. W. Waterman in the Glenwood Hotel at Riverside was burglarized February 10. A gold watch presented the Governor by the State Legislature and $100 in cash were stolen.

During his trial in the San Diego Superior Court for attempted murder, William Mayne was shot by Bertha Johnson, the plaintiff, February 12.

As a result of a locomotive getting out of control and running away, three men, Yeardin, Fairstwater and Patrick Noone were killed at Weber Creek, near Placerville, El Dorado County, February 12.

Ah Hing was hanged in the San Francisco jail February 14 for the murder of his uncle, Wong Ming.

Eddie Lorrigan, the prince of California baseball pitchers, died at his Stockton home.

Judge A. C. Bradford, registrar of the United States Land Office at San Francisco, died on a railroad train at Niles, Alameda County, February 15. He was for many years a director of the Society of California Pioneers. February 19, E. G. Waite was appointed to succeed him.

Mrs. Josephine Devereche horsewhipped a plumber named W. P. O'Brien in San Francisco February 7.

Phillip Keller, a saloonkeeper, hanged himself at Galt, Sacramento County, February 7.

Mike Mulhage, a miner, fell from a bridge into a raging torrent near Weaverville, Trinity County, February 8 and drowned.

During February, California had the largest death rate in many years, 20.64, according to Dr. G. G. Tyrrell, secretary State Board of Health.

Adelini Patti opened a season of grand opera in the San Francisco Opera House February 10. The house was packed.

G. E. Gard was February 11 confirmed as United States marshal for the southern district of California.

Peter Tinkham of Trinity Center, Trinity County, was devoured by California lions. His boots, with both feet in them, were found February 2.

James J. Ayers of the Los Angeles Herald was elected president of the Southern California Press Association at San Bernardino February 14.

Wm. G. Long of Tuolumne County was appointed United States marshal for the northern district of California February 17.

Editor I. N. Chryuski of Public Opinion, San Francisco, was arrested February 21 for attempted extortion. Obediah Livermore swore to the complaint.

Judge J. W. North, founder of Riverside Colony in San Bernardino, died February 21 at Fresno.

James A. Orr of Plumas County was appointed secretary of the State Railroad Commission February 21.

Books and documents contained in the libraries on the Berkeley campus of the University of California now number over one million.

ANY WONDER UNITED STATES

HAS GREATEST NUMBER OF JOBLESS?

Editor Grizzly Bear: Your recent publication of an immigration item recalls: Motoring across Turkey-in-Asia, we found the tariff for chauffeurs was 40c daily; 10c daily additional secured one speaking fifteen languages. The reward of education was a daily wage increase equal to the price of a large ice cream cone. With that much effort worth only 10c, can one marvel at a willingness to bribe smugglers to gain admission to a land where wages are ten times Turkey's. Many of these Turks pass here as Greeks.

The United States is about the only first-class power that does not register its aliens. Nations we class as third or fourth rate show more care than do we in guarding jobs needed by their unemployed. Is it any wonder we have the greatest number of jobless? Bills for registration have been introduced into Congress every year since the third Quota Act (1924), but never come to a vote. Very earnestly, C. M. GOETHE, Sacramento, January 20, 1940.

EARLY INNS OF CALIFORNIA.

Editor Grizzly Bear: For purpose of publication in book form, I am gathering data on the history of the wayside inns and other hotels in California which existed prior to May 10, 1869, the date when the transcontinental railroad was completed.

I would be obliged if those having knowledge of the subject matter, pictures, newspaper clippings, or other evidence of facts pertaining to these old roadhouses or inns, will write me, sending the information, pictures or clippings. The pictures or clippings will be copied and returned promptly. Would also like memories of the pioneer builders of these inns.

I do not include lodging houses, saloons, stage stations or restaurants, except only where they form a unit generally known as a tavern where lodging and meals were provided. R. H. CROSS, 111 Sutter street, suite 1333, San Francisco, December 21, 1939.

Passing of the California Pioneer

(Confined to Brief Notices of the Demise of those Men and Women who came to California prior to 1870.)

Hiram C. Helm, native of Iowa, 90; came in 1852; died at Lakeport, Lake County; two sons survive.

Mrs. Alameda E. Hawn, native of Wisconsin; came in 1855; died near Hagginwood, Sacramento County.

Mrs. Eliza Ann Nichols-Adams, native of Georgia, 86; crossed the plains in 1857 and resided some time in Amador County; died at San Francisco, survived by two children.

Jesse B. Payton, native of Indiana, 87; came in 1860; died at Hydesville, Humboldt County, survived by a wife and a son.

Reuben W. Hartman, native of Iowa, 79; came in 1862; died at Elk Creek, Glenn County, survived by a wife and two children.

Walter L. Bransford, native of Virginia, 79; crossed the plains in 1864 and resided in Mendocino and Tehama Counties; died at Red Bluff, survived by a daughter.

Mrs. Emma Stilson, native of Ohio; came in 1866; died at Saratoga, Santa Clara County, survived by a daughter.

HOLDING THAT HOME-BOMBING, rape, culture-ruin are the official Japanese policies, and that the United States is Japan's partner in Asiatic brutism, Dr. Walter H. Judd, in a stirring address before the Commonwealth Club of California at San Francisco last September, urged that this country stop aiding Japan defeat China. Dr. Judd was treating the wounded behind both the Chinese and the Japanese lines until called to testify regarding "the new kind of war" before the foreign relations committee of the United States Senate. His talk, which appeared in The Commonwealth, is here reproduced; it overflows with food for thought:

"Do we in the United States know what is going on? Of course, we know that about a third of China has been overrun by the Japanese army. We know that more than thirty million people have been driven from their homes in the greatest dislocation of human population in all recorded history. We know that there are fifty to seventy-five million people without adequate food, fuel and water in the greatest catastrophe of human suffering since the black plague, in the Middle Ages. We may know all these things, however, and still not sense the real significance of what is going on—not only for China and Japan, the two principals, but for America, and the rest of the world as well.

"This struggle in the Far East is not 'just another war'—it is unquestionably a prototype of what all wars are going to be hereafter—at least, those waged by totalitarian states, i.e., states that care nothing for the individual, the home, the church, the school, the business place or the factory—as such. Such a state cannot be bothered with rules and regulations. It can know only one law—victory.

"We have taken the products of our inventiveness—our weapons of destruction, so much more deadly than the world had ever known before (with which we had developed at least some inhibitions and restrictions)—and we have put these weapons into the hands of a military clique in Japan which has not been conditioned by centuries of contact with humanizing religions, which is not under the control of the civilian population, or the official government of Japan, which is utterly logical, not in the least sentimental, and which has set before itself this goal: (In the words of the Japanese prime minister himself) 'To beat China to her knees until there no longer can be any spirit of resistance.'

"Now, if you are logical, and if that is your goal, then, after all, what difference is there between attacking a man in uniform and attacking his wife and children in their home; in attacking a civilian rather than the men who have been obliging enough to put on uniforms to designate themselves as proper targets?

"In the first place, the soldiers have been trained and prepared to die if necessary, rather than yield, and they stay and fight when the attack is upon themselves, but they have not been prepared to have the major attack made upon their families. It is probable that they will break and yield and flee more quickly in that event than if the attack is against themselves. Every man here understands that. Second, it is safer and cheaper to attack the non-combatants. They have no weapons and cannot fight back.

"I was in Hangkow in 1937, when the first great air raid took place. The planes came over at about four in the afternoon and dropped down their missiles. Where? It was very instructive. Not within one mile of the Chinese air field, where there were some twenty-five Chinese planes; not within two miles of the largest arsenal of all of China; not within half a mile of any railroad station or barracks. They were deliberately dropped in the heart of the tenement district where the population is between 200,000 and 300,000 per square mile; where the houses are so poorly constructed that they are easily demolished and set afire; where at four in the afternoon there were, of course, no able-bodied men at home. In short, where the maximum damage could be done with a minimum risk to the Japanese planes.

"Last May, twenty months later, the two most disastrous air raids in the history of warfare were carried out on Chungking, the present capital of China, and, again, the attack was upon the residential areas of the city. The explanation lies in defining 'military objectives' in this war according to the rules and codes of 'gentlemen's wars,' but to the Japanese war machine every Chinese is a military objective!

"When the Japanese captured our city, one February day, there were many wounded Chinese. One of them, with gunshot wounds through his thigh and a fractured femur, rolled down the sloping inside of the city wall, into our own yard, only a few hundred yards from the back door of our hospital. When the battle was over and the Japanese had captured the city, I went out with a big American Flag and a Red Cross insignia to bring in this wounded man. It just never occurred to me that I could not help wounded men. But the Japanese guard drove me back with fixed bayonets. Chinese citizens all through the city tried to get permission to bring other wounded to the hospital, or at least give them food, water and bedding. No one could be touched until he was dead, which, mercifully, was usually within forty-eight hours.

"I do not think that is primarily the result of some peculiar barbaric cruelty on the part of the individual Japanese soldier: this is a definite military measure, designed to 'beat China to her knees until there is no longer any spirit of resistance.' Let it get out, in advance, to the Chinese soldier what will happen to him if he is foolish enough to stand his ground and fight against the imperial Japanese army and fall into its hands as a prisoner or wounded. If he knows in advance, probably he will not fight, but will break and flee without resistance. It is that kind of a war.

"I was very reluctant to come to the conclusions I have just stated. When the Japanese army was coming into China and we heard rumors among the Chinese as to the alleged atrocities, I said, 'Same old story.' I doggedly held to this position until it was painfully proven that I was wrong. Stubbornly to refuse to believe that which is true when it is authenticated by hundreds of absolutely dependable witnesses, not as an exception, but as a rule to which there is almost no exception, is folly.

"We have read with incredulity of the rape of Nanking. It sounded like the regular atrocity stories. It is, however, all true, not only of that city, but of every other place; not just on the day of battle, but for months after the last shot has been fired. The explanation is that incontrovertibly, in many instances, the Japanese soldier is ordered to it as a military measure! That alone can explain the unbelievable perversions that are so common and which cannot conceivably be the result of any ordinary animal appetite.

"Only after you know China and realize how her whole civilization had centered around the family, the home, and that the center of the home is the woman, do you understand why there is this unceasing attack upon the women of China—months after all military operations have ended.

"The home is the single most vulnerable spot in China's armor. Therefore, that spot is constantly being attacked as a Japanese military measure so that the indignities will be so intolerable to the Chinese that they will cry to their leaders, 'Give up, sue for peace; we can't stand these humiliations.'

"Take the matter of the destruction of schools and universities. We have read about that—from the first city, Tientsin, down to the recent bombings of universities in West China. That, too, is not an occasional accident, but rather a definitely calculated military plan, because, perhaps, the second most vulnerable spot in China's armor is her respect for scholarship.

"People say to me once in a while, 'Won't the Chinese be able to absorb the Japanese just as they have absorbed all their previous conquerors?' No! Men die every day who never died before. China was conquered in the past by nations superior to her from a military standpoint, but in every other respect they were inferior. They openly admired and coveted China's art, philosophy, literature, culture. China could afford to wait for her superior civilization to do its leavening work with the barbarians. Now, China is being conquered by a nation which is superior to China in military things and regards itself as superior to her in every respect—and to every other people in the world, for that matter.

"Japan also has read history. She knows what happened to China's conquerors and why. Japan is determined not to have that happen to her, and the way to prevent it is to see that there is left in China no scholarly class, no literate leadership which might conceivably have the stamina to wear out and eventually absorb the Japanese conquerors. That is the reason for the attack upon the schools of China—to destroy the hope of vigorous leadership.

"When the Japanese went into Manchuria, didn't you see there were many in the cities of higher learning. There is not one now—for Chinese. I am reliably informed that there is not even a senior high school, to say nothing of a college. 30,000,000 people, more than all those in America west of the Mississippi River, without a single senior high school.

"Japan's war on China is not an attack upon an army. It is deliberate, cold-blooded destruction of the oldest and most stable culture in the world.

"In my province, Chansi, no opium had been grown for twenty-seven years, since the revolution of 1911. Within ten days of the day the Japanese had captured our city, I saw soldiers there passing out opium seed free, compelling the farmers to plant it in the areas along the railway which they are able to control from the guerrillists.

"Japan is afflicted with the disease which we call Masslanic complex, or what I sometimes call, for want of a better name, 'Alexander's Itch.' It is a disease which has afflicted men and groups down through history. They have come out possessed by the lust for seizing, for power, for glory, for conquest. Never a one that embarked on such a crusade has ever stopped until it was checked, and neither will Japan stop until she is checked.

"The only issue before the world, with regard to her, is HOW she is to be checked. By drifting along and building her up until she is out of control, and then going to war with her at colossal cost? Or by checking her now by other means which fortunately happen to be within our control? Shall we prevent, now, at relatively trivial cost, or try to cure later at gigantic cost?

"That brings us to the second major question: Is this affair in the Far East any of OUR business? OUR concern? OUR responsibility? I think it is. Partly because of our past, partly because of our present, and partly because of our future.

"In 1899 China was on the chopping-block, when the United States announced the 'open-door policy.' China has always felt that she was saved by America. We may have forgotten, but she has not. After the Boxer Rebellion in 1900, when the other nations grabbed their indemnities, America returned hers to China to use for building universities and sending selected students to America to acquire our learning and skill, and then go back to modernize China. We may have forgotten, but China is eternally grateful.

"After the revolution in 1911, China took America as her model, as Japan had taken Germany as hers fifty years before. In 1917 we went to war. Woodrow Wilson promptly asked China to go to war on the allied side. It was not a primary concern of China, but when America, her great friend and counselor, suggested it, she consented.

"Then came 1919 and four White men, China's allies, in Versailles, awarded to Japan, another ally, the old German rights and a good deal more in Shantung, China's sacred province. When the word got back to China, the students and teachers, the articulate groups, left their studies and went out into the villages as living newspapers to inform and incite and organize that greatest of all boycotts against Japan. It was the only weapon of resistance they had. It continued for two long years and was at last slowly but surely bringing Japan to terms.

"We called a disarmament conference here in Washington. We wanted Japan to consent to a 3-5-5 ratio of naval strength in relation to our own and Great Britain's. Japan skillfully replied that she could consent only if, in addition to certain other things such as scrapping more than twenty of our naval vessels, giving up our plans to fortify the Philippines, and so forth, we could get the Chinese to call off the boycott.

"China was glad to do that if the powers would promise that the Japanese troops would get out of Shantung and would stay out; that the nations would promise to all stay out and give China a chance to work out her internal difficulties without the constant fear and threat of external aggression.

"We all promised. That is what the Nine Power Pact is—from China's standpoint. If some other nation had suggested that she give up her boycott in exchange for a piece of paper, she would have politely declined. She did not trust Japan or France or England. She did trust America!

state championship and a diamond pin at the Grand Parlor that meets at Bakersfield in May. In addition to the championship pin, successful school and county contestants will receive silver and gold pins, respectively.

Joint Meet for Official Visit.

Bakersfield—Officers of Bakersfield No. 42 and El Tejon No. 239 N.D. were installed January 5 at joint ceremonies attended by some 250 persons. Deputies Ernest Cuthbertson and Dorothy Roat officiated, and Hal Bannister and Mrs. Jennie Brown became the respective presidents. Large cakes, decorated with the insignia of the Orders, were presented by R. C. Brown of Bakersfield, husband of the newly-installed president of El Tejon. The two presidents presided at the serving of the cakes with punch, and then dancing was enjoyed.

Grand Second Vice-president Edward T. Schnarr will officially visit Bakersfield and Taft No. 276 at a joint meeting in Bakersfield Saturday, February 17. A large turnout of members of the southern Parlors is anticipated. Bakersfield's Grand Parlor arrangements committee, Carl Luick chairman, is hard at work on plans for the entertainment of the Grand Parlor which meets here in May.

Interest Apparent.

Sacramento—At a meeting of the N.S.G.W. and N.D.G.W. General Admission Day Committee, General Chairman J. J. Longshore named several subcommittees, the chairmen of which are: E. E. Reese, executive; J. J. Monteverde Sr., finance; J. G. Fitzhenry, contest; J. L. Knowles, headquarters; Edna B. Briggs, reception; L. W. Marvin, housing; C. L. Katzenstein, music; George H. Miller, reviewing stand; E. H. Cox, decorations; C. L. Katzenstein, insurance; Judge Percy G. West, special activities.

Inquiries for headquarters and rooms are already being received, although the Admission Day celebration, which will be a three-day affair, is to be held September 7, 8 and 9. From forty to fifty thousand visitors are expected. Other officers of the general committee are: E. E. Reese, vice-chairman; A. W. Katzenstein, secretary; L. P. Ferron, treasurer.

Libraries Given Books.

Colusa—Colusa No. 69 has presented to the Colusa County Free Library and the Colusa City Public Library five-volume sets of "The Story of the Exposition," the official history, beautifully illustrated, of the Panama Pacific International Exposition held in San Francisco during 1915.

Officers of the Parlor and Colus No. 194 N.D. were jointly installed January 16 by Deputies Desmond Winship and Geraldine Hall. After the ceremonies dancing and refreshments were enjoyed.

Colusa No. 69 was host to Fred H. Greely Assembly No. 6 Past Presidents Association January 23. Walter Mails was the guest speaker and the picture "Play Ball America" was shown. All neighboring Parlors were represented.

Hall Association Stockholders Meet.

Sacramento—At a meeting of the stockholders of the Native Sons Hall Association of Sacramento January 10 the following directors were elected: John J. Monteverde Sr., Henry Wittpen, J. Frank Didion, Hugh B. Bradford, Roy C. Cothern, Percy G. West, John J. Monteverde Jr., James Fitzhenry, L. F. Farron, Al Schaden and E. T. Griffing.

The directors organized by electing the following officers: John J. Monteverde Sr., president; J. Frank Didion, vice-president; Percy G. West, secretary; Henry Wittpen, treasurer. Judge West began his thirty-third term in the important office of secretary of the Association.

N.S.G.W.—NEWS PARAGRAPHS.—N.S.G.W.

Subordinate Parlors desiring to enter the Grand Parlor ritual contest referred to in last month's issue of The Grizzly Bear must, according to Grand Secretary John T. Regan, notify Chairman Law T. Freitas of the Grand Parlor Ritual Contest Committee not later than February 20. The final contest, between winning teams from the northern and the southern parts of the state, will be held at Bakersfield during the Grand Parlor there in May.

Sacramento—William W. Winn of Sacramento No. 3, a grandson of General A. M. Winn, Founder of the Order, has retired after nearly forty years of endeavor in the railroad business, and is now residing at Oakland.

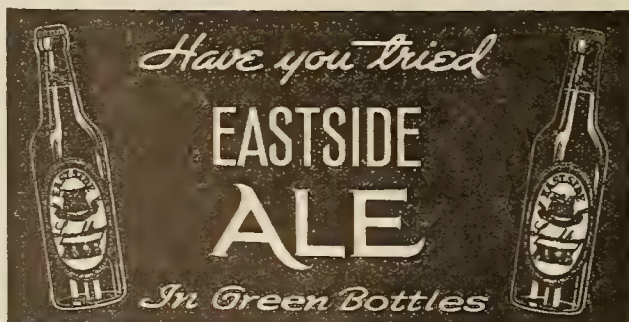

Placerville—With Deputies Louis Mocettini and Ruth Lyon officiating, officers of Placerville No. 9 and Marguerite No. 12 N.D. were jointly installed January 17, Ogden Hook and Ethel Wickes becoming the respective presidents. On Placerville's behalf, Grand First Vice-president Henry S. Lyon presented a past president emblem to Robert E. Roberts. Grand Outside Sentinel Nora Gray and Supervising Deputy Henrietta Hume were also in attendance. A program was presented and refreshments were served.

Lodi—Lodi No. 18's officers were installed January 10 by District Deputy Henry Harrison, Karl Nickel becoming president. On the Parlor's behalf, Herbert Osterman presented an emblematic ring to Past President Bert Allen. A tamale feast followed the ceremonies.

Fresno—Fresno No. 25 presented a California State (Bear) Flag to the Fourth District Court of Appeal January 9.

Sacramento—Officers of Sunset No. 26, with Hugh J. Strachan as president, were installed January 8 by District Deputy Melvin Nethercott. A supper followed the ceremony. John Straub, a member of Sunset and a former grand trustee, died January 16. He was born at San Francisco, October 8, 1871.

SOME ONE AND A HALF MILLION PEOPLE witnessed and applauded the Tournament of Roses parade in Pasadena New Year Day. The theme was "Twentieth Century in Flowers," and there were many gorgeous floats. The sweepstakes prize went to Santa Barbara's "Twentieth Century Sport" entry, pictured on the front page of this issue of The Grizzly Bear.

The Native Sons and the Native Daughters of the Golden West, through their Interparlor Committee, had a most attractive entry, "Wings fornia poppy, done in yellow pompons, out of which was flying a modern airplane done in blue cornflowers. The superstructure was done in maroon pompons, with a map of California in yellow poms. Bright fern was around the bottom of the float, in the construction of which approximately eighty thousand blooms were used. Ruth Renner and Loyce Bentley, stewardess and pilot, rode on the streamlined entry.

The float, twenty-five feet long, twelve feet wide and twelve feet high, consisted of a Califor No. 124 N.D.G.W., assisted by an able committee, will entertain the homeless children sewing group at a luncheon at her home February 17 at 1 p.m. "If you wish to do your part in sewing for the homeless children," says Secretary Edna Neikirk, "and at the same time enjoy a good luncheon and delightful afternoon, you will circle this date on your calendar." With "History and Heirlooms" the main topic for the evening, the Parlor will have an interesting meeting February 21. Ella Steinbeck and Juliette DeNubila, co-chairmen of the history and landmarks committee, are in charge. Refreshments will be served.

Los Angeles is desirous of increasing its membership, and so will feature a rush party for prospective members at the home of Norma Coleman, 905 South Bonnie Brae, February 23. Mae Packer, chairman of the occasion, will be assisted by Elsie Amidon, Laura Davis, Juliette DeNubila, Rena Gough, Grace Harrison, Mary Powell, Dorothy Quackenbush, Elsie Ruiz, Katherine Save, Blanche Stubblefield, Dorothy and Lurline Trundy, Katherine Wallace, Evelyn Weldon and Ethel White. To gain admittance to the party, bring an eligible. Much fun is promised by the committee.—E.T.N.

PUBLIC INSTALLATION.

Officers of Los Angeles No. 45 and Hollywood No. 196 Parlor N.S.G.W. were jointly installed at public ceremonies January 17, Carroll Marcellus Manley and Arthur Green becoming the respective presidents. District Deputy Judge O. Benton Worley, who officiated, was assisted by Supervising Deputy Roy W. Tarleton, George LaRue, Captain Ralph Clavelot and Grand Organizer Roger M. Johnson.

During the evening Chairman Betty Graydon of the local N.S.G.W. and N.D.G.W. Homeless Children Committee spoke enthusiastically of that worthwhile endeavor. Dancing was enjoyed and refreshments were served.—F.F.

PATRIOTIC LUNCHEON.

At the New Year luncheon of Californiana Parlor No. 247 N.D.G.W. January 9, Mildred Vance Brown, assistant curator of history at the Los Angeles Museum, delivered a fascinating lecture on "Milady's Old Fans and Laces." A

SAN FRANCISCO—THE OFFICIAL VISIT of Grand President Orinda Gunther-Giannini to her home-Parlor, Orinda No. 56, January 20 was an outstanding event. Americanism was the theme of the evening, and the color motif was red, white and blue. A dinner, attended by more than 200 members of the Order from all parts of the state, opened the evening's festivities. The guest table was centered by a figure of Betsy Ross sewing on the American Flag, and the smaller tables had American shields as center pieces.

The meeting was attended by more than 500. All the officers were attired in white satin dresses, wore red roses in their hair and carried blue chiffon handkerchiefs. Grand President Giannini was escorted to her station of honor by ten girls who formed a star while members of Orinda sang a welcome song. The Parlor's gift to Mrs. Giannini was a beautiful diamond emblematic bracelet.

During the evening vocal solos were rendered by Elsie Dethfelson and Loretta Winters, who were accompanied at the piano by Helen Heinemann. Madeline C. King, chairman of the evening, was assisted by all the officers of Orinda. Among others in attendance were Grand Vice-president Hazel B. Hansen, Grand Secretary Sallie Thaler, Grand Treasurer Agnes Curry, Grand Marshal Claire Lindsey, Grand Trustees Emily Ryan, Ethel Enos, Loretta Cameron, Ruth Sesna, Dora Brayton and Mary Noerenberg, Grand Organist Mae O'Keefe, Grand Inside Sentinel Doris Treat, Grand Outside Sentinel Nora Gray, Supervising Deputy Rena Taube, Deputy Mae Waring, Past Grands Carrie Durham, Dr. Mariana Bertola, Mary E. Bell, Evelyn I. Carlson, Mamie G. Peyton, Bertha A. Briggs, Mae H. Noonan, Anne Thuesen, Mae B. Wilkin, Irma Laird, May C. Boldemann, Stella Finkeldefy, Emma G. Foley and Edna B. Briggs.

Attractive Decorations for Installation.

Chico—The beautiful home of Annie K. Bidwell No. 168 was transformed into an old-fashioned garden of rare beauty for the impressive installation ceremonies January 11. The theme was emphasized in the music, the settings and the drill team's costumes. Deputy Hattie Clark officiated, and Mrs. Lucy Girdler became president; she was attired in a blue lace formal, and carried a bouquet of pink rosebuds and lilies of the valley, with long pink streamers. During the installation of Mrs. Girdler her daughter, Carmelita, danced about the garden, and Betty Erris Hannis sang "An Old Fashioned Garden" and "I Love You Truly." Pianist Dolores McFarlane and Violinist Nadine Hannis accompanied. At the same time the drill team, wearing blue and pink old-fashioned dresses and carrying small bouquets of violets and narcissus, placed in the trellis at the president's station large gold letters spelling "Our Lucy." A social hour and refreshments followed in the banquet room, where the decorative theme was also carried out.

On the Parlor's behalf, Mrs. Ivy Hoar January 9 presented a California State (Bear) Flag to Police Judge Jean Morony for his courtroom. At the same time the Chico Chamber of Commerce presented a United States of America Flag. January 12 the regular radio program was given. Miss Lois Colman was the speaker and her topic was "John Nichol," one of the earliest pioneers in the Butte Creek section. These programs are given the second Friday of each month at 1:30 p.m. over station KHSL, Chico.

Past Presidents Association No. 5 met at Oroville January 5, and Mrs. Hattie Jackson was installed as president. From the institution of this group, the aim has been to provide pleasure for, and give assistance to, the less-fortunate, and its activities have been centered in the Butte County Hospital. Games were played and refreshments were served. The next meeting of the Association will be held at Chico.—C.B.H.

"All members are earnestly urged to remember The Grizzly Bear Magazine, which is recommended to every Native Daughter as a means of education, inspiration and entertainment, most beneficial in its every influence, and worthy of a place in every home."—Past Grand President Bertha A. Briggs, Chairman Grand Parlor N.D.G.W. Publicity Committee.

Alameda County District Meeting.

Oakland—The Alameda County deputy grand presidents have completed arrangements for a luncheon honoring Grand President Orinda G. Giannini Saturday afternoon, February 3, at the Women's Athletic Club. Supervising Deputy Olinda Kardoza, the general chairman, is being assisted by Grand Secretary Sallie R. Thaler, Grand Trustee Dora Brayton and the deputies of Alameda County. A splendid program is being arranged, with Past Grand Sue J. Irwin as the principal speaker.

This meeting is in the nature of a civic affair and invitations have been extended the officials of the Oakland City and the Alameda County governments and to all fraternal and civic groups. An invitation is extended to all Native Daughters and Native Sons of the Golden West their families and their friends to attend the luncheon. Reservations may be made with any of the Alameda County deputies.—M.E.W.

PRESIDIO PARK
(LENORA ISABEL BAINES.)

The woodland stillness of the night
A haven true for life's own dream,
In spiraling trees with heads toward high
Their homages bent from earth and sky.

White shadows deepen night draws near
And echoes sound so soft and clear
From chapel bells that faint would speak
Of mission fathers kind and meek.

O'er hilltop high moonbeams bright
Three olive branch and palm send light,
And harmonies in silver glow
Recall that famed Presidio.

The hidden path 'neath tangled brake
Of sun's pure gold does now partake,
And there for all a cross appears
To guide the way in coming years.

(The above, dedicated to Presidio Park, San Diego, came to The Grizzly Bear from San Diego Parlor No. 208 N.D.G.W., with which the author is affiliated.—Editor.)

No. 11 N.S. Refreshments and dancing followed the play. Grand Trustee Ethel Enos, Eleanor Lewis and Wm. Phoenix were in charge of arrangements. The next party will be February 14, when a valentine motif will be carried out. San Diego—The history and landmarks committee of San Diego No. 208 met with Doris Hoffer and completed plans for marking some of the landmarks in historic Presidio Park. January 24 the Parlor had a tacky party, with Alice Damarus in charge. San Diego's past presidents club celebrated its tenth anniversary at a dinner January 15. Pearl Conard was elected president.—S.M.

Petaluma—Petaluma No. 222's officers were publicly installed January 16 by Deputy Leopolda Vier. President Elsie Delloca Riccioli, gowned in a most attractive flowered satin evening dress, with a corsage of gardenias, was escorted to her station by a group of drill team members wearing valentine motifs in their hair and carrying valentine bouquets. The other officers were attired in evening dresses of pastel shades. Among the many visitors was Supervising Deputy Alice Munz. Refreshments followed the ceremonies.—A.B.

Stockton—A snow scene, with red balloons and huge baskets of greens, was the setting for the installation of Stockton No. 256's officers. Deputy Viola Andrew officiated, and Julia Sanguinetti became president. Entertainment was presented under the direction of Chairman Euretta Dentoni. On the Parlor's behalf, Mary Strutzmann presented a past president jewel to Theresa James. Among the many in attendance were Supervising Deputy Algie Gossett and Deputy Hattie Mae Goodban. Refreshments were served by Vera Johnson and committee.—E.S.

Albany—Albany No. 260 had a party January 10 for members having January birthdays. May Ellis was named the Parlor's representative on a joint committee that is arranging for the official visit of Grand President Orinda Giannini to Piedmont No. 87, Brooklyn No. 157 and Albany February 14. The Parlor's sewing club met January 15 at the home of Hazelett Taylor and formulated plans for a pillowcase whist. Arrangements for the Parlor's fifth anniversary dinner February 16 are being made by a committee including Laura Isom, Mae Rutan, Daisy Olufsen and Hazelett Taylor.

Coalinga—In a hall decorated with greenery and lilies, the officers of Coalinga No. 270 were publicly installed January 10. Deputy Ethel Koepf, assisted by members of Las Flores No. 262, Arenal, officiated, and Margaret O'Connor became president. During the ceremonies vocal selections were rendered by Opal Draper and Louise Willms, accompanied at the piano by Evelyn Andrews. Those participating in the ceremonies were charmingly gowned in varicolored formals and wore beautiful corsages. A musical program was enjoyed, and buffet refreshments were served.—P.H.

Fresno—The membership committee of Wawona No. 271 served a potluck dinner January 5. "Mystery friends" were revealed and presented gifts, and President Dorothy Jean Helm commended Margaret Smith and Pearl Ismay for their splendid work in the membership drive. A rummage sale January 8-13 was a great success; Bernice Kincheloe, Emma Amabile and Pearl Ismay had charge. Officers, with Dorris Gooch as president, were installed January 19.

Berkeley—Sequoia No. 272 had a very successful card party for the benefit of the homeless children. Many sociables and fund-raising activities are planned for the spring months. Several candidates were recently initiated.—B.W.

January 11 by Grand First Vice-president Henry S. Lyon who, in the course of a stirring address, urged the members to be constantly on guard against all foreignisms and to spread the teachings of Americanism. The Parlor instituted a drive for new members. A banquet was served at the meeting's close.

Redding—Officers of McCloud No. 149 and Hiawatha No. 140 N.D. were jointly installed January 17 by Deputies H. H. Shuffleton Jr. and Elsie Judah, Baird Dobrowsky and Mrs. William Owens becoming the respective presidents. During the evening Arthur Mason Dean, long active in the Order of Native Sons, was presented by McCloud Parlor with a fifty-year emblem. He was a charter member of Highland No. 44, instituted at French Gulch January 27, 1889, has filled all the stations in McCloud several times, been a district deputy many years, and served three terms as a grand trustee.

Byron—Byron No. 170 will celebrate its forty-ninth institution anniversary at a banquet February 6. Grand President Jesse H. Miller and other grand officers will attend, and invitations have been extended all eligibles of the community. The Parlor was recently visited by Assistant Grand Secretary Harold J. Regan.

DUTCH EXPLORER MAY HAVE VISITED SAN FRANCISCO BAY BEFORE PORTOLA.

Evidence that a Dutch explorer, Pieter Eschasz de Lint, may have visited in or near the Bay of San Francisco in 1600, 169 years before the accepted discovery of the bay by Don Gaspar de Portola, was obtained for the Bancroft Library of the University of California by Dr. Engel Sluiter, historian, after a searching examination of available records.

De Lint's presumed visit to the San Francisco Bay region, coming at the height of a campaign of Dutch exploration and conquest along the western coasts of the two Americas, is revealed in a letter written by a Spanish Jesuit priest, Augustin de Carvallos, who for sixteen days was held captive aboard the Hendrick Frederick, De Lint's ship.

AT THE TWELFTH ANNIVERSARY breakfast at the N.D.G.W. Home January 14, Past Grand President Evelyn I. Carlson presided, Grand Marshal Claire Lindsey led in the salute and the pledge of allegiance to the flag, and prayer was offered by Past Grand President May C. Boldemann.

"Perhaps the greatest joy in our hearts today, as we gather in this building, the cornerstone of which was laid in June 1928 and which was dedicated January 12, 1929, is the fact that no debt of any kind hovers over this edifice," said Mrs. Carlson. "Our greatest joy should be the knowledge that we are ever endeavoring to further the cause for which the Home is intended—providing a home with homelike atmosphere for all desiring to reside within its walls. . . . Let me assure you that the Grand Parlor Home Committee and its chairman, Past Grand President Dr. Mariana Bertola, are ever conscious of the help given by the membership towards the maintenance of this Home, and express their appreciation in the following verse:

"It's not the things that money buys
That thinking people learn to prize;
The lights of home mean more to me,
Than fairy castles o'er the sea.

A rose and silver sunset cloud,
A well loved face among the crowd,
Flowers that blossom 'round our door
Are treasures dear in memory's store.

Just common things, some folks will say,
But after while there comes a day
When nothing seems so good to you
As dear old friends whose love is true.

So, let us tell them while we may
How much their presence lights our way,
And often, ere life's journey ends,
Thank the dear Lord for home and friends."

Judge C. J. Goodell of Twin Peaks Parlor No. 214 N.S.G.W., the guest speaker, had for his subject "Peace." Other speakers were Grand President Orinda G. Giannini and Dr. Bertola. Grand Organist Mae O'Keefe entertained with accordion selections, and Miss Mardel May, accompanied by Miss Essie Morton, favored with vocal numbers. Among the many others in attendance were Grand Vice-president Hazel B. Hansen, Grand Secretary Sallie R. Thaler, Grand Trustee Emily Ryan, Past Grand Presidents Anne Thuesen, Mae B. Wilkin, Carrie R. Durham, Emma G. Foley and Stella Finkeldey. The breakfast concluded with the singing of "God Bless America" by the assemblage.

GOLD DISCOVERY OBSERVANCE.

The ninety-second anniversary of the historic gold discovery at Coloma, El Dorado County, by James W. Marshall, was observed by the San Francisco Native Sons at their annual Gold Discovery Day banquet, January 24, in the rooms of the Grizzly Bear Club, Native Sons Building.

Past Grand President Lewis F. Byington was the master of ceremonies, and among the several speakers was Grand President Jesse H. Miller. Approximately 150 members of the Order were in attendance.

N.S.G.W.—NEWS PARAGRAPHS.—N.D.G.W.

Officers of Pacific Parlor No. 10 N.S.G.W. and Portola Parlor No. 172 N.D.G.W. were jointly installed at impressive public ceremonies January 16, Marius Kast and Patricia Creighton becoming the respective presidents. Deputies Albert Werner and Ann Duddy, who officiated, were assisted by Past Grand Chas. A. Koenig and Grand Marshal Claire Lindsey as marshals. For the fortieth consecutive year, Samuel W. Dixon was installed as treasurer of Pacific. Among the many in attendance was Grand President Orinda Giannini. Dancing and a buffet supper followed the ceremonies.—E.J.S.

Officers of Stanford Parlor No. 76 N.S.G.W., with Raymond J. Arata as president, were publicly installed January 13 by District Deputy John B. Molinari, assisted by Edward C. Neely as marshal. Dancing and refreshments followed the ceremonies. The arrangements committee included Gino Lucchesi, chairman, James F. Stanley, Chas. Y. Stanley, Harry E. Kemp, Frank F. Morris, George F. Carson and Frank Schmid.

Officers of Genevieve Parlor No. 132 N.D.G.W. were installed January 13 by Deputy Constance Waishaw, Vera Beatson becoming president. Grand President Orinda G. Giannini was in attendance. A very enjoyable evening was concluded with dancing.

Deputy Ann Godfrey, assisted by Past Grand

Evelyn I. Carlson, installed the officers of Guadalupe Parlor No. 153 N.D.G.W., with Miss Frances Moran as president. An emblematic ring was presented Past President Evelyn Butler. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Hope Chrenik and committee.

Golden Gate Parlor No. 158 N.D.G.W. celebrated its thirty-second institution anniversary at a banquet January 18; Mrs. Peter T. Conmy had charge of arrangements. Officers of the Parlor and Golden Gate Parlor No. 29 N.S.G.W. were jointly installed at impressive public ceremonies January 22, Cecelia Hamrol and Kelly Cudworth becoming the respective presidents. Deputies Emma O'Meara and Edward Stocker, the installing officers, were assisted by Past Grand Evelyn Carlson and Grand Marshal Claire Lindsey. The drill team of Golden Gate No. 158 met January 15 at the home of President Hamrol, who was assisted by Irene Defarrari as co-hostess. The enthusiastic group discussed plans for the year. Several recruits have joined, and practice will start February 7.—B.M.N.

Dolores Parlor No. 169 N.D.G.W. had a farewell party January 10 for President Thelma Duer, who expressed gratitude for the support given her during her term. Ever dear to the hearts of the Doloresites is the homeless children project; tangible proof of this was the array of tiny garments at the annual stork shower. The drill team of Dolores was entertained January 15 at the home of Norma Wendt, who was assisted by Alice Kane, May Hyland and Juanita Blanchfield as co-hostesses. The team sponsored a telephone bridge January 30; Captain Alvina Burkhardt was in charge.—J.B.

Castro Parlor No. 173 N.D.G.W. celebrated its thirtieth institution anniversary at a banquet January 25. Mrs. Alice Lane headed the arrangements committee.—B.W.

Castro Parlor No. 232 N.S.G.W. had its annual dinner dance January 20. George Guisti was chairman of the arrangements committee.

HUNDREDS WITNESS INSTALLATION.

Some five hundred people witnessed the joint public installation of officers of South San Francisco Parlor No. 157 N.S.G.W. and El Vespero Parlor No. 118 N.D.G.W., January 17. The ceremonies were conducted by Deputies Conrad Hubner and Ruth Trousdale, who were assisted by District Deputy John M. Reid, Mrs. Evelyn Brady, F. A. Glocker and Past Grand President Mae Himes-Noonan. Gerald E. Gallagher and Mrs. Marie Arietta became the respective presidents.

Judge George W. Schonfeld was master of ceremonies and, on behalf of South San Francisco, presented an emblematic ring to Past President Wm. G. Fanning. On El Vespero's behalf, Nell R. Boege presented a beautiful gift to Mrs. Clyde Spillane, a past president. Addresses were delivered by Grand President Orinda Giannini, Grand Third Vice-president Lloyd J. Cosgrove, Presidents Arietta and Gallagher.

Others in attendance were Grand Trustee Emily Ryan, Grand Organist Mae O'Keefe and Supervising Deputy Rena Taube of the Native Daughters, Past Grand Presidents Joseph J. McShane and Chas. A. Koenig, Grand Secretary John T. Regan, Grand Trustees Wayne R. Millington and Raymond D. Williamson, Supervising Deputy A. M. Nishkian and District Deputy Edward Stocker of the Native Sons. At the conclusion of the ceremonies dancing was enjoyed and refreshments were served.

"Nothing is so contagious as enthusiasm. . . . It moves stones, it charms brutes. Enthusiasm is the genius of sincerity, and truth accomplishes no victories without it."—Bulwer.

(ROWENA BERENSTEIN.)
WILMINGTON—AT INFORMAL ceremonies January 10, Stephen M. White Parlor No. 263 N.S.G.W. and Rudecinda Parlor No. 230 N.D.G.W. dedicated a suite of early-day bedroom furnishings purchased by them from the estate of Dr. Joseph Pomeroy Widney and installed in historic Banning Manor. Anna Menveg, Letitia Sarclaux, Rowena Berenstein, Thomas G. Allender, Hampton Neergaard and Jack Mele, appropriately costumed, welcomed the many guests. Harry Fairall acted as master of ceremonies and introduced Mrs. Marion Parks Partridge, Mr. and Mrs. Irwin W. Widney, Mrs. Mary Widney Reeve, Dr. M. S. Baumgaardt of the Los Angeles Park Commission, Mrs. Florence Dodson Schoneman and President Lucy Ascolesi of Rudecinda.

Mrs. Partridge, gowned in a costume belonging to the late Mrs. Widney, gave an interesting account of Dr. Widney's life. He was born in Ohio in 1841, was educated in medicine, and served in the Civil War. He came to Los Angeles in 1868, was a co-founder of the University of Southern California, and the author of several books. He died at Los Angeles July 4,

HISTORIC BANNING MANOR, Wilmington.

1938. Dr. Baumgaardt, in accepting the furnishings, highly commended the Native Sons and the Native Daughters for their splendid work in preserving historic landmarks and in perpetuating the memory of the California Pioneers.

The historic furnishings, which came to California in a sail boat via Cape Horn, include a walnut bed, marble top dresser, washstand with equipment, desk, chair and two rockers. The bed linen is of pure linen, hand decorated, and five pictures adorn the walls. Upon the bed rests the sword of Dr. Widney, and his boots and boot lasts are set by the mantle. All the furnishings are arranged just as they were in the old Widney home on Avenue 26, East Los Angeles.

JOINT INSTALLATION.

San Pedro—In the presence of a large number of members and friends, officers of Rudecinda Parlor No. 230 N.D.G.W. and Stephen M. White Parlor No. 263 N.S.G.W. were jointly installed January 12. The ceremonies were conducted by Deputies Ernestine Aylward and Clarence S. Hunt, and Mrs. Dessie Buyo and Thomas G. Allender became the respective presidents. The hall was attractively decorated in red, white and yellow.

Mrs. Florence Dodson Schoneman was chairman of the evening, and among the speakers were Grand Trustee Mary Noerenberg, Supervising Deputy Roy Tarleton, William A. Reuter, President Allender and President Buyo. The latter gave a very interesting talk on "The Heritage of California." Mrs. Lucy Ascolesi, retiring president, received an emblematic ring from Rudecinda, and the members of that Parlor presented her with a set of pottery in the new pastel shades. Refreshments brought the occasion to a close.

THIMBLE CLUB HAS ANNUAL DINNER.

San Pedro—The Florencita Thimble Club of Rudecinda Parlor No. 230 N.D.G.W. met January 3 at the home of Marcella Sandoval, and at the home of Anna Menveg January 17 for luncheon-meetings. January 22 the club had its annual dinner at Gardena. President Dessie Buyo and a delegation of twelve members of the Parlor witnessed the joint installation of officers

N.S.G.W.—NEWS PARAGRAPHS.—N.D.G.W.

Los Angeles Parlor No. 45 N.S.G.W. had its first "Know Your California" quiz for 1940, conducted by President Carroll M. Manley, January 12. Grand Trustee Walter E. Smith was the prize winner, naming correctly twenty-three of the state's fifty-eight county seats. Another quiz will be held February 9. The ritual will be exemplified February 23 for the benefit of Grand Trustee Walter C. Richards, who will pay his official visit to the Parlor at that time. The occasion will be concluded with an entertainment and refreshments. Grand Trustee Walter E. Smith has been seriously ill, but is now on the road to recovery.—F.F.

Long Beach—Officers of Long Beach Parlor No. 154 N.D.G.W. and Long Beach Parlor No. 278 N.S.G.W. were jointly installed at largely attended public ceremonies January 18. Deputies Emma Costello and John P. Wright officiated, and Mrs. Nell D. Cooke and Fred C. Walker became the respective presidents. Among the speakers of the evening were Past Grand Grace S. Stoermer, Grand Trustee Mary B. Noerenberg, Mrs. Kate McFadyen and Supervising Deputy Olinda Thomas of the Native Daughters, Mayor Francis H. Gentry, Supervising Deputy Roy Tarleton, Grand Organist Roger M. Johnson, District Deputies Dewey Richards and Clarence S. Hunt of the Native Sons.

Glendale—Verdugo Parlor No. 240 N.D.G.W. started the new year by instituting a membership drive. Two teams have been chosen, and the losers will entertain the winners at a party. Deputy Marcella Palethorpe was a visitor January 9, and commended the officers and members on the Parlor's excellent progress. February 13 a number of candidates will be initiated. The ceremonies will be followed by a Valentine party, with Leonora Pagliuso as chairman of the refreshments committee.—E.M.K.

East Los Angeles Parlor No. 266 N.D.G.W. had the only decorated car in the parade celebrating the opening of a bus line connecting Pasadena and Long Beach. Riding in the car were Mildred Banning, Bonnie Brkich, Dorothy Camy and Erma Eckman, all beautifully gowned. All along the line of march the entry was cheered.—L.A.

Santa Monica—Officers of Santa Monica Bay Parlor No. 267 N.S.G.W. were installed by District Deputy Dewey Richards January 23, Lee Conger becoming president. The booster committee of the Parlor will feature a fine show February 16; a big night is promised all Natives and their friends. February 20, Santa Monica Bay will initiate a class of candidates, the new officers exemplifying the ritual.—J.J.S.

Canoga Park—Topanga Parlor No. 269 N.D.G.W. presented a California State (Bear) Flag to the Canoga Park High School January 19.—L.J.C.

Officers of East Los Angeles Parlor No. 277 N.S.G.W. were installed January 8, Howard Woodward becoming president and Dick Jennings recording secretary.

City Attorney Ray L. Chesebro, guest speaker at the N.S.G.W. Luncheon Club January 5, discussed "Municipal Affairs;" John Concannon was chairman of the day. January 12, George M. Cuthbertson spoke on "The Treaty of Cahuenga;" Robert Bushnell presided. The Club meets every Friday at 12:15 noon in room 1126 of the Rosslyn Hotel, Fifth and Main streets.

"Our civilization cannot survive materially unless it is redeemed spiritually. It can be saved only by becoming permeated with the spirit of Christ and being made free and happy by the practices which spring out of that spirit. Only thus can discontent be driven out and all the shadows lifted from the road ahead."—Woodrow Wilson.

MY FOREST

(W.M. W. TAYLOR,

Hollywood Parlor No. 196 N.S.G.W.)

Dawn finds me waiting,
For in that moment of awakening
God walks beneath your sleeping branches,
Holding communion with the ages.
And as the morning sun
Whispers in your lonely ear
I hear its voice echo softly
Through the canyons of eternity,
Until my heart answers a happiness
Which carries through the long, long day.
In your solitude beauty sleeps,
In your colors rest the answers
To my every dream of peace.
In your majesty I find courage,
In your silence love is born,
In your dawn I find the inner answer;
So in reverence I wait, My Forest,
For the coming of your dawn.

STOP

"To me, the single greatest tragedy in all this post-war era is this: that one of the few nations in all the world that really believed in the brave new techniques of peace—didn't just give lip service to them while really depending upon power politics behind the scenes—gambled her very existence on them, is being destroyed at this hour, for her faith. Can we say that is none of our responsibility—none of our business? I cannot.

"Should we go to war on China's behalf? Never. China never expected, never suggested it; but, on the other hand, she did not expect us, with the past I have just sketched, to be now the major source of supplies for the Japanese military machine in its invasion of her, in direct violation of the treaty we had sponsored and persuaded China to accept.

"I have seen and have been in a great many bombings and machine-gunnings from the air. It never made me feel any happier to know how many of the planes were from my own country. All of the high-octane gasoline in them, and three-fifths of all the other gasoline and oil used in her tanks, trucks, ships came and still comes from my country. One-third of all the stuff the planes drop down to kill and maim and destroy comes from the scrap iron yards and steel mills of my country. I have worked hours on end, night after night, removing these things from her bodies and brains of Chinese men and women and children. The single most decisive factor in the whole war thus far, away from the sea-coast and rivers, is the American truck. The Chinese soldiers are almost entirely on foot, pushing wheelbarrows, leading donkeys. The Japanese soldiers are on American wheels.

"It comes down to this: that the Chinese know they could have saved, and they can still save, their country, their homes and their freedom, if they were against only the Japanese; but they are being driven to the painful realization that it is possible they are not going to be able to save their country against this combination of the Japanese military and the resources of the United States of America!

"The threat of Japan's actions to our hopes of getting out of our economic depression, getting our unemployed back to work, is twofold: First, a victorious Japan would remove from the rest of the world a potential market of almost limitless possibilities at the very time when such a market provides the only cure for a rapidly declining world trade. Second, a victorious Japan in control of China's natural resources and manpower will be an unbeatable competitor in the markets we still have, foreign and domestic.

"Japan mired deep in China and isolated, at least temporarily, from Germany by the Russo-German rapprochement, is having to make at least a temporary truce arrangement with Russia, in order that she can free more of her troops from the Manchurian border to try to drive through to a conclusion her conquest of China. At a time when England and France are fighting for their lives in Europe, she might be able to force them to shut off supplies to China through Burma and Indo-China, in return for Japan's promise not to seize British and French possessions in the Far East. In such an eventuality, China has no possible place to turn except to Russia.

"General Chiang will unquestionably continue to fight to the last—as did George Washington—hoping for a turn in international relations in China's favor, just as the turn in international relations in the latter period of our revolution allowed us to get our freedom. It would be an unbelievable miracle if General Chiang is able to keep his country united long under a situation where munitions through Burma and Indo-China were shut off. If Americans will contemplate what would be the position of our trade and security in the Far East with China either under Russia or under Japan, I feel they will bestir themselves to stop our assistance which is enabling Japan to drive China to the wall.

"America has had three cornerstones in her foreign policies for many decades: first, no entangling alliances in Europe; second, the Monroe Doctrine—no foreign systems permitted to get a foothold on this hemisphere; and third, the open door policy in China. Because this policy has worked so admirably, it is all the more incredible to find us at this crucial juncture, in effect, reversing ourselves.

"We still give lip service to the open door; we condemn Japan's actions with our words; but by our deeds we give her the decisive support that threatens to destroy China, a better bulwark against Russian communism or Japanese militarism than twenty American battleships could be. Surely wisdom requires that we return to our historic foreign policy and bring our conduct into harmony with the people's will, already overwhelmingly made manifest."

CALIFORNIA CONTINUES TO BE NATION'S CHIEF GOLD PRODUCER.

California continued to be the nation's leading gold producer during 1939, according to the Bureau of Mines of the United States Interior Department. The Grass Valley-Nevada City district in Nevada County maintained its position as the center of the gold-producing industry of the state.

California's gold production in 1939, the greatest in any year since 1862, was 1,406,000 fine ounces, valued at $49,213,500. The 1938 production was 1,311,129 fine ounces, with a value of $45,889,815.

BOOK REVIEWS

CLARENCE M. HUNT

"A SCOTCH PAISANO."

By Susanna Bryant Dakin; University of California Press, Publishers, Berkeley; Price, $2.50.

This volume tells of the life of Hugo Reid, a Scotchman who first came to California aboard the brig Ayacucho in the summer of 1832 on a visit. He landed at San Pedro, and was so well received that shortly thereafter he came again and settled in Los Angeles. Interwoven with everyday history is a romance that culminates in the marriage of Reid to an Indian woman with four children. The story is based on material gathered from Reid's extensive correspondence with his close friend, Don Abel Stearns. A second section of the book, Appendix B, reproduces Reid's "Letters on the Los Angeles County Indians," published in the Los Angeles Star during 1852.

"A Scotch Paisano" is a pleasing account of life in California under Mexican rule. It is illustrated, and has a map of Spanish and Mexican land grants, showing old ranchos within the limits of Los Angeles County. Appendix A gives the names, places of residence, etc., of citizens of the United States and British subjects living in California prior to 1840.

"THE PLAINS OVER."

By Ralph Leroy Milliken; Los Banos Enterprise, Publishers, Los Banos; Price, $1.00.

This little booklet concerns Pioneer William Jasper Stockton of Los Banos. As a lad of eleven years, he crossed the plains from Illinois to California in 1859, and reminiscences of that eventful trip and of his life in the Golden State, from his own lips, are herein recorded.

Referring to the booklet's title, Author Milliken who, incidentally, some years ago contributed "A Fortified Adobe" to The Grizzly Bear, says: "The California pioneers had a very poetic way of expressing themselves. They never said they crossed the plains. They always said they came 'the plains over.' And so we call this life story of William Jasper Stockton 'The Plains Over.' And we will let this ninety-one-year-old man tell the story himself."

"The man who kindles the fire on the hearthstone of an honest and righteous home, burns the best incense to liberty."—Henry W. Grady.

"The happiness of your life depends upon the quality of your thoughts, therefore guard them well."—Marcus Antonius.

Whereas, The Heavenly Father to His wisdom has sent His Angel of Death to take our dear Sister Gertrude Nuttman, we, your committee appointed to draft resolutions of love and respect to the memory of our departed Sister Gertrude Nuttman, submit the following:

Whereas, The Angel of Death has again visited our Mother and called her gently to her Heavenly Home, we, your committee appointed to draft resolutions of love and respect to the memory of our departed Sister Gertrude Nuttman, submit the following:

Resolved, That we who are left to mourn his departure will find our consolation in our efforts to profit by his example as a good and true Native Son and as a patriotic and unselfish citizen in our community of love, and be it further

Resolved, That we extend to the family of our late brother our sincere sympathy; that a copy of these resolutions be presented to the family, and that a copy be written into the minutes of our Parlor.

San Francisco, January 18, 1940.

WILLIAM NORRIS PROUTY.

Our Heavenly Father has called a beloved brother to a seat in that Parlor on High. Brother William Norris Prouty joined Iona Parlor No. 23 N.S.G.W. on February 29, 1908, and served his Parlor faithfully and well for thirty-one years. Therefore, be it

President Franklin D. Roosevelt, in his message to the Federal Congress, January 3, said: "The unemployment problem today has become very definitely a problem of youth as well as of age. As each year has gone by hundreds of thousands of boys and girls have come of working age. They now form an army of unused youth. They must be an especial concern of democratic government.

"We must continue, above all things, to look for a solution of their special problem. For they, looking ahead to life, are entitled to action on our part and not merely to admonitions of optimism or lectures on economic laws."

With the passing of United States Senator William Edgar Borah of Idaho, this nation lost one of its very few outstanding statesmen. A true American, honest, fearless and independent, he fought valiantly for the best interests of the people and the country. His voice is stilled, but his preachments will live forever.

If the members of the State Legislature have the "guts," they will, at the special session, refuse to authorize any new taxes, but will balance the budget by cutting down State Government operation costs. That can be done by materially reducing the number of commissions, bureaus, boards, etc., created by and maintained for the benefit of the invisible government—the political machine.

Does dishonesty pay? Well, Gilbert H. Beesmyer, admitted topnotch thief, got $8,000,000 for nine years' penal servitude. Not bad for Gilbert—and others, perhaps.

The freeing of this man, who wrecked the lives of hundreds of honest people by stealing their life savings, is a disgrace to California, and is good and sufficient reason for repeal of the parole statute and abolishment of the State Parole Board.

Good news! The House of Representatives of the Federal Congress has voted to continue for another year the Dies committee that has done an excellent job investigating un-American activities. There was some lively debate on the resolution to prolong the committee's existence, but on rollcall it was approved by a 345-21 vote.

Representative Leo E. Allen of Illinois, speaking for the resolution, said the activities of subversive groups, with foreign connections, had been uncovered and publicized. He asked the House who opposed continuing the investigation, and then named "Earl Browder, the Communist Party, the New Masses, Labor's Non Partisan League, the American Youth Congress, the American Student Union which gave its blessing

State Government finances are in a deplorable condition, but the political machine in control continues to pile up operation costs. By the addition of another 1,354 employees in 1939, the payroll was advanced to $54,307,921 for the year, up $3,613,652 over the 1938 payroll.

Because so many speakers have no terminal facilities, Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt advises women to "be sure to have a way of ending" their speeches. Little would be lost if many speakers, both men and women, had no way of beginning their speeches.

"As long as foreign elements vote en bloc," says Representative Martin Dies of Texas, "the political parties will cater to them at the expense of the American people who do not stick together." How true!

Mexicans comprise twenty-four percent of California's relief cases, says the state finance director. So, after the census is completed, some of them may be sent back to Mexico. That will, however, afford the impoverished taxpayers little relief, as for every thousand Mexis sent out through one door fifteen hundred are brought in through another door.

Innumerable reasons for suicide have been advanced, but the prize on is that of the fellow who shuffled off heavenward because his hair was falling out.

The Federal Congress should, without more delay, declare an embargo against the further shipment of war materials to Japan.

Speaking at the McCarty Memorial Christian Church in Los Angeles, Dr. J. R. Kellems said: "The saddest casualty of the depression is not the fact that so many millions of men have been thrown out of work, but the fact that millions have lost the proud dignity which formerly characterized our people. We need once more to learn that labor, even though the job be humble, is honorable. We need again to realize that the world does not owe us a living unless we earn that living. . . .

"Let us once more have the faith that we can lick this unemployment problem. Whenever we bring ourselves to believe that the present situation is a permanent one, we are doomed. It is not and must not be permanent. If once more we can come back to faith in God and in hard work we will win through." Amen!

Chief E. Raymond Cato of the California Highway Patrol says drunk drivers are responsible for thirty percent of the fatal auto crashes. Less probation and more prison sentences—impartial and strict enforcement of the law—would soon end that menace.

Samuel Grafton, a New York columnist, advocates repeal of the Exclusion Law, which he terms "absurd" and "a mortal insult to Japan." The law is based on necessity, and its repeal would result in surrender of the Pacific Coast to the Japs.

Speaking in Los Angeles, Secretary Najni Patel of the All-India Student Federation declared "The Indian people do not want to become a dominion of the British Empire—they want independence, and nothing less will do." Here's hoping they get what they want.

Apparently SRA is maintained, at outrageous expense to the taxpayers, also for the relief of the faithful of the political clique. Last year it added 321 to its payroll. In 1936 there were 2,012 SRA job holders; in 1937, 3,829; in 1938, 5,475; in 1939, 6,296.

Harry E. Grant, in an article titled "International Nonsense" in The New Age, truthfully declares: "War cannot be waged without authority of the sovereign power of the belligerents, therefore, to affirm that a war is 'undeclared' is the most superficial of persiflage. . . .

"One may well wonder at the high conceit of any nation which guilelessly sells arms or other means of warring to conquest-mad peoples and then expects to successfully avoid the necessity for the sacrifices of self-defense when the same weapons they have furnished are turned against them. Sale of war materials to an aggressor nation can hardly be termed civilized, intelligent nor precautionary to self-preservation. It is not good business.

President Franklin D. Roosevelt has proclaimed 1940 "Travel America Year," and urges the American people to do their vacationing in Western Hemisphere nations. There are attractions to meet all tastes in this country, so why go elsewhere to spend dollars accumulated here?

SPRING IN SANTA BARBARA FINDS Santa Barbara Parlor No. 116 N.S.G.W. and Reina del Mar Parlor No. 126 N.D.G.W. established in new and comfortable quarters, the latter sharing the hacienda of the Elks, and the former a schoolhouse recently taken over by the Eagles. The Daughters have instituted fireside chats about the remarkable fireplace in their new quarters, and the Sons find use for the recreation rooms of their new quarters after meetings are over. Attendance at meetings promises to be increased because of the delightful surroundings, thus to the encouragement of the respective presidents, Captain Wilford H. Rutherford and Mrs. William Wegener.

Both Parlors came through the Santa Barbara Community Chest drive with flying colors. Their interest in this community fund-raising was personal, for the Sons benefit through Chest support of their troop of Boy Scouts, and the Daughters through the Family Milk Fund, distributed by Neighborhood House under the Parlor's direct sponsorship.

This participation in the Chest drive was a practical demonstration of the interest which the Santa Barbara Parlors take in civic matters. The Daughters were specially organized for the drive with Mrs. John D. Ross, supervising district deputy, serving as major, and Mrs. Sylvia Griffith, first vice-president, as captain. Mrs. Fred Acres, a member of the Grand Parlor Civics Committee, and Dr. Anna E. McCaughey served on the advance gifts and publicity committees.

Santa Barbara Parlor of Native Sons is looking forward to an official visit from Grand Trustee Walter E. Smith, and a program will be arranged for March 7 or March 21, whichever date he selects. Reina del Mar Parlor of Native Daughters is planning another of the Easter morn breakfasts which have been uniformly successful for a number of years.

BOY SCOUTS GUESTS NATIVE SONS.

The February 14 meeting of Santa Barbara Parlor was given over to its Boy Scout troop, and a program was presented under the chairmanship of Wesley McCormick, who directs successfully the Sons' continuing interest in scouting. Gordon Hopwood led in the presentation of the colors, after which a skit was given by the Islanders patrol. Scoutmaster Cliff Romer led in the tenderfoot investiture for five new scouts, President Rutherford of the Parlor presented service stars to scouts and scouters, and a motion picture of scout activities last summer at Camp Drake was shown. Jerry Ireland and Glenn Ronk were introduced as the troop's two eagle scouts. Captain I. A. Bonelli outlined future programs of great interest, and the good of the order committee, A. C. McAfee chairman, topped off a perfect evening with refreshments for the parents of the scouts and a number of invited guests.

The occasion will be the National Orange Show, the world's largest exhibition of citrene products. This year's show will have decorations of a patriotic nature. Satin liberty bells, in the colors of the flag, and murals depicting scenes from America's rich history will adorn the hall. Seventeen communities and organizations will present feature citrus displays. In addition, there will be an industrial section, a showing of products made from citrus fruits, an exhibit of the prize blooms of southern California, and a fun zone.

PLAN DISTRICT MEETING.

Ontario—Supervising Deputy Matilda Enfield had a meeting of the deputies and the presidents of District 33 February 23. Plans were made for a district meeting at the time of the Grand President's visit. THE GREAT DEBATE

OF THE CONSTITUTIONAL CONVENTION OF 1849---WHAT IS AND SHOULD BE CALIFORNIA

Dr. Peter T. Conmy, Grand Historian N.S.G.W.

(WRITTEN ESPECIALLY FOR THE GRIZZLY BEAR MAGAZINE.)

WHEN THE CONSTITUTIONAL CONVENTION met in Monterey in September 1849 to frame a constitution for the proposed State of California, the great national issue of the United States was slavery. Indeed, the convention itself was born as a result of the slavery situation; for, had Congress not been deadlocked on the same, a territorial government would have been provided for California, and it would not have been necessary for the people of the area to take matters into their own hands by organizing a state government without authorization from the United States government. When one considers that the persistence of the slavery deadlock prevented the admission of California until September 1850, one would naturally expect, upon looking into the "Debates and Minutes of the 1849 Constitutional Convention," to find the matter of slavery playing an important part. Such, however, was not the case. A clause which made California a free state for all time was voted into the draft of the constitution without any opposition. The great debate of the convention touched a different problem, one which probably never arose when other states were making their constitutions and one which was born out of the peculiarly Californian situation.

There had always been some confusion about the northern and the eastern boundaries of California in both Spanish and Mexican days. The first missions are called the coastal missions for the reason that they were located along the shore line. The later missions penetrated the inner valleys in their establishment; for this reason, such missions as San Juan Bautista and Mission San Jose are known as the inland missions. Except for the exploration of the San Joaquin Valley by Moraga and of the Sacramento Valley by Arguello, the Hispanic Californians hardly touched eastern California in their wanderings. For this reason the word "California" was used to connote a geographical area much larger than that spanned by actual settlement. It was generally accepted that the northern extremity was in the mountains at the head of the great Sacramento Valley. Where the eastern boundary lay, no one knew. For this reason it was generally understood that all the area from the Pacific Coast to the western boundary of the United States constituted California. That this view was shared by both the United States and Mexico is shown by the fact that in the treaty of Guadalupe-Hidalgo, which closed the wars of the Mexican War, the government of Mexico ceded to the United States the area which today comprises the States of California, Nevada, Utah, Arizona, New Mexico and part of Colorado. This is known alternately as the Mexican Cession and the California Cession.

Following the cession of territory as above described Congress took no action on a territorial government either for the whole or a part of the area. Consequently, when the Constitutional Convention met in Monterey in September 1849 it faced the problem of fixing in the drafted constitution the boundaries of the proposed state. This was by no means an easy task. There were historical, political and economic facts to be considered. In the first place, it would seem that when the pro-slavery men, headed by William M. Gwin, made no objection to the clause making California a free state they did so because they envisioned a free northern California, and rested secure in the expectation that one or more slave states would be carved out of that portion of the territory ceded that was not California proper. This is well explained by Bancroft, who says (vol. VI page 11): "Some of them (the southern men) hoped to regain all that they had lost when they came to the subject of boundary. Let northern California be a free state; out of the remainder of the territory acquired from Mexico half a dozen slave states might be made."

These men were doomed to disappointment, however, because the matter of fixing the boundary proved to be one of the most invidious matters before the convention. There were three points of view presented: (1) that which sought to have the boundaries of California conform to the boundaries of the area ceded by Mexico; (2) that which sought to have California include all of the cession except Utah; (3) that which sought to have California as she is today, running as far east as the eastern slopes of the Sierra Nevada and the Colorado River, respectively. Each of these stands will now be considered separately, but before proceeding it may be well to present a quotation from Cleland: "On most matters the convention worked without friction; but an occasional hotly debated issue broke the otherwise harmonious sessions. One of those disturbing questions was that of the eastern limits of the state. . . . on the east there was an empire of uncertain extent, vaguely known to the Spaniards as part of their province of Alta California. Whether the territory to be included in the new state should follow these old boundaries to the Rocky Mountains or stop at the Sierra Nevada was the vital question before the convention."

Wednesday, September 12, 1849, a motion calling for a committee of five to study and report upon the boundary was adopted. This committee was composed of L. W. Hastings, chairman, John A. Sutter, Hugo Reid, Pablo de la Guerra and Jacinto Rodriguez. It should be noted that the last two named were natives of California, and were expected to be of assistance because of their knowledge of the country. This committee reported September 18th. The report asserted the existing boundary made an area too large for a single state, and showed that if the boundary was allowed to stand the state would be equal in size to the combined areas of all the non-slave-holding states. It was also pointed out that it would be difficult to apportion such large territory so as to give a just representation to all parts. The report also contained the Motion for a resolution of 1849 which provided that, because of the numerous persons who had taken possession of the territory, the committee, therefore, recommended a boundary practically identical with that which is in effect today. This report was considered by the convention, sitting as a committee of the whole, September 24th.

A group of delegates led by Halleck, Gwin and Sherwood asked for the traditional boundary by way of amending the committee's report. Their argument for this is interesting. They pointed out that there was no organized government in the area between the Sierra Nevada and the Rocky Mountains. Should California be admitted without this territory the slavery issue, they argued, might continue deadlocked for a long time and so prevent a government being established there. They pointed out that in the future, when the population had increased, by common consent of the Congress and the Legislature of California new states might be carved out of the lands east of the Sierra Nevada Mountains. The strongest argument against this was made by John McDougal, who later became Governor of California. He said that no state with such an enormous amount of territory would be admitted, and consequently, if California should ask to be admitted under those conditions, it would be refused and the state government which was so sorely needed would be still longer postponed.

McDougal saw, too, what others did not see, namely, that the pro-slavery men wished to have the constitution rejected, so that a new convention would have to be called, a new election held, and that they meant to pack the state with Southern sympathizers and elect delegates who would write slavery into the constitution. Quoting from his address, one of the most clear and logical of the convention: "If we present our constitution to them with this boundary they will throw it back to us. They will say: We cannot give it to you gentlemen. You claim more territory than you can govern, more than you have a right to govern. . . . It is objectionable to both North and South. . . . It will, if you include this whole vast territory, give you a power in the legislative halls of Congress to control this Union. . . ." Another reason which McDougal urged was the possibility that after California had been admitted as a free state it would be possible for pro-slavery men to migrate into the state and bring about a change in the constitution permitting slavery. Thus the largest area in the whole United States might become slave territory. This opinion finally prevailed, and by a vote of 37 to 7 it was decided to fix the boundary as reported by the committee. Thus it will be seen that although the slavery question did not appear upon the floor of the convention as such, it indirectly was considered in fixing the boundary, and the interests of free soil prevailed.

Two old Californians who spoke on the boundary issue, and whose opinions were not conditioned by the slavery issue, but were their own sincere feelings, were John A. Sutter and Jose Antonio Carrillo. Sutter was not in favor of extending the boundary of California to include Nevada or Utah, for the reason that he considered the land there to be for the most part a desert waste. Carrillo, on the contrary, believed that the boundary should be the traditional one. This was undoubtedly due to the fact that he was a native Californian and stood for maintaining the Hispanic tradition, culture and institutions. The boundary as fixed in the Constitution of 1849 is as follows:

Commencing at the point of intersection of 42nd degree of north latitude with the 124th degree of longitude west from Greenwich, and running south on the line of said 124th degree of west longitude until it intersects the 38th degree of north latitude, thence running in a straight line in a south westerly direction to the River Colorado, at a point where it intersects the 35th degree of north latitude; thence on the divide of the Summit of Santa Rosa, the boundary line between the United States and Mexico, as established by the Treaty of May 30, 1848, thence running west and along said boundary line to the Pacific Ocean, and extending therein three English miles; thence running in a north westerly direction, and following the direction of the Pacific Coast to the 42nd degree of north latitude; thence on the line of said 42nd degree of north latitude to the place of beginning; also all the islands, harbors and bays, along and adjacent to the Pacific Coast."

California's 1939 mineral production had an estimated value of $356,095,000, a decline of $34,350,000 compared with 1938, according to the State Mining Bureau.

GRANDMOTHER'S PARASOL

I cannot see the brightness of your face,
Nor your proud figure as you walked your way.
Old time is cruel but has left a trace
Of your short journey through the yesterday.
There were untrodden hills for steps of youth,
And there were hours of laughter and desire,
With love to give the same eternal truth,
And eyes to burn with faith and mystic fire.
Within an old hair trunk, I found today
Your silken parasol, with ivory tips.
I saw you come with him—expectant, gay,
And there was laughter from provoking lips.
A little trifling with the wheel of chance,
And she gave back your toy of love's romance.

CALIFORNIA FIFTY YEARS AGO

Thomas W. McAuliffe, Historian Sacramento Parlor N.S.G.W.

(COMPILED EXPRESSLY FOR THE GRIZZLY BEAR MAGAZINE.)

TRUE TO THE PROVERBIAL SAYING, March 1890 in California came in like a lamb and went out like a lion. Monitor, Alpine County, was wiped off the map by the snow. All buildings were crushed to the ground, and not a soul was present to witness their destruction.

For the first time in three months, the stage from Redding, Shasta County, arrived March 25 at Weaverville, Trinity County. The first through passenger train since January 16 arrived March 3 at Sisson, Siskiyou County.

John Gattiker, an old soldier, was buried under his cabin above Downieville, Sierra County, by a snowslide March 15.

Due to the winter blockade, the Mount Shasta, Siskiyou County, Herald was run off in three editions March 2. The first was printed on wrapping paper, the second on jacquet cloth and the third on muslin. Copies were eagerly sought as souvenirs.

The Los Angeles, Pasadena and Glendale Railroad was officially opened March 12.

Charter Day was observed March 22 at the University of California, Berkeley. Henry F. Bailey delivered the address.

A bronze statue of Justice was placed in the new San Joaquin County Court House at Stockton March 22. A vast concourse of citizens witnessed the ceremony.

The California Baseball League, composed of teams from San Francisco, Oakland, Stockton and Sacramento, opened its season March 23 with games at Sacramento and San Francisco.

Cook's flourmill at Placerville, El Dorado County, was burned to the ground March 3.

In a game of baseball at San Francisco March 2, the Pioneers defeated the Haverlys by a score of 5 to 2.

The Stanislaus County Agricultural Society was organized March 3 at Modesto.

Thomas Holmes was appointed a supervisor of San Bernardino County by Governor Robert M. Waterman March 4.

Juan Mario, an Indian aged 110 who crossed the plains to California with General Fremont, died March 5 at San Diego.

"Bill Nye" (Edgar W. Nye), world-famous humorist, lectured throughout the state during the month.

Incensed at the coughing of Mark Kelly, a consumptive, Charles Freeman drowned him in a barrel of water at Antelope, Sacramento County, March 7.

Fruit growers of the state met in convention at Los Angeles March 10.

John L. Wilson, superintendent Colusa County schools, died March 16 at Colusa City.

Mayor Pond of San Francisco March 14 signed the Bingham ordinance, which provided for the removal of the Chinese population to South San Francisco.

Grand Trustee Robert M. Fitzgerald officially visited Napa Parlor No. 62 N.S.G.W. at Napa City March 22.

Robert Roberts, a Pioneer of Calaveras and Tuolumne Counties, was killed March 21 in an accident at the Central Hill Gravel Claim, Murphys, Calaveras County.

John D. Yost, one of the original owners of the Sacramento Union, died March 18 at San Francisco.

The State Teachers Association held its annual convention at Los Angeles March 16.

Joseph Bausch, Benicia, Solano County, tannery employe, was suffocated to death by tan bark March 24.

P. P. McConkey, hotel proprietor, shot and killed D. C. Gresham of the Citrograph and then committed suicide at Redlands, San Bernardino County. The tragedy caused a sensation.

Redding, Shasta County, had a disastrous fire March 26.

Three fishermen—R. Faurcade and son and J. Meunelt—left Cayucos, San Luis Obispo County, on a fishing trip March 23 and never came back.

A 17-year-old boy, Willie Aitken, and a Chinaman were drowned in Petaluma Creek, near Twin House, when their boat sank.

El Puente Mills at El Monte, Los Angeles County, burned March 3 and a watchman perished in the flames.

Matthew Byrnes, a California Pioneer of 1849 who conducted a general merchandise store in Sacramento, died March 10 at New York City.

John and James Sowden, brothers, were killed in a landslide near Weaverville, Trinity County, March 7.

Los Angeles City March 13 voted $374,000 for a system of sewers.

Saint Patrick's Day, March 17, was celebrated in grand style at San Francisco by Irish societies.

Henry Grissim, California Pioneer of 1849, died March 20 at Santa Rosa, Sonoma County.

Grass Valley, Nevada County, had a shower of angle worms March 20.

In a row over water rates at Oakland, Alameda County, Senator Moffitt and W. W. Blair came to blows March 24.

Freeman McComber, Sacramento County public administrator in 1856, died March 9 at Santa Barbara City.

James S. Kennedy, foreign money order clerk in the San Francisco Postoffice, was March 20 found to be $20,000 short in his accounts.

Constable Johnson of Fresno sued the Fresno Republican March 25 for $20,000 for defamation of character.

Gabriel, an Indian baptized by Father Junipero Serra in 1769, died at Salinas, Monterey County, March 16. His age was placed at 150 years.

ZACHARY TAYLOR DRAFTED FOR PRESIDENT UNITED STATES.

With 1940's presidential aspirants eagerly waiting the call of the people, a refreshing instance of a candidate who consented to run only because of public demand is recalled by Dr. trained Dyer, assistant professor of history on the Los Angeles campus of the University of California. The man was Zachary Taylor, wealthy president of the United States.

When his candidacy was first urged, as a result of his military successes in the Mexican War, he flatly refused, saying he would decline that high office if it were proffered. As his popularity grew and the public demanded that he be a candidate, he weakened in his refusal and declared, "I will not say that I would not serve if the good people were to be imprudent enough as to elect me."

Even after this admission, he tried to avoid becoming the candidate of any particular party, as he wanted to be free from party politics. His friends persuaded the Whigs to nominate him as their candidate, but he would not endorse the Whig program.

During the summer and fall of the election year, 1848, Taylor remained in Louisiana, at Baton Rouge or on his plantation, and did little to further his campaign. He avoided committing himself on any issues on the ground that he had not had time to investigate them.

Taylor was elected as the Whig candidate, but he still opposed partisanship during the early months of his administration. Dr. Dyer believes this was his growing realization of the hopelessness of his struggle for freedom which brought discouragement and disillusionment, and contributed to his death after little more than a year in office.

"DUTY RATHER THAN RIGHTS—Until we are—every one of us, whatever our position or job,—do a little more thinking about our duties and less of our 'rights'; until we get in the way of saying more often again 'I ought' instead of 'I want'; until we can restore some of the old-fashioned virtues like honesty and good faith—in a word, restore some of the discarded ethical code of the past—I see no chance for real happiness or satisfaction in life for anybody."—James Truslow Adams.

"If you would convince a man that he does wrong, do right. Men will believe what they see. Let them see."—Thoreau.

GRIZZLY GROWLS

NOTE—Expressions of opinion in these "Growls" are, unless indicated otherwise, those of the Managing Editor.

Clarence M. Hunt

Here are some pertinent facts that should interest, and have the serious consideration of, those citizens concerned about the drift of government. They account for the ever-mounting tax burden, and are danger signals along a course that leads to insolvency and dictatorship:

The Federal Government payroll has been increased from 563,000 January 1, 1933, to 933,538 January 1, 1940.

For the seven-months' period July 1, 1939, to January 31, 1940, the operating cost of the California State Government jumped to $113,218,377, an increase, compared with a like period in 1938-39, of $11,299,513—$1,614,216 per month. Revenues, in the same seven months, increased from $83,751,737 in 1938-39 to $89,996,784 in 1939-40.

At the beginning of 1940, some 800,000 people in California, about 11.6 percent of the state's entire population, were receiving public aid of some sort at a cost of more than $15,000,000 per month. This amount does not include administrative and overhead costs, which have grown to enormous proportions.

The Federal Government debt has reached an all-time high, the increase in the past seven years being approximately $21,000,000,000.

Public schools costs in California for the fiscal year ended June 30, 1939, mounted to the staggering total of $183,000,000—an increase of $15,000,000 over the previous fiscal year costs. Incidentally, the cost of conducting the public schools is increasing much more rapidly than is the school attendance.

The political clique manipulating the California State Government is recruiting another army to feed at the public trough at the expense of taxpayers. It includes so-called "deputy administrators," of the too-numerous state departments and bureaus. The estimated strength of this new gang of taxeaters, 200; the pay, around $400 each monthly; the overhead,—more stenographers and clerks, more autos, gas, oil and tires, and more touring expense accounts—thousands of dollars annually.

Congratulating the Boy Scouts of America organization—a splendid institution worthy of unstinted support—on its thirtieth anniversary, President Franklin D. Roosevelt declared, in the course of an address February 8:

"Our Boy Scouts represent a cross section of all American boys from large cities and from villages and farms, from seaport towns and ranches, boys of all blood origins—all enrolled under the banner of Scouting. Moreover, our movement embraces all sects and creeds and is above all class or sectional consciousness. It is, in a word, Democratic, and therefore truly American. God grant that it may ever remain so."

The economy bloc of the California State Legislature stopped an attempted raid on the red ink state treasury and saved the already-near-bankrupt taxpayers millions of dollars. Fine work, well done!

The raid will undoubtedly be resumed in May, to which time the Legislature has recessed, but there is every reason to believe that the bloc will hold fast. And there is also a possibility that some of the raiders may be criminally prosecuted.

Vice-president Earl C. Smith of the American Farm Bureau Federation says Great Britain and France "may be expected to use their dollar exchange to buy war materials in this country, but as far as possible will buy their food products elsewhere." Apparently the American farmer will not benefit from the overseas war.

Congressman Harry R. Sheppard of Yucaipa introduced in the House of Representatives January 29 a bill (H. R. 8180) "to require that no less than 75 percent of the crew of any fishing vessel of the United States be citizens of the United States." It has the approval of United States Attorney Ben Harrison, the American Legion and the Order of Native Sons of the Golden West.

The type of fishing boat used by Japs in California waters is the same as England is purchasing for use as mine sweepers and mine layers. So, for the wellbeing of this Nation, the Federal Congress should, without delay, approve the Sheppard measure, and it should be rigidly enforced.

The California State Government administration is strenuously opposed to turning relief over to the counties. Why? "Confucius say" the stink comes from the SRA operation indicates something rotten.

Dr. P. T. Chen of the Central Bank of China, speaking in Los Angeles, said: "It still is a mystery to us why the United States aids Japan by selling her war materials and at the same time is friendly to China. The cost of national defense of the United States against a possibly triumphant Japan is so great that it certainly would be cheaper not to sell Japan war materials and to help China defend herself."

Numerous Americans, too, are mystified, and are anxious to have the mystery solved. By aiding Japan, through the sale of war materials, to conquer China, this Nation is materially strengthening a peace-time competitor in the markets of the world.

"Liberties of this Nation," says the Livermore Herald editorially, "are less in danger from foreign invasion or foreign 'isms' than they are from the surrender of States' rights to the Federal Government and the turning of government over to bureaus, boards and commissions. Too much of this has already been done, and while the reaction has set in, the danger still exists that the people may wake up some day and find they have sold their precious right for a mess of bureaus." Unquestionably the chief danger to this Nation is from within, and unless the people do wake up soon and remove that danger Democracy will cease to be.

"For fear of worsening Japanese-American relations," quoting the Japan foreign minister, Japs will not be recalled from the United States and its possessions to help exploit Hainan Island, off China's southern coast, and The Netherlands East Indies. Too bad! Instead of "worsening" relations, the withdrawal of ALL the Japs would better them.

★ ★ ★

"Where is Government Headed?" titles an article by City Comptroller C. E. Armstrong of Birmingham, Alabama, in The Tax Digest. Quoting therefrom: "Unfortunately, the 'easy relief' provided by a generous and sympathetic central government seems to have developed in the minds of many relievers, over a period of years, that it is no longer a case of the 'world owing them a living'—but now, 'the government owes them a living.' Unwittingly done, or otherwise, the truth remains that this idea of government paternalism is a logical result of the free and easy manner in which relief has been provided."

"No Delinquent City Taxes in 27 Years," heads a news item in the Ferndale Enterprise. A record of which that prosperous Humboldt County community may well be proud.

State Senator D. Jack Metzner of Red Bluff says "if California were operated as economically as a private business venture at least $100,000,000 could be shaved off annual expenditures." That's true, and what better time than right now to start the shaving and force economy?

GRAND PRESIDENT JESSE H. MILLER, desirous of having the Order make a substantial increase in membership during the remaining months of his term, is offering Subordinate Parlors attractive prizes to stimulate interest. The contest ends April 15, and certified reports must be in the hands of the Grand Secretary by May 1.

"Make our belief in the American form of constitutional government your slogan for increasing our members," urges the Grand President in a letter to all Subordinate Parlors. "The time is now ripe to stress the great patriotic objects of the Native Sons of the Golden West and to call to the attention of all Californians the wonderful services we have heretofore rendered our country. . . . The prizes offered are worth while winning, but most of all the obtaining of additional members is a goal well worth achieving."

Twenty-two Initiated.

Merced—Yosemite No. 24 initiated a class of twenty-two candidates February 16, among the number being Postmaster Joseph T. McInerney; Clerk Robert W. Cotheran, Sheriff Nathan D. Cornell and District Attorney Allen A. Henderson of Merced County, and District Attorney Louis T. Milburn of Mariposa County. The ritual was exemplified by an initiatory team from Los Banos No. 206: Clyde Jones, president; Chester Amaral, senior past president; John Paradisi, junior past president; Frank Bandoni, first vice-president; Guy Helmick, second vice-president; Edmund Enos, third vice-president; Frank Dambrosio, marshal; Albert Aragona, inside sentinel.

This class was the culmination of a three weeks' drive for new members by a committee of the Parlor which included George Kay, Joseph Cocanour, Jess Rodrigues, Dan Trinidad, D. W. Cocanour, Mike Del Farno, J. J. Thornton, I. H. Reuter and True W. Fowler. The committee was materially aided by Assistant Grand Secretary Harold J. Regan, who was sent to Merced by Grand President Jesse H. Miller to help in the drive.

President John Guest of Yosemite announced that the drive would be continued, and that another class of candidates will be initiated April 5. At that time an initiatory team from South San Francisco No. 157, San Francisco, will conduct the ceremonies.

Runners-up and their subjects were: Miss Anna Meister, Ferndale High School, "Battle of San Pasqual;" Miss Royal Potter, Eureka High School, "Sacramento, A Century of Progress, 1839-1939."

There are thousands of fine eligibles just waiting to be extended an invitation to affiliate with the Order of Native Sons of the Golden West. Be a recruiter—extend the invitation today, not tomorrow!

Eureka—Humboldt No. 14 had a dinner February 12 in celebration of the seventy-ninth birthday anniversary of Frank Herrick, for fifty-seven years affiliated with No. 14 and its sole surviving charter member. On the Parlor's behalf, President Fred Urban presented him with a large birthday cake and a gift. Talks were also made by L. F. Puter, George Albee and F. W. Mogenson, members of Humboldt over forty years.—R.B.

Fresno—February 24 was poppy day here and Fresno No. 25 and Fresno No. 187 N.D. joined forces to dispose of 10,000 poppies, made by the Daughters, for the benefit of the homeless children. Each year a sizable check, the proceeds of the sale, is sent the Central Committee.—M.C.C.

Petaluma—Petaluma No. 27 had its annual banquet February 6. Grand Second Vice-president Edward T. Schnarr, paying his official visit, was the guest of honor. The Parlor has under way a membership campaign, with Henry Andresen and Arthur Wipner captains of the opposing teams. The losers must banquet the winners.

Bakersfield—Bakersfield No. 42 had a very successful smoker, the proceeds from which will help finance Grand Parlor entertainment. A large and enthusiastic crowd of some five hundred witnessed an excellent floor show imported from Hollywood especially for the affair. Numerous and valuable awards were presented by Supervisor Charles W. Wimmer.

No applications, no new members to fill the ranks. And California needs more Native Sons! Today's responsibility of every member of the Order is to contact eligibles. Don't leave this important duty for "George" to perform.

Alameda—Officers of Alameda No. 47, with John F. Hanson Jr. as president, were installed by District Deputy Walter Davis. Grand Trustee Richard McCarthy paid his official visit and spoke of the Order's progress. Edward Jensen, senior past president, was the recipient of a gift from the Parlor. Refreshments were served by a committee headed by George H. Hagy.

Saint Helena—Walter Metzner addressed Saint Helena No. 53 February 5 on the work being done by the Boy Scouts of America. February 26 the Parlor had as its guest Solano-Napa Past Presidents Assembly No. 11.

Napa—Napa No. 62 presented California State (Bear) Flags to the Lincoln and the Napa Union Schools February 2. Nathan F. Coombs made the presentation addresses, and the arrangements committee included Sidonia Geiger, Philip Malloy and Dorian Levy. February 19 the Parlor had its annual public speaking contest.

Redwood City—Redwood No. 66 presented United States of America and California State (Bear) Flags to Peace Justice E. I. McAuliffe for his courtroom. District Deputy Leonard Avilla made the presentation address.

Ukiah—Ukiah No. 71 had installation, initiation and an official visit from Grand Trustee R. G. Power February 5. Albert Bechtol officiated at the installation of officers, and Harry Carr became the new president. A ritual team from Santa Rosa No. 28 headed by Leslie Manke initiated two candidates. Grand Trustee Power gave an inspiring talk on the aims and purposes of the Order, and on the Parlor's behalf Fred Figone presented an emblematic pin to Past President Daniel Cohen. A turkey dinner, prepared and served by S. P. Garavanta, Fred Figone, D. Donati, Lloyd Ottosen, Henry Triplett, Cecil Coleman and Ernest Coleman, preceded the meeting.

Folsom—Coming out second best in a membership contest, Granite No. 83 entertained Fern No. 128 N.D. at dinner and cards.

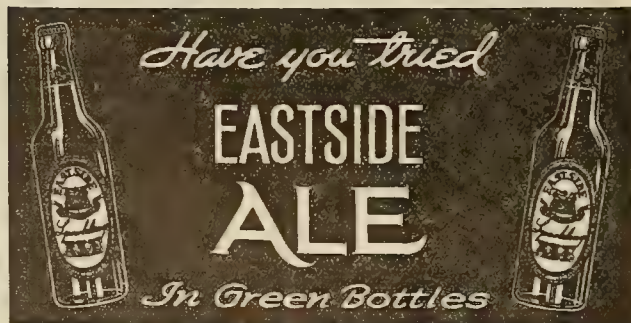

Georgetown—Officers of Georgetown No. 91 and El Dorado No. 186 N.D. were jointly installed by Deputies Louis Mocettini and Ruth Lyon, T. B. Morgan and Henrietta Hume becoming the respective presidents. Entertainment and a supper followed the ceremonies.

Salinas—Santa Lucia No. 97 and Aleli No. 102 N.D. had their first dinner dance of 1940 February 10. Everyone had a good time, and all are looking forward to the next event. Marian Massera was the chairman.—R.R.

San Diego—On behalf of San Diego No. 108, Deputy Grand President Albert V. Mayrhofer February 4 presented a United States of America Flag to the Fort Stockton historic site.

Sonoma—Sonoma No. 111 had its annual affair February 3 for the benefit of the homeless children, and it was very successful.

Oakland—Piedmont No. 120 will celebrate March 14 its fifty-second institution anniversary.

NATIVE SONS SIXTY-THIRD ANNUAL GRAND PARLOR

THE SIXTY-THIRD GRAND PARLOR OF the Order of Native Sons of the Golden West will be in session at Bakersfield, Kern County, May 20-24. Grand President Jesse H. Miller of California Parlor No. 1, San Francisco, will preside throughout the deliberations.

Arrangements for the Grand Parlor are being made by a committee of Bakersfield Parlor No.
42 officered as follows: Carl Lulek, general chairman; Stanley Abel, vice-chairman; Wm. G.
Rea Jr., secretary; George A. Morris, treasurer.

Chairmen of subcommittees include James Flx Jr., publicity; George Taylor, finance; Clinton Letlow, barbecue; Wallace Waller, banquet; Ernest Cuthberton, reception; Roy Loudon, program; Ralph Hinderliter, visiting womenfolks; Stanley Abel, transportation; Wm. G. Rea Jr., registration; Jack Armstead, grand ball; Frank Espitaller, housing. To assist in entertaining the visiting womenfolks, El Tejon Parlor No.
239 N.D.G.W. has appointed the following committee: Margaret Carlisle, Georgia Sanders, Billie Hinderliter, Rene Williams, Edith Jones, Mary Freear, Ona Mae Moffitt, Lucille Ansol-berhere and Lola Loustalot.

At the Bakersfield Grand Parlor, unless custom be reversed, Grand First Vice-president Henry S. Lyon will be advanced to Grand President; Grand Second Vice-president Edward T.
Schnarr to Grand First Vice-president, and Grand Third Vice-president Lloyd J. Cosgrove to Grand Second Vice-president.

The Grizzly Bear has communicated with all rumored candidates for the other Grand Parlor elective offices, and from the replies received announces the following candidacies:

Grand Third Vice-president—Grand Trustee
Wayne R. Millington, Redwood Parlor No. 66.

Grand Secretary—John T. Regan, South San Francisco Parlor No. 157, incumbent.

Grand Treasurer—John A. Corotto, San Jose
Parlor No. 22, incumbent.

Grand Trustees (seven to be chosen)—Walter
E. Smith, Los Angeles Parlor No. 45, incumbent; Grand Marshal Louis Bosch, Sonoma Parlor No.
111; Walter C. Richards, Compton Parlor No.
273, incumbent.—C.M.H.

The Parlor's ritual team will compete in the Grand Parlor ritualistic contest.

Lower Lake—Lower Lake No. 159 entertained the members' families at a February 1 whist party. Refreshments were served. Arrangements were in charge of George Lee, Lawrence Fuqua and Dyton Bonham.

Byron—Byron No. 170 celebrated its forty-ninth institution anniversary at a banquet February 6. "Membership" was the theme of the evening. Honor guests and speakers were Grand President Jesse H. Miller, Grand Secretary John T. Regan, Grand Trustee Charles A.
Redding and District Deputy F. J. Bigelow.
February 10 the Parlor had its annual ball for the benefit of the homeless children. Alex Chaim was in charge of arrangements. At midnight Donner No. 193 N.D. served a supper.

Oakland—Fruitvale No. 252 received an official visit February 23 from Grand Trustee Richard F. McCarthy. It was "George Hans night," and a fifty-year-membership pin was presented the popular treasurer of the Parlor, and a class of candidates was initiated in his honor. Refreshments were served.

"Life is like a story in volumes three, the past, the present, and yet to be; the first is finished and laid away, the second we're living day by day; the third and last of volumes three is locked from our sight; God holds the key."—
Dr. I. B. Howell.

The dream city of Treasure Island will be reborn May 25, when the 1940 Golden Gate International Exposition opens its portals to visitors from all parts of the world. It will be a dazzling city of beauty in a golden setting of delight.

California's fifty-eight counties have received from the State Motor Vehicle Department $3-

LOS ANGELES PARLOR NO. 124 N.D.G.W. will have a fashion revue at the Gibson Art Salon, 940 South Figueroa, March 9, 1 p.m. The latest styles will be shown. Following the revue refreshments will be served. Reservations, fifty cents per person, must be made not later than March 7; phone PR 0567 or HE 5363. Proceeds will go into the 1941 Grand Parlor fund. Louise Crawford and Ellen Wilson, co-chairmen, will be assisted by the hospitality committee.

March 20, Los Angeles will be entertained by the grandmothers of the Parlor, who promise a big evening with many surprises and delicious refreshments. Dahlia Vucovich, the chairman, is being assisted in making arrangements by Clara Bird, Lillian L. Carey, Louise Goodhue, Maria Gardner, Rose Hughes, Agnes Hodges, Ethel Kennedy, Mary McAnany, Lucy Malin, Sophie McGowan, Mabel Owen, Effie Rowe, Ella Sherwood, Lillian Spinner, Erna Sterling, Mary Thomas, Rosa White, Kate Williams, Ellen Wilson, Neola Wyckoff and Clara Hunt (adopted member of the Parlor).

"If you have not availed yourself of an opportunity to visit Kellogg's Ranch," says Secretary Edna T. Neikirk, "you may do so March 31. The show starts at 2 o'clock and admission is ten cents. Those wishing to do so may bring their picnic lunch to Ganesha Park, Pomona, at 12 o'clock noon."

NATIVE SONS LUNCHEON CLUB.

Associate Justice Thomas Patrick White addressed the Native Sons Friday Luncheon Club on "Washington and Lincoln" February 16. President John B. Haas presided, and there was a large attendance.

The guest speaker February 23 was Lindley Bynum of the Henry E. Huntington Library and Art Gallery. His subject was "The Growth of American Influence in California." George M. Cuthbertson was chairman of the day.

The Club meets every Friday at 12:15 noon in room 1126 of the Rosslyn Hotel, Fifth and Main streets. All Native Sons and their friends are welcome.

BUSY MARCH.

Glendale—Members of Verdugo Parlor No. 240 N.D.G.W. February 13 enjoyed a talk on "Preparedness" by Percy Northcroft and an educational film. Recent brides of the Parlor were honored February 27; Ione Gillette was chairman of the evening. President Ethyl Kern has planned many interesting events for March.

Members having birthdays in January, February and March will be entertained March 12. Mary Miller, Doris Micheltmore and Harriette Weeks are working on the annual spring card party at Elks Temple March 14. Reservations are coming in for a ham dinner, in charge of Margaret Donlan, at Masonic Temple March 27, and Florence Cook is taking reservations for a luncheon and cards March 28.

Elsie Bledsoe is the new chairman of the Parlor's sewing club. February 23 the group was entertained at luncheon at the home of Florence Cook.—D.R.

AMERICAN HISTORY QUIZ.

Los Angeles Parlor No. 45 N.S.G.W. will feature a quiz on American history from 1775 to 1812 March 8. Clyde Harry Davis will do the quizzing. A prize will be given the winner, and refreshments will be served. March 22 the good of the order committee will present an entertainment, to be followed by refreshments.

ATTENDANCE CONTEST.

Long Beach—Long Beach Parlor No. 154 N.D.G.W. celebrated its thirty-third institution anniversary and had a surprise baby shower for Mrs. Helen Suggs February 15. An attendance contest was inaugurated with Margaret Burch and Frances Galvan as captains; the losers will have to treat the winners to a dinner. Prior to the meeting Ames Crawford gave an interesting talk on "Americanism."

The thimble club of the Parlor met February 8 at the home of Myrtle Brooks, and at Minnie Wagner's home February 22. This year, instead of a covered-dish luncheon the hostess and a committee plan the menu and each guest pays a quarter. February 29 the club had a dessert bridge party at the home of Eleanor Starr.—E.S.

BRIDGE LUNCHEON.

The month of February was full of interest and activity for members of Californiana Parlor No. 247 N.D.G.W. The patriotic luncheon February 13 honoring the birthdays of George Washington and Abraham Lincoln was attended by a goodly number of members and guests. Miss Grace Vejar and committee brightened the tables with gay colors, and Program Chairman Mrs. Alphonse Fares presented Mrs. Charles W. Roadman in patriotic readings. Mrs. Charles W. Decker read an interesting article.

Mrs. Grace Hale and her daughters, Mms. W. B. Johnson and Wellington Love, were hostesses to the Gertrude Sewing Circle at the former's new home February 5. A delicious potluck luncheon was served, and a great deal of work was finished. The next meeting will be held March 4 at the lovely hillside home of Mrs. Earl Osborn, 2458 Chislehurst drive, who will entertain at luncheon. For reservations phone OL 8724.

Mrs. Dexter Monroe and the history and landmarks committee of Californiana presided at open house February 6 at Banning Manor, Banning Park, Wilmington. The rooms, fully furnished with oldtime articles, were filled with visitors all afternoon. Tea and cakes were served by the hospitality committee. The Par-

"BUCKY"

A TRIBUTE TO A HORSE

(FRED C. WALKER,

President Long Beach Parlor N.S.G.W.)

A BUCKSKIN HORSE; HIS AGE WAS SIX

The boy was ten. He had a black streak down his back—not the boy, but the horse. Just the ages for boy and horse to love each other with that mutual adoration of a boy for his very own horse, and of a horse for his boy friend. Pity any poor boy, or rich one, who never owned a horse! In later years, the possession by many men of home, family, business, yacht, airplane, automobile and other luxuries of today is totally eclipsed by the exquisite memory-pleasure of boyhood ownership of a horse. Bucky long ago passed to the horses' happy hunting grounds; the boy lives on.

Bucky, a California mustang, lived in the famous Santa Clara Valley. He was a native of the Miller-Lux ranches and came down through Pacheco Pass, accompanying his cowboy friends during one of the great cattle drives. He quit the cavalcade at San Jose to find a home, as did many human pioneers.

Bucky was a newspaper horse, and like every good newspaper man was ready and willing to turn out at any hour, in storm or sunshine, to deliver the news. On the three-o'clock-in-the-morning shift of a paper delivery route, he was always awake and waiting in his stall for the boy to hitch him to the cart, anxious to be on his way to the old pressroom building for the cartful of papers. He loved the smell of printer's ink, and always in his bed of straw were mixed some papers. The newspaper industry should erect a monument to him, and inscribe his record for faithful service in delivering hundreds of thousands of papers and never missing a morning during the years he was on the route. Bucky was a smart horse, as indicated by the black streak down his back, a mark of intelligence, ability and endurance. He knew every foot of the miles on his paper route and every house to be served.

In addition to his newspaper job, Bucky was a peach of a saddle horse—full of the pep and go for which his breed is famous. In his day the Spanish boys of the Valley boasted they rode the swiftest horses, but in many a race he threw his dust in their faces. The favorite sprint course was the old dirt road fronting the schoolhouse. This was favored as each fellow secretly hoped the teacher would see him ride by and, above all, that "THE" girl would be waiting there to see his horse run. Many of the boys rode horseback to school, so every horse was always ready for a race after a long rest. Bucky lived just a short distance from the school. His boy would run for the barn the minute school was out and whistle a call when nearing home; and Bucky would neigh an answer, knowing full well a race was on. As the old Spanish saddle was being cinched, he would start trembling, anxious to be away, and as soon as he felt the boy's foot pressure on the left stirrup, he would bend toward the ground ready to jump at the word "go."

Bucky never knew of a whip or a spur; to him such instruments would have been a heart-breaking insult. He must have been related to the splendidly trained fire horses of his time, as he was a real fire fan. At the first bong of the old town fire bell, he would stomp the floor and kick the sides of his stall until his boy ran him out of the barn, and jumped upon his bare back. He could not be induced to go home until the fire was out, and the engines were hauled away. Bucky was a swimmer, too. One of his favorite joys was to be ridden bareback to the old swimming hole. He would scramble down the bank, smashing the water in a loud belly smack, then swim up and down the pool with the boy floating along, hanging on to his long, black mane. He gave so much enjoyment to his master and to the neighborhood boys who were favored with a ride that he, too, must have been as happy as his many friends.

Bucky lived to the advanced age, for a horse, of twenty years, and spent his old age free from work in his favorite pasture in the oak hills. Any fellow in the wide world who may read this true story of Bucky and might have been one of those lucky boys who threw a leg over his back will, out of respect to a friend, stand at attention in reverence to his memory and say Bucky was a real he-horse pal.

The California Association for Health, Physical Education and Recreation is to have its tenth annual conference March 14-17 at Long Beach, Los Angeles County.

IT'S THAT TIME

OF YEAR AGAIN

The lark's on the wing; poets are gushing sentiment and whimsy; the old homing instinct is starting to percolate. If YOU'RE going to build this spring, walk (or run) to the nearest neighborhood California Bank office and let's talk about a real estate loan—YOUR real estate loan. CALIFORNIA BANK is the bank for loans.

Native Daughters of the Golden West

JACKSON (AMADOR COUNTY)—MRS. Eliza Ellington Caminetti, Past Grand President of the Order of Native Daughters of the Golden West and a charter member of Ursula No. 1, died February 18 at Stockton, survived by two sons. She was born at Springfield, Calaveras County, May 28, 1861.

Funeral ceremonies, under the auspices of the Grand Parlor, were conducted February 20 in Jackson, where all schools were closed and business generally was suspended in tribute to Past Grand Caminetti. The following officiated: Past Grand Edna B. Briggs, president; Grand Secretary Sallie R. Thaler, past president; Grand Trustee Dora Brayton, first vice-president; Grand Outside Sentinel Nora Gray, second vice-president; Deputy Edith Murphy, third vice-president; Grand Marshal Claire Lindsey, marshal. Past Grand Gladys E. Noce delivered the following eulogy:

"The Native Daughters of all California join today with the members of Ursula Parlor to conduct the last ceremonies over the mortal form of one who belonged peculiarly to the whole state. As a charter member of Ursula, the Mother Parlor, the Order claims her as an associate in its founding; as a Past Grand President of the Order of Native Daughters of the Golden West, she belongs equally to the Mother Parlor and to every Subordinate Parlor.

"Of distinguished colonial ancestry, Eliza Ellington Caminetti was born near Copperopolis, Calaveras County, nearly eighty years ago. She was one of the stalwart group who joined with the Worthy Founder in the labor of organizing Ursula Parlor, from which, as our fostering mother, all other Parlors of our Order derived their being. She served her own Parlor faithfully in its several offices, and became its president.

"Her ability for leadership, her great vision, her zeal and devotion for the Order were soon recognized by the Grand Body and in 1903 she was chosen a Grand Vice-president. In June 1904 the Grand Parlor bestowed the highest gift within its power on her and she was elected Grand President, serving with distinction during her year of tenure. Many problems confronted her as leader of our great organization during that period, for she was truly a pioneer and served when many of our principles and projects were being formulated. She brought to their solution the energy of an acute mind, firm convictions and great tenacity of purpose.

"As the wife of a nationally prominent personage, she spent some years in Washington where, as personal secretary to her husband, she was able to co-operate with him in many crucial and vexing emergencies. She numbered among her intimate friends many of the highest in our land. She was a pioneer in the field of education, having taught for many years in the schools of the state. She was a member of the Daughters of the American Revolution and of other nation-wide associations; but her dearest affiliation, apart from that of family, lay within the bonds of our Order, to which she gave a lifetime of devotion.

"The Order of Native Daughters of the Golden West offers now its last testimony of loving esteem to one who has served faithfully and well from the day of the Order's birth. Of the little band of thirty-three who constituted May Heaven bring peace and comfort to their hearts, to the hearts of these sorrowing relatives, and to the hearts of all our membership. It is with a heart filled with sorrow that I fulfill this final service of reverent regard for this pioneer of our Order, pioneer in the field of education, good neighbor, loyal friend."

Public School Dedicated.

Vallejo—The new Lincoln Elementary School building was dedicated February 12 under the auspices of Vallejo No. 195. Elmer Cave, superintendent of schools, presided, and the program included: community singing, led by Miss A. Bernice Tutt, music supervisor Vallejo schools; invocation, Rev. Lester F. Eisel; remarks, Frank M. Dickey, Mrs. Edith Gutfeld, K. A. Godwin, John Davidson, John J. Donovan, Mrs. Charles A. Hicks, Mrs. Mae Erskine, Mrs. P. A. Pease, Alfred Seigler and President Genevieve Moroney of Vallejo Parlor; benediction, Rev. Gerald Clark.

The dedicatory ceremonies were conducted by Grand President Orinda G. Giannini, Past Grand Anne Thuesen and Grand Marshal Claire Lindsey. On behalf of Vallejo Parlor, Mrs. Giannini presented a California State (Bear) Flag to the school, and it was accepted by President Helen Fandrick of the Lincoln Parent-Teacher Association. Supervising Deputy Ruby Brian and Deputy Bertha Vidy were also in attendance.

Prior to the dedication a civic dinner honoring the grand officers was attended by some one hundred public officials and representatives of various organizations. The committee in charge of the dinner included Florence Campbell, chairman, Juliette Bliss, Ellen O'Brien, Rose Gaul, Pauline Lannon, Tessie O'Neill, Mildred Valli and Mary Meeks.—F.C.

Three Parlors in Joint Session.

Oakland—Grand President Orinda G. Giannini officially visited Piedmont No. 87, Brooklyn No. 157 and Albany No. 260 in joint session here February 14. More than 250 members of the Order were in attendance, among them Grand Marshal Claire Lindsey, Grand Trustees Ethel Enos, Emily Ryan and Dora Brayton, Alice K. Dougherty, former grand secretary, Past Grand Sue J. Irwin, Supervising Deputy Olinda Kar-doza, Deputies Erma Caton, Edna Williams and Elenida Smith.

Officers of the three Parlors exemplified the ritual, and several candidates were initiated. Refreshments were served by a committee which included Katherine Dombrink of Piedmont, Minnie Luhr of Brooklyn and Mae Ellis of Albany.—E.L.

Santa Clara District Meeting.

San Jose—Mrs. Clara A. Gairaud of the Grand

Parlor Radio Committee has arranged for radio time over KQW at 3:45 p.m. March 9.

Vendome No. 100 had a valentine party February 14, and the same evening a surprise shower was given Mrs. Henry Ruhl, recent bride. Margaret Farnsworth, Martha Faulkner, Mildred Snyder and Hulda Hertz comprised the arrangements committee. A circulating library for members of the Parlor has been started; Madeline Chargin is in charge. Afternoon card parties are held every two weeks with Gertrude Roberts as chairman. The sewing club, Winifred Lafey chairman, had afternoon sessions during February at the homes of Marie Serpa and Sue Mattei. A jolly jiggs dinner is billed for March 27.

The joint installation of officers of Vendome and Observatory No. 177 N.S. was a brilliant affair and attracted a large attendance.

The Santa Clara County district meeting is to be held at San Jose March 9. Grand President Orinda Giannini will be in attendance and will be honored at a Santa Clara County dinner, hostesses for which will be Supervising Deputy Alice Roll, and Deputies Louise Carto, Genevieve Commerford, Henrietta Marcotte and Ida Stockton. Reservations are being received by Pearl Bishop.—C.A.G.

N.D.G.W.—NEWS PARAGRAPHS.—N.D.G.W.

Calling attention to the fact that Mission Nuestra de la Soledad in Salinas Valley is fast disappearing, Grand President Orinda Giannini urges Subordinate Parlors to contribute to a fund for restoration of at least the original chapel and part of the main building.

Stockton—Officers of Joaquin No. 5, with Mrs. Ella Meyer as president, were installed by Deputy Elizabeth Adams. On the Parlor's behalf, Mrs. Evelyn Wells presented Mrs. Georgia Storm a past president pin. Among the many others in attendance were Past Grands Carrie R. Durham, Mamie G. Peyton and Mattie M. Stein, and Supervising Deputy Algie Gossett.—E.L.M.

Napa—A large number of Eschool No. 16's members and several visitors greeted Grand President Orinda G. Giannini on her official visit. A dinner preceded the meeting at which three candidates were initiated. Mrs. Giannini gave an inspiring talk on the restoration of Soledad Mission, and the proceeds from the penny march were sent as Eschool's first contribution. Among the other visitors were Grand Organist Mae O'Keefe, Supervising Deputy Ruby Brien and President Katherine Cobb of Orinda No. 56, San Francisco.—E.I.

HOMELESS CHILDREN

1 Worthwhile Non-sectarian Endeavor Sponsored and Supported by the Orders of Native Sons and Native Daughters of the Golden West.

MARCH 31, 1940, WILL END THE thirtieth fiscal year of the Native Sons' and the Native Daughters' work for the homeless children. The finance committee of the Orders' Central Homeless Children Committee, after careful and earnest consideration, designated $15,250 as the quota for the Native Sons and the Native Daughters individual Parlors, and the joint Parlors of Alameda County, Los Angeles County and San Francisco County.

From April 1, 1939, to February 1, 1940, the contributions from the Native Sons and the Native Daughters amounted to $5,124.52, leaving the months of February and March in which to raise the balance. Judging from the many requests from the Parlors for exemption from the amusement tax on benefits for the homeless children to be given in February and March, the members of the committee realize that it may be a wee bit early to be uneasy about the ultimate results. They feel sure that all Parlors and committees will RALLY AND will SEE THAT their CONTRIBUTIONS REACH THE CENTRAL OFFICE BEFORE APRIL 12, 1940.

Every year, after the Native Sons and the Native Daughters Grand Parlor sessions in May and June, letters are received by the Central Committee asking why the Parlor's contribution did not appear in the printed report. Again, this is a reminder that the fiscal year of the work for the homeless children begins April 1, and that all contributions must be in the Central Office not later than April 12, 1940,—which is the date the certified accountant will go over the finances for the year—or they will not be noted in the annual printed report.

The number of children placed from August 27, 1910, to February 1, 1940, totals 5,308; new applications received from April 1, 1939, to February 1, 1940, 604; total applications to February 1, 1940, 14,245.

Every day the postman brings to those so vitally interested new assurances that adopted children bring not only responsibility, but pride and happiness as well, to their foster parents. That applicants are obliged to wait for children cannot be helped, and no one would wish for more children in need of homes. Forty children have been returned to their parents by the Central Committee so far this year, after the six weeks' period given the parents before placement and after ascertaining that the children will be well cared for by their own.

A work to be proud of, and no mistake! But it takes sufficient income to make possible this happiness for parents, foster parents, and the children. DO NOT FORGET! If your Parlor cannot give as much as some other Parlor, DO WHAT YOU CAN—"Angels can do no more."

Murphys—Ruby No. 46's officers, with Florence Darby as president, were installed by Deputy Gertrude Leonard. Following the ceremonies two candidates were initiated. On the Parlor's behalf, Belle Segale presented an emblematic pin to Mary Welsh, retiring president. Snowmen and snow-covered boughs were used in the decorations, in charge of Vida Garrett and Florence Barnickol. Many visitors were in attendance. A buffet luncheon was served.—C.D.

Ferndale—With Oneonta No. 71 as the hostess, officers of that Parlor and Ferndale No. 93 N.S. were jointly installed. Deputies Myra Rumrill and Lee Diedrichsen officiated, and Mrs. Pearl Brightman and Menard Henriksen became the respective presidents. Grand Trustees Ruth Sesna and Supervising Deputy Hattie Roberts were among the many in attendance. Cards and delicious refreshments were enjoyed.

Salinas—Aleli No. 102 had as guests February 8 members of the Monterey County Historical Society. Luther Parker spoke on missions in general, with particular reference to Soledad. He said the people of the beautiful Salinas Valley should restore that mission, and should provide a room for the housing of valley relics.—R.R.

Hollister—The "homecoming" featured by Copa de Oro No. 105 was a happy occasion and brought many messages of greeting. An old-fashion spelling bee was the chief diversion, refreshments tables were cheery with oldtime

AT THE PUBLIC SPEAKING CONTEST conducted by the San Francisco Native Sons in N.S.G.W. Building January 30, fourteen students from as many local high schools participated. Miss Diane Hampton of Polytechnic High School was declared the winner, and will represent San Francisco County in the northern California finals. Other competitors were Regina Foster, Saint Bridget High; Marie Coghlan, Immaculate Conception Academy; Mary Delange, Saint Paul's; Leonore Sheehan, Star of the Sea; Edward L. Burke, Saint Ignatius High; Robert Nossen, Galileo High; Ellen Shank, Lowell High; John Cleary, Washington High; Ruth Zakheim, Continuation School; Agnes Darcy, Mission High; Lorraine Bollinger, Commerce High; Cloria Cozzo, Girls High.

Judges of the contest were Lewis F. Byington, Past Grand President N.S.G.W.; Archibald Cloud, president San Francisco Junior College; Dean Edward Hogan of the University of San Francisco; Dr. A. T. Leonard Jr., president California Historical Society; Sheriff Daniel C. Murphy, member State Education Board.

N.D.G.W. HOME BREAKFAST.

The Marin County N.D.G.W. Parlor—Sea Point No. 196, Sausalito; Marinita No. 198, San Rafael; Fairfax No. 225, and Tamelpa No. 231, Mill Valley,—were hostesses at the club breakfast at the N.D.G.W. Home February 11. Mrs. Omay Perry presided, Past Grand Ethel I. Begley gave the invocation, and the flag salute was led by Supervising Deputy Alice Munz. Mrs. M. Miller, accompanied by Mrs. Linard, favored with vocal selections.

The guest speaker was Captain Hood of Hamilton Field, installed in Marin County at a cost of $5,000,000 and named in honor of Lieutenant Hamilton, decorated during the World War. His subject was "Air Power," and he said this country is well protected from attack. Past Grand Dr. Mariana Bertola spoke on the outstanding events in Abraham Lincoln's life. In attendance were representatives of nineteen Native Daughters and two Native Sons Parlors.

POPULAR NATIVE SON JOURNEYS ON.

Fred Hjalmer Nickelson, since 1912 one of the most active members of South San Francisco Parlor No. 157 N.S.G.W. and for seventeen years its efficient financial secretary, died February 17. He was born at San Francisco, April 16, 1893. He represented the Parlor at several sessions of the Grand Parlor, was for three years a member of the Board of Control, and for two years served the Order as Assistant Grand Secretary.

Services for deceased, conducted by the Parlor the evening of February 16, were attended by more than two hundred members of South San Francisco. Testifying to his general popularity, his funeral the following day was attended by many members from all Parlors, among them Grand President Jesse H. Miller, Grand Trustees Wayne R. Millington and Richard F. McCarthy, Grand Secretary John T. Regan, Past Grand Joseph J. McShane, William P. Caubau, Hartley Russell, Harmon D. Skillin and Chas. A. Koenig.

N.S.G.W.—NEWS PARAGRAPHS.—N.D.G.W.

Officers of California Parlor No. 1 N.S.G.W. were installed by District Deputy Leonard Worthington, Cyril M. Saroyan becoming president. Grand President Jesse H. Miller, a member of the Parlor, was a speaker.

District Deputy Norman Walker installed the officers of San Francisco Parlor No. 49 N.S.G.W. February 8, Joseph Corrao becoming president. Twelve candidates were initiated in honor of the Parlor's pioneer member, Treasurer Frank Marini. Grand Historian Dr. Peter T. Conmy was a speaker.

A delegation from Fremont Parlor No. 59 N.D.G.W. attended the art exhibition at the Palace of Fine Arts, and visited the DeYoung Museum. The Parlor is making arrangements to celebrate its golden jubilee in the near future. —H.C.

Grand Marshal Claire Lindsey and Clara Strohmeier of Golden Gate Parlor No. 158

N.D.G.W. visited the Children's Hospital, Ward 17 of San Francisco Hospital, the Roman Catholic orphanages and the Shrine hospital, February 14, and distributed valentines and appropriate gifts. The Parlor's meeting of February 12 was dedicated to valentines and fun; Ellen Bennett was the chairman. In memory of her term as president, Beatrice Nishkian presented Golden Gate a beautiful cabinet to hold the trophies won by the drill team. President Cele Hamrol entertained the drill team at her home February 15.

Dolores Parlor No. 169 N.D.G.W. had an indoor picnic February 14. The drill team had a miscellaneous shower February 12 for Norma Wendt at the home of Norah Castillo; co-hostesses were Betty Mitchie, Alvina Burkhardt and Winifred Gibson. Miss Wendt will become the bride of Jack Ireland March 16. The drill team will have a pillowcase party March 15.—A.C.

N.D.G.W. NEWS

Stockton—Stockton No. 256 honored Deputy Viola Andrews at a valentine party February 15. The hall was beautifully decorated with old-fashion lace valentines made by Chairman Alice Buckle. At the station of President Julia Sanguinetti was a large red heart centered on a hatterberg lace scarf, placed by Euretta Dentoni. A valentine program was presented, and refreshments were served by Vera Johnson and committee. The Parlor had a rummage sale February 26; Vera Johnson chairman. February 28 the drill team had a party; Irene Schwall chairman.—E.S.

Oakland—Supervising Deputy Olinda Kardoza installed the officers of Albany No. 260, with Marie Himberg as president. Jane Garoni received a past president pin from her mother, Mrs. Wilson. Grand Secretary Sallie R. Thaler was a visitor. Under the direction of Hazelett Taylor, chairman of the occasion, children presented a program of songs and dances. The Parlor's sewing club met February 5 at the home of Evelyn Ball and worked on pillowcases for a pillowcase whist. February 19 the club met at Daisy Olufsen's home. February 16 Albany had its fifth anniversary dinner. Delicious roast turkey and all the trimmings were served. Chairman Hazelett Taylor presided. After the feast movies of the 1939 Admission Day parade were shown, a short program of entertainment was enjoyed and whist was played.—H.T.

Ukiah—Ukiah No. 263 had a basket social February 19 at which the husbands of the members and the members of Ukiah No. 71 and their wives were guests. The committee of arrangements included Dorothy Buchanan, chairman, Eleanor Shore and Ethel Smith. Several members of the Parlor went to Santa Rosa February 15 and participated in the international night featured by Santa Rosa No. 217.

Fresno—President Doris Gooch of Wawona No. 271 entertained at her home February 9 in honor of Sentinel Jane Blask, a recent bride. The Parlor presented a beautiful bedspread to Mrs. Blask.—M.C.

Berkeley—The official visit of Grand President Brinda Giannini to Sequoia No. 272 was an outstanding event. The attendance was large, and several candidates were initiated. Vocal solos were rendered, and there were several talks. To Mrs. Giannini, the Parlor presented a silver lift. A delicious supper was served at tables decorated in blue and white. February 29 the Parlor had a shower for the homeless children, and welcomed several new members. Regular visits are made to "our buddy" in Livermore Hospital. The drill team practices weekly.—J.W.

In Memoriam

FRANK C. JORDAN.

To the Officers and Members of Oakland Parlor No. 50 N.D.G.W.—Dear Sirs and Brothers: We, the undersigned committee appointed to draft resolutions of respect to the memory of our departed Brother Frank C. Jordan, herewith submit the following:

Whereas, Our Heavenly Father has called home our steamed Brother Frank C. Jordan; and

Whereas, Brother Jordan has entered the Grand Parlor a high, leaving a vacant chair in this Parlor, with only the memory of his loyalty and devotion to the Order as a silent reminder to the brothers; therefore, be it

Resolved, That in the death of Frank C. Jordan, this Parlor has lost a faithful and zealous member; his family devoted father; and the State of California a valued public servant and loyal Native Son; and be it further

Resolved, That we extend our sympathy and condolence to the family of Brother Jordan in their hour of bereavement; that a copy of these resolutions be transmitted to him; a copy spread upon the minutes of this Parlor, and copy sent to The Grizzly Bear Magazine for publication. Respectfully submitted,

M. C. PESSANO,
F. M. NORRIS,
H. E. BELLERIVE.

Oakland, January 19, 1940

NELLIE DAVIS.

To the Officers and Members of Vandome Parlor No. 100 D.G.W.—We, your committee appointed to draft resolutions of respect to the memory of our departed Sister Nellie Davis, submit the following:

Whereas, Our Heavenly Father has called her to come to our midst and remove from all her suffering and pain our beloved Sister Nellie Davis; therefore, be it

Resolved, That the heartfelt sympathy of the members of Vandome Parlor be extended to the bereaved husband, and that a copy of these resolutions be sent to him; that a copy be sent to The Grizzly Bear Magazine for publication, and copy spread upon the minutes of our Parlor. Respectfully submitted,

ALICE ROLL,
SUE MATTEL,
MARTHA WADDINGTON

San Jose, January 30, 1940

RITA GRAVES.

To the Officers and Members of Vandome Parlor No. 100 D.G.W.—We, your committee appointed to draft resolutions of respect to the memory of our departed Sister Rita Graves, submit the following:

Whereas, The Angel of Death has once again visited our Parlor and called Sister Rita Graves to her Heavenly Rest;

Whereas, While we mourn her going from us, we are not unmindful of the sympathy we owe her loved ones; therefore, be it

Resolved, That a copy of this memorial be presented upon the minutes of our Parlor, a copy sent to the Associated Grizzlies, and a copy sent to The Grizzly Bear Magazine for publication. Respectfully submitted,

ALICE ROLL,
SUE MATTEL,
MARTHA WADDINGTON

San Jose, January 19, 1940

JANE BERKELEY MORDOFF.

To the Officers and Members of Fresno Parlor No. 187 N.D.G.W.—We, your committee appointed to draft resolutions in loving memory of our departed Sister Jane Berkeley Mordoff, who on January 6, 1940 was called to the Heavenly Parlor on High:

Whereas, It has pleased Almighty God in His infinite wisdom to release from suffering our beloved Sister Jane Berkeley Mordoff, Fresno Parlor has lost a true and loyal member, her family a loving wife and mother. Her sister members extend deepest sympathy to the bereaved family.

Resolved, That a copy of this memorial be presented upon the minutes of this Parlor, a copy be sent to the bereaved family, and a copy be sent to The Grizzly Bear Magazine for publication.

Respectfully submitted in P.D.F.A.,
MAUDE C. CROSBY,
EDNA B. WOLFE,
HELEN W. STOVER.

Fresno, January 31, 1940

ANNA FOGARTY.

To the Officers and Members of Castro Parlor No. 178 N.D.G.W.—We, your committee appointed to prepare resolutions of affection and respect to the memory of our departed Sister Anna Fogarty, submit the following in a spirit of loving remembrance:

Whereas, The Supreme Ruler of the Universe has called this sister to the Native Daughter Home on high; be it

Resolved, That we extend our deepest sympathy to her bereaved family; that copies of these resolutions be sent to her family, and also to The Grizzly Bear Magazine for publication, and that the resolutions be spread upon the minutes of Castro Parlor No. 178.

Respectfully submitted,
MARGARET GRIFFITH,
ALICE M. LANE,
MARY G. LUIHR.

San Francisco, February 7, 1940.

MYRTLE DE LUCE.

To the Officers and Members of Los Angeles Parlor No. 124 N.D.G.W.—We, your committee appointed to draft resolutions of love in memoriam to our departed Sister Myrtle De Luce, submit the following:

Whereas, Our Heavenly Father has called unto Himself our beloved sister and co-worker, Myrtle De Luce; and

Whereas, We shall miss her gentle spoken words and sweet smile among us, we realize our loss is small compared to that of her family, but

"Life holds such happy yesterdays,
So many glad tomorrows,
We must believe that and today
Will sometime lose their sorrows,
God has so proven His love divine
In ways He understands
We know our loved ones ours and thine,
Are safe within His hands."

Therefore, be it resolved, That we extend to her bereaved family our most heartfelt sympathy in the loss of their devoted mother; and be it further

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to her family; a copy spread on our minutes and one copy be sent to The Grizzly Bear Magazine for publication.

Respectfully submitted,
ANNA T. SCHIERUSCH,
GERTRUDE ALLEN,
LOUISE PIERCE.

Los Angeles, February 7, 1940

R. C. M. BERRIMAN.

To the Officers and Members of Georgetown Parlor No. 91 N.D.G.W.—We, your committee appointed to draft resolutions of respect to the memory of our late Brother R. C. M. Berriman, respectfully submit the following:

Whereas, Brother Berriman, by his many kind and friendly acts, endeared himself among the fraternity and in the community in which he lived, Georgetown Parlor mourns the loss of a true and loyal member, whose devotion to the principles of our Order and endearing qualities will never be forgotten. Therefore, be it

Resolved, That our sincere and profound sympathy be extended to his wife and the bereaved family and that a copy of this resolution be spread upon the minutes of Georgetown Parlor No. 91 and a copy be sent to his wife and family, and a copy be sent to The Grizzly Bear Magazine for publication.

Respectfully submitted,
C. F. IRISH,
WM. H. BREEDLOVE,
R. O. MURDOCK.

Georgetown, February 7, 1940

SARAH M. PINKHAM.

To the Officers and Members of Ano Nuevo Parlor No. 180 N.D.G.W.—We, your committee appointed to draft resolutions of respect and love to the memory of our departed Sister Sarah M. Pinkham, offer the following message of sympathy:

Whereas, A devoted member of our Order has been taken to her Heavenly Home, those of us who were privileged to know and love her realize we have lost a sincere friend and an ardent member.

Resolved, That we extend our heartfelt sympathy to the members of her family; and be it further resolved that these resolutions be spread upon the minutes of our Parlor, and a copy sent to The Grizzly Bear Magazine, and a copy to the family of our late sister.

"With a cherry smile and a wave of her hand
She has wandered into an unknown land
And left us dreaming how very far
It needs must be, since a loving share."

ALICE MATTEL,
DOROTHY V. NUNES,
ANGELINA DEL CIELO,
Committee.

Pescadero, February 7, 1940.

MAY A. MCCARTHY.

To the Officers and Members of Guadalupe Parlor No. 153 N.D.G.W.—We, your committee appointed to draft resolutions of respect to the memory of our departed sister, submit the following:

Whereas, God in His Infinite wisdom has called May A. McCarthy to her Heavenly Home, where peace and happiness reign; and

Whereas, She was a charter member and a capable and efficient recording secretary for thirty-two years, a true

GOD'S HANDIWORK

(LERNST S. TRUESDELL.)

Back, back, O Time, through fleeting centuries
Canst thou with dimming memories recall
Those slender saplings, now great stately trees
Of glorious redwoods? Titled kings of all!
Their virgin beauty, may it long survive!
These lofty crowns which pierce the very clouds,
Stood they in state with Charlemagne in life,
Magnificent, resplendent, proud!

Here stand in serried ranks thy mighty boles
Where Bull Creek flows and joins the timbered Eel.

Couldst thou but speak, the tales thou might unfold

When native redskins through thy midst did steal!

When bow and arrow were the weapons used
To slay the panther, fox, the nimble deer.

Here fish and game were caught by clever ruse,
Then elk and grizzly bear were roaming here.

O Giants of Bull Creek, Monarchs of the West,
With strength and beauty in each fluted shaft.
Here Humboldt sunshine greets each massive breast,

These choicest of Dame Nature's handicraft.
O let roll by the aeons, let generations bend
In reverence before thy sacred shrine

Down through Time's panorama, 'til life itself shall end,

Let honored grace be paid thee by mankind!

Through coming ages may thou reign supreme.
Thou hast been saved from man's pernicious greed

For future generations. O may'st thou teem
With life, and sow anew thy fertile seed.

O gallant redwoods! Staid, the axeman's hand
So finer things in man's heart may accrue.

So finer things in man's heart may accrue.
O God's Handiwork! Pride of a favored land—
Giant redwoods, let's homage pay to you!

and loyal Native Daughter of sterling character and high ideals, whose kind and generous nature and keen judgment were ever a source of guidance and inspiration to the members of her Parlor and to her many friends in the Order of the Native Daughters.

Resolved, That these resolutions be included in the minutes of the Parlor, that a copy be sent to the bereaved mother, and one to The Grizzly Bear Magazine for publication.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. LILLIAN A. THOMPSON.

To the Officers and Members of Californians Parlor No. 247 N.D.G.W.—Your memorial committee, appointed with the sad duty of writing resolutions of love and respect for our beloved Lillian A. Thompson, who passed away January 28, 1940, submit the following:

Whereas, The Angel of Death has taken from our midst our faithful member, and left a vacant chair, we shall miss her loyal presence and sweet character greatly. Therefore, be it

Resolved, That we express to her bereaved husband and son our heartfelt sympathy; that a copy of these resolutions be spread upon our minutes, and a copy be published in The Grizzly Bear.

(ADVERTISEMENT.)

Within the boundaries of Death Valley National Monument are five "ghost towns." Half a dozen more lie just beyond its borders. Largest of the group is Greenwater, the peak population of which was approximately two thousand.

To the casual tourist the terrain may seem devoid of life, yet more than 500 species of plants have been listed, and there are many varieties of animals, many being nocturnal in habit. All species graphically illustrate nature's genius for adaptation to environment.

lor's ways and means committee announces a bridge luncheon for March 29 at 2600 Wilshire boulevard. Tickets are $1.10. Make reservations with Chairman Marion Johnson, WH 2934; Hattie Duvall, GL 3412, or Grace Vejar, 1524 Hobart boulevard.—O.L.

JOINT COUNTY N.S. INITIATION.

Ramona Parlor No. 109 N.S.G.W. will have initiation and refreshments March 8. The hall will be dark February 15. Delegates to the Bakersfield Grand Parlor will be nominated March 22.

March 29, Ramona will have its monthly dinner and will be host for a joint initiation of all the Los Angeles County Parlors. The grand officers will, it is expected, exemplify the ritual.

DRUM CORPS REORGANIZING.

Santa Monica—Santa Monica Bay Parlor No. 267 N.S.G.W. will have a class initiation March 19. The ceremonies will be preceded by a 6:30 dinner served by the Boosters Club.

The drum and bugle corps of the Parlor is reorganizing under the leadership of Milton Eisenhart, who says it will soon be seen at Parlor functions throughout the southland.

INSTALLATION LARGELY ATTENDED.

Compton—Charmingly gowned in smart black formal dresses vividly accented by corsages of flaming red carnations, officers of Compton Parlor No. 258 N.D.G.W. were installed at public ceremonies attended by some 200 members and friends. Deputy Margaret Kreider officiated, and Eleanor Gunn became the new president. The hall was adorned with red poinsettias and calla lilies.

On the Parlor's behalf, Wanda Lee Adams presented an emblematic ring to her mother, Lucille Adams, retiring president. Among the many visitors were Grand Trustee Mary B. Noerberg and Supervising Deputy Kate Hill, and Supervising Deputy Roy Tarleton of the Native Sons. Frances Reynolds was chairman of the evening. Following the installation ceremonies dancing and refreshments were enjoyed.

February 12 the Parlor had a valentine party, arranged by Marie Honnard. February 21 a "rush party" for prospective members was held at the home of Kate Glavinic. The Parlor served its famous steak dinner to the City Employees Association February 21 and a neat sum was realized. Emma Castillo was in charge.—L.A.

OPEN MEETING.

Long Beach—Long Beach Parlor No. 273 N.S.G.W. had an open meeting for families, friends and prospective members February 21. Dr. John Harris showed "A Movie Motor Trip Through Mexico," and gave a very interesting talk. Refreshments were served by members of Long Beach Parlor No. 154 N.D.G.W.

The Parlor has a membership drive under way, and several candidates, including Mayor Gentry, will be initiated March 6.

FIESTA DANCE.

The Native Daughters and the Native Sons of Los Angeles City and County are featuring a dance in the Fiesta room of the Ambassador, March 30. Music will be furnished by the Hal Grayson orchestra. Arrangements are in charge of a joint committee which includes:

Juanita Porter, Laura Pesqueria, Tessie Solinger, Marguerite Taum and Evalyn Wilson of the Native Daughters; Ralph Clavelot, Robert Pesqueria, Claud Smith, Lee Winters, Dick Jennings, Carl Martin, F. D. Hudson Jr. and Clarence S. Hunt of the Native Sons.

PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS.

Dorothy Summers (Los Angeles ND) became the bride of William Eugene Bird February 9. Assemblyman Seth Millington (Past Grand President NS) of Gridley was a visitor last month.

Walter C. Richards (Grand Trustee NS) of Wilmington was a visitor to San Francisco last month.

Charles R. Thomas (Ramona NS) was a visitor last month to Railroad Flat, Calaveras County.

Miss Selena Pope Ingram and James Winfred McKinley (Ramona NS) were wedded January 27. They are residing at Beverly Hills.

California motorists burned 1,810,768,366 gallons of gasoline during 1939, according to the State Equalization Board.

New California postoffices include Johndale, Tulare County, and Summit City, Shasta County.

SAN PEDRO—RUDECINDA PARLOR NO. 230 N.D.G.W. entertained at a valentine party February 8. Victoria Schott, hostess for the occasion, was assisted by Josephine Cassidy. Valentines were exchanged and many secret sisters were remembered. Deputy Ernestine Aylward and Marcella Palethorpe were visitors. A quiz contest between two teams captained by Deputy Aylward and Dessie Buvo was enjoyed; it was won by the former team, each member of which received a potted cactus. During the evening a handkerchief shower was held for Letty Sarclaux and Ruth Allison, February birthdayites.

Dessie Buvo, Victoria Schott and Josephine Cassidy, attired in earlyday costumes, assisted at the opening of the historic Banning Manor in Wilmington February 6. The Florencita Thimble Club, an auxiliary of Rudecinda, met February 7 at the home of Katherine Mooney, and February 21 at the Wilmington home of Lucy Ascolesi.—K.D.

ANNIVERSARY CELEBRATED.

San Pedro—Stephen M. White Parlor No. 263 N.S.G.W. celebrated its fifteenth institution anniversary February 16 at a turkey dinner prepared and served by a committee from Rudecinda Parlor No. 230 N.D.G.W. headed by Lucy Ascolesi. William Feuter was master of ceremonies. President Thomas Allender and active past presidents had charge of arrangements for the birthday party.

THE DEATH RECORD.

Mrs. Lillian A. Thompson, affiliated with Californiana Parlor No. 247 N.D.G.W., died January 28, survived by a husband and a son.

Mrs. Myrtle Hickey-DeLuce, affiliated with Los Angeles Parlor No. 124 N.D.G.W., died January 31, survived by a son, Dan DeLuce, and a daughter, Mrs. Roberta DeLuce-Hartnack (Los Angeles ND). She was born at Los Angeles, June 6, 1887.

Mrs. Katherine E. P. Taggart, mother of J. Deacon Taggart (Ramona NS), died February 1, at the age of 74.

Mrs. Margaret J. Tilley, mother of William W. Tilley (Ramona NS), died February 11.

REDWOOD NAMED "SEQUOIA"

IN HONOR OF THE RED MAN.

In 1794, an English botanist collected specimens of the redwood and sent them to England. The tree, however, was not classified until 1823, when English botanists determined it to be an evergreen species of taxodium, bald cypress, a genus of deciduous cone-bearing trees. The tree was consequently called "taxodium sempervirens, evergreen bald cypress," "sempervirens" meaning "ever living."

This name persisted until 1847, when Stephen Endlicher, an Austrian botanist, decided this tree was not a bald cypress, but an entirely new genus. Endlicher was a linguist, as well as a botanist, and through his study of languages had learned the remarkable Indian alphabet prepared by the Cherokee Indian Sequoyah.

This botanist apparently thought the unusual red man should be honored by having his name applied to the great red trees, both being products of the same little-known continent. The new tree was, as a result, named "Sequoia sempervirens," and the classification was accepted by other botanists. The tree also became commonly known as the redwood.

ERROR IN PRICE BRONCHI-LYPTUS.

In the advertisement of Bronchi-Lyptus appearing in the January and February issues of The Grizzly Bear a mistake was made in the price of the small size. It should have been 25c, not 15c.

Bronchi-Lyptus for coughs is marketed by the Bronchi-Lyptus Laboratory of Los Angeles, which also produces Binz Eucalyptus cough drops, Globu-Lyptus, a refined oil of eucalyptus, and E-B Eucalyptus, an ointment for catarrh and chest colds.

"There is enough in the world for everybody's need, but there is not enough for everybody's greed."—Rev. Samuel M. Shoemaker.

San Bernardino National Forest was visited last year by 1,629,252 people, a record number of visitors.

boquets, and "homey" refreshments were served. At the February 7 meeting of the Parlor, Ann Forbes gave an interesting talk on Abraham Lincoln. Leap year featured the social session, and a wedding ring relay added to the evening's jollity. Valentines were distributed, and the reading of the verses thereon created much merriment. Refreshments were served at a table centered with a silk hat (sans the man), signifying the women have their hats in the ring for 1940.

Oakland—The monthly whist of Aloha No. 106 was held February 6 at the home of Elizabeth Harvey. A valentine party jointly with Athens No. 195 N.S. February 13 was well attended. Games, dancing and refreshments contributed to a happy evening. February 20 Aloha observed its forty-first institution anniversary at a dinner. Jennie Peterson had charge of arrangements.

Oakland—The first Junior Auxiliary in Alameda County was instituted February 20 by Argonaut No. 166.

Oakland—Bahia Vista No. 167 had a valentine costume party February 16. Games were played, "secret pals" were revealed and refreshments were served.—E.A.S.

Daly City—El Carmelo No. 181 has the distinction of having as president Mrs. Pauline Quirolo, who organized the Parlor thirty years ago. Ably assisted by the other officers and the charter members, she has planned many activities. A mammoth whist party and the Parlor's birthday dinner were held during February. The official visit of Grand President Orinda Giannini and the dinner-social to be given jointly with the Native Sons will be the outstanding March attractions.—H.K.

Fresno—Fresno No. 187's officers, with Letha Joy as president, were installed by Deputy Bessie Snyder. Supervising Deputy Elinor Mills was among the many visitors. January 31 a baked ham dinner was enjoyed at the home of Edna Wolfe. A birthday party honoring Maude C. Crosby was held February 7 at the home of Adeline Rhone, who was assisted by Olga Klette and Ella Donnohue. Roast turkey was served, gifts were presented the honoree and games were played. At an Italian dinner February 14 "mystery friends" of the past year were revealed and new ones were chosen. The California Poppy Club, service unit of the Parlor, is busy making awards for a series of card parties.—M.C.C.

Modesto—With Deputy Lorraine Toscano officiating, officers of Morada No. 199 were installed, Aldiva Buran becoming president. Delicious refreshments were served at gaily appointed tables. February 21 a Junior Auxiliary, with Alice Fox as president, was instituted with twenty-two members. Geraldine Stutchman, appointed adviser from Morada, is being assisted by Grand Trustee Ethel Enos. Bess Elmore, state chairman of Junior Auxiliaries, was in attendance. February 28 a potluck dinner was followed by the revelation of "secret pals" of the past year and the drawing of new "poppy sisters" for the coming year. The Parlor's homeless children committee is busy making poppies to be sold poppy day; the proceeds will be turned over to the Central Homeless Children Committee. The public whist held jointly by Morada and Modesto No. 11 N.S. February 14 was attended by sixty-five quartet tables of players, who enjoyed an evening of fun and frolic. Alice Phoenix, Katherine Kopf and William Phoenix were in charge of arrangements. The next joint whist party, with Mrs. Phoenix and Ruby Pometta in charge, will be held March 13.—E.E.

Santa Rosa—Santa Rosa No. 217 had an international celebration February 15, with Mrs. Kathryn Branstetter in charge. Fairfax No. 225 represented Southern darters, Sebastopol No. 265 Ireland, Petaluma No. 222 Holland, Sonoma No. 209 Spain, and Santa Rosa the U.S.A. A large crowd was in attendance, and each Parlor provided entertainment. Sebastopol was awarded the prize.—C.L.

Santa Ana—Santa Ana No. 235 had its annual "courtesy night" February 12 and welcomed officers and members from various southern Parlor. Special guests included Grand Trustee Mary B. Noerenberg and Supervising Deputy Matilda Enfield. President Gladys Edwards presided, and three candidates were initiated. Refreshments were served in the banquet room, decorated in valentine appointments. The decorations were in charge of Adlena Marschall, and Genevieve Hiskey planned the refreshments. The thimble club met at the Newport Beach home of Stella Gates February 15. The Parlor's annual Spanish dinner netted a nice sum for the homeless children fund.—R.E.F.

"All members are earnestly urged to remember The Grizzly Bear Magazine, which is recommended to every Native Daughter as a means of education, inspiration and entertainment, most beneficial in its every influence, and worthy of a place in every home."—Past Grand President Bertha A. Briggs, Chairman Grand Parlor N.D.G.W. Publicity Committee.

Sonoma—Deputy Dee Ann Battaglia installed the officers of Sonoma No. 209, Mrs. Clara Cheney Johnson becoming president. A turkey dinner, prepared by Josephine Andrieux and Matilda Batto, preceded the ceremonies. The hall was beautifully decorated by Thelma Rubbe and Cathrine Bulotti.—E.P.

Petaluma—Petaluma No. 222 participated in the Americanism program at the high school February 20, the drill team parading. At the Parlor meeting, Deputy Leopolda Vier was a visitor, and Chairman Grace Finley and committee served refreshments in keeping with Washington's Birthday. Washington hats filled with candy helped to make the tables artistic.

Bakersfield—February 2, El Tejon No. 239 had a well-attended birthday party for members born in January and February. The study club is having interesting meetings. The sewing club, Mrs. Irene Piper chairman, has completed forty-two children's dresses for the Red Cross project and four lap robes for hospital wheel-chair patients. For the knitting section, Chairman Hilda Thomas has handed forty-two sweaters to the Red Cross. The past presidents club had its annual valentine party at the home of Mrs. Florence Hinderliter. "Mystery pals" were revealed, and three new members were received at a beautiful candlelight ceremony. February 9, President Jennie Brown entertained several members at a valentine party at her home. El Tejon initiated three candidates February 16. Refreshments were served at tables beautifully decorated in a valentine motif. The Parlor had its annual sale of California poppies for the benefit of the homeless children February 24; Mrs. Alice Phillips was in charge. Twenty-five hundred poppies were made by the members for the sale. The Kern County district meeting is to be held March 15 in Eagles Hall, Bakersfield.

Placenta—A Spanish dinner and card party given by Grace No. 242 under the management of Mms. T. L. McFadden and A. L. Anderson was a happy and successful affair. February 5 the Parlor delivered to the American Red Cross twelve hospital garments, ten girls' dresses and eighteen Red Cross flags, all made by sewing club members. At a meeting of the club at Mrs. A. L. Anderson's home February 13 a baby bathenette was presented President Christine Dunham. Nellie M. Cline, former grand trustee, is at home recuperating nicely after several weeks in the hospital, and Recording Secretary Mary Rothaermel, who has been ill a long time, is improving.—M.E.

S (JAMES FRENCH DORRANCE.)
ANTA BARBARA PARLOR NO. 116 N.S.G.W. and Reina del Mar Parlor No. 126 N.D.G.W. have been considerably in the public eye at the Channel City. Participation in the observance of Conservation Week, public discussion of the California relief situation and completion of a supporting Community Chest campaign kept officers, members and committees of both Parlors unusually engaged.

The evening of March 21 Santa Barbara Parlor enjoyed the official visit of Grand Trustee Walter E. Smith, who addressed a rousing meeting at which he told members they should act as watchdogs of the State. "May I commend to you the Americanization program of the Order which is being accented by Grand President Jesse Miller," said Smith. "With world conditions as they are, Native Sons should take the lead in maintaining our ideals of government. Our Order is patriotic as well as historic, and the time has come when we must act as watchdogs of the state treasury as well as guardians of the Golden State's historic lore."

Smith was accompanied by Grand Organist Roger Johnson. Captain W. H. Rutherford, Parlor president, directed the initiation of a class of ten candidates. Earlier in the month, with the aid of Los Padres National Forest officials, the Parlor celebrated conservation week with a showing of the motion picture "Unburned Woodlands."

Reina del Mar Parlor, maintaining its place as a community bridgebuilder, co-operated with the Santa Barbara Woman's Club and other organizations in two symposiums addressed by State Relief Director Chambers and State Director of Finance Richards.

March 21 members of the Parlor heard Harvey J. Rudolph, Santa Barbara County welfare director, present a graphic picture of the state relief situation. "It is certainly gratifying," said he, "to know that groups like the Native Daughters are beginning to show interest in the relief subject. It is only through the interest of the people of California that we will some day have hope of attacking this great California problem in an intelligent manner." Mrs. William Wegener, Parlor president, presided over this interesting forum, and the program was presented by Mrs. Henry Griffith, civics chairman, assisted by Mrs. William Burse. Hostesses of the evening were Mms. J. A. Callis, Fred Acres, George Thackaberry and Pearl Kistner, Misses Betty Swanson, Owena O'Neill, Audrey Cooley and Eileen Shorten.

Easter Sunday morning, hundreds of Santa Barbarans enjoyed a traditional breakfast with the Native Daughters. Mrs. Clarence Longmire and Miss Mary Ronk were co-chairmen of the event. A considerable sum was raised for Parlor work.

Five new peaches, four freestones and one clingstone, especially adapted to regions of mild winters, have been developed at the University of California Citrus Experiment Station in Riverside.

"Call of the Open Road," the annual outing show sponsored by the Automobile Club of Southern California, is billed for Los Angeles City April 16-21.

Santa Barbara City is to have its first annual flower show, "La Primavera en Santa Barbara," April 5-7.

The American Rose Society is to meet in convention at Pasadena, Los Angeles County, April 25-28.

SAN BERNARDINO THE "GATEWAY COUNTY"

ONTARIO—ONTARIO PARLOR NO. 251 N.D.G.W. March 14 featured a chicken pie dinner, which was attended by ninety guests from San Bernardino, Placentia and Long Beach, including Supervising Deputy Matilda Enfield. The tables were beautifully decorated in an Easter motif by Maude Van Fleet and Vada Austin. The sewing club met March 13 at President Daisy Kiler's home and worked on a quilt.

Ontario Parlor members have again been asked to be hostesses at the May all-states picnic that features the "longest table in the world" on Euclid avenue. The picnic was such a huge success last year it has been made an annual event.

OFFICIAL TO VISIT.

San Bernardino—Arrowhead Parlor No. 110 N.S.G.W. will be officially visited April 3 by Grand Trustee Walter E. Smith. Several members of the Parlor February 24 went to Barstow, where the officers, headed by President James A. Marks, initiated seven candidates. Arrangements were in charge of George Cunningham, and John Andreson Jr. looked after the refreshments.

March 20, Arrowhead entertained members of Lugonia Parlor No. 240 N.D.G.W. at dinner at the National Orange Show. Leon Gregory presided, and the principal speaker was Senator Ralph E. Swing.

GRAND OFFICERS ENTERTAINED.

San Bernardino—March 4 the business girls of Lugonia Parlor No. 241 N.D.G.W. entertained members of the all-day sewing club at the home of Margaret Boehm. After a potluck supper sewing and visiting were in order. March 7 the club had an all-day meeting at the home of Pauline Tomkins.

March 12 Lugonia entertained Grand Vice president Hazel B. Hansen and Grand Trustee Mary B. Noerenberg. The hall was beautifully adorned with masses of peach blossoms arranged by Josephine Strinati. A supper was served by Rena Churchill, Florence Reister, Lucy Clab Fern McGinty and Mildred Meyers. After the meeting a program was presented by Lillia McGinty, Wilma Roberts, Margaret Boehm and Marguerite McKenzie.

A dinner meeting of the N.D.G.W. Parlor presidents and the deputies of District No. 8, called by Supervising Deputy Matilda Enfield was held March 18. Much was accomplished in preparation for the May 6 official visit of Grand President Orinda Giannini to Santa Ana No. 231 Lugonia No. 241, Grace No. 242 and Ontario No. 251 Parlors, in joint session at Riverside.

"Nothing is more odious than the majority for it consists of a few powerful leaders, a certain number of accommodating scoundrels and submissive weaklings, and a mass of men who trudge after them without thinking, or knowing their own minds."—Johann Wolfgang von Goethe.

The eightieth anniversary of the inauguration of the Pony Express is to be commemorated by the issuance of a three-cent stamp by the Post Office Department April 3.

ARRANGEMENTS FOR THE SIXTY-THIRD Grand Parlor of the Order of Native Sons of the Golden West, which will convene at Bakersfield, Kern County, Monday, May 20, are progressing. Grand President Jesse H. Miller of California Parlor No. 1, San Francisco, will preside throughout the three-day deliberations and, at their conclusion, will automatically become the Junior Past Grand President.

All arrangements for the Grand Parlor are being made by a general committee composed of representatives of Bakersfield Parlor No. 42 and Taft Parlor No. 276. Officers of the committee are: Carl Luick, chairman; Stanley Abel, vice-chairman; Wm. G. Rea Jr., secretary; George A. Morris, treasurer.

H. A. Bannister, president Bakersfield, and Wm. Huckaby, president Taft, are ex-officio members of the general committee. Chairmen of subcommittees include Ernest Cuthbertson, Joe Bios, reception; Frank Espitallier, housing; Wm. G. Rea Jr., registration; Roy Loudon, program; James Flx Jr., publicity; Jack Armistead, grand ball; Stanley Abel, transportation; Clinton Letlow, B. F. Cooper, barbecue; Wallace Weller, banquet; Ralph Hinderlitter, visiting womenfolks; George Taylor, finance. El Tejon Parlor No. 239 N.D.G.W. has a committee to assist in entertaining the visiting womenfolks.

Delegates to the Bakersfield Grand Parlor will register Sunday, May 19, in the lobby of El Tejon Hotel. Monday the womenfolks will be entertained at luncheon. The grand ball is billed for Tuesday night. Wednesday will be given over to a tour to Taft, where a barbecue will be served and a replica of Fort Sutter will be dedicated by the grand officers. That night a banquet complimentary to the members of the Grand Parlor will be served. All-day sessions of the Grand Parlor will be held Monday, Wednesday and Thursday.

The Grizzly Bear has contacted all the "suspicioned" candidates for Grand Parlor offices, and from replies received announces several candidacies. Subordinate Parlorists must elect their delegates to the Bakersfield session the first meeting nights in April, and then more sombreros will undoubtedly be shied into the election ring. Here's the lineup for elective offices at press time for this issue of The Grizzly Bear:

Grand President—Grand First Vice-president Henry S. Lyon, Placerville Parlor No. 9.
Grand Second Vice-president—Grand Third Vice-president Lloyd J. Cosgrove, Precita Parlor No. 137.

Grand Third Vice-president—Grand Trustee Wayne R. Millington, Redwood Parlor No. 66; Grand Trustee Raymond D. Williamson, Castro Parlor No. 232.

Grand Secretary—John T. Regan, South San Francisco Parlor No. 157, incumbent.

Native Sons of the Golden West

SAN FRANCISCO—THE BOARD OF Grand Officers met March 2 in Native Sons Building. In attendance were Grand President Jesse H. Miller, who presided, Junior Past Grand President Joseph J. McShane, Grand First Vice-president Henry S. Lyon, Grand Second Vice-president Edward T. Schnarr, Grand Third Vice-president Lloyd J. Cosgrove, Grand Secretary John T. Regan, Grand Trustees Wayne R. Millington, Walter C. Richards, Charles A. Redding, Raymond D. Williamson, Richard F. McCarthy and Walter E. Smith. Visitors included Grand Treasurer John A. Corotto, Grand Marshal Louis Bosch, Grand Inside Sentinel Walter N. Bailey and Grand Historian Dr. Peter T. Conmy.

A letter from the University of California regents extended thanks for the $1,000 Grand Parlor contribution for the support of the Native Sons of the Golden West History Fellowship Fund.

A letter was ordered sent Subordinate Parlor regarding the establishment of museums in all counties of the state.

Forms, suggested by the Board of Control, to be used by Subordinate Parlor desiring to buy or sell stock or real estate were ordered referred to the Bakersfield Grand Parlor.

Membership in the California Historical Society was ordered continued another year.

Grand President Miller called attention to H. R. 8180, presented to the Federal Congress by Congressman Sheppard of California, which, if adopted, will require that at least 75 percent of the crew of any vessel of five tons or more engaged in fishing and coastal trade be citizens of the United States, either native born or fully naturalized. The bill was endorsed, and letters advocating the bill's adoption were ordered addressed to California's United States senators and congressmen.

Considerable business of a routine nature was transacted, following which the Board adjourned to the call of the Grand President.

Public Speaking Semi-Finals.

High school students representing eleven counties in northern California will compete in the semi-finals of the N.S.G.W. public speaking contest in Native Sons Building, San Francisco, Friday night, April 5. Chairman Reynald J. Bianchi of the Grand Parlor Public Speaking Committee will preside. The winner will compete with the successful student of southern California for the state championship at the Bakersfield Grand Parlor in May.

Those entered in the northern California semi-finals include Francis Starrs, Alameda County; Donald Wright, El Dorado County; Bert Johnson, Humboldt County; Marianne Nasui, Monterey County; William House, Sacramento County; Diane Hampton, San Francisco County; Bert Pertle, San Joaquin County; Isabel Garcia, Santa Mateo County; Violet Boone, Santa Clara County; Mary Boennecke, Sonoma County. They have been awarded silver and gold pins.

This year the public speaking contest has at-

N.S.G.W.—NEWS PARAGRAPHS.—N.S.G.W.

Oakland—Francis Starrs, a student at Saint Mary's High School, won the public speaking contest conducted by the Alameda County Parlor among students of the county high schools. His subject was "Francis Drake and the Marin Shore." Other speakers, and their subjects, were: John Cole, Alameda High School, "The Donner Party of 1846-47;" James Scanlon, Albany High School, "John Sutter, Settler of the Sacramento Valley;" Dick Barger, Berkeley High School, "Portola, Trailblazer of California;" Dick Henderson, Oakland High School, "Santa Barbara, Queen of the Missions;" Suzanne Shewmaker, San Leandro High School, "San Juan Capistrano and the Swallows;" Rose Ann Stoesser, Holy Names Central High School, "Henry Durant, the First President of the University of California;" Ethel Martin, Notre Dame Academy, "Santa Barbara, Queen of the Missions;" Eileen Lindblad, Saint Joseph's Presentation Academy, "Wm. B. Ide and the Bear Flag Party." Judges of the contest were Mrs. Leone Leming, Judge S. Victor Wagler, James Hall Snell, Joseph E. Tinney and Matt Walker.

Sacramento—Sacramento No. 3, Sunset No. 26 and Sutter Fort No. 241 are sponsoring an observance April 1 of the eightieth anniversary of the inauguration of the Pony Express, April 3, 1860. Judge Percy G. West will preside, and speakers will include Grand Historian Dr. Peter T. Conmy, Director Harry C. Peterson of the Oregon Trails Memorial Association, Postmaster Jas. Wilson and President Arthur Storti of the Sacramento Stamp Club. The program will also include oldtime musical numbers.

Sacramento—Sacramento No. 3 observed its sixty-second institution anniversary March 28. President Archibald McDougall presided, and the past presidents and oldtimers were honored. A banquet, with entertainment, followed the meeting. April 18 the Parlor will initiate a substantial number of candidates.

Placerville—In the public speaking contest conducted by Placerville No. 9, Donald Wright was selected to represent El Dorado County in the semi-finals. On the Parlor's behalf he was presented a silver medal by Thomas Flynn.

Bakersfield—On the occasion of the official visit of Grand Second Vice-president Edward T. Schnarr to Bakersfield No. 42 and Taft No. 276 in joint session here, ten candidates were initiated. Other visitors were Grand Trustee Walter C. Richards, Past Grand Eldred L. Meyer, Supervising Deputies Roy W. Tarleton and William H. Dombink. Prior to the meeting Bakersfield entertained at dinner.

Grass Valley—Charles Henry Prisk, an old time member of Quartz No. 58, died March 4 at Pasadena, survived by his wife and a daughter. He was born at Grass Valley, Nevada County, December 24, 1875. Deceased was publisher and editor of the Pasadena Star-News and the Pasadena Post. A brother, Will F. Prisk, also a member of the Parlor, is publisher and editor of the Long Beach Press-Telegram and the Long Beach Sun. March 25 Quartz featured a round up, which was attended by many members and several visitors from neighboring Parlor. A fine musical program was followed by games and refreshments.

Auburn—Auburn No. 59 presented a fifty year membership pin to James E. Walsh. The presentation address was made by Grand First Vice-president Henry S. Lyon.

Napa—Grand Outside Sentinel George Bruno of Napa No. 62 was wedded February 25 to Miss Gladys McQueen of San Francisco, affiliated with Genevieve No. 132 N.D. February 29 Mrs. Mary Bruno, mother of Grand Outside Sentinel Bruno, passed away. She was a native of Italy aged 69.

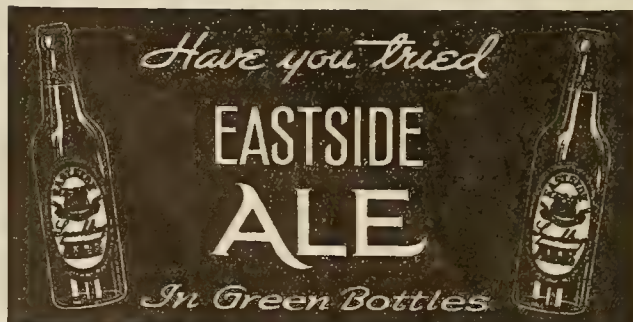

San Rafael—Oldtimers of thirty and more years ago took over the March 19 meeting of Mount Tamapais No. 64, following a corned beef and cabbage feast at which George Hall, Marin County assessor, presided as master of ceremonies. Speakers included Harry B. Hock, Dr. Harry O. Hund, Dr. E. E. Simard, Senator Thos. Keating, James F. Stanley and Senator Chas. F. Reindollar. R. H. Warden presided as the business session, and was ably supported by Henry de Soto, Bob Johnson, Felix Sals, H. B. Hock, Jas. P. Mulhern, Paul Treanton, Wm. Crane, Louis J. Peter and M. A. Andrade. Grand Trustee Charles A. Redding introduced Grand Historian Dr. Peter T. Conmy, who delivered a most interesting talk on General A. M. Winn statesman, humanitarian and Founder of the Order.

Watsonville—Watsonville No. 65 honored State Senator James Houlihan March 20. Among the many visitors were forty-five members of Los Banos No. 206 in May Day attire. During the evening fourteen candidates were initiated eight of them for Los Banos.

Vallejo—George Grant Halliday, a charter member of Vallejo Parlor No. 77 and clerk of Solano County for forty-four years, died March 17, survived by his wife and a daughter. He was born at Deadwood, Placer County, December 21, 1865, and was a delegate to several Grand Parlor from Vallejo Parlor.

Calistoga—Calistoga No. 86 will celebrate May 6 its fifty-fourth institution anniversary. A committee including Conrad Weil Jr., chairman, S. W. Kellett Jr., Ted Tamagni, Milton Wolleson and Walter Heitz has been appointed to make arrangements.

Weaverville—Mount Bally No. 87 will cooperate with the local Chamber of Commerce and other civic groups in beautifying Weaver ville by the planting of trees and shrubs. A committee including John Fields, chairman, Ru-

San Diego—San Diego No. 108 was officially visited by Grand Trustee Walter E. Smith, who was accompanied by Grand Organist Roger Johnson and Supervising Deputy Roy Tarleton. Resident Henry Hacho presided at the business meeting, and District Deputy Thomas J. Tighe headed the ritual team. At a dinner preceding the meeting Deputy Grand President Albert V. Jayrhofer was the toastmaster.

Sonoma—Sonoma No. 111 was officially visited March 18 by Grand Second Vice-president Edward T. Schnarr. Grand Marshal Louis Bosch attended the Parlor's welcome. A program was presented and a feast of "Irish turkey" was enjoyed. Several members of Fruitvale No. 252, Oakland, accompanied the official visitor.

Oakland—Piedmont No. 120 celebrated its thirty-second institution anniversary at a banquet March 14. President Bernard J. Dignan presided, and speakers included Past Grand Lewis Byington, Grand Trustee Richard F. McCarty and Grand President Jesse H. Miller. The latter, on the Parlor's behalf, presented fifty-year membership pins to W. E. Saulpaugh, W. F. Politz, Thos. B. Bibber, Geo. A. Scott, Frank Atwhensen and E. E. Cleese.

Los Banos—Los Banos No. 206 is arranging its annual May Day celebration, to be held May 3, 4 and 5. Clyde Jones is the general chairman and Jos. A. Enos is the secretary-treasurer. Chairmen of subcommittees include INFORMATION ABOUT GAVELS SOUGHT.

Editor Grizzly Bear: Could you tell me what kind of gavels were first used in lodges? Some seem to think that they were similar to our modern potato mashers. A young man has offered to make me a gavel from some of our "historical" wood, and I'd prefer as old a model as I could find. Thanking you for any information that you can give me I am, most cordially, GERTRUDE A. STEGER, President Shasta Historical Society, Palo Cedro, California.

(Unable to supply the information, the request is passed on to the readers of The Grizzly Bear, in the hope that someone may enlighten the writer.—Editor.)

Berkeley—Claremont No. 240 had its annual Saint Patrick's Day celebration March 16, and the many in attendance had a fine time. John Orlo headed the arrangements committee.

Oakland—East Bay Counties Assembly No. 3 Past Presidents Association had its twenty-sixth anniversary dinner March 16. Frank Roemer and Harold Farley were the co-chairmen.

Santa Ana—Arrowhead Assembly No. 14 Past Presidents Association met March 28 at the home of Governor General Walter E. Hiskey. A barbecued steak dinner preceded the meeting. Judge Donald E. VanLuven has been appointed general chairman of the committee that will arrange for the meeting of the General Assembly in San Bernardino.

UNLESS DRASTIC ACTION IS TAKEN immediately to prevent operation of alien-manned fishing boats in Pacific waters, America is threatened with a wave of espionage that will cause unlimited disaster, according to Ben Harrison, United States attorney for southern California and chairman of the Native Sons of the Golden West Americanization Committee.

"Already, Federal agencies have been faced with the problem of espionage on alien-manned boats operating in Pacific waters, and subversive activities will continue until rigid laws are passed giving Federal departments methods of control and elimination," says Harrison.

The Sheppard bill (H. R. 8180), now before the Federal Congress, makes it mandatory for any fishing vessel operating in American waters to be manned by a crew of not less than seventy-five percent American citizens, native born or completely naturalized. Violators of the law are subject to a penalty of $1,000 for each employee not meeting provisions of the bill and, in addition, forfeiture of the illegally operated boat.

PILGRIMAGE TO LANDMARK.

Making good a promise to sponsor many social affairs during her term, President Louise McNary of Los Angeles Parlor No. 124 N.D.G.W. has planned a busy April. At Plummer Park, April 13, a card party will be held. Chairman Ann Schiebusch is being assisted in making arrangements by a committee of thirty-three. Fortunes will be told, and refreshments will be served. The admission fee is twenty-five cents.

April 17 past presidents will have charge of the Parlor's thirty-ninth birthday observance. Ann Schiebusch and Olinda Thomas are co-chairmen. "Visit Patty Duncan's ranch near Newhall and sew for the homeless children April 20," urges Secretary Edna T. Nelkirk. The hostess will be assisted by Grace Norton and Mildred Ripling. Members are asked to take sandwiches and fruit.

Sunday, April 21, the history and landmarks committee of Los Angeles, with Gertrude Allen as chairman, will conduct a pilgrimage to the historic Charles F. Lummis home, 200 East avenue Forty-three. Speakers will recall the life and experiences of Lummis and entertainment will be provided. "El Alisal" was built with stones gathered by Lummis in the Arroyo Seco. Those who have never visited the interesting place should do so. The purpose of the pilgrimage is to raise the Parlor's share of the Native Daughters' contribution toward the purchase of the home from the Southwest Museum.

BIRTHDAY PARTY FOR N.S. PAST GRAND.

Grand Trustee Walter C. Richards officially visited Los Angeles Parlor No. 45 N.S.G.W. February 23, and the ritual was exemplified by the officers, headed by President Carroll M. Manley. Among the many in attendance were Past Grands John T. Newell and Eldred L. Meyer, Supervising Deputy Roy Tarleton, District Deputies O. Benton Worley and Dewey Richards.

April 12, President Manley will conduct a quiz on "Know your lodge, brothers!"; a prize to the winner, and refreshments. April 19, Los Angeles is having a birthday party for Past Grand Newell. The ritual will be exemplified by a team of oldtimers, entertainment will be provided and refreshments will be served.—F.F.

LUNCHEON CLUB SPEAKERS.

The N.S.G.W. Friday Luncheon Club was addressed March 1 by Judge Newcomb Condee, whose subject was "The Streamlined Court." Judge O. Benton Worley was the March 15 speaker, his subject being "California Flags."

Secretary Hervey L. Kitchin announces that Grand President Orinda G. Giannini of the Order of Native Daughters of the Golden West will be a guest of the Club May 3.

TRIBUTE PAID OLDTIMER.

The "mad March hare" luncheon of Californiana Parlor No. 247 N.D.G.W., March 12, in memory of Charles Fletcher Lummis, one of California's colorful citizens and historians, was a delightful affair and well attended. Lummis was the founder of the Southwest Museum, to which he bequeathed his unique stone house, El Alisal, built by himself. The Lummis Memorial Association has been organized to purchase the place for $6,000 and turn it over to the Los Angeles Park Commission for maintenance as a museum.

President Beatrice Wahrmond presented the program chairman, Mrs. Alphonse B. Pages. Mrs. Beatrice Lummis read "The Toast to the Absent," a writing of the oldtimer. Speakers included Mrs. Marion Parks-Partridge, Isadore Dockweiler, Miss Anna Beckley, Mrs. Frances N. Noel and L. E. Behymer. A number of Native Sons were in attendance and were introduced by Grand Trustee Mary B. Noerenberg.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Osborn opened their spacious home March 4 for the Gertrude Sewing Circle, an auxiliary of Californiana. The table decorations honored Saint Patrick. Much work was accomplished. April 1 the Misses Lizzie and Nellie Weston will entertain the Circle at their home. The spring bridge luncheon of March 29, under the chairmanship of Mrs. W. B. Johnson of the ways and means committee, was an artistic and financial success.

Californiana has a new meetingplace, Hollywood Bowl Gardens. The first meeting, preceded by luncheon, will be held there April 9.—O.L.

"DOCKWEILER NIGHT."

President William R. Blaha of Ramona Parlor No. 109 N.S.G.W. has appointed a committee, Judge Frank G. Tyrrell, Hervey L. Kitchin and Robert N. Bushnell, to investigate the proposed celebration of the four hundredth anniversary of the discovery of the Colorado River. The Parlor's bowling team, Robert Zeigler captain, practices every Wednesday night. A committee is planning a half-day tour to local places of historical importance.

Ramona will have its monthly birthday dinner April 19 at 6:30; an open meeting, to which the families of the members will be welcome, is to follow. April 26 will be "Dockweiler night," honoring Isadore Dockweiler, president of the Parlor in 1897, Judge George Dockweiler, Henry Dockweiler and John Dockweiler.

MISS IN THEIR CROWN

Red Rock? what a place of rare beauty.
With cathedrals and castles of stone.
No human hand ever could fashion
Such grandeur of palace and throne.
It tells of a might beyond measure.
A creation that with ages has trod,
Bringing Time and Eternity together,
Advertising the greatness of God.

authorized to obtain permission to do so from the Los Angeles Park Commission. Supervising Deputy Olinda Thomas and Deputy Emma Castillo visited the Parlor March 21, when two candidates were initiated.

March hostesses for the California Thimble Club, an auxiliary of Long Beach, were Mabel McLean and Nellie DeWitt. This year the Club is devoting its energies to sewing and raising funds for the homeless children and veterans welfare only. Program Chairman Margaret Burch announces a special speaker for the Parlor meeting of April 18.—E.S.

NATIVES' CLEARING HOUSE ACTIVE.

The following officers of the Interparlor Committee (Southern District) N.S.G.W. and N.D.G.W. have been re-elected: Fred Leonetti, chairman; Mrs. Dexter Monroe, vice-chairman; Mrs. Harriette Weeks, secretary; Mrs. Phillip McAnany, treasurer. The Interparlor is most active and acts as a clearing house for Native Sons' and Native Daughters' affairs.

A bureau, with Chester D. French as chairman, is maintained to supply speakers on California subjects. Frank Ruiz is chairman of a committee that is arranging a theater party for May, the proceeds to go into the Tournament of Roses float fund.

BIRTHDAY PARTY.

Hollywood Parlor No. 196 N.S.G.W. will observe its forty-fourth institution anniversary with a banquet at the Hollywood Athletic Club April 17. This is the Parlor's outstanding annual social feature, and there is always a large attendance. All Native Sons are invited. Reservations should be made with Secretary "Bill" Hortenstine, phone TW 0531.

Police Commissioner Henry G. Bodkin, Dan H. Laubersheimer, Justice John M. York, George Breslin and W. J. Cornett are in charge of arrangements.

ELIGIBLES TO BE ENTERTAINED.

La Reina Parlor No. 267 N.D.G.W. will entertain women interested in joining the Order at a tea Sunday afternoon, April 7, at the home of Winifred Vis. The affair will be under the direction of the hostess, Madeline Garcy and Zoe Martin.

A delicious Spanish dinner prepared under the supervision of the mother of Harriet Shorten and Winifred Vis, was held March 7. Table decorations carried out an appropriate theme.

MEMBERSHIP GOING UP.

Long Beach—Long Beach Parlor No. 278 N.S.G.W. initiated a class of ten candidates March 6, among the number being Mayor Francis H. Gentry and Manager John M. Johnston of the Municipal Auditorium. Supervising Deputy Roy W. Tarleton and officers of Stephen M. White Parlor No. 263, San Pedro, assisted in the exemplification of the ritual. Paul Traynor entertained, and refreshments were served.

HAS NEW MEETINGPLACE.

Canoga Park—Topanga Parlor No. 269 N.D.G.W. had as special guests February 23 Grand Trustee Mary B. Noerenberg, Supervising Deputy Olinda Thomas, Deputy Ruth Ruiz, and Ann Schiebush, Rose Hughes and Louise Crawford of Los Angeles Parlor No. 124.

March 8 the Parlor changed its meetingplace to the Woman's Clubhouse. The homeless children committee of Topanga plans a turkey dinner April 5 from 6 to 8 p.m. Tickets are fifty cents.—L.J.C.

ORATORICAL CONTESTS.

Elimination contests for Los Angeles County high school students participating in the statewide oratorical contest sponsored by the Order of Native Sons of the Golden West will be held in Los Angeles City on the following dates:

April 15, with East Los Angeles Parlor No. 277; April 19, with Ramona Parlor No. 109; April 26, with Los Angeles Parlor No. 45. Clyde Harry Davis will preside, and the general public is invited to attend.

Following the elimination contests a semi-final will be held to choose a contestant from

Native Daughters of the Golden West

THE FIFTY-FOURTH ANNUAL GRAND Parlor of the Order of Native Daughters of the Golden West will convene at Oakland, Alameda County, Monday, June 17, for a four-day session. Grand President Orinda Gunther-Giannini of Orinda Parlor No. 56, San Francisco, will preside throughout the deliberations.

The Grand Parlor Constitution provides that "all resolutions which are to be introduced at a Grand Parlor session, which in any way affect or pertain to the Subordinate Parlors as a whole, must be submitted to the Grand Secretary" by April 30. This regulation applies also to invitations for next year's meeting of the Grand Parlor.

Arrangements for the Oakland Grand Parlor are being made by a general committee composed of representatives from all the Alameda County Subordinate Parlors: Angelita No. 32, Livermore; Piedmont No. 87, Oakland; Aloha No. 106, Oakland; Hayward No. 122, Hayward; Berkeley No. 150, Berkeley; Bear Flag No. 151, Berkeley; Encinal No. 156, Alameda; Brooklyn No. 157, Oakland; Argonaut No. 166, Oakland; Bahia Vista No. 167, Oakland; Fruitvale No. 177, Oakland; Laura Loma No. 182, Niles; El Cereso No. 207, San Leandro; Pleasanton No. 237, Pleasanton; Betsy Ross No. 238, Centerville; Lakemont No. 259, Oakland; Albany No. 260, Albany; Sequoia No. 272, Berkeley.

Grand Secretary Sallie R. Thaler (Aloha) is the general chairman, Irma S. Murray (Aloha) is the secretary, and Gladys I. Farley (Aloha) is the treasurer. An executive committee includes, in addition to these officers, Grand Trustee Dora E. Brayton (Bahia Vista), Past Grand Sue J. Irwin (Berkeley), Supervising Deputy Olinda Kardoza (El Cereso) and Marion E. White (Piedmont). Chairmen of subcommittees are: Grand Trustee Dora E. Brayton (Bahia Vista), housing; Augusta Huxsol (Piedmont), printing; Past Grand Sue J. Irwin (Berkeley), luncheon; Minnie Luhr (Brooklyn), transportation; Marie Silva (Fruitvale), badges; Grand Trustee Dora E. Brayton (Bahia Vista), halls; Gretta Murden (Piedmont), opening day welcome; Edna Williams (Sequoia), grand ball; Kathleen Dombink (Piedmont), bulletin board; Past Grand Sue J. CANDIDATES GRAND PARLOR OFFICES.

Unless the policy of the Grand Parlor be reversed, and there is no indication that it will be, Grand Vice-president Hazel B. Hansen of Verdugo Parlor No. 240, Glendale, will be chosen Grand President at Oakland.

The Grizzly Bear has communicated with "rumored" candidates for the other Grand Parlor elective offices, and from the replies received up to press time presents this information:

Grand Vice-president—Grand Marshal Claire Lindsey, Golden Gate Parlor No. 158.

Grand Secretary—Sallie R. Thaler, Aloha Parlor No. 106, incumbent.

Grand Treasurer—Agnes M. Curry, Portola Parlor No. 172, incumbent.

Grand Marshal—Rose Rhyner, Aleli Parlor No. 102; Grand Trustee Mary B. Noerenberg, Californiana Parlor No. 247.

Grand Outside Sentinel—Edna L. Kretcher, Chispa Parlor No. 40; Norma Hodson, Phoebe A. Hearst Parlor No. 214.

Grand Trustees (seven to be chosen)—Loretta M. Cameron, Twin Peaks Parlor No. 185, incumbent; Emily E. Ryan, Las Lomas Parlor No. 72, incumbent.

The Los Angeles County delegation to the Oakland Grand Parlor will request that the 1941 session be held in Los Angeles City.—C.M.H.

Eleven Candidates Initiated.

Chico—For the official visit of Grand President Orinda G. Giannini, Annie K. Bidwell No. 168 emphasized to the last clever detail a "Gone With the Wind" theme. Some one hundred attended a dinner at which the tables were gay with spring blossoms; little dolls dressed in bouffant styles were the favors. In the meeting-room rose camellias and rose-red flowering peach predominated in the decorations. President Lucy Girdler presided, and Pianist Evadne Gray played old Southern melodies for all floor work.

The drill team members, attractively gowned in keeping with the evening's theme, assisted in the initiation of eleven candidates. They formed a striking picture when, seated upon the floor, with skirts widespread, they formed the "Swanee River," through which Carmilita Girdler danced to Grand President Giannini and presented the Parlor's gift to her. Visitors were present from Willows, Colusa, Red Bluff, Oroville and San Francisco. At the meeting's close refreshments were served at tables beautified with camellias in inverted large leghorn hats. The program covers were decorated with charming maids in bouffant gowns.

A beautiful Arbor Day ceremony was conducted by the Parlor in the garden of Native Daughters Building, where two camellias were planted in memory of Dr. Nellie Allen and Margaret Hudspeth, departed members. The ceremonies were arranged by Civic Chairman Lois Heberlie, who was assisted by President Girdler, Ivy Hoar, Ethel Estes and Nora Arnold.—C.B.H.

"Poppy Day" Grand Financial Success.

Fresno—Fresno No. 187 and Fresno No. 25 N.S. had their annual "Poppy Day" the last Saturday in February, with Mrs. Edna Wolfe and Wm. R. Holmes as co-chairmen. A dance was held in the evening. Ten thousand poppies, made by the Daughters, were sold on the downtown streets by sixty schoolchildren. The sale netted $575, which amount is being turned over to the Central Committee on Homeless Children. "Poppy Day" originated in Fresno No. 187 in 1910; it has been an annual event ever since, and large sums of money have been raised in this way each year for this most worthy charity. The local paper was most liberal in co-operating with publicity for a week preceding the sale and a broadcast was given by radio station KMJ "Poppy Day." Maude C. Crosby has handled the publicity for years.

Daisy Agnew was hostess to the California Poppy Club, service unit of the Parlor, March 6. Doris Gleim was the March 20 hostess. The Parlor entered a beautifully decorated car in the Elks night parade in observance of Americanism Week March 8. Chairman Millie Burton, President Letha Joy Mutton, Mms. Donna-hue and Crosby rode in the car, and attended the ceremonies in Memorial Auditorium at which Monte Blue was the principal speaker.

Deputies Honored at Easter Party.

Sacramento—At an Easter party March 15, La Bandera No. 110 honored Supervising Deputy Gertrude H. Keehner and Deputies Grace Cowan, Alice Hyland, Berniece Parrott, Ruth Prue, Edna Kauffman, Muriel Blodgett, Flora A. Schmittgen and Lillian Bassi. Each was presented a gift encased in an Easter hat box tied with pink and blue net. Spring flowers in abundance were used in the decorations. President Frieda Dalton presided, Anna Cippa provided a musical program, and Mae Sydenstricker reported on the progress of the homeless children work. Past Grand Edna B. Briggs and Genevieve Didion were co-chairmen of the evening.

With a charter list of thirty, past presidents of La Bandera have organized a past presidents club which meets monthly at the members' homes. The initial meeting was held at the home of Dorothy Thomas, who was assisted by Lucille Huntoon and Marion Lund as co-hostesses. Miss Thomas was chosen president of the club, and Mrs. Huntoon corresponding secretary. March 12 Past Grand Briggs welcomed the club to her new home; Mrs. Didion was co-hostess. The guests were entertained with "wild eight," which caused much merriment. Alvah Welty will entertain the club at her home April 9 and will be assisted by Clara Weldon and Hattie VanDemark.

With Flora A. Schmittgen as chairman of the organizing committee, La Bandera is forming a junior auxiliary, which will be instituted April 19. Chairman Bess Elmore of the Grand Parlor Junior Auxiliaries Committee will be a guest on that occasion.

"Argonaut Cubs" Instituted.

Oakland—Argonaut No. 166 had an Easter fashion show and informal card party March 7. Jessie R. Culbert was the commentator and advisor, and the following members acted as models: Josephine Lauricella, Norma Abner, Helen Haley, Rose Orio, Mary Fideiro, Naomi Willis, Rose Muzio, Irene Carpaneto, Louise Prefontaine, Berniece Granter, Teresa Deluccchi and Margie Welsh. Following the show cards were played.

Some 250 people witnessed the institution of the Argonaut Junior Auxiliary,—the first auxil-Thaler, Grand Marshal Claire Lindsey, Grand Trustee Dora Brayton, Supervising Deputy Ohnda Kardoza, Deputy Dorothy Davis, Alice H. Dougherty, former grand secretary, and Chairman Bess Elmore of the Grand Parlor Junior Auxiliaries Committee. Margie Velsh was chairman of the evening.

Secretary Mary E. Brusie of the N.S.G.W. and D.G.W. Central Homeless Children Committee poke to the juniors in a kindly, sincere manner, stressing the necessity of their being friendly, loyal and good sports. At the conclusion of her delightful talk she gave each a little redwood sub pin, the emblem of the Auxiliary, which will be informally known as the "Argonaut Cubs." Through President Conway, the juniors presented Miss Brusie a parchment scroll bearing the names of the charter members, and she was requested to be their "godmother." Happily surprised, she accepted the scroll and the responsibility. President Evelyn Favini of Argonaut Parlor appointed as the Auxiliary's board of directors Margie Welsh, chairman, Marjorie Linther, Ada Spilman, Claire Stranahan and Eleanor Cuthill.

New Idea.

Coalinga—The March 13 gathering of Coalinga No. 270, with President Margaret O'Connor presiding, opened with a potluck dinner. Deputy Ethel Koepp, the honor-guest, was accompanied from Avenal by fifteen members of Las Flores No. 262. The hall was decorated in a Saint Patrick's Day motif, and two candidates were initiated.

For Easter week, Coalinga inaugurated a new idea. A cross erected upon the lawn of a member of the Parlor was illuminated each night. Good Friday, between noon and 3 p.m., the cross was draped in mourning, symbolizing the crucifixion. Easter Sunday flowers were placed at the base of the cross. Pearl Hamilton of the Parlor also had a cross of blue lights that was illuminated nightly during Holy Week.

N.D.G.W.—NEWS PARAGRAPHS.—N.D.G.W. Napa—On Eshcol No. 16's behalf, Grand President Orinda G. Giannini presented a California State (Bear) Flag to the Lincoln School. A luncheon preceded the ceremonies. Several members of the Parlor visited Calistoga No. 145 March 11. Past Presidents Association No. 12 had a dinner and social time in Napa March 8.—E.I.

Grass Valley—Manzanita No. 29 had a variety show which netted a neat sum for its homeless children fund. A haywire orchestra made its initial appearance and won rounds of applause. Arbor Day an oriental plane tree was planted at the James S. Hennessy School and dedicated to Charter Member Annie F. Conlin, a retired schoolteacher. March 19 Manzanita celebrated its fifty-second anniversary. The dramatic club, drill team and haywire orchestra participated in the program.

Watsonville—El Pajaro No. 35 had a birthday party March 5 for members born in January, February and March. "California Women" was the evening's theme and tribute was paid Dora Zmudowski for faithful service to the Native Daughters. Cards were played and refreshments were served at tables attractively decorated in a Saint Patrick's motif. The arrangements committee included Viola Clough, chairman, Inez Silva, Carrie Payton and Cecelia Ashadina. Elma Crouch heads a committee planning the observance of El Pajaro's fifty-second anniversary in June.—V.C.

Ione—Chispa No. 40 observed March 5 its fifty-first anniversary. The hall and refreshments tables were decorated in a Saint Patrick's Day motif. A history of the Parlor was given by Edna Kretcher. Four candidates were initiated, and honors were paid Charter Members Rena Rush, Gladys Hammer and Hattie Kelly. Among the many visitors were Supervising Deputies Emma Boardman-Wright and Gertrude Keehner, and Deputies Myrtle Tonzi and Edith Murphy.

Murphys—Ruby No. 46 March 10 observed Arbor Day by the planting of a hawthorne tree (More on Page 15).

DETAILS OF THE O'FARRELL SWING, which determined the alignment of many of San Francisco's downtown streets, including Market, have been brought to light by the University of California, after having been in obscurity for many years. The O'Farrell Swing and other surveys, even more obscure, were the bases for the surveys drawn up in the '60s on which present-day surveyors depend for the lining out of streets, parks, schoolgrounds, playgrounds and other public land developments in San Francisco.

The University's studies show how San Francisco grew from a single street, the Calle de Fundacion, laid out by William Richardson over a hundred years ago, or in October 1835 to be exact, to the plan of downtown San Francisco as it exists today. The alcalde's map of the early '40s was the basis of a number of grants, but the surveys of the new grants erred. The 50- and 100-vara lots provided for were not properly bounded, so the streets did not run at right angles.

In 1847 Jasper O'Farrell, surveyor and land developer who had come across the continent four years earlier, was named to make the necessary correction. This he did, using the same starting point as the other surveyors. In the O'Farrell survey, or O'Farrell Swing as it is called, the proper alignments were made, and San Francisco proceeded to follow it. One lawsuit followed, but the O'Farrell Swing became the leading survey until superseded by the survey of the '60s, which still stands.

The surveys for the University were made by Dr. J. H. Bowman, associated with Professor George W. Hendry, assistant professor of agronomy, in a study of the old adobes in the nine counties bordering San Francisco Bay.

RECEPTION FOR GRAND PRESIDENTS.

Friday evening, April 13, in the auditorium of Native Sons Building, the San Francisco County Extension of the Order Committee N.D.G.W. and the San Francisco Extension of the Order Committee N.S.G.W. will sponsor a grand ball and reception in honor of Grand Presidents Orinda G. Giannini and Jesse H. Miller.

Officers and members of all Parlor of Native Daughters and Native Sons are invited to attend. The committee in charge of arrangements includes: N.S.G.W.—J. Oscar Crossley, South San Francisco Parlor No. 157; Eugene Dumont, Stanford Parlor No. 76; Jack Lewis, Twin Peaks Parlor No. 214; John Slattery, California Parlor No. 1; Lee Jenkins, Precita Parlor No. 187. N.D.G.W.—Patricia M. Selinger, Guadalupe Parlor No. 153; Ruby Bried, El Vespero Parlor No. 118; Mae Shea, Orinda Parlor No. 56; Ann Duddy, Presidio Parlor No. 148.

TO HONOR HISTORIAN.

At a meeting of the Grand Parlor N.S.G.W. California History Board March 8 it was voted to sponsor a banquet honoring Dr. Herbert E. Bolton, noted historian of the University of California who, having reached the age of seventy, must, under the University rules, retire at the close of the present school year. It is expected Native Sons and Native Daughters will assemble from all parts of the state to honor this great scholar in the field of California history.

The banquet will be held at the Hotel Claremont in Berkeley Saturday evening, April 27. The price is $1.25 per plate. Arrangements are being made by a committee of the History Board composed of Past Grand President Edward J. Lynch, Grand Historian Dr. Peter T. Conmy, Joseph E. Tinney, Emmett Joy, Frank C. Merritt and James H. Snell. The committee extends an invitation to all Natives to attend this function.

N.D.G.W.—NEWS PARAGRAPHS.—N.S.G.W.

Minerva Parlor No. 2 N.D.G.W. celebrated March 14 its fifty-third institution anniversary with a dinner. An Easter motif of yellow and lavender, with baskets at each place, was used. A most enjoyable program was presented by Dorothy Cunningham and Phyllis Fransusch. A gift concealed in an attractively decorated Easter egg was presented President Lillian Davis, and Ethel Phelan was the recipient of a shower of beautiful handkerchiefs. Deputy Genevieve Martell was a guest, and Phyllis Fransusch was chairman of the affair.—E.P.

Alta Parlor No. 3 N.D.G.W. celebrated its fifty-third institution anniversary at a merry dinner. The tables were decorated with spring flowers, and Mary Howell was chairman of the evening. Among those in attendance were President Lena Angell, Past Grand Anne Thuesen, Deputy Charlotte Keohane, Charter Members Amy McDougald, Annie Page, Minnie Spillman, Mary Mulholland, Evelyn Jolly, Ingie Faure, Mary Howell and Margaret Sullivan.—R.S.

Stanford Parlor No. 76 N.S.G.W. had a Saint Patrick's Day Party March 19, arranged by a committee headed by Charles J. Barry. The entertainment feature was a minstrel show with Dr. Leo McMahon as the interlocutor, and starring Eddie Healy, Frank Barry, Joe McCloskey, James Isherwood, Charlie Roberts, Scotty Butterworth, Roy Broderick and Bill Hart. An olio composed of Parlor members was directed by Dave McCarthy and C. Boegershausen, and Elmer Collett presided at the piano. Frank F. Morris, Charlie Stanley and Fred Drewes had charge of the refreshments.

Following initiation March 7, Genevieve Parlor No. 132 N.D.G.W. had a social, the theme of which was Saint Patrick's Day. President Vera Beatson and Nora Schefflin provided entertainment. All in attendance participated in singing Irish melodies and playing games. Refreshments were served.—C.M.

In commemoration of Arbor Day and in recognition of Conservation Week, Golden Gate Parlor No. 158 N.D.G.W. presented a dwarf orange tree to Past Grand Dr. Mariana Bertola, chairman Grand Parlor N.D.G.W. Home Committee, at the March 10 breakfast at the Home. Beatrice Nishkian made the presentation address. March 11 the Parlor entertained several members of San Francisco Parlor No. 261. Eda Meinen was chairman, and Deputy Elsie Dethlefsen was the honor-guest. Grand Marshal Claire Lindsey visited the children in Ward 17, San Francisco Hospital, Easter Sunday. March 25, Golden Gate had a very successful baby shower for the homeless children, and Secretary Mary E. Brusie of the N.S.G.W. and N.D.G.W. Central Homeless Children Committee was delighted with the many gifts for her charges. Anna Franzen and Flora Justus were co-chairmen of the affair.—B.M.N.

Castro Parlor No. 178 N.D.G.W. had a Saint Patrick's party March 6; Mae Waring was the chairman. The drill team entertained the Parlor members at a valentine party; Kathleen Bertetta was the chairman. The team met recently at the home of Jeanette Hickey. Drill practice started March 1. April 3, Castro will have its "secret pals" night. Chairman Alice Lane plans a pleasant evening for all in attendance.—E.K. & B.W.

Mission Parlor No. 227 and Minerva Parlor No. 2 N.D.G.W. received an official visit from Grand President Orinda Giannini in joint session March 8. Presidents Mary Segale and Lillian Davis presided. A feature of the evening was the presentation by both Parlor of layettes for the homeless children. A Saint Patrick's motif was carried out in the decorations. Refreshments were served to more than 250 members of the Order.—E.M.P.

Orinda No. 56, Castro No. 178 and Utopia No. 252 Parlor N.D.G.W. were hostesses at the N.D.G.W. Home breakfast March 10. Prayer was offered by Lena Mongedonico, and the pledge of allegiance to the flag was given by Grand Marshal Claire Lindsey. L. A. Johnston, the guest speaker, had for his subject "California History." Grand President Orinda G. Giannini was also a speaker. Loretta Winter, accompanied by Helen Heinman, sang Irish songs. For the hostess Parlor, Alice Kearse presented Past Grand Dr. Mariana Bertola, chairman Grand Parlor Home Committee, a money gift for the endowment fund. Fourteen Subordinate Parlor were represented at the breakfast, which concluded with the singing of "America."—E.G.F.

CONSERVATION CALIFORNIA'S MIGRATORY WATERFOWL

Herbert Hanley, Twin Peaks Parlor N.S.G.W.

(CHAIRMAN GRAND PARLOR N.S.G.W. FORESTRY AND CONSERVATION COMMITTEE.)

OF CALIFORNIA'S THREE HUNDRED thousand hunting license buyers, sixty thousand signified their intent to hunt migratory birds by buying the Federal Migratory Bird Stamp known as the "Duck Stamp." All of these hunters were out for their bag limit of ducks; but only about five thousand of them thought of ducks after the close of the season—thought enough to put their dollars in the public game bag to bring back the 1940 flight in larger numbers than the 1939 flight. Hunters, yes; but not conservation minded enough to think of next year and the following years; not sufficiently conservation minded to use their dollars after the season was over so as to assure the continued migration of duck, pigeon, geese, dove and other migratory birds.

Birds and dollars are the problem before the California migratory fowl hunter. Ducks Unlimited has the solution of the bird problem, but it is up to the duck hunter, duck club and duck landowner to furnish the dollars to carry out the solution offered by Ducks Unlimited.

In a proper consideration of our migratory fowl problem, the limitation of the hunters' bag limit is by no means a cure-all. The mere closing of season one or more years would in no way solve the problem or assure that the following years' flights would improve. The hunters' kill is only one of the factors involved and, in many respects, a minor one. For years we have killed domestic chickens, but as yet we have not exterminated them. The reason being, of course, that we are continually raising a new supply. This is not true of our migratory fowl. We have killed and killed as hunters, destroyed their nesting grounds, reclaimed the swamps, their natural habitat, and have done away with even their landing and resting ponds. From the way we have approached the problem in the continent of North America, we do not deserve to have a migratory bird in flight.

The Biological Survey, Ducks Unlimited and other ornithologists of note inform us that all of the migratory birds, both game and song, from the lowly blackbird to the graceful swan, follow four major flyways (migratory routes) on the North American Continent. These flyways, by careful check and study, were determined to be the Western, following the coast and valley on our great western sea slope; the Central, which is located between the Western and the Mississippi flyways; the Mississippi, following down the great Mississippi Valley, and the Atlantic. The two flyways most adversely affected by a decrease in the number of birds are the Western and the Central. These two migratory routes have their breeding grounds and places of origin in central and northwestern Canada. It is no surprise to learn that these breeding grounds in central and northwestern Canada have been adversely affected by drought, irrigation projects, reclamation districts and unwarranted burnings. Also, the lands along the migration routes have been taken up by farmers, and reclaimed from swamps, the natural habitat of birdlife, to farm lands, many of which are sub-marginal in nature.

We, on the west coast, are naturally vitally interested in that great western flyway commencing in northern Canada and ending in California, Mexico, and further south, and the causes of its alarming depletion. It is interesting in the study of the migratory habits of birds to note that not only do they follow the four definite flyways, but they also follow their own particular ancestral route. By this I mean, for example, that a hen and drake duck, flying from north to south and from south to north along the Western flyway, their brood raised in the Canadian marshes and their broods' brood continue to follow that original drake's and hen's ancestral route.

It is perfectly possible and is a fact that of two separate pairs of nesting ducks, side by side in the marshes of Canada, one brood will follow one ancestral route and the other brood will follow their own particular ancestral route. This interesting phenomena has been checked by the banding of some three and a half million indi-

In Memoriam

MILLIE MAYFIELD STANLEY.

To the Officers and Members of El Pinal Parlor No. 163 N.D.G.W.—We, your committee appointed to draft resolutions of love and sympathy in memory of our departed Sister and Charter Member Millie Mayfield Stanley, respectfully submit the following:

Whereas, God in His infinite wisdom has seen fit to call to His heavenly home our beloved Sister Millie Mayfield Stanley, we bow in reverent submission to the will of the Almighty Father. Her body has been returned to the soil of California which gave her birth; her spirit has been called into the presence of Him who breathed into it the breath of immortal life.

"And at home in the beautiful hills of God,

By the Valley of Rest so fair,

Some day, some time, when our work is done,

With joy we shall meet her there."

Resolved, That it is but a just tribute to the memory of our departed sister to say that, in regretting her removal from our midst, we mourn for one who was a loyal Native Daughter; and be it further

Resolved, That the sympathy of El Pinal Parlor No. 163 Native Daughters of the Golden West be tendered to the bereaved husband and family; that a copy of this resolution be spread upon the minutes of the Parlor, that a copy be sent to the husband and family, and that a copy be sent to The Grizzly Bear Magazine for publication.

Respectfully submitted,

EVELYN G EVANS,

ALICE ZOPPE,

MARCELLA PORTE,

Committee.

OTIS M. FELLOWS.

Whereas, The Divine Father of the Universe in His infinite wisdom has removed our worthy Brother Otis M. Fellows from his earthly labors; and whereas, we shall ever miss his genial presence and kindly ways; and whereas, there is now a vacant chair in our Parlor; therefore, be it

Resolved, That we, the members of Mountain View Parlor No. 215 Native Sons of the Golden West, hereby express the great loss we have sustained in the death of our brother; and be it further

Resolved, That we extend our sincere sympathy to the members of his family; that these resolutions be spread upon the minutes of the Parlor, a copy thereof be engrossed and presented to his family, and that they be published in the local papers.

CHARLES H. PRISK.

To the Officers and Members of Quartz Parlor No. 58 N.S.G.W.—Dear Sirs and Brothers: We, the undersigned committee appointed to draft resolutions of respect to the memory of our departed Brother Charles H. Prisk, submit the following:

Whereas, Almighty God in His infinite wisdom has seen fit to call to the Grand Parlor on High our esteemed Brother Charles H. Prisk; and

Whereas, Brother Prisk has been a loyal member of our Order for many years, proud of his Parlor, as we have been proud of him, therefore, be it

Resolved, That in the death of Charles H. Prisk this Parlor has lost a faithful member, his family a devoted husband and father, and the community a fine citizen, a leader in his profession; and be it further

Resolved, That the sympathy of the members of Quartz Parlor No. 58 be extended to the bereaved widow and family; that a copy of these resolutions be transmitted to them; a copy sent to The Grizzly Bear Magazine for publication, and that a copy be inscribed upon the minutes of this Parlor.

Respectfully submitted

MARJORIE WELDON.

To the Officers and Members of Desert Gold Parlor No. 350 N.D.G.W.—We, your committee appointed to draft resolutions of respect to the memory of our departed Sister Marjorie Weldon, submit the following:

Whereas, A devoted member of our Order has been called to her Heavenly Home, those of us who were privileged to know and love her realize we have lost a sincere friend.

Resolved, That we extend our heartfelt sympathy to the members of her family; and be it further resolved, that these resolutions be spread upon the minutes of our Parlor, a copy sent to The Grizzly Bear Magazine, and a copy to the family of our late sister.

"All members are earnestly urged to remember The Grizzly Bear Magazine, which is recommended to every Native Daughter as a means of education, instruction and entertainment, most beneficial in its every influence, and worthy of a place in every home."—Past Grand President Bertha A. Briggs, Chairman Grand Parlor N.D.G.W., Publicity Committee.
Sutter Creek—Officers and members of Amapolo No. 80 were pleasantly surprised at a party at the home of Elizabeth Ramazotti, who was assisted by Jane Boltano and Kate Burres, co-hostesses. Charter Member Sadie Gorman, who celebrated her eightieth birthday February 23, was the honor-guest. On the Parlor's behalf she was presented a gift by President Ann Casagrande. Community singing was enjoyed, and Marye Milich gave a reading. At the close of a delightful evening refreshments were served at tables decorated in red, white and blue; at each place was a small United States of America Flag.—M.S.
San Jose—Vendome No. 100 had inspiring Arbor Day exercises March 5, when an olive tree was planted in the Civic Auditorium grounds and a redwood was set out in the parkside at the Southern Pacific station. Ella Graham was the general chairman, and the speakers included Arthur M. Free, Allan P. Lindsay, Clyde Fisher, Michael Antonnaci, Ray Narvaez, Jay McCabe, Miss Tillie Brohaska, President Mrs. Horton Kooser and John McEnery. Mrs. Gertrude Mathers recited "Trees," and the "Four Notes," four talented young men from San Jose High School, sang several selections. The sewing club, under the chairmanship of Mrs. Winifred Laffey, is leading in social events of the Parlor. The district get-together dinner meeting of March 9 was greatly enjoyed by Grand President Orinda Giannini and her official family. Five thousand rosebushes have been donated to the City of San Jose, and the Native Daughters are to assist in planting them.—C.A.G.
Salinas—Conservation Week was fittingly observed by Aleli No. 102 March 14. Following a program presented by Mms. J. T. Riley and Reuben Albright refreshments were served at a table beautifully decorated in an Easter theme. "Secret sisters" were revealed by descriptive poems concealed in colored eggshells. March 28 a dramatized story of "Ramona" was presented in three scenes; following the play there were card games and buffet refreshments. Miss Rose Rhynier was chairman during the year for the "Secret sisters" as well as social chairman for March.
Hollister—Copa de Oro No. 105 February 21 observed its forty-first birthday, paid honor to three charter members, observed Washington's Birthday, Ruby Nyland relating the story of his life, and celebrated the birthdays of members born in January, February and March. March 6 impressive services in memory of Financial Secretary Bertha J. Stephens and Past Grand Ella E. Caminetti were held. Mayme Moran delivered a eulogy. Prior to the meeting Bertha Pettigrew, guest speaker, gave an interesting talk on Finland.
Oakland—Aloha No. 106 had its annual Saint Patrick's Day party, with Gladys Farley as chairman, March 12. Entertainment was provided, and refreshments were served. The monthly whist party was held March 5 at the home of Irma Murray. Past presidents of the Parlor had a dinner March 19 honoring Emma Lou Henry. Gladys Butzbach was in charge of arrangements. March 26 the Parlor had its annual baby shower for the homeless children.
San Juan Bautista—In joint session here March 1, San Juan Bautista No. 179 and Copa de Oro No. 105, Hollister, were officially visited by Grand President Orinda G. Giannini. Decorations carried out the evening's theme, "South of the Border, Down Mexico Way." At a dinner, the table was centered with a replica of Fremont Peak. Several candidates were initiated. Officers of San Juan Bautista wore blue organdies and Spanish shawls caught at the shoulders with red roses, while those of Copa de Oro appeared in white taffetas with red and yellow corsages and carried American and Bear Flags. Grand President Giannini was decorated with a floral lei of red carnations and golden daffodils, and was the recipient of gifts presented by a group in an original sketch personating General Castro, John Charles Fremont and California. The delightful evening closed with buffet refreshments.

southern California to compete with a contestant from northern California at the Bakersfield N.S.G.W. Grand Parlor in May for the state championship.

"FOUNDER'S NIGHT."

Santa Monica—To promote goodfellowship and co-operation, Santa Monica Bay Parlor No. 267 N.S.G.W. has inaugurated a series of monthly visitations to neighboring Parlors. March 5 a large delegation of members, headed by President Lee Conger, visited Compton No. 273. Glendale No. 264 will be visited during April.

Santa Monica Bay has decided to set aside one meeting night each month to honor a past president. The initial event will be held April 9, when City Commissioner Dike C. Freeman, the Parlor's first president, will be honored. April 23 has been set aside as "Founder's night," in recognition of General A. M. Winn, Founder of the Order. Several candidates, to be known as the "Winn class," will be initiated. April 30 will be a social night for members and their families. Cards will provide entertainment.

Stephen Thomas Garey, a charter member of Santa Monica Bay Parlor and for twenty years identified with the Santa Monica Fire Department, died March 3. His father, William Garey, and his two sons, Stephen T. Garey Jr. and District Deputy Robert W. Garey, are affiliated with the Parlor. His funeral ceremonies were largely attended, and a platoon of uniformed firemen acted as honor guard and pallbearers. Past President D. C. Freeman, city commissioner, officiated at the services, and was assisted by President Lee Conger, First Vice-president Lee Winters and Marshal George Benton. A eulogy was delivered by Past Grand Eldred L. Meyer, who lauded deceased as a faithful Native Son, a good and useful citizen, and one whose attention to duty was paramount.

PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS.

William W. Winn (Sacramento NS) of Oakland was a visitor last month.

Leo V. Youngworth (Ramona NS) was a visitor to New York City last month.

Miss Alnette Mabel Silsbee became the bride of Robert E. Dunn (Ramona NS) March 17.

Mrs. Helen Suggs (Long Beach ND) of Long Beach became the mother of a baby daughter, Helen Pauline, March 6.

United States Attorney Ben Harrison (Arrowhead NS) attended last month a meeting of the Association of United States Attorneys in Washington, D. C.

Robert S. Redington (Ramona NS) is the father of a native son, Donald Scott, and James J. Shorten (Ramona NS) is the father of a native daughter, Carolyn Josephine.

THE DEATH RECORD.

Eugene Leon DuCasse, brother of Grace DuCasse (Los Angeles ND), died March 6.

Fred J. Fischer, affiliated with Ramona Parlor No. 109 N.S.G.W., died March 9, survived by his wife and a daughter. He was born at San Francisco, May 10, 1858.

Andrew J. Glover, affiliated with Presidio Parlor No. 194 N.S.G.W., San Francisco, died March 15 at Alhambra, survived by two children.

Mrs. Ida C. Wright, mother of John P. Wright (Hollywood NS), died March 16. She was a native of San Francisco, aged 70.

SAN PEDRO STEPHEN M. WHITE PARLOR No. 263 N.S.G.W. presented United States of America and California State (Bear) Flags to the Leland Street School Boy Scouts of America March 1. Past Grand President Eldred L. Meyer made the presentation address. Interesting moving pictures were shown by the U. S. Coast Guard.

March 6, H. Neergaard, Ray Cook, Wm. Reuter, Dewey Richards, John Henderson and Paul Newman paid a visit to Long Beach Parlor No. 278. March 9, Stephen M. White Parlor sponsored a dance which was well attended.

Financial Secretary William A. Reuter was given a surprise birthday party March 15. On the Parlor's behalf, he was presented a pen and pencil set by Grand Trustee Walter C. Richards. A birthday cake with two candles, made by Mrs. Reuter and Miss Lola Grien, was cut by "Bill" and distributed to those in attendance.

Mrs. Breta Lisa Mackley, wife of Albert E. Mackley, a member of the Parlor, died February 28. She was a native of Sweden, aged 70 years.

BIRTHDAY OBSERVED.

San Pedro—Rudecinda Parlor No. 230 N.D.G.W. had its first meeting in its new home, Odd Fellows Hall, March 11. A tamale supper preceding the meeting was attended by several Native Sons and their families. Marcella Sandoval, chairman, Catherine Hackett and Lucy Guzman were in charge of the successful affair. A table cover, donated by Lillian Zirkel, was awarded Ann Churchman.

With President Dessie Bujo presiding, Rudecinda had initiation and observed its birthday March 25. Members of the Parlor's civics and history and landmarks committees were guests of Margaret S. Dever at a doll day pageant at Walizer School. The history and landmarks committee, headed by Marcella Sandoval, assisted Mrs. Dexter Monroe at Banning Manor, Wilmington, open house March 5.—K.D.

GRAND PRESIDENT'S PRAISE WARM HEARTS OF MEMBERS.

Daily City Flags and potted ferns made a fitting setting for the official visit to El Carmelo Parlor No. 181 N.D.G.W., March 6, of Grand President Orinda Giannini who, with her rites, dedicated the Parlor's new United States of America and California State (Bear) Flags. The Grand President's inspiring talk impressed her auditors, and her words of praise for the splendid meeting warmed the hearts of the El Carmelo members. Other guests included Grand Secretary Sallie Thaler, Grand Marshal Claire Lindsey, Grand Organist Mae O'Keefe, Grand Trustee Emily Ryan, Past Grands Anne Thuesen, Evelyn Carlson and Mae Noonan, Supervising Deputy Martha Bernasque and Deputy Jessie Honn. Refreshments were served at tables decorated with miniature missions and attractive favors.

"A fine time was had by all," is the best way to describe the dinner and dance sponsored March 16 by El Carmelo Parlor No. 181 and El Carmelo Parlor No. 256 N.S. Corned beef and cabbage commemorated Saint Patrick's Day, and other delectable dishes pleased the palates of the many who enjoyed the affair. The social room was attractively decorated, and dancing followed the feast. Margaret Steele and William Ottobone were co-chairmen of the happy affair.—H.K.

Parlor. The education committee, Mabel Burgert chairman, had charge of the March 27 meeting. A book review was followed by a social time. Hostesses of the occasion were Sophia Sharpe, Pearl Simpson, Anna Simmonds, Marie Snell, Bessie Smither and Emma Robinson. April 10 the twenty-fifth institution anniversary of the Parlor will be celebrated. Past Presidents will be in charge, charter members will be honored guests and several candidates will be initiated.—S.M.

Sacramento—Coloma No. 212 entertained its charter members and past presidents at a Saint Patrick's Day party March 19. Spring blossoms adorned the hall, and the banquet table was appropriately decorated. Arrangements were made by a committee which included President Grace McNeil, chairman, Florence Morris, Mary Donovan, Evelyn Saccani, Alice Boothby, Elizabeth Stone, Etta Jones and Ella McLaughlin.

Bakersfield—The Kern County district meeting, participated in by many members of Miocene No. 228, Taft, El Tejon No. 239, Bakersfield, and Desert Gold No. 250, Mojave, was held here March 15. Supervising Deputy Margaret Carlisle presided, and speakers included Grand Trustees Evalyn G. Towne and Mary E. Noerenberg. A turkey dinner preceded the meeting. L. Ansolabehere, Helen Moore, Virginia Nicolai and M. LaBrier had charge of arrangements.

Palo Alto—Palo Alto No. 229 and El Monte No. 205, Mountain View, met here in joint session for the official visit of Grand President Orinda G. Giannini. The respective presidents, Florence Morton and Myrtle Hobbs, shared honors in presiding and extending greetings. The hall presented a real spring atmosphere. Four candidates were initiated. Grand President Giannini gave an inspiring talk, in the course of which she commended the Parlors for their growth and activities. Delicious refreshments closed a successful evening. Among the many in attendance were Grand Marshal Claire Lindsey, Grand Trustees Emily Ryan and Dora Brayton, Grand Organist Mae O'Keefe, Past Grand Evelyn Carlson, Supervising Deputy Alice Roll and Deputy Genevieve Commerford. Henrietta Marcotte was chairman of the arrangements committee.—H.G.H.

Santa Ana—The Ladies Club of Santa Ana No. 235 met March 7 for the regular potluck luncheon at the home of Olive Witt, who was assisted by Grace Cock as co-hostess. Cards were played during the evening, and plans for future activities, including a bridge party and a trip to some nearby place of interest, were discussed.—G.A.R.C.

Centerville—Detsy Ross No. 238 sponsored an essay contest in the Washington Union High School. The subject was "The California Bear Flag," and three cash awards were offered. First prize went to Miss Barbara Williams. A California State (Bear) Flag was presented the school by the Parlor, which has also given flags to ten grammar schools in Washington Township.—C.A.

Placenta—With Agnes Stiles-Cookson presiding, Grace No. 242 members enjoyed March 7 a program which featured California history. In the City Park at McFarland is a plaque honoring Hiram Stiles, Mrs. Cookson's grandfather, who labored unceasingly to beautify that section of the valley. Her uncle, Harvey Stiles, planted the first palms around the Santa Fe depot at San Diego. March 12 the sewing club of the Parlor met at the home of Kate Hill; an inspection of the begonia gardens was the afternoon social feature. A son, Gerald Pearce, was born to President Christine Dunham March 15.—M.E.

Sebastopol—Sebastopol No. 265 celebrated its second birthday and received an official visit from Grand President Orinda Giannini March 15. Five members attired in old-fashioned print dresses and carrying bouquets of spring flowers escorted Mrs. Giannini to her station of honor. Other honor-guests were Past Grand Emma Foley, Supervising Deputy Alice Munz and Deputy Ester Reinhardt. President Georgetta Cox presented the Parlor's gift to the Grand President, Alzuma Singmaster read a poem, "Our Flag," and Alice Clapp recited Lincoln's Gettysburg address. Preceding the meeting Grand President Giannini was honor-guest at a dinner. The tables were decorated with bridal wreath and pink daisies. Gladys Simoni, general chairman of the evening, was assisted by Anice Badger, Ester Badger and Cora Elvy.—M.R.

Fresno—Wawona No. 271's service club was entertained at the homes of Marie Randrup and Anna Ransom; the club is preparing for a spring bazar. March 15 the Parlor was honored by a visit from Grand Secretary Sallie R. Thaler, who gave a very inspiring talk on the Order's projects. Norma Dupyzk and Margaret Bettencort entertained.—M.C.

"All members are earnestly urged to remember The Grizzly Bear Magazine, which is recommended to every Native Daughter as a means of education, inspiration and entertainment, most beneficial in its every influence, and worthy of a place in every home."—Past Grand President Bertha A. Briggs, Chairman Grand Parlor N.D.G.W. Publicity Committee.

Berkeley—Sequoia No. 272 had a party and initiation March 28. Arrangements were in charge of Edna Williams, Anna Williams, Annie Trimble, Amy Werren, Alma Meyers, Josephine McKinney, Ethel Wahn and Bellah Wakefield. The result of the baby shower was a huge basketful of lovely things. Ethel Wahn has been elected captain of the drill team. Proceeds of a skating party, to be held April 17, will go into the team's uniform fund. Plans are under way for the celebration of Sequoia's first institution anniversary.—B.W.

Stockton—The eighteenth annual session of the General Assembly Past Presidents Association will be held here April 27 in Native Sons Hall. State President Mattie M. Stein will preside, and all members of the Association are invited to attend.—M.S.

"Hell is going to start popping before long in California unless solutions of the relief and migratory labor problems are found," said Carey McWilliams, state commissioner of immigration and housing, at a Washington, D. C., conference.

In response, President John S. Watson of the Associated Farmers of California declared: "His [McWilliams'] statements are the political bellying of a pressure minority group halted in their misuse of taxpayers' money for the perpetuation of their political regime."

Yes sir, Chester H. Rowell, long a supporter of the Japs, now condemns their war in China, and he, too, thinks the Federal Congress should openly authorize an embargo on such war materials as are essential to the prosecution of the war by Japan.

The Japs claim the war is a "holy" one; it is, wholly outrageous, and a disgrace to civilization. The United States should, therefore, cease supplying the Japs with the sinews of war.

The days grow shorter, the nights grow longer,
The headstones thicken along the way;
And life grows sadder, but love grows stronger

The tears come quicker, the laugh comes slower,
The courage is lesser to do and dare;
And the tide of joy in the heart runs lower

vidual waterfowl and birdlife, and rarely does an individual bird branch out to make its new ancestral route on one of the other flyways. Many of us are familiar with the swallow that year after year returns to the old mud nest to raise a new brood, or the pair of robins nesting in the same fence corner year after year.

This phenomena means that in its workings, anyone of our great flyways could be destroyed without materially affecting any of the other flyways. Another interesting fact to me, a new disciple of bird lore, is that the migratory birds of one specie do not have their winter breeding grounds in Canada all at one approximate time, and when migrating land all in one geographical spot to the south. As winter closes in at the far north and as daylight hours become shorter, those birds breeding in this far northern section take flight for the southland, and land not in the far south but in a spot relatively south of the commencement of their journey. As winter continues to close in, with the corresponding decrease in sunlight and food, each group of migratory birds pick up, fly south, overlapping the previous flight in successive stages, the following birds continuing this overlapping process until all have left the north.

With the breakup of winter, the birds start on their return trip north. The first group that had left in winter are the first to return north. In some instances, due to freakish weather, one specie has been known to be migrating in two opposite directions, and actually crossing in mid-air, one group migrating south and one group migrating north. Due to the migratory character of waterfowl, rightly the Federal Government has taken over its control and jurisdiction, under the department of the Bureau of Biological Survey.

Waterfowl and migratory bird life is not a respecter of State or Federal boundaries, as was recognized in the Migratory Bird Treaty Act of 1918, and our agreements with Canada and Mexico. The seasons are opened and closed under Federal authority, and law violators may be prosecuted in our Federal courts. The mere prosecution and opening and closing of hunting seasons by the Federal Government, however will not solve our Migratory Bird Rehabilitation Program. So, to augment the Federal control and jurisdiction of the migratory problem, in 1937 the Pittman-Robinson Act was made the law of our land. Under the act, the rehabilitation of the native habitat of the waterfowl in the United States is going ahead by leaps and bounds. The funds derived from the sale of the Duck Stamps are augmented by a ten per cent excise tax on firearms and ammunition, yielding a sum of approximately three and one half million dollars per year, which funds are used in great part for bringing back through game refuges and preserves, etc., the native habitat of our wild game.

The ten per cent excise tax on firearms and ammunition collected by the Federal Government is returned to the various States on a quota basis, provided that the State Government contributes a sum equal to twenty-five per cent of the Federal money, and also provided that the fish and game license fees collected in the particular State must be used exclusively for game preservation and control. Diversion of fish and game license fee funds means we do not obtain the Federal money. In California the allotment for 1940 will amount to one hundred thousand dollars, which will be augmented by state funds of twenty-five thousand dollars. Mr. Uncle Sam intends to keep his finger on the pulse of the sportsman and give him enough backbone to force his State Legislature and governor to keep the fish and game funds inviolate a forward piece of legislation for the hunter and fisherman. California is assured one hundred thousand dollars of Federal funds and twenty five thousand dollars of State funds for game refuge work and kindred development during 1940.

This plan, therefore, takes care of the problem in California and the United States, but does not meet the problem in Canada. It is unlawful for either State or Federal funds to be expended in Canada, the nesting and breeding grounds of our migratory waterfowl. A survey has shown that seventy per cent of our duck crop is raised in Canada, the breeding grounds of the North American Continent, and it will only be through private initiative and funds that these Canadian nesting grounds may be preserved for the North American Continent.

The Canadian Government has recognized Ducks Unlimited as the agency for duck rehabilitation and conservation, Ducks Unlimited being a national non-profit organization, not limited by State or Federal boundaries. The Canadian Government is giving freely of its swamp and sub-marginal land for the rehabilitation of this great game crop. Funds subscribed to Ducks Unlimited are sent intact to Canada for actual rehabilitation work, the building of dams, predatory control and purchase of private lands and leases. Funds subscribed to Ducks Unlimited expended in Canada will keep the migratory flight on wing on our four great flyways.

The site of Fort Crook, near Fall River Mills Shasta County, is to be marked. General George Crook established a fort there in 1857 to suppress Indian attacks upon early day settlers, and several log buildings were constructed. In 1869 the Fort Crook troops were transferred to Fort Bidwell, Modoc County, and the buildings were moved to Glenburn.

"America! Cavalcade of a Nation," is to be the theme spectacle of the 1940 Golden Gate International Exposition on Treasure Island San Francisco. AMERICAN CITIZENSHIP

BLESSED HERITAGE OF MANY PRIVILEGES

AT THIS TIME OF THE YEAR, WHEN American Citizenship Week is about to be observed, it seems fitting and appropriate that a few comments should be made upon this all-important subject. Those who are living in the present generation are daily having called to their attention the many advantages of American citizenship, and are gradually realizing its many and diversified privileges and benefits.

Every Native Son of the Golden West is proud of the heritage which is his. He glories in recalling the beautiful traditions in the past history of the State of California, and admires the dauntless courage of the Pioneer Men and Women who braved the dangers of a hazardous future and bent their steps westward to make this paradise, California, a reality. It may be truly said that in this State exists a garden spot which we all wish to enjoy, and to hand on to posterity bigger and better than it was given to us by our ancestors.

But the love of a Native Son for his State of California is secondary to his devotion to the Flag of the United States of America and everything it represents. We realize and appreciate the great privileges which are ours by reason of our American citizenship, and the marvelous protection which the Constitution of the United States and the Bill of Rights afford us. In these United States we have a real democratic form of government. Let us briefly reflect, and enumerate some of its salient features.

"The established method of differentiating good from evil is by a comparison of two things and, from the facts presented, determining which of the two has the most desirable qualities. With this thought in mind, let us compare the advantages of American citizenship with the rights afforded citizens of other nations, so that we may fully realize its blessings.

"The first immigration to the United States resulted from the desire of the Pilgrims to exercise their right of religious worship, which was interfered with in the land of their origin. With this purpose in mind, they moved westward to America and, at Plymouth Rock, first set foot on these shores and established the church of their belief. Then came a period of almost a century of the growth and development of the inhabitants of those thirteen States that were to become the founders of the United States of America. Theirs was not an easy task, for not only were they opposed by the British government in their desire for freedom, but they were required to actually fight and win a war for this privilege. The result of their experiences was embodied in the Constitution of the United States which, in its preamble, recites the purposes and objects ought to be accomplished. Whenever we hear any person mentioning the faults of our government, it would be well to remind him that nothing that has ever been conceived on this earth is perfect, and to suggest that he read the Constitution and acquaint himself with the many thoughts and principles enunciated therein.

"As American citizens, we are granted the privilege of freedom of speech, freedom of press and freedom of religious worship. We are the right to freely express ourselves as to any matter, and to have social, fraternal and political gatherings where the general welfare of the people and of the state and the nation may be discussed. We have an unrestricted privilege of worshipping God in such manner as we desire, choosing the church and the denomination of our own selection. We receive through the press the truth of existing conditions not only in our country, but all over the world, without any governmental restriction or censorship. How different are these privileges which are ours from those of other countries, where people are not allowed to talk, or even gather together, and where the press is controlled by the government, and the people are in fact, they are found guilty without any evidence being introduced, and are summarily executed without being afforded the right of appeal or any protection of their personal or property rights.

"Under the American form of government, every citizen is afforded the privileges of universal suffrage and education. Here, a child of the poorest family is afforded the privilege of an education equal to that which could be purchased for the largest amount of money by those who could afford it. Here, the government does not tell the citizen what shall be done, but it derives its powers from, and its policies are dictated by, the will and the desires of those who are governed—the citizens of the United States of America.

The will of the governed is expressed through the ballot, the privilege to vote in this country being one which is unrestricted and in which every voter expresses his or her preference in secrecy and without compulsion. How different this is from other nations where education for future business training is neglected, the sole thought being to develop fit bodies so that they may be used to carry on wars of aggression. How different from those countries where individuals who are suspected of not being in accord with those in power are refused the right to vote, and where, when the citizen is allowed to vote, he is under compulsion and restraint and, in some cases, actually under military guard to coerce and control his vote.

"In America, the rights and the privileges of the citizen are recognized and are paramount. In other countries, the government comes first, and the rights of all citizens are controlled and are subservient to the desires of the person in control of government.

"There are other important privileges of American citizenship which could be enumerated, and every Native Son is proud that all these benefits are his to enjoy, given to him as a heritage with his birth in the State of California.

"Every member of the Order of Native Sons of the Golden West has obligated himself to defend the United States of America in times of peace as well as to serve it in time of war. Every member of our Order is a God-fearing man who believes in the existence of a Supreme Being and who is every day praying in his heart that this country may continue to enjoy peace and security.

"There is at present being waged in other hemispheres a war between great nations. Some of these nations have principles of government which are opposed to the blessings which are ours as American citizens. Those nations have agents and sympathizers who are constantly active in spreading subversive propaganda, in their attempt to undermine our system of American government. It is one of our duties as American citizens to see that their evil influence is of no avail, and that our democratic institutions are maintained for the benefit of ourselves and our progeny.

"There are many orders of a fraternal nature—some founded on worthy principles and for excellent purposes—which incorporate patriotism among their policies. The Order of Native Sons of the Golden West is primarily a patriotic organization, with love for the democratic institutions of the United States foremost among its precepts.

JESSE H. MILLER of San Francisco,

told only those things which the persons in control wish them to know. How different from those countries where the right to religious worship is not only taken from the individual, but he is persecuted and penalized by reason of having a particular religious belief.

"Under the Constitution of the United States, a man's home remains inviolate against unlawful searches and seizures. Here, we are allowed to live in peace and in comfort with our families, and are allowed the right to the benefits and the fruits of our industry and endeavor. How different this is from those other countries where men are the mere tools of the government, are deprived of every right to independent existence and accomplishment, and where their homes are constantly wrecked and ransacked and their possessions seized by the government without any process of law whatever.

"Under the laws of this country, every person is guaranteed a trial by jury in a court of justice where the rights of the people, as well as those of the litigants, are fully protected. How dif-

COLONEL BAKER'S FIELD AND BUENA VISTA COUNTY

Dr. Peter T. Conmy, Grand Historian N.S.G.W.

(WRITTEN ESPECIALLY FOR THE GRIZZLY BEAR MAGAZINE.)

THE SIXTY-THIRD ANNUAL GRAND Parlor of the Order of Native Sons of the Golden West will convene at Bakersfield, Kern County, May 20, 1940. This meeting will mark the second time in the history of the fraternity that a Grand Parlor session has been held in the government seat of Kern County. The first was in 1903, and that Grand Parlor was presided over by the then Grand President, Lewis F. Byington of Niantic Parlor No. 105, San Francisco. The meetingplace of the 1940 Grand Parlor, Bakersfield, Kern County, has had an interesting history. The purpose of this article is to present a resume of its development.

Kern County is named after Lieutenant Edward Kern, who served as topographer in Fremont's forces in 1846. After the Bear Flag revolt at Sonoma, Sutter's Fort was, for all practical purposes, taken over by Fremont, and Lieutenant Kern was left in actual command. The Stars and Stripes was raised over the fort July 11, 1846. It is not definitely known to whom the honor for doing this should be given. There is, however, a possibility that Lieutenant Kern actually performed the ceremony.

What is now Kern County was never settled, to any large extent, by the Spanish. It was, however, the center of a large Indian population; indeed, the largest in the state. The Indians, the Yokuts, lived on the abundant fish that were to be found in the Kern and Kings Rivers and other smaller streams. Settlement of other localities by the White men caused Indians to move into the Kern region between 1840 and 1850. The Red population, however, dwindled considerably after 1870, becoming very small by 1880.

Pedro Fages explored Kern County in 1772 and called the present Grapevine Canyon by the Spanish name Buena Vista. In 1776 Father Garces passed through the area, naming what is now known as the Kern River, the Rio de San Felipe. The year 1806 saw both Father Zalvidea of Santa Barbara and Gabriel Moraga pass through the Kern region. In 1824 fugitive Indians from Santa Barbara Mission fled across the mountains into present Kern County.

Those who were sent to bring them back were impressed with the large Indian population, and there was talk of founding a mission on the San Emigdio Rancho, to be known as Mission San Emigdio. This did not materialize, however. In 1827 the first American passed through the country, in the person of Jedediah Strong Smith. In 1844 John C. Fremont passed through the Buena Vista Basin, also. He wrote the following in his diary April 12th of that year, the day he reached the Rio San Felipe, which he later called the Kern River, the name it still bears:

"Along our road today the country was altogether sandy, and vegetation meager. . . . Toward the close of the afternoon we reached a tolerably large river, which empties into a small lake at the head of the valley; it is about thirty-five yards wide, with a stoney and gravelly bed, and the swiftest stream we have crossed since leaving the bay."

The gold rush which brought so many thousands of souls to the San Francisco Bay, the Sacramento Valley, the upper San Joaquin Valley and the Mother Lode regions, did not cause the Kern County area to grow or to develop in any way. Indeed, when the California Legislature February 18, 1850, divided the state into counties, that section which is now known as Kern County was included in Mariposa County. April 20, 1852, Tulare County was created by legislative enactment, and the present Kern County was taken out of Mariposa and added to the new county.

Gold was discovered along the Kern River in 1853 and 1854, and this led to a rush there in 1855. This naturally brought an increase in population and the Legislature felt that it might be well to organize a new county there. A bill was introduced by Thomas Baker, assemblyman from Tulare County, which called for the establishment of a new county to be known as Kern. The bill passed, but not until it was amended as to the name of the projected county, which was changed from Kern to Buena Vista.

The people of the area were authorized, under the terms of the act, to proceed with the setting up of a county government. But Buena Vista County was destined to exist only on paper. Although the Legislature extended the life of the enabling act for some five years, the people took no steps and the area remained part of Tulare County. In the meantime, prosperous towns were growing up, notably Kernville, Keyesville and Havilah, the last of which took its name from a place mentioned in the Book of Genesis at which gold was discovered.

In the same years that gold was luring White people to what is now Kern County, White men were at work on a constructive project to curb Indian hostility in the neighborhood. In 1852 Lieutenant Edward Beale was appointed Superintendent of Indian Affairs in California and Nevada. He assembled the Kern County tribes at Fort Tejon, which he built for the purpose. In 1862 he purchased 150,000 acres near the fort which he combined into the El Tejon Rancho. In 1863, due to the stress of the Civil War, El Tejon was abandoned.

April 2, 1866, Kern County was formally established by the Legislature, being taken from Tulare County. Havilah, a little mining town in the Sierra Nevada foothills, was made county seat. Later, after the growth of Bakersfield, the county seat was moved there. At the time of the creation of Kern County, however, Bakersfield did not exist. It was then known as Kern Island, a delta formation at the mouth of the Kern River.

In the early sixties Thomas Baker and Harvey Brown purchased the swamp land reclamation franchise for 31,000 acres in this vicinity, including Kern Island. In 1863 Baker arrived there and began the work of reclamation. He was a very kindly man and, like General Sutter of the Sacramento Valley in an earlier day, was most charitable to the settlers. They gave the name, Colonel Baker's Field, to Kern Island, and later this gave way to the combined spelling, Bakersfield, which name became attached to the town which subsequently grew up there. After a number of years the county seat was moved from the out-of-the-way Havilah to the more accessible and centrally located Bakersfield. That was in 1864. Bakersfield dates from 1869.

Thomas Baker was born in 1810 at Zanesville, Ohio, then part of Virginia. He was of revolutionary stock. He became a lawyer, specializing in land law, and was an authority on Blackstone. Baker was first United States Attorney for Iowa Territory, and later lieutenant governor of the same place. He had also studied civil engineering and laid out the plan for the City of Bakersfield. He believed in wide streets, and this is why many of the streets of his city are eighty-two feet across instead of the usual sixty-six feet. Baker died November 24, 1872, of typhoid pneumonia. His motto was, "Time will justify a man who means to do right."

For many years there was great rivalry between Bakersfield and the adjacent City of Kern, but May 17, 1910, they combined, and that part of the present city which was originally Kern is now known as East Bakersfield. In 1900

King Winter's lease has now expired
Upon earth's fair domain,
And Springtime breathes her balmy air
O'er meadow, lea and plain.
The trees, "bright theaters of song," Resound with concerts gay
Where feathered revelers gather round
To usher in the May
That crowns the gardens teeming o'er
With myriad flowers fair
From daffodils to columbines
And roses debonair
While out upon the grassy lea
With beauty manifold
The California poppy spreads
Its oriflamme of gold,
And high upon the mountain side
The winds are playing through
The new tipped pine and balsam boughs
Outlined against the blue
Where pearly cloudships drifting by Their lacy shadows trail
Across the sun-flecked emerald sheen
Of valley, hill and dale.
And everywhere, the peaceful reign
Of Spring's immortal sway
Resplendent gleams in new attire
To crown the Queen of May.

Bakersfield's population was 4,836; in 1911, 12,727; in 1920, 18,727, and in 1930, 26,015—a magnificent growth.

Taft, the other growing city of Kern County, dates from 1907. It got its name in an interesting manner. It was originally known as Moro, but there was objection to this because of a similarly called place in San Luis Obispo County. Then Moron was proposed, but was objectionable because of Moron, Colorado. Finally the name was changed to Taft because at the time the President of the United States was named Taft. Taft is an enterprising center.

Native Sons of the Golden West activity in Bakersfield dates back to October 28, 1884, when Baker Parlor No. 42 was instituted. John A. Steinbach was Grand President at that time and this Parlor was one of the thirty-four new parlors which his administration gave the Order. The leading member of Baker Parlor in its early years of existence would seem to have been John W. Ahern, an attorney by profession and a prominent citizen of Bakersfield. He served as Grand Lecturer during 1889-90 and Grand Orator during 1892-93. After his death the Parlor waned somewhat, and then went into a period of stagnation. It voted to surrender its charter January 27, 1912, after twenty-seven years of existence.

In 1929 Grand Trustee Frank M. Lane of Fresno undertook to organize several new parlors in the San Joaquin Valley, one of which was to be located at Bakersfield. The Board of Grand Officers voted to give the new Parlor the old number, and so June 2, 1929, Bakersfield Parlor No. 42 was instituted by Grand President Charles L. Dodge. The new Parlor has enjoyed an honorable and steady growth. Two of its members have been honored by important Grand Parlor appointments. Mart E. Leonard served on the Board of Appeals 1937-38, by virtue of appointment by Grand President Eldred L. Meyer, and Harold A. Bannister on the Board of Appeals 1938-39 and Transportation and Mileage Committee 1939-40 by appointment from Grand Presidents Joseph J. McShane and Jesse H. Miller, respectively. From Bakersfield the seed of Native Sonism has spread to Taft where, November 27, 1937, Grand President Eldred L. Meyer instituted Taft Parlor No. 276.

"Every Native Son has a true love for the American Flag, and recognizes the same as the most beautiful emblem which has ever been flung to the breeze. It typifies and stands for those things for which every man or woman who cherishes freedom would cheerfully die. It is the symbol of that great privilege which is the heritage of every Native Son of the Golden West—American citizenship. It has been truly said that every member of the Order of Native Sons of the Golden West 'Was born American, live American and thinks American.'"

"The Sixty-third annual session of the Grand Parlor of the Order of Native Sons of the Golden West will be held this year at Bakersfield, Kern County, from May 20th to May 23rd, inclusive. As Grand President, I am looking forward to this session in anticipation of again meeting many friends and to the adoption of such legislation as will enable us to carry on our great patriotic work during the coming year."

SAN FRANCISCO PRESIDIO OF 1792 WAS TINY PLACE

San Franciscans who like to refer to the picturesque 1500-acre Presidio may be interested in knowing that the Presidio of 1792, at the height of the Spanish occupation, was just 330-319 feet. From that tiny compound was exercised all the military authority over what is now western United States. This fact has been brought to light by Professor George W. Hendry, assistant professor of agronomy at the University of California, Berkeley, and Dr. J. N. Bowman, historian, who are surveying central California adobes and building places of the pre-American period.

As far as is known, this tiny presidio was preceded by two even smaller ones, the dimensions of which are unknown. At first wooden buildings were constructed to house the officers, and men, but later these gave way to more substantial structures of adobe, particularly the Commandancia, which still survives and is now being used as the officers' clubhouse.

HOMELESS CHILDREN

A Worthwhile Non-sectarian Endeavor Sponsored and Supported by the Orders of Native Sons and Native Daughters of the Golden West.

THE FIRST DAY OF MARCH 1940 THE commercial banking account of the Native Sons and Native Daughters Central Homeless Children Committee showed a balance of $57.78.

Through applications for exemption of the amusement tax, members of the Central Committee realized many of the Subordinate Parlors had planned benefits for the work, and the Committee, fearing there might be some misunderstanding on the part of the Parlors regarding the fiscal year and the date when the books were to be closed, considered it wise to send a letter to all Parlors telling them of the need of their help and reminding them that April 12, 1940,—extra days of grace added to the thirty-one days in March—the auditor would arrive to check up for the year.

The contributions of four never-failing Native Daughters Parlors reached the office the fifteenth of April, and those of three Native Sons Parlors arrived the eighteenth of April, too late for the report, as the auditor had completed his task. It always hurts not to be able to get these contributions recorded, after the Parlors have made an effort. However, the response on the whole, to the reminder, was immediate and generous. Parlors that had been compelled to postpone entertainments because of rains and floods sent contributions, stating that when the benefits were given the amounts cleared would be sent to the central office at once.

The secretary of Byron Parlor No. 170 N.S.G.W. writes that a dance had been given to help the children just at the time when the "Weather went on a rampage, and the Parlor went $39.00 in the red, but nevertheless the twenty-eight members are still keeping our Parlor's name on the list as donors, and please accept five dollars to prove that we are interested and still in existence." Liberty Parlor No. 19 N.S.G.W. answered: "We still have six members, the only Parlor in the County (Siskiyou). Please find check for ten dollars for the homeless children." The secretary of Santa Lucia Parlor No. 97 N.S.G.W. sent a letter: "Here it is, and enclosed a check for thirty dollars.

According to the secretary: "Due to the tireless efforts of Brothers Lester Dietz and Charles White, Mount Tamalpais Parlor No. 64 N.S.G.W. is pleased to forward a check for the work in the sum of $207.93." The secretary of Bakersfield Parlor No. 42 N.S.G.W. writes: "You will not that the enclosed check for $43.20 exceeds last year's contribution. We have had a pennant march and we find that it brings more money for the homeless children fund." Yosemite Parlor No. 24 N.S.G.W. was late in giving its benefit dance, but sent twenty-five dollars "So as not to show a lapse in our record."

The Central Committee appreciates this interest and willingness on the part of the Parlors to do their best. From March 1, 1940, to April 12, 1940, $8,017.20 was received, making a total for the year of $14,048.32 from the Native Sons and the Native Daughters. The total receipts, including contributions from friends, refunds on board, etc., amounted to $19,668.15. Dividends and interest on savings account amounted to $686.26. It must be remembered, however, that part of the $19,668.15 has been spent. From April to October there is only the balance of the previous year, and a few contributions and refunds from other sources with

SIXTY-THIRD N. S. G. W. GRAND PARLOR

(CLARENCE M. HUNT)

THE SIXTY-THIRD ANNUAL GRAND Parlor of the Order of Native Sons of the Golden West will convene at Bakersfield, Kern County, May 20, 10:30 a.m. Sessions of the Grand Parlor will be held in the auditorium of the Elks Club, 1545 Seventeenth street, Monday, Tuesday and Thursday. Bakersfield entertained the Twenty-sixth Grand Parlor in 1903; the then Grand President, Lewis F. Byington of Niantic Parlor No. 105, San Francisco, presided.

Grand President Jesse H. Miller of California Parlor No. 1, San Francisco, will preside throughout the 1940 Grand Parlor deliberations and, at their conclusion, will automatically be installed as the Junior Past Grand President.

The reports of Grand Parlor officers and committees to the Sixty-third session will deal with the Order's activities during the 1939-1940 Grand Parlor year. The Grizzly Bear has, during the year, given full publicity to the many important events and accomplishments.

Grand Secretary John T. Regan's report will detail the condition of the one hundred and thirty-six Subordinate Parlors as of December 30, 1939. Those with 450 or more members, also their assets—figures, include:

From these figures, it will be noted that South San Francisco Parlor No. 157, San Francisco, continues the largest, numerically, in the Order; that San Jose Parlor No. 22, San Jose, continues the wealthiest, financially, and that Santa Lucia Parlor No. 97, Salinas, continues to have the greatest per capita wealth.

At the close of 1939, the Subordinate Parlors had assets totaling $1,172,365.54—$67.83 per member average; this total included cash assets of $330,544.14—$19.21 per member average. The Parlors' receipts for 1939 totaled $288,425.01—$16.76 per member average; their disbursements totaled $286,071.91—$16.62 per member average. Those Subordinate Parlors which pay benefits relieved 1,262 members to the extent of $81,986.84—$64.97 per beneficiary average.

The delegates from San Diego Parlor No. 108 will present a resolution urging the Bakersfield Grand Parlor "to designate the City of San Diego which to carry on, as few Parlors contribute from April to October.

It might help a bit if a greater number of Parlors thought it practical to consider October as the month in which to give benefits. This, however, is merely a suggestion, and it is left to the discretion of individual Parlors to select the most opportune time in their communities for best results. The members of the Central Committee are quite aware that their interest is your interest, and that all are as one in the needs of the homeless children work. The number of Parlors contributing this year is commendable!

During the year one hundred and ninety-four children were placed for adoption, four were replaced, making a total of one hundred and eighty-nine homes; nine of the placements were second children provided homes. New applications received during the year, 791; total number applications since 1910, 14,431. SINCE 1910, 5,358 HOMELESS CHILDREN HAVE BEEN PERMANENTLY PLACED BY THE ORDERS OF NATIVE SONS AND NATIVE DAUGHTERS OF THE GOLDEN WEST IN 5,392 HOMES!

CALIFORNIA FIFTY YEARS AGO

Thomas W. McAuliffe, Historian Sacramento Parlor N.S.G.W.

(COMPILED EXPRESSLY FOR THE GRIZZLY BEAR MAGAZINE.)

THE MARSHALL MONUMENT AT Coloma, El Dorado County, was unveiled and dedicated May 3, 1890. Commissioner Anthony Caminetti was the master of ceremonies, and presented the monument to Governor Robert Waterman, who accepted it for the State of California. An oration was delivered by State Senator A. F. Jones, and President Powell S. Lawson of the Sacramento Society of California Pioneers, and Miss Fontenrose of the Native Daughters were speakers. Original poems paying tribute to James W. Marshall, the gold discoverer, were read by Mrs. J. L. Reed and C. H. Swift.

May Day and Memorial Day were observed in numerous communities.

Copious showers of rain fell throughout the state May 7.

Placer County Pioneers had a gala reunion at Auburn May 24, many former residents coming from distant points. Judge J. E. Hall delivered an oration, L. P. Sanford spoke for the Pioneers, Albert Hart read a poem, and L. L. Chamberlain spoke for the Native Sons.

A Southern Pacific narrow-gauge passenger train went through an open draw of the Webster Street Bridge in Oakland, May 30, and thirteen people lost their lives by drowning.

Captain Norris "Tip" O'Neill of the Oakland Baseball Club was in the Sacramento Police Court May 12, charged with disturbing the peace at the Sunday baseball game by insulting Umpire Henry Clay Chipman [deceased Past Grand President N.S.G.W.]. Hiram W. Johnson [now United States Senator] was his attorney. After O'Neill made a due apology, the case was dismissed.

The United States of America Flag was raised over the public schoolhouse at Anderson, Shasta County, May 1. It was presented by Principal Berger, and Frank Smith delivered an oration.

The celebrated case of Cota vs. Pietrie and others, involving the ownership of one-half of the 13,000-acre El Monte Rancho, was compromised in Los Angeles May 1.

Druggist C. L. Wagner of the San Francisco County Hospital was relieved of his duties May 1 for aiding wholesalers in supplying inferior drugs.

While returning from a May Day picnic, Frank Wilton and May Douglas were drowned in the Cosumnes River near Hicksville.

The ceremony uniting in marriage John Lightner and Miss Amanda Moore, in progress at Colusa May 1, was stopped by the bride-to-be, who objected to the groom-to-be's clothes.

Martin Ryan, Con Downey and William Cosgrove were drowned May 4 while fishing off Racoon Straits.

Judge E. F. Head of the San Mateo County Superior Court died May 6 at Redwood City. To succeed him, E. F. Fitzpatrick was appointed May 12.

Recorder E. G. Haight of San Diego County died May 6 at San Diego City.

Henry Meckel, one of the owners of the Weaverville Brewery, was drowned in North Fork Creek near Weaverville, Trinity County, May 7.

Near Traver, Tulare County, Mrs. F. A. Bresler May 7 killed her 11-year-old daughter and then chopped herself to pieces with a hatchet. A 9-year-old daughter escaped the woman's wrath by running away.

Convicted in San Francisco May 1 of robbing the stage near Downieville, Sierra County, Frank Williams was sentenced to Folsom State Prison for life.

C. O. Rivers, a Caspar, Mendocino County, blacksmith, committed suicide May 8.

The body of John Trobacco was recovered May 8 from the Utica Mine at Angels Camp, Calaveras County.

A railroad collision in a tunnel near Altamont, Alameda County, May 8 resulted in the death of brakeman Smith.

For murdering the "illegitimate" twins of his daughter, Francis Gonzales was arrested May 6 at San Jacinto, Riverside County.

Wm. C. Norton, former state senator, died May 11 at Auburn, Placer County.

United States District Judge George M. Sabin died at San Francisco May 12.

Chief Engineer Thomas Graham of the steamer Scotia was drowned in San Francisco Bay May 10.

In the May 10 Democratic primaries at Fresno City, Negroes and "Dagoes" were not allowed to vote.

The Wm. Tell Consolidated Gold Mining Co. of Sierra City, Sierra County, was incorporated

May 9 with Casper Joos, Antone Giverta, R. A. Gross, Franz Humbert and Marcus Wise as directors.

E. L. Criswell, who murdered Constable "Doc" Southard, was lynched in the back room of the 76 Saloon, Santa Maria, Santa Barbara County, May 12. Twenty masked men participated in the necktie party.

Pomeroy Fields and William Hollingsworth of Ukiah, Mendocino County, were out hunting May 11. Becoming separated, Hollingsworth mistook Fields for a deer, and shot and killed him.

William F. White, father of the late United States Senator Stephen M. White, died May 13 at Los Angeles. He arrived in the Pajaro Valley, Santa Cruz County, in 1849.

A. A. McIntyre, Oroville, Butte County, mining man, was drowned May 13 in the East Branch of the Feather River.

C. M. Whittaker and G. M. Stubbs were crushed to death at a Monrovia, Los Angeles County, quarry May 14.

In an argument over land lines, Alexander Thompson, Jackson Valley, Amador County, farmer, was shot and killed by his adjoining neighbor, Wm. Spray, May 14.

W. P. Fuller, a California Pioneer of 1849, died May 16 at San Francisco.

Mrs. Louisa Hunze, who arrived at Sutter's Fort in 1845, died at Grass Valley, Nevada County, May 15. She was a native of Germany, aged 85.

John P. Redington, who came to California in 1849, died May 17 at Santa Barbara City. He was a former state senator, and founder of a San Francisco wholesale drug firm.

Registrar L. C. Granger of the United States Land Office at Marysville, died May 20 at Oroville, Butte County.

The body of Charles Kent, a suicide, was found in San Francisco Bay May 21. He represented Nevada County in the State Legislature of 1875.

Mrs. George Harter was thrown from a wagon and killed at Marysville, Yuba County, May 17.

Nine bridges crossing the North Fork of the Feather River were washed away May 20.

Old River overflowed the levee on the west side near Tracy, San Joaquin County, May 20.

Wm. H. Davis of San Francisco was May 23 appointed supervisor of the Federal Government's 1890 census of California.

The Oak Mound schoolhouse at Napa City was totally destroyed by fire May 23.

Miss Mary Ellis was drowned May 25 in a well at Central Hill, near San Andreas, Calaveras County.

E. M. Ashley was burned to death near Guerneville, Sonoma County, May 26.

BAKERSFIELD, "THE FRIENDLY CITY"

(Bakersfield Chamber Commerce.)

THE EARLY HISTORY OF BAKERSFIELD, "The Friendly City," is filled with the romance of the pioneering of the West. The sons and the daughters of old Kentucky, Arkansas and Tennessee Pioneers are believed to have been the first early settlers of the "Valley of Sunshine." They arrived just before, during, and following the "Days of '49," and about a dozen families composed the population of the city in the early '60s.

Colonel Thomas Baker came here in 1862 to take charge of a large reclamation project. Bakersfield was named for him, since he was responsible for laying out the original townsite. At that time the romantic mountain town of Havilah, filled with the lore of the gold seeker, was the county seat. Bakersfield secured the county seat in 1873, and was incorporated in May of the same year. Later it was disincorporated, and again incorporated January 11, 1898.

Considerable energy was given to the town's growth by the establishment of the old overland stage line which crossed over the now famous Ridge Route. General Fremont came through this route from the Tejon country into the valley.

Bakersfield secured its first postoffice in 1868, and its first public school in 1877. It is interesting to know that in 1879 the town boasted two general stores, a telegraph office, a newspaper, a wagon shop, a harness shop, two boarding houses, one saloon, one physician, one attorney, ney, and fifty school pupils. The population was about six hundred.

The discovery and production of oil began in 1898. It was in 1900, however, when the industry began to assume commercial proportions, and from then on Bakersfield began its rapid and substantial growth and development.

Bakersfield, government seat of Kern County, proudly holds its place among the most modern and progressive cities of California. With a population of 60,000 and a back country of inestimable wealth in oil, minerals and diversified agriculture, Bakersfield has become the clearing house and the trading center of the southern San Joaquin Valley.

A city's growth and worth are reflected by its schools. Bakersfield has two Union District high schools and an accredited junior college, fifteen grammar schools, three parochial schools, two business colleges, one law school, two aviation schools, and two schools of music.

Forty-five religious denominations maintain churches, temples or other places of worship. Cultural talents find expression in four academies of drama and the dance, choral groups, symphony orchestra, Bakersfield community players, and many cultural arts societies. Civic and club life is adequately represented in nine service luncheon clubs, five women's clubs, and over one hundred and twenty-five fraternal, patriotic, religious, trade and labor organizations and ladies' auxiliaries, maintaining clubhouses and lodge halls.

Wide paved streets and beautiful homes of pleasing architecture, adorned with a preponderance of trees, shrubs and flowers, give Bakers-

CITY AND COUNTY

A FEW YEARS AGO IT WAS A LONELY bean field—today it is one of America's most beautiful and fastest growing university campuses with a total investment of more than $12,000,000.

That is a thumbnail history of the Los Angeles campus of the University of California, which is rounding out its eleventh year of existence on its present site.

Figures released by George F. Taylor, assistant to the comptroller, indicate that the 366 acres of land which comprise the campus are worth $2,500,000, that the thirteen buildings are worth about $7,000,000, that general improvements on the campus are worth $1,000,000, and that equipment is valued at around $2,000,000.

A full-sized community of more than 8,000 students, U.C.L.A. also has 503 full-time faculty and administrative officers and 381 part-time workers. On the payroll of the Associated Students are 81 full-time employees and 154 part-time workers. The total annual payroll of the U.C.L.A. campus is estimated at $1,750,000.

FLAGS PRESENTED EXPOSITION.

One of the best attended and most enthusiastic sessions of the N.S.G.W. Friday Luncheon Club in a long time was that of April 19, the occasion being the presentation of United States of America and California State (Bear) Flags to be flown over the California Building at the 1940 Golden Gate International Exposition, soon to open on Treasure Island.

County Assessor John R. Quinn of Los Angeles Parlor No. 45, a former national commander of the American Legion, was chairman of the day. For the Native Sons, Mayor Fletcher Bowron of Ramona Parlor No. 109 presented the state emblem, and for the American Legion, Ernest R. Orfila, also a member of Ramona and a past commander of Hollywood Post, presented the national emblem. On behalf of the exposition management, Director Jack James accepted both flags.

Also in attendance were Earl Warren of Piedmont Parlor No. 120, attorney-general of California; Judge Harlan Palmer, publisher Hollywood Citizen-News; Francis H. Gentry of Long Beach Parlor No. 278, mayor of Long Beach; Superior Judge Samuel R. Blake of Hollywood Parlor No. 196; Undersheriff Jewell; Past Grand Presidents Herman C. Lichtenberger and Eldred L. Meyer, and a hundred others. Arrangements for the event were made by Secretary Hervey Lindley Kitchin of the club.

May 3 the Native Sons Friday Luncheon Club will have as an honor-guest Grand President Orinda Giannini of the Native Daughters. Members of both Orders are invited. Sheriff Eugene W. Biscailuz of Santa Monica Bay Parlor No. 267 N.S. will be chairman of the day. The club assembles every Friday, 12:15 noon, room 1126 Rosslyn Hotel, Fifth and Main streets.

TO HONOR MOTHERS AT BREAKFAST.

Los Angeles Parlor No. 124 and Verdugo Parlor No. 240 N.D.G.W. will have a joint meeting May 1 for the official visit of Grand President Orinda G. Giannini. A 6:30 banquet will precede the meeting. Invited guests include all grand officers, Past Grand Presidents Cora B. Sifford and Grace S. Stoerner, Supervising Deputy Olinda Thomas, Deputies Marcella Palethorpe and Evalyn Wilson. A May Day motif will be carried out. The evening's festivities will be held in Masonic Temple, 234 Brand boulevard, Glendale. On this occasion Los Angeles Parlor will have nineteen candidates for initiation.

Sunday, May 19, Los Angeles' members will honor their mothers at a breakfast in Stone Canyon from 10 a.m. to noon. Ann Schiebusch is planning the entertainment, and Edna Holcomb will be in charge of the breakfast. For all members of the Parlor who have completed their homeless children pledges a party will be given at Severance Hall May 22. Admittance will be by completed pledge card. Clara Lindsey and Rose Hughes are the co-chairmen.

Mattie Gara will entertain the sewing club at her Van Nuys home Saturday, May 25. Luncheon will be served from 12 o'clock noon to 2 p.m. "Our babies still need clothing," says Recording Secretary Edna T. Neikirk, "so keep this date open and plan to enjoy a nice luncheon and an afternoon of sewing."

THIRTY-THREE INITIATED.

Some two hundred Native Sons attended the get-together of Parlors in the southern district March 29. Ramona Parlor No. 109 was the host. Dinner was served under the supervision of Captain Ralph Clavelot of that Parlor, and Superior Judge Ruben Schmidt was the toastmaster.

After the feast thirty-three candidates were initiated for the several Parlors in the district, the ritual being exemplified by the following: Grand Secretary John T. Regan, president; Past Grand President Eldred L. Meyer, junior past president; Supervising Deputy Roy Tarleton, senior past president; Grand President Jesse H. Miller, first vice-president; Grand Second Vice-president Edward T. Schnarr, second vice-president; Grand Third Vice-president Lloyd J. Cosgrove, third vice-president; Grand Trustee Walter C. Richards, marshal; Grand Trustee Walter E. Smith, inside sentinel; Grand Organist Roger M. Johnson, pianist.

Under good of the Order, Grand Trustee Smith presided. Grand President Miller spoke of the Order's projects, said he was gratified at the success of the meeting, and declared "We join with those other great organizations which believe the only 'ism' to be practiced is Americanism." On behalf of Piedmont Parlor No. 120, Oakland, the Grand President presented a fifty-year pin to Frank Mathewson. Past Grand President Herman C. Lichtenberger, Deputy Grand President Albert V. Mayrhofer and the other grand officers also addressed the gathering. During an intermission Grand Trustee Mary B. Noerenberg of the N.D.G.W. extended greetings on behalf of that Order and said the Native Daughters desire to co-operate in all worthwhile undertakings.

The following night the visiting grand officers were guests at one of the most successful affairs ever sponsored by the local Native Sons and Native Daughters—a "fiesta" dance attended by 1,500.

TO HAVE JUNIOR AUXILIARY.

Members and guests of Californiana No. 247 N.D.G.W. enjoyed a delightful luncheon at the Parlor's new headquarters in Hollywood Bowl Gardens April 9. Mrs. Beatrice Wahrmond, president, and Mrs. Alphonse B. Fages, program chairman, gave brief messages of welcome. The latter introduced as the speaker of the day Mrs. Leland Atherton Irish, charter member of the Parlor and executive vice-president and secretary of the Southern California Symphony Association, whose topic was "A New Background for Californiana Parlor." Others at the speakers' table were Grand Trustee Mary B. Noerenberg, Miss Marion Bowen, Mrs. Inez Sittin, and Mrs. Helen Woy of Desert Gold Parlor, Mojave. At the Parlor meeting following the luncheon plans for the institution of a junior auxiliary, the first in the southland, were discussed.

The history and landmarks committee, Mrs. Dexter Monroe chairman, had a successful rummage sale, the proceeds from which were used to purchase the plaque placed at La Brea Pits April 28. Misses Lizzie and Nellie Weston opened their spacious home to the Gertrude Sewing Circle April 1, and served a delicious luncheon. Mrs. Margaret Harris, chairman, stated she cannot keep sufficient material on hand. Following the Parlor's April 23 meeting Mrs. George P. Adams and committee served tea.

Californiana will be officially visited by Grand President Orinda Glanini May 7. Reservations for the luncheon in her honor will be taken by Mrs. Harold Palethorpe, CA 8653; one dollar per plate.—O.L.

ANNUAL RABBIT FEAST.

The birthday party given by Los Angeles Parlor No. 45 N.S.G.W. for Past Grand President John T. Newell April 19 was largely attended by oldtimers. The ritual was exemplified by a team of present and past officers. Talks were made by the honored guest, his brother, William D. Newell, his son, William G. Newell, and Past Presidents Herbert J. Holtz, Owen S. Adams, Michael Bottello, Robert L. Jack, Grand Organist Roger Johnson and Grand Trustee Walter E. Smith. A program of music with refreshments, including a large cake inscribed "Happy Birthday, John Newell," followed the meeting.

In honor of its delegates to the Bakersfield Grand Parlor, Los Angeles will have initiation, followed by entertainment, May 17. The Parlor's annual rabbit feast is billed for May 31. All Native Sons are invited. Michael Bottello requests assistance to provide the rabbits. Those who would like to join the hunt are asked to communicate with him at his home, 1152 South Fourth street, Alhambra.—F.F.

STATE FLAG PRESENTED ELKS.

Glendale—Many members and friends of Verdugo Parlor No. 240 N.D.G.W. attended a bridge breakfast April 11 at the home of Doris Michelmore; it was a social and financial success. The sewing club met June 16 at the Altadena home of Mary Miller; a delightful luncheon was enjoyed and considerable work was accomplished.

Grand Vice-president Hazel B. Hansen of Verdugo presented a California State (Bear) Flag to the Glendale Elks Club. The acceptance address was delivered by President Elmer B. Maze of the State Elks Association.

Many members and friends of the Parlor did justice to another delicious ham dinner, served April 24 under the supervision of Margaret Donlan. A movie, "The Trail of the Padres," presented by Mr. Tweedstone, provided entertainment. Evalyn Wilson has the girls of the drill team working, and Grand Parlor surprises are promised.—D.R.

ANNIVERSARY BANQUET.

The anniversary banquet of Hollywood Parlor No. 196 N.S.G.W. at the Hollywood Athletic Club April 17 was well attended, and everyone had a good time as usual. President Arthur E. Green introduced as the toastmaster Police Commissioner Henry G. Bodkin, who had as his special guests several oldtime ball players.

Leo Carrillo, the main speaker, in a serious talk that impressed his hearers expressed great concern about political, economic and spiritual conditions in the nation and the state. Among the many others who spoke briefly were Charlie Keppen, Marco Newmark, District Deputy O. Benton Worley, Gene Murphy, Past Grand President Herman C. Lichtenberger, John Concannon, John O.B. Bodkin, M. U. Rosenthal, Deputy Grand President Hervey L. Kitchin, Willard F. Allen, Raymond Haight, John P. Wright, Alfred Dennis, President William R. Blaha of Ramona and George LaRue. Arrangements for the affair were made by Secretary Wm. Hortenstine.

OPEN MEETING WELL ATTENDED.

Long Beach—Long Beach Parlor No. 154 N.D.G.W. had an open meeting April 18 which was attended by approximately a hundred members.—(More on Page 20) field a comfortable, homelike atmosphere. Seven city parks covering an area of 40.46 acres provide the younger generation with ample playgrounds, swimming pools and recreational facilities. Every convenience of the up-to-the-moment hostelry is offered in Bakersfield's modern hotels catering to the needs and comforts of the tourist and the visitor. Modern and spacious public buildings house the county and the city governments and public libraries. Over fourteen hundred institutions represent the business life of the community.

Bakersfield is located on the main lines of two transcontinental railroads, both maintaining huge shops, ice manufacturing and car-icing facilities employing thousands of men. Motor stage and truck lines radiate in all directions over paved highways, and the Kern County Airport is the terminal for daily airline schedules to and from all points.

Bakersfield is the center of Kern County's mineral, oil, agricultural and scenic wonderland. Pure water, excellent sanitation and drainage, and abundance of sunshine make "The Friendly City" an ideally healthful place in which to live and to enjoy life.

It is but a few hours' drive from Bakersfield into the many delightful camping areas of the mountain districts to the east and north, where the best of hunting and fishing may be enjoyed in season; and but two to three hours' drive over excellent highways to the beaches of the Pacific.

Chairman Landmarks Committee Bakersfield Parlor No. 42 N.S.G.W.

THE FAMOUS DISCOVERY WELL of the Kern River oil fields was dedicated April 7 with appropriate ceremonies conducted by Bakersfield Parlor No. 42 N.S.G.W., El Tejon Parlor No. 239 N.D.G.W., the Kern County Chamber of Commerce and the Kern County Historical Society.

Under a skyline pierced by hundreds of derricks, at the north bank of the historic Rio de San Felipe (Kern River), a good-sized crowd gathered by the two wells that first rose against the horizon back in 1899 and changed the destiny of Bakersfield from a rural cow town community to an oil metropolis.

Oil had been produced as early as 1864 on the West Side, in the Buena Vista Lake area, but refining methods were so crude, oil so heavy, transportation costs to San Francisco so high, that by 1899 the producing wells on the West Side were practically at a standstill.

A substantial reinforced steel and concrete marker had been erected under the direction of Supervisor Ralph Lavin, a member of Bakersfield Parlor N.S.G.W., and R. W. Loudon served as master of ceremonies.

F. F. Latta, president of the Kern County Historical Society and a member of Bakersfield Parlor N.S.G.W., gave the principal address and presented Milton McWhorter, 92 years old, who, with his brother, drilled the first commercial. He told how the power from a threshing machine had been used for the drilling. The well was completed at 260 feet, and for the drilling the McWhorters received $260, the sum including the casing.

Ben H. Laase, an oil gauger since 1916 and in the field since 1902, showed an oldtime account book of an oil company and exhibited one of the original drilling palls used in the hand-dug well of 1899. Frank Wiseman, who helped drill the first well, and Milton McWhorter had the honor of unveiling the historic bronze plaque. The inscription reads:

members. Margaret Lilly was the first president, and the first recording secretary, Evalyn G. Towne, is now a Grand Trustee. The Parlor's membership has increased to ninety. Its present officers are:

Margaret Pinkham, president; Leona Mock, past president; Muriel Reaves, first vice-president; Josephine Thomas, second vice-president; Margaret Johnston, third vice-president; Mildred Maguire, recording secretary; Caroline Kelman, treasurer; Helen Towne, financial secretary; Emma Heilig, marshal; Constance Fellz, inside sentinel; Matie Olin, outside sentinel; Ruth Hodgson, organist; Ada Specht, Annie Reyes, Laveada Huckaby, trustees.

EL TEJON PARLOR No. 239 N.D.G.W. of Bakersfield was instituted June 1926, by Grand President Pearl N. Lamb, with forty-two charter members. Anna M. Rodebaugh was the first president, and Ruby Reynolds the first recording secretary. The Parlor's membership has increased to one hundred and fifty. Its present officers are:

Jennie Brown, president; Winifred Bowen, past president; Maude McKay, first vice-president; Martha LaBrier, second vice-president; Althea Gemmell, third vice-president; Mary Freear, marshal; Ada Bartholomew, inside sentinel; Irene Piper, outside sentinel; Helen Moore, organist; Ella Bozeman, recording secretary; Kate Phillips, financial secretary; Florence Hinderlitter, treasurer; Lucille Ansolobehere, Cleo Freear, Mae Dunham, trustees.

SAN FRANCISCO

THE SAN FRANCISCO N.S.G.W. AND N.D.G.W. Parlor honored Grand Presidents Jesse H. Miller and Orinda G. Giannini at a reception April 13 in the auditorium of Native Sons Building attended by approximately five hundred.

The Native Sons district deputy grand presidents, under the direction of Supervising Deputy A. M. Nishkian, the Native Daughters deputy grand presidents, under the direction of Supervising Deputy Rena Taube, and the N.D.G.W. Extension of the Order Committee, led by Chairman Ruby Bried, acted as an escort of honor to the Grand Presidents.

J. Oscar Crossley of South San Francisco Parlor No. 157, chairman of the Native Sons committee, introduced Chairman Joseph E. Tinney of the N.S.G.W. Extension of the Order Committee, who presented a beautiful desk set to Grand President Miller. Patricia M. Selinger, chairman of the Native Daughters Committee, introduced Chairman Bried of the N.D.G.W. Extension of the Order Committee, who presented a bouquet of roses and a gift to Grand President Giannini, and a bouquet of roses to Mrs. Jesse H. Miller.

Following addresses by Grand Presidents Giannini and Miller, dancing was enjoyed. Other grand officers in attendance included: N.D.G.W.—Grand Secretary Sallie R. Thaler, Grand Treasurer Agnes M. Curry, Grand Marshal Claire Lindsey, Grand Inside Sentinel Doris Treat, Grand Organist Mae Ethel O'Keefe, Grand Trustees Loretta M. Cameron, Emily E. Ryan and Ethel C. Enos. N.S.G.W.—Grand Second Vice-president Edward T. Schnarr, Grand Third Vice-president Lloyd J. Cosgrove, Grand Secretary John T. Regan, Grand Marshal Louis Bosch, Grand Historian Dr. Peter T. Conmy, Grand Trustees Raymond D. Williamson and Richard F. McCarthy.

WORTHY CAUSE NEEDS HELP.

The San Francisco N.S.G.W. and N.D.G.W. Joint Homeless Children Committee is sponsoring a spring whist, to be held at the Palace Hotel, Monday evening, May 6. A large attendance is urged, as funds to carry on the homeless children endeavor are needed.

Speaking of the homeless children charity, Judge George W. Schofield of South San Francisco Parlor No. 157 N.S.G.W. says: "A laudable endeavor that knows no race, religion or creed! The placing of homeless children in childless homes has been carried on by our respective Orders for thirty years. . . . It is a live monument, demonstrating that our fraternities are unselfish and are willing to help others, especially those who are helpless through no fault of their own—the babies. . . . What sweeter charity can any person or organization do than to see that a homeless child gets the same opportunity, treatment and affection as do the babies that have homes and natural parents."

NARCOTICS EVILS EXPOSED.

Members of Pacific Parlor No. 10 N.S.G.W. were treated April 2 to a fearless talk by Judge Twain Michelson on the evils of the narcotic traffic, particularly marihuana, which has a demoralizing effect, and is being dispensed to youths in the form of cigarettes.

The speaker condemned in no uncertain tone the apathy of well-meaning citizens, also the misdirected leniency of some public officials toward culprits brought before the bar for violation of the narcotic laws. "In continuing their efforts to protect the ignorant and to apprehend criminal racketeers," said Judge Michelson, "the Federal and the State Governments are to take very stern measures."

SHOWER OF TOWELS.

The Parlors of San Joaquin and Stanislaus Counties were hostesses at the Sunday breakfast at the Native Daughters Home April 14. Past Grand Carrie Roesch-Durham presided, Grand Marshal Claire Lindsey led in the flag salute and the pledge of allegiance, and prayer was offered by Supervising Deputy Angie Gossett. Clarice Cook was the main speaker, her subject being "Americanism," and Miss Helen Heynemann rendered a piano solo. Speaking for the Home, Past Grand Dr. Mariana Bertola thanked the hostess Parlors for a shower of eighty-two hand towels.

Among others in attendance were Grand President Orinda Giannini, Grand Trustees Emily Ryan and Ethel Enos, Grand Inside Sentinel Doris Treat, Past Grands Mae Wilkin, Mamie Peyton, Mattie Stein and Evelyn Carlson. Twenty Parlors were represented. Floral decorations for the occasion were brought from Stockton by Miss Laura Roesch.—E.G.F.

N.D.G.W.—NEWS PARAGRAPHS.—N.S.G.W.

The San Francisco County N.D.G.W. Civics Committee had a whist April 20. Proceeds will be used to plaque some historic spot yet to be selected. Other social functions will be sponsored to raise funds for dedications. The committee, composed of a representative from each local Parlor, is officered by Mrs. Emily Ryan, chairman, and Miss Ethel Hansen, secretary.—H.B.

The welfare committee of La Estrella Parlor No. 89 N.D.G.W. has been very active. Needy families have been helped, and the Hasseler Health Farm was presented victrolas. Stamps were sold for the San Francisco Guild for Crippled Children, and patients at hospitals for children and the Laguna Honda Home were presented gifts at holiday times.—N.F.

"All members are earnestly urged to remember The Grizzly Bear Magazine, which is recommended to every Native Daughter as a means of education, inspiration and entertainment, most beneficial in its every influence, and worthy of a place in every home."—Past Grand President Bertha A. Briggs, Chairman Grand Parlor N.D.G.W. Publicity Committee.

Mrs. Minnie Forrest Dobbin, for many years recording secretary of Sans Souci Parlor No. 96 N.D.G.W. and a delegate to several Grand Parlors, died April 9, survived by a daughter, Jessie Dobbin-Crowley, a member of Sans Souci. She was born at Sacramento, February 27, 1864. Mrs. Theresa Pearce succeeds deceased as secretary of the Parlor.

Golden Gate Parlor No. 158 N.D.G.W. and Golden Gate Parlor No. 29 N.S.G.W. had a joint dance March 30, and a most enjoyable time was had by the many in attendance. The drill team of No. 158 met April 1, with Helen Heineman and Helen Kelly as co-hostesses.—B.M.N.

Dolores Parlor No. 169 and Golden Gate Parlor No. 158 N.D.G.W. will join forces May 27 for the official visit of Grand President Orinda Giannini. The meeting, to be held in the auditorium of Native Sons Building, will be preceded by a banquet at the Women's City Club. Grand Marshal Claire Lindsey and Past Grand Evelyn Carlson are in charge of arrangements. As this will be the Grand President's last official visit in San Francisco County, a large attendance is anticipated.—B.M.N.

Castro Parlor No. 178 N.D.G.W. had its annual pals night April 3. A very delicious dinner was served by Chairman Alice Lane and committee, and later in the evening pals were revealed. The drill team's April meeting was at the home of President Alice Kearsse, with Chairman Kathleen Bertetta presiding. The team made its first 1940 public appearance at Stockton April 28. May 8, Castro will entertain the mothers of its members. Co-chairmen Eva Kearsse and Geojean Ingham have Admission Day plans for the Parlor well under way.—E.K.

The San Francisco County deputy grand presidents will be the hostesses at the Native Daughters Home breakfast Sunday, May 12. Supervising Deputy Rena Taube is chairman of the arrangements committee.—A.D.

1940, TRAVEL AMERICA YEAR, has gotten off to a good start, and anticipating an unusually heavy travel to the national parks, the National Park Service reports improved and enlarged facilities available to visitors. Two new national parks, Kings Canyon in California and Isle Royale in Michigan, will be open to visitors this year. Both are unusual and interesting wilderness areas.

Cambria, San Luis Obispo County, is to have a flower show May 18 and 19.

A California horned toad derby is to be held May 18 at Coalinga, Fresno County.

GRIZZLY GROWLS

NOTE—Expressions of opinion in these "Growls" are, unless indicated otherwise, those of the Managing Editor.

Clarence M. Hunt

This is the thirty fourth birthday number of The Grizzly Bear Magazine, thirty-three years of continuous publication, thirty-two of them under the present management, having been completed.

The magazine was founded in May 1907 to serve California, and two of the state's outstanding patriotic and civic organizations, the Orders of Native Sons and Native Daughters of the Golden West, its sponsors. The magazine's most noteworthy accomplishment is the publication of valuable and authentic California history material, much of it, in earlier years, having first been made public through The Grizzly Bear.

The going is frequently rough, and discouragements are numerous. But, along the way, there are also compensations—the joy and the satisfaction of at least attempting something worthwhile and, above all, the accumulation of friends, life's greatest asset.

The management sincerely thanks those who, through their advertising and subscription patronage, have made the publication of The Grizzly Bear Magazine possible. May that support be continued, that this ALL California publication may proceed on its course.

Herbert Hoover, ★ ★ ★ President of the United States, suggested at a Stanford University assembly that the migratory labor problem be solved by placing the migrants on small acreages.

Splendid idea! Particularly so, if the State Legislature compels the State Attorney-general to proceed to have escheated to the State, as provided for by law, thousands of California's bers and friends. President Nell Cooke introduced Program Chairman Margaret Burch. She presented P. J. Daniels, who showed an enlightening sound picture entitled "Crystallized Energy." Dorothy Chalker related interesting and amusing incidents associated with her European trip last summer.

Members of Long Beach Parlor No. 278 N.S.G.W. were special guests. Previous to the open meeting Chester French of that Parlor related plans for an Admission Day celebration in Long Beach. The evening concluded with delicious refreshments served by a committee including Minnie Wagner, chairman, Mable Waite, Mabel McLean and Alta Castro.

PUBLIC SPEAKING CONTEST.

The southern counties semi-finals in the public speaking contest for high school students sponsored by the Grand Parlor N.S.G.W. will be held the evening of Monday, May 6, in the Los Angeles Times auditorium, First and Spring streets. Harry C. Davis of Los Angeles Parlor No. 45 will preside.

Among the contestants will be Frank Wolf, Los Angeles High; Gene Robinson, Garfield High; Kathleen Chapman, Bell High; Theta Wood of Wasco, representing Kern County.

The winner will compete with the successful student in the northern counties semi-finals for the state championship at the Bakersfield Grand Parlor.

ELIGIBLES ENTERTAINED.

Canoga Park—Topanga Parlor No. 269 N.D.G.W. entertained prospective members March 22. Grace Kizer was hostess for the evening. Mattie Gara of Los Angeles Parlor gave a very interesting talk on mission restoration, and Pauline Holden contributed to the entertainment. Refreshments were served.—L.J.C.

BIG SHOW AT SANTA MONICA.

Santa Monica—The booster committee of Santa Monica Bay Parlor No. 267 N.S.G.W. will stage a big show May 14 in Native Sons Hall, 1334 1/2 Fifth street. All members of the Order are invited.

May 21 the Parlor will have a social night for members and their friends; cards will provide entertainment. May 28 several candidates will be initiated.

INVITATION ACCEPTED.

At a largely attended special meeting of the Interparlor N.S.G.W. and N.D.G.W. Committee April 23, the invitation of the Long Beach Chamber of Commerce to hold an Admission Day, September 9, celebration in that city was accepted.

The Interparlor is sponsoring a theater party May 25. The arrangements committee includes Frank Ruiz, chairman, Mary McAnany, Beverly Butler, Gertrude Allen and Hervey L. Kitchin.

PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS.

A native daughter arrived at the home of Wm. F. Lewis Jr. (Hollywood NS) April 23.

A native daughter, Linda Ann, arrived at the home of Rollin F. Duni (Ramona NS) April 2. She is a granddaughter of Mrs. (Los Angeles ND) and Mr. (Ramona NS) Louis F. Duni.

Chas. A. Koenig (Past Grand NS), Arthur Belcher (National NS) and Frank M. Buckley (National NS) were visitors last month, making a brief stopover on their way for a vacation in Honolulu, T. H.

SAN PEDRO—NATIONAL FOREIGN Trade Week was observed by the San Pedro Chamber of Commerce at an open meeting May 24 in the San Pedro High School. Following a showing of the new sound film of the Harbor Department there was an address on foreign trade.

In observance of Harbor Day, May 25, an elaborate program was provided by a Chamber of Commerce committee which included Roy Beaton, chairman, Ernest Ehrke, Ben A. Grier, Howard Hartry, T. W. Peters and Joe Raycraft.

CONTEST WINNERS FETED.

San Pedro—The April 5 meeting of Stephen M. White Parlor No. 263 N.S.G.W. was largely attended, the attraction being a turkey dinner provided by the Wilmington members, who lost out in a three-months membership contest with the San Pedro contingent. The score was 5 to 2. Financial Secretary "Bill" Reuter headed the winning team, and Fred Newman captained the losers. The dinner was served by a committee of Native Daughters which included Lucy Ascolesi, Rowena Berenstein and Anna Menveg.

The next event on the Parlor's calendar is a barbecue; Dewey Richards is the chairman. Neighboring Parlors are being visited weekly by many members of Stephen M. White. Treasurer E. E. Baldwin is again able to attend meetings. Bert Mackley and sister are now at home after a serious auto accident. Miss Grace Neergaard, daughter of Trustee Hampton Neergaard, was recently wedded to Robert Clary.

TO MARK HISTORIC SITE.

San Pedro—Rudecinda Parlor No. 230 N.D.G.W. had a card party April 8, with Katherine Mooney in charge. Marcella Sandoval of the history and landmarks committee and Lucy Ascolesi of the civic committee acted as hostesses at Banning Manor, Wilmington.

May 2, Rudecinda and Stephen M. White Parlor N.S.G.W. will place a marker at historic Point Firmin Lighthouse. The presentation address will be delivered by Grand President Orinda Giannini.—K.D.

THE LETTER BOX

Comments on subjects of general interest and importance received from readers of The Grizzly Bear.

HEARTY CONGRATULATIONS.

Editor Grizzly Bear—Please accept my hearty congratulations on the occasion of the thirty-fourth anniversary of The Grizzly Bear. I can hope for no better future for your publication than that it will continue to serve its subscribers as well as it has done in the past. Yours sincerely, ROD MACLEAN, Manager Advertising and Publicity Department California Bank, Los Angeles, California.

TRUE FORM OF THE GAVEL.

Editor Grizzly Bear—The earliest description of a gavel which has been found appears in the "Encyclopedia of Freemasonry," 1874, pages 303-304. Part of this description is: "The true form of the gavel is that of the stonemason's hammer. . . . The gavel thus shaped will give, when looked at in front, the exact representation of the gavel or gable end of a house, whence . . . the name is derived." Most cordially, GERTRUDE A. STEGER, President Shasta Historical Society, Palo Cedro, California.

THE FIRST ALBINO DEER seen in many years in the southern Sierra was recently sighted in a small meadow above Camp Nelson, just east of Porterville, Tulare County, in the Sequoia National Forest, reports the outing bureau of the Automobile Club of Southern California. The unusual creature presented a normal blue-grey appearance about the head and shoulders, but the remainder of the body was a creamy white, with a faint black stripe along the top of the back.

The Calaveras County Fair is billed for Angels Camp May 17-19; the Jumping Frog Jubilee in Frogtown will be a feature.

New California postoffices have been established at Glamis, Imperial County, and Parker Dam, San Bernardino County.

TAFT, KERN COUNTY

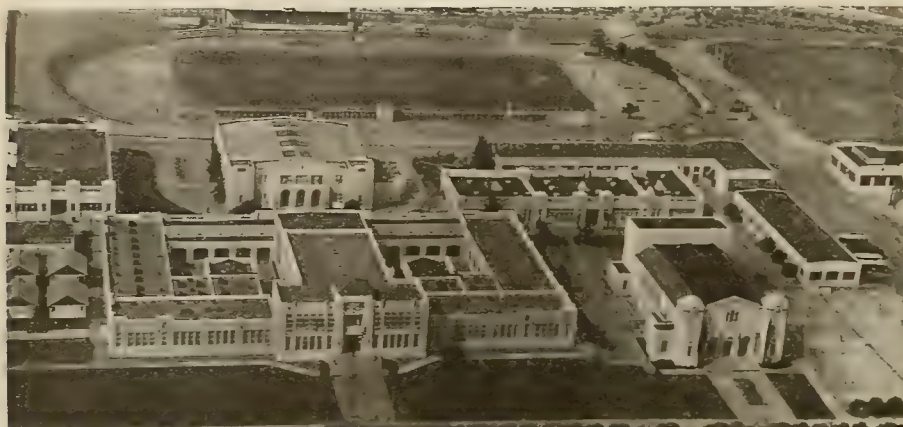

"BIGGEST LITTLE CITY ON EARTH"

NESTLING AMONG THE HILLS IN THE southwest corner of Kern County lies Taft and vicinity, in the heart of the Midway oilfields. Taft, incorporated in 1910, received a charter on the 9th day of November recognizing it as a city. It has, for some time, had celebrations at intervals of five years, and this year marks the thirtieth anniversary of Taft. So, it is planned to have a fine three-day celebration this fall and to invite all oil men and their families to take time out to visit the "Biggest Little City on Earth" at that time.

Taft was virtually a tent city at first—dirt roads, wooden sidewalks and very little water.

are the pride and joy of the citizens, and are at the top of the list as to advantages for the students. It has a wonderful plunge, with hydrotherapy pool in connection for the treatment of paralysis sufferers. There are six elementary schools with an enrollment of 1,556 students, and 102 teachers; high school and junior college enrollments are over 1,500, with 93 teachers. All advantages, including sports, crafts, music and literature, are offered the students.

All fraternal orders and religious faiths are represented in Taft, and their activities make up the life of the community. The city has a branch of the Kern County Library, and all the latest books, as well as the classics, are at the Airplane View of Taft High School.

Now, it boasts of over 3,000 homeowners and a population of about 15,000, including "lease" residents. It has over 1,400 telephones and more than 2,900 electric meters. It boasts, too, of a ninety-nine percent White population. A Negro has never spent the night in Taft.

The altitude of Taft is 950, and it has sunshine almost every day of the year. Its schools residents' disposal. There are about 10,000 books on the shelves, and 5,273 registered borrowers. Approximately three hundred girl scouts and as many boy scouts are also active in Taft. The city has every type of business. Being the business center of a prosperous area, its merchants do a nice business.

Oil is, of course, the principal activity, the average daily production figuring around 50,805 barrels. There are 2,657 producing wells at present. Most of the new work in recent months has been at Coles Levee. Practically two-thirds of all the oil produced in California comes from the Taft district. Residents of the thriving community refer to their homeplace as the "Biggest Little City on Earth."

One of the newest interests of the past year has been the development of the Mount Abel area. It is an ideal location for both summer outings and winter sports. The roads are being improved constantly, and the area is destined to become a notable pleasure resort.

*Mrs. Evalyn G. Towne,
Grand Trustee N.D.G.W., Active in Taft Civic Affairs.*

Taft extends an invitation to everyone to join in its homecoming celebration this fall. Special invitations will be sent former residents, and they will be requested to come back and join in the festivities, which will start November 9 and continue through Armistice Day. Taft hopes to be seeing you at that time!

L. Hampson visited the Parlor officially, and Grand Trustee Evalyn G. Towne, a charter member of Miocene, was also a guest of the evening. Both were escorted to seats of honor. The dinner tables were beautifully decorated with baskets of pastel-colored sweetpeas. Five additional charter members were present. Maudie Wright, Elma Nichols, Grace Forbes, Etta Soto and Minnie B. Heath. Initiation was conferred on a nice class of candidates, with President Margaret Pinkham presiding.

Sunday, May 12, at 9 a.m., Miocene will entertain the mothers of the Parlor at a breakfast. May 11 the members will go to Bakersfield, where they will be co-hostesses with El Tejon Parlor No. 239 at the official visit of Grand President Orinda G. Giannini. April 6 the Parlor had its annual tag day for the benefit of the homeless children, and turned a nice sum over to Miss Mary E. Brusie, secretary of the S.G.W. and N.D.G.W. Central Homeless Children Committee.

Kern County Past Presidents Association No. 10 N.D.G.W. met at the Taft home of Norma Smith April 10, with Elma Nichols as the hostess. A delicious chicken dinner was enjoyed.

most fertile acres now illegally in the possession of Japs and other ineligible-to-citizenship aliens. Get the land from the aliens, and give it to deserving White citizens!

Recess over, the state legislators will go into another huddle at Sacramento this month. The economy bloc that rendered such fine service at the special session of the State Legislature will, it is fervently hoped, continue in the saddle.

May the bloc's numbers increase, and may they not only steadfastly refuse to authorize one additional penny of taxes, but take forcible means to drastically reduce the out-of-all-reason cost of operating the State Government, overloaded, at the behest and for the benefit of politicians, with departments, commissions, superchiefs, underchiefs and whathaveyous, ad infinitum.

President Florence Birmingham of the Massachusetts Womens Political Club, testifying in Washington, D. C., before a congressional group considering unemployment, declared:

"The influx of subsidized wives [married women] into the labor market has pushed their jobless needy sisters out of the picture entirely. . . . Formerly a woman on the road—a female hobo—was front-page news, but now we have in this country at least 100,000 homeless women. . . . The young jobless girls, too eager for life to take suicide as the way out, become the property, body and soul, of the vice lords." A terrible indictment against the practice of employing married women with able-bodied working husbands in business and government—a practice which, for the Nation's good, should be ended.

The State Controller reports the State Government's expenditures for the first nine months of the fiscal year ending June 30, 1940, went up to $148,682,326—$10,598,354 more than in a like period of the previous fiscal year. Although the receipts increased $9,358,478, going up from $124,370,246 to $133,728,724, the outgo for the present fiscal year has so far exceeded the income by approximately $15,000,000.

So, as a result of excessive operating costs, the State Government cash deficiency March 31 reached $67,776,743—$26,470,220 MORE than at the same time last year—and outstanding warrants totaled $89,307,467—$42,964,485 MORE than on March 31, 1938.

How do you like that showing, Propertyowning Citizens? Isn't it about time YOU put a stop to the squandering of YOUR money, or are you willing to have your property confiscated for taxes, that the politicians may continue in control of government?

The "Pork Barrel Polka" lulled to a sound sleep from which there is no awakening—at least until after the November election—the economy bloc of the Federal Congress that made such a heartening start to curb exorbitant spending by the Federal Government.

Hurrah for Amador County! Honestly and efficiently governed, it has no debt and no alphabetical spending agencies, finances its own relief without outside assistance, and from tax revenues is paying for a $200,000 courthouse now under construction.

Says Chairman D. V. Ramazzotti of the Ama-by all, and the members made a layette for a needy baby during the day. Grace Forbes, Grand Trustee Evalyn G. Towne and Georgia Sanders represented Kern County Assembly at the annual meeting of the General Association Past Presidents in Stockton.

PIONEER OIL WELL

"Discovery Well, Kern River Field. Oil was discovered here at 70 feet in 1899 when Tom Means persuaded Roe Elwood and Frank Wiseman to dig for oil, aided by Jonathan, Bert, Jud, Ken Elwood, George Wiseman and John Marlowe. June 1, 1899, 400 feet north, Horace and Milton McWhorter drilled the first commercial well."

Other speakers were George Peters, president Kern County Chamber of Commerce; Mrs. R. C. Brown, president, and Mrs. Ona Moffett, landmarks chairman, El Tejon Parlor N.D.G.W.; Bernard Ely, historian, and Hal Bannister, president, Bakersfield Parlor N.S.G.W., and Dr. P. N. Root, landmarks chairman of the Kern County Historical Society.

dor County Board of Supervisors: "We had some of the alphabetical soup agencies in Amador County up to four years ago, and we learned our lesson; they ran us $60,000 into debt. Then we adopted the old-fashioned American principle of 'pay as you go,' and now we are out of debt." Hear ye, other California counties, and follow the policy adopted by good old Amador!

Taxpayers of California have been, and are being, relieved of millions of dollars by generous-with-other-people's-money boards of supervisors that, in turn, hand the money over to various promoters organized to sow publicity-seed guaranteed to produce a population increase of quantity, NOT quality.

The harvest—a horde of unfortunates and down-and-outers, with the accompanying much-discussed (morally disgusting and easy with the truth) "Grapes of Wrath"—brings forth a statewide howl because taxpayers are forced to dig up additional millions of dollars to support the newcomers.

California's greatest and growing need is a complete readjustment of government setups, from the highest to the lowest. That will only be brought about when those who pay most of the costs of maladministration, the property-owners, organize and wage a determined fight.

During the recess of the State Legislature, committees of that body have investigated the SRA. Their findings, made public, must convince anyone that conditions in that department of the State Government are rotten to a putrefaction degree.

Administration of relief in California should be delegated to the several counties. Sure, that will be disheartening to the political racketeers infesting the state administration, but it will save the near-bankrupt taxpayers millions of dollars.

News from over there proves conclusively that all the warring nations have an abundant crop of prevaricators, sometimes referred to as propagandists. Many of them have drifted over here, where they are aided by their American-bred kind. The Federal Government administration, if it be sincere in its expressed desire to keep this country out of the overseas fracas, will cease dillydallying and put a stop to the trouble-breeders' activities.

"Japanese Demand U. S. Citizens Bow to Sen-ties in Tientsin" headed a recent news item in a daily. As a result of this Nation's folly in permitting the Japs to peacefully invade California, in the not-too-distant future the Japs will make a similar demand on citizens of the Pacific Coast of these United States of America.

SACRAMENTO NATIVES HONOR

GRAND OFFICERS AT BREAKFAST.

Sacramento—Some one hundred and fifty Native Sons and Native Daughters assembled at breakfast April 21 to honor Grand Presidents Orinda G. Giannini and Jesse H. Miller of the Orders of Native Daughters and Native Sons of the Golden West, respectively. The elaborate affair was arranged by the deputy grand presidents of both Orders in Sacramento County, with Supervising Deputies Gertrude R. Keehner and Albert W. Katzenstein as co-chairmen.

The tables were beautifully decorated with flowers. Alleen Thompson was accompanist for the community singing, which was directed by May Lucas, and vocal solos were rendered by Mrs. Keehner and Walter Leitch. Past Grand President Edna B. Briggs gave the invocation.

Master of Ceremonies Katzenstein introduced Grand Presidents Giannini and Miller, who addressed the gathering. The main speaker of the occasion was Superior Judge Malcolm C. Glenn, whose subject was "Americanism." He concluded his remarks with the presentation of a California State (Bear) Flag to the Sacramento Postoffice, for display in the postmaster's office.

MOTHERS TO BE HONORED.

Daly City (San Mateo County)—El Carmelo Parlor No. 181 N.D.G.W. continues its social activities under the direction of General Chairman Margaret Steele. A birthday party for the February, March and April girls, and the officers' whist were the successful April affairs. Mothers of the Parlor members will be honored May 15. This affair is one of the outstanding social events of the year.

After four months of industrious practicing, the green and white banner of El Carmelo's drum corps waved at Stockton, April 28, when the corps participated in a convention there. May 1 the corps will have an indoor picnic, and an evening of fun and frolic is promised.

Native Daughters of the Golden West

ARRANGEMENTS FOR THE FIFTY-fourth annual Grand Parlor of the Order of Native Daughters of the Golden West, which convenes at Oakland, Alameda County, Monday, June 17, are progressing satisfactorily. Grand President Orinda Gunther-Giannini of Orinda Parlor No. 56, San Francisco, will preside at the Grand Parlor sessions, which will continue through Thursday, May 20.

A general committee of representatives from the eighteen Alameda County Subordinate Parlors is arranging an attractive program for the pleasure of the Grand Parlor members and visitors. Officers of the general committee are: Grand Secretary Sallie R. Thaler, chairman; Irma S. Murray, secretary; Gladys I. Farley, treasurer.

The Grand Parlor Drill Teams and Drum Corps Committee, Margaret A. Barrett chairman, extends "an invitation to all Native Daughter drill teams, drum corps, drum and bugle corps, Junior Auxiliaries, and combined Native Daughter and Native Son drill teams or drum corps, to enter competition and drilling at the 1940 Grand Parlor on Sunday, June 16, at 1:30 p.m."

The Grand Parlor Transportation Committee, Past Grand Gladys E. Noce chairman, has arranged for reduced railroad fares to Oakland for the meeting. These "will be available only for members of the Order and dependent members of their families, on presentation . . . of an official identification certificate."

CANDIDATES GRAND PARLOR OFFICES.

While several have announced their candidacies for Grand Parlor offices, the ranks of the contestants for the coveted honors are expected to be considerably enlarged when Subordinate Parlors elect their delegates the first meeting nights in May. The laws of the Order provide that "A delegate to Grand Parlor must be either a present or past officer of the Parlor, and must have attended at least two-thirds of the Parlor's meetings during the year."

It is safe to predict, however, that Grand Vice-president Hazel B. Hansen of Verdugo Parlor No. 240, Glendale, will be elected Grand President without any opposition. For the other elective Grand Parlor offices, the following list of candidates has been compiled from information obtained by The Grizzly Bear from reliable sources:

Grand Vice-president—Grand Marshal Claire Lindsey, Golden Gate Parlor No. 158.

Grand Secretary—Sallie R. Thaler, Aloha Parlor No. 106, incumbent.

Grand Treasurer—Agnes M. Curry, Portola Parlor No. 172, incumbent.

Grand Marshal—Rose Rhyner, Aleli Parlor No. 102; Grand Trustee Mary B. Noerenberg, Californiana Parlor No. 247.

Grand Inside Sentinel—Grand Outside Sentinel Nora H. Gray, Marguerite Parlor No. 12.

Grand Outside Sentinel—Edna L. Kretcher, Chispa Parlor No. 40; Norma Hodson, Phoebe A. Hearst Parlor No. 214; Zoura Tompkins, Petaluma Parlor No. 222.

Grand Trustees (seven to be chosen)—Emily E. Ryan, Las Lomas Parlor No. 72, incumbent; Ruth H. Sesna, Reichling Parlor No. 97, incumbent; Grand Inside Sentinel Doris Treat, San Andreas Parlor No. 113; Loretta M. Cameron, Twin Peaks Parlor No. 185, incumbent; Elvena Woodard, Vallejo Parlor No. 195; Evalyn G. Towne, Miocene Parlor No. 228, incumbent.

The Los Angeles County delegation will present a resolution inviting the Grand Parlor to hold the 1941 meeting in Los Angeles, provided the date of meeting is advanced to June 9.—C.M.H.

Silver Anniversary Observed.

San Diego—San Diego No. 208 celebrated its twenty-fifth institution anniversary April 10. The past presidents were in charge, filling the several stations following the opening ceremonies and exemplification of the ritual. Silvered eucalyptus leaves in abundance were used in the decorations. Honor-guests included supervising Deputy Kate Hill, and Charter Members Irma Heilbron, Alice Damarus, Hattie Zeigler, Sophia Sharpe and Grace Reed. On behalf of the past presidents, nineteen of whom were in attendance, Irma Heilbron presented the United States of America Flags to the Parlor in memory of the late Past Grand Dr. Louise C. Heilbron, charter president of San Diego.

April 13 a silver tea was sponsored by the ways and means committee, with Helen Jourdain as chairman. It was most successful and netted a goodly sum. There was a fashion show, and while playing cards the guests were entertained with a program of music and dancing.—S.M.

Junior Auxiliary Active.

Modesto—Morada No. 199's sale of popple for the benefit of the homeless children was a huge success, and $105.50 was sent the Central Committee. Arbor Day a plaque was placed at the base of the original Modesto ash tree. It was planted about thirty years ago, and more than 13,000 buddings have been sent to all parts of the United States. The Parlor's Junior Auxiliary is very active. A drill team is now forming, and many plans for summer activities have been made.

One hundred and fifty members of the Order were at the April 10 meeting of Morada, where Grand President Orinda Giannini paid her official visit. A program depicting the projects of the Order was presented with appropriate music. White and green decorations gave a serene atmosphere. Six candidates were initiated by candlelight. A delegation from Modesto No. 1 N.S. paid a visit during the evening, and on behalf of that Parlor Herbert Paul presented a bouquet of red roses to Mrs. Giannini. A dinner preceded the meeting. Grand Trustee Ethel Enos was general chairman of the evening, and Ella Spearman was in charge of the social committee.

The public whist party sponsored by Morad and Modesto Parlors April 17 attracted forty five tables of players. Refreshments were served, and dancing was enjoyed until a late hour. Shirley Armstrong, Viola Fox and Doris Nicolaysen were active in making the affair a success.—E.E.

Pilgrimage to Museum Enjoyed.

Santa Ana—Santa Ana No. 235 had a delightful reception for grand officers, new and prospective members at the spacious home of Dess Wagner, which was artistically adorned with gorgeous blossoms. Visiting guests were Grand Trustee Mary Noerenberg, Grace Norton, Beatrice Wahrmond, Ruth DeYoung and Clara Hunt. Mrs. Noerenberg spoke on the significance of the Order, and Miss Norton gave a talk on the homeless children project. Entertainment included dance and piano numbers by Barbara and Glenn Greder, children of Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Greder.

Members of the Parlor enjoyed the first of series of visits to Orange County points of interest—Bowers Museum in Santa Ana. Curator Coulter gave the histories of the exhibits. From the museum, the party went to the home of Caroline Opp, where they were guests at a silver tea. Chairman Mildred Wheeler announced the proceeds of the occasion would go into the Parlor's history and landmarks fund.

At the April 8 meeting, Santa Ana honored the birthdays of Dess Wagner, Marguerite Sevidge and Marguerite Mize. Each received cake from the president and a gift from her "secret sister." Stella Gates, Alice Rogers and Anna Head were in charge of arrangements. Deputy Ruth Roberds and Eva Beemis of San Substantial Checks for Worthy Projects.

Coalinga. Grand President Orinda Giannini officially visited Coalinga No. 270 and Las Flores
No. 262 in joint session here April 4. At a banquet preceding the meeting the favors were tiny golden bears, labeled "Coalinga & Avenal;" the centerpiece of the speakers' table was a covered wagon filled with wild flowers. Presidents O'Connor and Grinnell presided at the meeting, and five candidates were initiated, three for Coalinga and two for Las Flores.

In the course of an instructive talk, Mrs.
Giannini complimented both Parlors, and referred to the restoration of Soledad Mission.
Checks of substantial sums for mission restoration and homeless children work were handed her. Among other visitors were Grand Trustee
Evalyn Towne, Supervising Deputy Elenor Mills,
Deputies Edith Bartholomew and Ethel Koepf.
Gladys Wright and Mary Markham had charge of the banquet. The following morning the visiting grand officers were breakfast guests of Recording Secretary Hattie Dunn of Coalinga.

Merced—Veritas No. 75 enjoyed an official visit from Grand President Orinda Giannini April 2. A dinner preceded the meeting, at which five candidates were initiated. The hall was beautifully decorated with lovely seasonal flowers. Mrs. Giannini, in the course of an address, stressed those things dear to the hearts of Native Daughters. On the Parlor's behalf she was presented a gift by Deputy Mamie Adams. Grand Trustee Ethel Enos was also a visitor.—F.B.

Sutter Creek—Amapola No. 80 was officially visited by Grand President Orinda Giannini April 11. Yellow and white predominated in the decorations. Five candidates were initiated. Mrs.
Giannini spoke on the Order's projects, and complimented the Parlor's officers on their splendid work. On Amapola's behalf, she was presented a silver gift by President Ann Casagrande. Among

Native Sons of the Golden West

PESCADERO (SAN MATEO COUNTY)—At a conference February 13, President Tillman B. Grigsby, Manuel Bennett, William Rose, F. G. Williamson and Secretary M. R. Mattei of Pebble Beach No. 230 decided the membership of the Parlor must be increased. So, they went to work and, as a result of their determined efforts, Pebble Beach's membership was increased 200 percent March 27 by the initiation of thirty-two candidates. Lester Montevaldo, one of the initiates, assisted in rounding up eligibles. At the initiatory meeting, Seaside No. 95, Halfmoon Bay, also had a candidate.

The ritual was impressively exemplified by a corps of officers from Redwood No. 66, Redwood City, that included Irvin Blomquist, president; E. P. Locatelli, senior past president; Frank Warren, junior past president; Jack Moore, first vice-president; Robt. Moore, second vice-president; Lew Franklin, third vice-president; Wm. Byrd, marshal; Floyd Smith, inside sentinel; Martin Flynn, outside sentinel.

Grand President Jesse H. Miller congratulated the older members of Pebble Beach on their accomplishment, and extended a grand welcome to the initiates. Grand Trustee Wayne R. Millington said he was glad he could report to the Bakersfield Grand Parlor that all the San Mateo County Parlors have gained in membership. District Deputy M. R. Mattei thanked the visitors, numbering around 150, for their attendance. During a recess ten members of Ano Nuevo No. 180 N.D. were admitted and, on behalf of that Parlor, President Harriet Williamson extended greetings and presented a basket of beautiful flowers. President Grigsby responded for Pebble Beach.

Prior to the meeting the drum corps of El Carmelo No. 256, Colma, escorted large delegations from all the San Mateo County Parlors in a parade through Pescadero. At the meeting's conclusion the corps led the crowd to the banquet hall, where a feast of chicken, barbecued by Deputy Sheriff Leland Quinlan of Redwood, was enjoyed. The glorious occasion concluded at 2 a.m.

Memorial Day Must Be Observed.

The Grand Parlor Printing and Supplies Committee—Harry Romick, chairman, Charles T. O'Kane and Frank Roemer—has communicated with the Subordinate Parlors, calling attention to the Grand Parlor Constitution, which provides that it SHALL BE MANDATORY upon the Parlors to observe Memorial Day, May 30, in either of the following ways:

(1) By holding appropriate exercises on Memorial Day or on a day in close proximity thereto. (2) By decorating the graves of departed members by placing thereon small United States of America and California State (Bear) Flags. Orders for flags should be placed with the Grand Secretary not later than May 10.

Red Cross Chapter was actively engaged in administering to the wants of the needy, numbering between 200 and 300. Members of Colusa No. 69 active in Red Cross relief work are Dr. Addison Jacobson, Colusa Chapter chairman; A. B. Davison, disaster and relief chairman; Grand Trustee R. G. Power, committee on clothing and in charge of relief station.

The Parlor was entertained April 2 by Morris D. Soares, who showed two reels of flood conditions in the Colusa district, also pictures of the fall Harvest Festival. Refreshments were served. Several members of Colusa visited Argonaut No. 8 at Oroville April 8, on invitation of the latter. Flood conditions were such they had to travel some fifty extra miles to reach that city. Five candidates were initiated by No. 69's ritual team, and a splendid time was had.

Northern Counties Contest Winner.

San Francisco—The northern counties final in the public speaking contest sponsored by the Grand Parlor was held April 5 in the rooms of the Grizzly Bear Club, Native Sons Building. Miss Diane Hampton of Polytechnic High School, San Francisco, was selected as the winner. Her subject was "General John A. Sutter." Other contestants were from Sonoma, Alameda, Sacramento, Humboldt, Monterey, San Joaquin, Santa Clara, San Mateo, Napa and El Dorado Counties.

All the students prepared interesting data on a chosen subject, and it was difficult for the contest judges—Grand President Jesse H. Miller, and Superior Judges Elmer E. Robinson, Thomas

M. Foley and C. J. Goodell of San Francisco—to select the winner. Miss Hampton will compete with the winner in the southern counties final for state championship at the Bakersfield Grand Parlor in May.

Active in Landmarks Work.

Bakersfield—Bakersfield No. 42 had the best and most enthusiastic meeting in its history April 10; there was standing room only. With President H. A. Bannister presiding, twenty-two candidates were initiated, advancing the membership total to 226. May 15 another large class of candidates will be initiated.

One of the Parlor's chief projects is the marking of historic Kern County sites. It has a very active history and landmarks committee headed by R. W. Loudon, who is chairman of the executive committee of the Colonel Thomas Baker Memorial Committee that plans to erect in front of the Bakersfield City Hall a monument honoring Colonel Thomas Baker, founder of the city.

Membership-Roll Goes Up.

Livermore—As the result of a membership campaign directed by President Roy C. Anderson, Las Positas No. 96 added twenty-six new names to its membership-roll April 11. The officers of Fruitvale No. 252, Oakland, William T. Byrne president, exemplified the ritual in manner that impressed the large assemblage.

Speakers of the evening included Grand Secretary and Vice-president Edward T. Schnarr, District Deputy Ernest Ranft, E. A. Wente, president of 1920 when Las Positas gained 113 percent in membership, Supervising Deputy William H. Dombink, and these initiates: Joseph A. Schenone, deputy district attorney Alameda County; Wm. J. Armstrong, Past Grand Chief Ranger of the Foresters; Frank B. Roberts, Livermore councilman; Guido Granucci. "The Parlor expects to have another large class in the near future," says Recording Secretary John J. Kelly.

N.S.G.W.—NEWS PARAGRAPHS.—N.S.G.W.

Grand Secretary John T. Regan has advised Subordinate Parlors his office will be closed from May 20 to the morning of May 24. The office force will be at Bakersfield, attending to Grand Parlor business there. A Parlor having anything urgent to take up with the Grand Secretary should mail the letter so as to reach his office not later than May 18.

Sacramento—With President Archibald M. Douglall presiding, Sacramento No. 3 initiated five candidates April 18. Refreshments and social session followed the ceremonies.

Placerville—Placerville No. 9 received a return fraternal visit from a delegation of Quar No. 58, Grass Valley, members headed by Ebe K. Smart. A dinner was served, and there were many enthusiastic talks. George Hofmeister, Placerville's sole surviving charter member, was among the many who enjoyed the occasion.

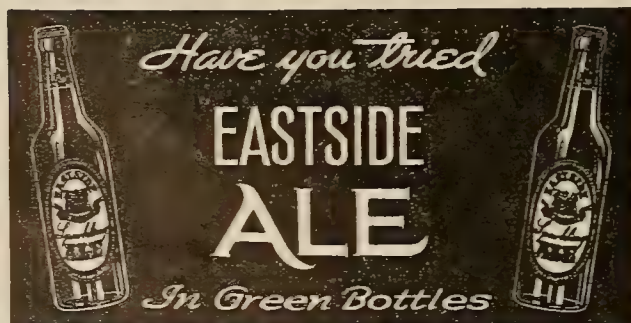

Merced—At a largely attended meeting April 5, twelve candidates were initiated for Yosemite No. 24 and three for Los Banos No. 206. The ritual was exemplified by a team from South San Francisco No. 157, San Francisco, which included: Daniel J. Collins, president; James J. Brady, senior past president; Clarence Grae junior past president; J. Oscar Crossley, first vice-president; John M. Reid, second vice-president; Lloyd J. Doering, third vice-president; John Skillicorn, marshal; Harold J. Regan, inside sentinel; Lionel Smith, organist.

San Jose—San Jose No. 22 presented a fifty year emblem and life membership certificate. John S. Williams March 27. The presentation address was made by William L. Biebrach. Many oldtimers were among the large assemblage.

Saint Helena—Walter Metzner, long active in the affairs of Saint Helena No. 53, was re-elected mayor of this city April 16.

Sacramento—Mrs. Ethel Trainor-West, wife of Judge Percy G. West of Sunset No. 26, active in Native Sons affairs, died March 29. She was a native of Dixon, Solano County. A survivor, Robert G. West, is a recent graduate of the United States Military Academy.

Oakland—Charles Edward Snook, charter member Oakland No. 50, died March 29, survived by a wife and three children. He was born at San Francisco, February 19, 1863. He represented the Parlor at various times in the Grand Parlor, and as a district deputy president at the institution of Piedmont No. 120, Oakland March 10, 1888. Deceased had served Alameda

"IT'S MAY DAY IN LOS BANOS"

Los Banos (Merced County). For the second time, this great water hole capital, Los Banos, a three-day festival May 4, 5 and 6 under the auspices of Los Banos Parlor No. 206 N.S.G.W. will pay homage to those oddities whose vision brought a transformation of land and acres to a garden of plenty. It was in 1878 that Henry Miller who, from a penniless German immigrant butcher boy became America's number one land baron, first turned water into the San Joaquin canals to save the settlers from a drought and then celebrated the event with a free barbecue outing that became one of America's finest traditions.

From every section of California, Native Son and Native Daughters will trek to Los Banos to join in turning back the hands of time in a historical celebration labeled "Forward With Forty."

Sunday, May 5, will be the big day of the festivities. The main feature will be a fifteen-division historical parade, marshaled by Frank J. Arburua. Entitled "A Pageant of Yesterday and Tomorrow," it will be a spectacular showing of Western color, life, romance and beauty. After the parade there will be a program, with Judge D. Oliver Germino as master of ceremonies. Superior Judge James Garibaldi will be chairman of the day, and the main speaker will be Jesse H. Miller, Grand President N.S.G.W. A barbecue will follow at noon, and in the afternoon there will be an amateur horse show and rodeo, with actual ranch hands participating.

Other attractions for "It's May Day in Los Banos" are: May 3, torchlight horrors parade, and queen coronation; May 4, children's day, with kiddies' parade of juvenile features. Clyde D. Jones is general chairman of the fiesta. Others active in making arrangements are Joseph A. Enos, J. L. Toscano, Robert Puccinelli, Laurette Stockton, June Erreca, Mayor C. S. Taylor, Mike Dambrosio, Sam Spina, Guy Helmick, Joseph Spina, Julian Macht, Mae Franchi, Louis La Rossa and Elge Mastrangelo.

County as justice of the peace, district attorney and public administrator.

Grass Valley Quartz No. 58 had its largest meeting in years on the occasion of the annual roundup. More than two-thirds of its membership responded in person or by correspondence. Large delegations of visitors were on hand from Placerville, Georgetown, Colusa, Downieville and Nevada City. A musical program featured the "haywire" symphony orchestra of Manzanita No. 29 N.D., and among the speakers were Grand First Vice-president Henry S. Lyon, Grand Trustee R. G. Power and Eben K. Smart. A delicious feast, with baked ham as the main course, concluded the outstanding occasion.

Auburn—George W. Hamilton, charter member Auburn No. 59, died April 12, survived by a wife and a son. A son of the late General Jo Hamilton, twice attorney-general of California, he was born at Auburn July 27, 1865. He had served Placer County as district attorney, and at one time represented the county in the State Assembly.

Redwood City—Redwood No. 66 had initiation April 25 in honor of the Founder of the Order, General A. M. Winn. May 9 the Parlor, jointly with Bonita No. 10 N.D., will observe Mothers Day. Lew Franklin is in charge of arrangements.

Ferndale—Ferndale No. 93 has concluded a pedro tournament in which D. R. Flowers held high score. Suits have been ordered for a team which is being entered in the local softball league. J. W. Trigg is manager of the team.

San Diego—San Diego No. 108 is arranging for the celebration of Admission Day, September 9. The outstanding feature will be a military and historical parade. The southern Parlor will be invited to participate. Deputy Grand President Albert V. Mayrhofer heads the arrangements committee.

Oakland—The drum and bugle corps of Piedmont No. 120 sponsored a successful dinner-dance April 13. The arrangements committee included James G. Dignan, chairman, Arnold Halstead, Al Higuera, Cyril Davis, Frank Medeiros, Ray Butler, Joe Miraglia and Al DeMartini.

Oakland—Fruitvale No. 252 paid tribute to General A. M. Winn, Founder of the Order, and had a party for the basketball team April 26. The drum corps will parade at Los Banos May 5, and the Parlor will stage its annual "athletic nite" May 17.

Sutter City—Sutter No. 261 entertained twenty-three athletes of the Sutter Union High School at a turkey dinner.

SANTA BARBARA

SANTA BARBARA—SANTA BARBARA Parlor No. 116 N.S.G.W. carries through a pleasing ceremony in connection with each year's Grand Parlor. The week before the meeting the delegates are honored with a dinner and entertainment. When they return from Grand Parlor they become hosts to the less-fortunate members. Another "feed" is spread, and reports are made by the delegates.

Prior to the Bakersfield Grand Parlor, the Santa Barbara delegates, President Wilford H. Rutherford, captain of the California Highway Patrol, County Tax Collector Harry C. Sweetser and A. G. "Gus" Dinsmore were feted. Four lovely hobby-horse riders presented a program arranged by Deputy Fire Chief I. A. Bonelli and Frank McDermott. After the professionals had performed, a group of Native Sons illustrated, unwittingly, how difficult the wooden horses are to handle on a polished floor. Such expert horsemen as District Attorney Percy Hecken-dorf, Frank Huffman, James Nicklin and A. J. Janssens showed how not to ride indoors.

SOCIAL ACTIVITIES NECESSARY.

Reina del Mar Parlor No. 126 N.D.G.W. stressed through May the necessity of developing the social program, if an organization is to succeed. Mrs. Amelia Acres, member of the Grand Parlor Civics Committee, addressed herself particularly to new members in discussing the possible social activities of the Parlor. First, she defined "social," then warned the membership that the social side of activities must always be held subordinate to carrying out the principles and the projects that make the Order a community asset.

The May 16 social evening of the Parlor was planned by the trustees, under Mrs. John D. Ross, supervising district deputy. Mrs. Julia Moses was chairman of the occasion, with Mrs. Mabel Erwin and Mrs. Teresa Janssens assisting. The Parlor voted to participate in the Independence Day parade by entering a float. This parade is part of Santa Barbara's annual Semana Nautica (Marine Week) celebration, when tens of thousands of visitors come to the Channel City. The Daughters' float will be a floral Great Seal of the State of California, with the idea of reflecting loyalty to the Nation in time when peril from overseas threatens. Mrs. William Wagener, the Parlor president, represented Reina del Mar in Santa Barbara County's participation in the reopening of the Golden Gate International Exposition at San Francisco.

SAN BERNARDINO THE "GATEWAY COUNTY"

San Bernardino—Arrowhead Assembly No. 14 Past Presidents Association N.S.G.W. will meet June 6 at the home of Governor General Walter E. Hiskey, 1501 South Maclay street, Santa Ana. Officers will be nominated and elected. Preceding the meeting a 7 o'clock dinner will be served.

ANNIVERSARY OBSERVED.

San Bernardino—Lugonia Parlor No. 241 N.D.G.W. celebrated its thirteenth institution anniversary and honored the mothers of the members May 14. A potluck supper was the highlight of the evening. The tables were decorated with colonial bouquets, and the place favors were bouquets made of gumdrops.—M.B.

ALL-STATES PICNIC HOSTESS.

Ontario—Ontario Parlor No. 251 N.D.G.W. will be hostess at the June 1 all-states picnic, where the longest table in the world stretches up the center of beautiful Euclid avenue. Attendants from the various states are grouped together. May 22 the sewing group of the Parlor met at the home of Maude VanFleet and spent an enjoyable afternoon.

"DON'T BE A TUMBLEWEED!—Action is the word. Don't rest in the fence corner like a tumbleweed waiting for a helping breeze to take it across the field. Keep striving, keep dreaming, for we have seen dreams made true through vigorous efforts. Keep moving; even the farmer's plow will rust when idle. Life affords no greater pleasure than that of striving to surmount difficulties. The busy man is the happy man."—Placer Herald.

Livermore, Alameda County, is to stage its noted annual rodeo June 8 and 9.

Fathers Day will be observed throughout the nation June 9.

DUTY OF NATIVE DAUGHTERS ORDER

IS TO LEAD THE WAY FOR THE WOMEN OF CALIFORNIA

Orinda G. Giannini

(GRAND PRESIDENT NATIVE DAUGHTERS GOLDEN WEST.)

THE YEAR 1939-1940 FOR THE ORDER of Native Daughters of the Golden West is rapidly drawing to a close, and shortly we will assemble for another four-day Grand Parlor session, to review the accomplishments of the last year, and to unite again in our endeavors to legislate for the good of our Order, our State and our Nation. Through the courtesy of the Parlor of Alameda County, we are invited to convene in the beautiful 'City of Oaks,' in the third largest city of California, the metropolis of Oakland. Here we will receive a warm and cordial welcome, and the fine hospitality for which the people are noted. May I, too, extend greetings to the members of this Fifty-fourth Grand Parlor and the many other visitors, and express the hope that, together, we may achieve greater glory for our Order and our State.

"While we look forward to this occasion with great anticipation, and the pleasure of renewing many friendships, we cannot help but recognize that this session brings with it a challenge to each one of us as we accept our appointments as delegates to and members of this body, and face the many issues which shall be presented.

"For generations California has been a lure to the peoples of many lands. We have the reputation of being 'leaders,' particularly in the legislative and the industrial fields. California was the first State to give women equal rights of land ownership and jurisdiction over their children. We led the way in securing equal suffrage. We have many firsts, leading the Nation in gold production, and in the number of interesting and valuable minerals found nowhere else in the world. We have beauty spots unequalled anywhere in the world. In the educational field, in the arts, in literature, in music and in the theatre California holds a unique place. We have an enviable reputation for extending real California hospitality, a tradition we shall maintain throughout the ages. Industrially, we hold eighth position as a manufacturing State of the Union. We rank third in the production of electricity. All these, and more, enhance our position. As the future years unfold, we are certain there will come to our State even greater glories and greater recognition.

"Our gold production is still most important, or today, through the use of modern machinery, California produces more gold than in the boom days of '49. Our great oil production, which has been among the State's leading industries for over twenty years; our agricultural output, which ranks second in production value; our great motion picture and radio plants; our importance in the automobile market and in the field of aircraft manufacture—all these have brought to California further recognition of the State's worth, and importance to the world at large.

"And so, we continue to be the golden Utopia. It is inevitable that we should attract to our shores many peoples, for the magic name 'California' is still the lure of thousands who have met misfortune, not only in these United States, but in other countries. A great burden has been placed upon us. No doubt all are deserving of our help, but can we, as a State, accept the full responsibility? There are situations in our California that demand the careful consideration of all thinking men and women, and especially of organizations such as ours. Endeavoring as we do to carry on the traditions of early California days, and the great precepts established by the Pioneers of our State, we cannot ignore the fact that California faces a condition which threatens to undermine our security and the future of coming generations. It is our duty to be alert to these dangers, to be ever on guard, and to present a united front to overcome the dangers that beset our economic structure. We must not allow a national problem to sway our sympathies, to the eventual detriment of our own State's progress.

"Our very topography which, in the first days of discovery, made our colonization and acquisition as a state a dangerous and long struggle, places us today in an enviable position. We are becoming the center of progress, the hub whence many new enterprises and industries radiate their growth. The environment of the Pioneers of our State, and their isolated position, developed in them great initiative, courage and vision, and a unity of purpose on any and all matters pertaining to the welfare and future of California.

"As the oldest fraternal organization for women in this great Empire of the West, it is our duty to lead the way for the women of California.

If we would have our State progress, if we would maintain the standard we have set for ourselves in our service to California, if we would continue to be the outstanding women's fraternal group in our State, we must stay united in thought and action. Only by maintaining our position as 'leaders,' can we hope to achieve our goal. In unity there is strength.

"As the oldest patriotic women's organization in California, we have served the cause of Americanism for many years. We were the first group to adopt the American Flag as part of our ritual and formal decoration. In 1896 Dr. Mariana Bertola, as Grand President, introduced the Stars and Stripes as part of our regalia, and we have ever since continued in our patriotic endeavors. By the exercise of our franchise and an acknowledgment of our responsibilities as American citizens, we endeavor to uphold the true spirit of democracy. Ours is the only great democracy in the world today, and only by emulating the examples of loyalty and tolerance set us by the leaders of our Nation in years past, and by self-control in speech, thought and action, can we, in these days fraught with much unrest and danger, hope to maintain peace and the security of our homes.

"Let not our sympathies be swayed by any other nation. Let us think American, act American and be American! It was Daniel Webster, one of our greatest orators and statesmen, who said: 'I was born an American; I live an American; I shall die an American; and I intend to perform the duties incumbent on that character to the end of my career.' Well may we continue to practice that great doctrine, and to inculcate in all with whom we come in contact that same love for our American Flag and respect for the laws and the great institutions of our country.

"One of the greatest honors that can come to any California-born woman is the great privilege which I have enjoyed this year of serving as Grand President of the Order of Native Daughters of the Golden West. In my official travels I have met in every community representative women affiliated with our various groups—women of standing and of understanding. All are interested in our many activities, and their enthusiasm and loyal response to our program proves beyond a doubt the stability and the permanency of our organization. As an organization, we have striven throughout the years of our existence to be the mother of all California women's organizations. We point with pride to our many accomplishments, and we bow with pride to the pioneers of our Order, the permanent members, and the many great leaders who established the policies and standards responsible for our success.

"And we are proud to say we are growing, not only numerically and financially, but in our activities and in the acclaim accorded us as an organization. We are part of the background of California. Let us always remember to be 'first' in our communities. Through civic service, we will continue to receive recognition that is our due. When we, as individuals, serve in a civic capacity, our Order receives the credit for that service, and the position of both our members and our Order is thereby strengthened. And in our united efforts throughout the State, the power and the value of the Native Daughters of the Golden West cannot help but make a lasting impression.

"For over half a century we have been recording the history of our State, marking historic sites and landmarks, and assisting in a program of conservation and preservation, so that the great deeds of our Pioneer Fathers and Mothers shall be permanently recorded. Outstanding in this year's achievements are the placing of a memorial plaque to the memory of John Augustus Sutter at Sutter's Fort during the centennial celebration of the founding of Sacramento, and the marking in Hancock Park, Los Angeles, of the site of the La Brea asphalt pits which contained the largest deposit of bones of prehistoric animals ever discovered anywhere in the world.

"Today, when a great war is raging, the missions of California are outstanding monuments to world peace, for they tell us of the greatest peace conquest in all history. With pride we point to our efforts in their restoration and preservation. Outstanding work has been done by many of our Parlor, especially in southern California. The plea of your Grand President for funds for Mission Nuestra Señora de la Soledad, in Salinas Valley, has met with splendid response, and to date over $400 has been subscribed by the Subordinate Parlors.

"California has always been foremost in the educational field, and as an organization we have long recognized the importance of higher education by maintaining four scholarships, two at Mills College and two at the University of California at Los Angeles and Berkeley. These scholarships are open to Native Daughters. In this highly competitive age, there is a greater need for specialized training, and our contribution affords us much pleasure.

"One of our newer projects, the Junior Auxiliaries for young girls of 12 to 16, has met with enthusiastic response, and has proven the wisdom of the Grand Parlor in this progressive legislation. Three new units have been instituted to date, and we anticipate many more in the very near future. Through the Junior Auxiliaries, we aim to instill in these young girls a greater love for their native State and a keener realization of their responsibilities as future citizens.

"The only project we have for our own members, and one of which we are extremely proud, is our Native Daughters Home, situated at 553 Baker Street, San Francisco. Many years of devoted service on the part of the Home Committee, under the able leadership of our permanent chairman, Dr. Mariana Bertola, has resulted in the erection of this beautiful structure. The building is entirely free from debt, due in great measure to the generosity of our members, and we are now accruing an endowment fund to assist in its future maintenance. Here, in a homelike atmosphere, we provide accommodations for members who might care to reside within its walls. This Home has reflected glory on our Order, not only in California, but throughout the United States.

"Perhaps the most appealing of our many activities is our adoption project, the placing of homeless babes in permanent homes through legal adoption proceedings. To date, over 5,600 children have found homes, scattered from one end of California to the other—to bless, we pray, the thousands of parents who, because of their love for children, have chosen the 'least of these.' We who have personally observed how near Heaven the advent of a chosen child has brought the childless home, need no greater in-

THE ENCINAL DE TEMESCAL THE BEGINNINGS OF OAKLAND

(WRITTEN ESPECIALLY FOR THE GRIZZLY BEAR MAGAZINE.)

THE FIFTY-FOURTH SESSION OF THE Grand Parlor of the Order of Native Daughters of the Golden West will convene in Oakland, Alameda County, June 17, 1940. Oakland is now one of the largest cities of California and, for that matter, of the entire Pacific Coast. Oakland, however, like many other large cities, came from a humble obscurity. It is the purpose of this article to present some of the facts connected with the origin of the present modern city.

Oakland and San Francisco are now intimately connected by the great transbay bridge. For many years thousands of Oakland residents have commuted daily to San Francisco to earn their livelihood. The closeness of the two cities likewise goes back to the beginning; for, it was a soldier of the San Francisco Presidio, Don Luis Peralta who, after serving forty years in the army of Spain, asked for a grant of land and permission to retire from the army. His request was granted August 16, 1820, by Governor Solá, who gave him a vast area in what is now Alameda County. At the time of the grant Don Luis was sixty-two years of age. He was a native of the Mexican frontier, having been born in Sonora in 1758. He died in 1851 at the advanced age of ninety-three years. The area covered in the Peralta grant included all of the present Cities of Oakland, Berkeley, Alameda, Emeryville, Piedmont and Albany.

In 1842 Don Luis Peralta, then in his eighty-fourth year, divided his estate into four equal parts, giving one to each of his four sons. That portion which now includes, or comprises, Oakland was given to Vicente Peralta. The Rancho San Antonio, most of which has grown into the present City of Berkeley, was given to Jose Domingo. The area which today is East Oakland was given to Antonio Maria Peralta. That part of Rancho Peralta which grew into Oakland was known as Encinal de Temescal. It was so called from the large number of oak trees which grew there; for, the Spanish word encinal means grove of oaks. The word temescal is an Indian term for sweathouse, an institution which the aborigines used for medical purposes. It is not clear why the term temescal is used to describe the Encinal that later became Oakland. It is possible that there was an Indian sweathouse within the Encinal. This grove was used chiefly for getting wood for fuel, and was not otherwise under cultivation.

The opening up of California to Americans in 1846 did not immediately affect the Encinal de Temescal. After 1849, however, the goldseekers found their way into the Peralta Rancho, and one by one strangers began to squat upon the sandy soil of the oak tree area. It is believed by some that the city which grew up along Montgomery street in San Francisco after 1845 and which was known as Yerba Buena would probably have been located on the Encinal had it not been for the fact that the place was inaccessible, due to the sandbar which protruded over a mile into the bay and which made approach by water unsatisfactory. This belief is supported by the fact that the Encinal comprised a large flat area well-suited for the building of a city, whereas the leveling of the hills of San Francisco to fill in a large downtown area was in some respects an obstacle. This view, advanced by the historians of Oakland, is, of course, not shared by the historians of San Francisco.

Oakland's first settler was one Moses Chase who, during the winter of 1849-1850, pitched his tent at what is now the foot of Oakland's principal street, Broadway. Others who followed and settled near him in rapid succession were the Patten brothers, Colonel Henry S. Fitch, Colonel Whitney and Messrs. Moon, Carpentier and Adams. The squatting of these men upon part of the Encinal de Temescal Rancho disturbed the owner, Vicente Peralta, and after ordering them to disperse, he was confronted with their declaration that the United States Government and not he owned the land. Peralta then appealed to the courts for a writ of ejectment, which was granted by the County Court, and when the same was served the squatters arranged with Peralta to lease the land. Peralta's title was upheld by both the Supreme Court of California and the Supreme Court of the United States.

More and more people continued to move in. May 1, 1852, the Town of Oakland was incorporated, the articles of incorporation having been written up by Horace W. Carpentier, an attorney. A week after the incorporation of the new town an election for officers was held. The first council consisted of A. W. Burrell, A. J. Moon, Edson Adams, Amadeo Marier and H. W. Carpentier. This body at once started a program of city development. One of its first acts was to grant to H. W. Carpentier the right, or franchise, to construct and operate docks and piers for a period of thirty-seven years. This act brought much controversy, lasting for almost thirty years. It was finally decided by the Supreme Court that the right to control the Oakland Harbor was vested in the City Council and could not by that body be transferred to Carpentier. Another problem which the young city faced was that of ferry transportation to San Francisco. In those days there was no Oakland Mole, as in recent years, to which ferry boats plied, but the boats were forced to go up the estuary, then known as San Antonio Creek. The City Council had various dredgings made so that the waterway would be navigable.

March 25, 1854, the incorporated Town of Oakland came to an end, and the City of Oakland took its place. The first mayor of the newly established municipality was Horace W. Carpentier, who has been mentioned previously. In these years ordinances were passed which provided protection for the numerous shade trees that ornamented the streets, and the people took great pride in the abundance of the same. In 1873 the State Tide Land Commission announced as its policy the selling of tide lands around Merritt, a beautiful body of water in the heart of the city. The City Council immediately protested, and thus succeeded in saving Lake Merritt for the permanent edification of the people of Oakland.

The first public school in Oakland was established in July 1853 at the corner of Fifth and Clay streets. This school had an enrollment of but sixteen pupils. It was the only school in Oakland until 1862. In the same year (1853) Rev. Henry Durant opened the College School at the corner of Fifth and Broadway streets. This school was college preparatory in its curricular offerings. In 1860 the College of California opened its doors. This institution, which occupied a grove on Broadway near Twenty-second street, was the precursor of the University of California. Another preparatory school which flourished in Oakland was that of Isaac H. Brayton; it undertook to prepare young men for entrance to the College of California.

It is not possible in this short account to narrate all of the early history of Oakland. Suffice to say that from the beginning Oakland has been a thriving center. There were many difficulties attendant upon its growth. The City Council gave a number of franchises to private persons and companies for the construction of railways and bridges and the harbor. These entities did not always merit the confidence voted them by the representatives of the public. The result was an unusually large number of lawsuits, made necessary to rectify errors and to interpret the rights, privileges and franchises. However, difficulties were overcome, and Oakland grew into a large and prosperous city. The close of the Civil War found the city, in the main, on a sound basis. Writing in 1868, Cronise said of Oakland:

"Oakland, the most thrifty and important town in Alameda County, contains about 6,000 inhabitants. It is located in what was once a fine grove of 1,500 acres of evergreen oaks—the Encinal de Temescal of the native Californians—directly opposite San Francisco, from which it is distant seven miles. . . . Scarcely any town in the state has made greater progress in the last three years . . . the value of its real estate and the number of its inhabitants having doubled within that time. The excellence of the climate the beauty of the surrounding scenery, and its proximity to San Francisco, have induced many doing business in that city to build their homes in the groves of Oakland, or among the hills around it."

The old adobe sleeps in the sun,
Lulled by the sands at play,
While everywhere, the great, wide space
Mutes her yesterday.

And only a shadow stays
To grin at human pride,
A strange, old ghost—a sentinel
Keeps the key inside.

The old adobe sleeps in the sun
And dreams on a couch of sand,
Eternal hills are watching
And they can understand.

spiration to carry on. This work, shared with our brother organization, the Order of Native Sons of the Golden West, is supported by the contributions of members and Parlors of our Orders and public-spirited citizens.

"Since the last World War, many of our Subordinate Parlors have been actively engaged in providing entertainment and comforts for disabled veterans, both men and women, in California, Arizona and Washington hospitals. This year especially has this activity taken on new significance. Under the guidance of our state committee, we have tried to tell them that 'we have not forgotten.'

"These splendid objectives, and many more,—the activities of our young women in drum and drill teams, dancing and escort groups,—have brought to us splendid publicity. Radio broadcasts have been particularly effective, and every day brings added recognition and appreciation of our value and standing as an organization.

"Our report for this year is progress. This is not due to the efforts of one individual, but to the united efforts of all our membership. May I thank all who have contributed to our success, and wish for all peace and happiness in this great blessing which is ours, membership in the Order of Native Daughters of the Golden West."

"The habits of thinking in a free country should inspire caution in those entrusted with its administration to confine themselves within their respective constitutional spheres, avoiding in the exercise of the powers of one department, to encroach upon another."—George Washington.

WITH GRAND PRESIDENT JESSE H. Miller of California Parlor No. 1 presiding throughout the deliberations, the Sixty-third Grand Parlor of the Order of Native Sons of the Golden West was in session in Elks Temple, Bakersfield, Kern County, May 20, 21 and 23.

The reports of grand officers and committees dealt, mostly, with matters heretofore given full publicity in The Grizzly Bear. Follows a summary of the Bakersfield Grand Parlor proceedings, with no reference, however, to proposed legislation that failed of passage:

CHANGES IN CONSTITUTIONS.

Grand Parlor:

Art. VI, Sec. 1 amended to provide: "and he [the Grand President] may authorize changes in the instructions in the Ritual so as to improve the exemplification thereof."

Art. VI, Sec. 4 amended to read: "He [the Grand Secretary] shall charge against the account of each Subordinate Parlor an amount fixed by the Board of Grand Officers, . . . which shall be paid into the Grand Parlor Insurance Fund. . . . There is hereby created a fund to be known as the Grand Parlor Insurance Fund, which shall be under the jurisdiction of the Board of Grand Officers," etc.

Art. VIII, Sec. 3, Sub. 15B amended to provide: "a Committee on Americanization, of five members."

Subordinate Parlors:

Art. VII, Sec. 5 amended to provide: "A member who has resigned, who has taken a withdrawal card and has allowed the same to lapse, or who has been suspended for non-payment of dues, may be reinstated to membership in the Order by making application to the Parlor to which he formerly belonged, or to any other Parlor, in the same manner as a new member."

Rearrangement of the Order of Business was authorized.

RITUALS AND CEREMONIALS.

Slight changes in the wording of the Initiatory Ritual and in the marshal's floor work were authorized.

A new Grand Officers Installation Ceremony was exemplified and referred to the Board of Grand Officers for final action.

A proposal to make "God Bless America" the official hymn to be used in the closing ceremonies of the Subordinate Parlors" was referred to the Board of Grand Officers for final action.

Ordered, "That the Ritual Committee, together with a committee from the Native Daughters, draw up a standard joint installation ritual, and furthermore that the Board of Grand Officers be empowered to approve and adopt said ritual."

BUSINESS TRANSACTED.

Lake Tahoe, El Dorado County, was selected as the meetingplace of the Sixty-fourth (1941) Grand Parlor.

Oakland was awarded the Admission Day, September 9, celebration for 1941. [At the San Francisco Grand Parlor last year, Sacramento was designated as the place for holding this year's celebration.]

Subordinate Parlors were authorized to present silver pins, of an approved design, to those "who have maintained their membership in our Order for a period of 25 years or more and less than 50 years."

A committee of five, designated the "Grand Parlor Competition Rules Committee for Drum Corps, Drum and Bugle Corps, and Drill Team Competitions, Contests and Parades," was created, and official rules and regulations for the conduct of "competitions and parades sponsored in the name of the N.S.G.W." were approved.

A "questionnaire setting out the details of financial transactions for submission to the Board of Control by the Subordinate Parlors" was approved.

A committee of three was ordered appointed by the Grand President to investigate Grand Parlor mileage expenditures of the past several years and, from the information obtained, "prepare and present to the next Grand Parlor a plan to create a special Grand Parlor Mileage Fund."

A new type of regalia for use in Subordinate Parlors—a metal disk suspended from a cord or ribbon of appropriate color—was approved. "Subordinate Parlors shall comply with the [legislation] within a period of five years," and the Grand Secretary was authorized to provide the new regalia.

The grand officers were "authorized to take all necessary measures to promote the placing of our State Flag on all [state owned or leased] public buildings."

PROCEEDINGS BAKERSFIELD N.S. GRAND PARLOR

(CLARENCE M. HUNT.)

"TROJAN" BOATS RECOGNIZED

THREAT TO NATIONAL SECURITY.

The following resolution was given the unanimous approval of the Grand Parlor:

"Whereas, This Grand Parlor of the Native Sons of the Golden West fully realizes and appreciates the necessity of materially strengthening our national defense without delay; and whereas, the continued operation of the fishing fleet working in our coastal area is a recognized threat to our national security in the event of an emergency; and whereas, the States of Washington and Oregon have enacted legislation to remedy this evil; and whereas, the Legislature of the State of California is now in session, and the Governor of California is about to issue another call for an additional session; and

"Whereas, It is the conviction of this Grand Parlor of the Native Sons of the Golden West now in session at Bakersfield, California, that it is imperative, for the added security of the people of the State of California and the nation as a whole, that the Legislature without delay pass the necessary legislation to eliminate aliens from the operation of the armada of fishing boats now having easy access to our shores and harbors; now therefore be it

"Resolved, That the Grand Secretary of the Native Sons of the Golden West be directed forthwith to dispatch a telegram to the Governor of the State of California requesting that he include in his call to the Legislature a strong recommendation that such legislation be adopted that will without delay eliminate the Trojan boats from our shores, and thus protect our people from the lurking dangers now existing and thus afford the people of California the same protection that the Legislatures of the States of Washington and Oregon have given their citizenry."

The public speaking contest sponsored by the Grand Parlor was ordered continued, the Grand President was authorized to appoint a committee of seven to supervise the same, and $250 was appropriated to support the work.

The Grand President was directed to appoint a committee of three to investigate the Charles F. Lummis Memorial Association project of Los Angeles, and to report to the 1941 Grand Parlor.

To assist the Interparlor N.S.G.W. and N.D.G.W. Committee of Los Angeles County in providing a float for the January 1, 1941, Tournament of Roses parade in Pasadena, $250 was appropriated.

Subordinate Parlors were directed to observe with appropriate ceremonies National Flag Day, June 14, the birthday of the California State (Bear) Flag.

The Grand Parlor was directed "on the third Sunday in May of each year to observe with appropriate ceremonies the 'I Am an American' Day."

A proposal that the Grand Parlor sponsor a statewide campaign to raise money for the acquisition of additional state park land was referred to the Board of Grand Officers, with instructions "to give the matter careful consideration and report to the 1941 Grand Parlor."

The history of the Order from 1890 to 1900, compiled by Grand Historian Dr. Peter T. Conmy, was ordered printed in the 1940 Proceedings.

The grand officers were "empowered to put into effect the aims, objects and purposes" of a resolution designed "to immediately enlist the Native Sons of the Golden West in an active and energetic effort to combat all alien and unpatriotic propaganda, and to subdue all individuals, groups and so-called 'fifth column' organizations [that] are or may be engaged in subversive activities. . . . To defray the expenses of the carrying out of the purposes and objectives of this resolution," the Grand Parlor Organization Fund may be used.

Fines charged against Alameda No. 47, Oakland No. 50, Granite No. 83, Niantic No. 105, Menlo No. 185, Rocklin No. 233, Santa Ana No. 265 and East Los Angeles No. 277 Parlors were ordered remitted.

RESOLUTIONS ADOPTED.

Petitioning "the Golden Gate International Exposition to invite all persons now resident of California who were within the present confines of the state prior to the first day of January 1850 to be the guests of the Exposition on a day specially designated."

Requesting "the Postmaster General of the United States to issue a United States postage stamp depicting the raising of the [California State] Bear Flag."

Urging the State Legislature to enact a law requiring all recipients of public relief "to prove a continuous residence in California of over ten years."

Declaring "that the maintenance and support of those persons without means who have departed from various areas of the United States in search of bountiful relief in California is verily a national obligation," and urging the Federal Congress to pass legislation stipulating "that federal funds be fully supplied therefore to the end that this type of residents be placed outside of any state's responsibility."

Urging the State Legislature "to enact a law requiring residence in this state for five years, as a requisite to appointment to any non-elective office or employment of profit made by authority of this state or any county, city or other political subdivision thereof."

Petitioning the State Legislature "to pass a law making it compulsory for every person fifteen years of age and over, and who has been in California thirty days or more, to be fingerprinted."

Commending the issuance of the "California History Nugget" by the California State Historical Association, a division of the State Department of Education, and urging that the publication be supplied the high schools of the state in addition to the elementary and the junior high schools which now receive it.

Holding "that under the inspiration of our Constitution the citizens of our beloved Republic have enjoyed and do now enjoy rights, privileges, opportunities and benefits unmatched under any other system of government thus far devised by mankind," and expressing opposition to "all men and movements proposing to subvert the foundations of our Government and the institutions of progress it has nurtured."

Urging adequate and modern national defense, and asking the President of the United States, his cabinet, and the members of the Federal Congress to "strive faithfully to keep the United States of America out of any foreign war."

Expressing thanks to those organizations and individuals of Bakersfield and Taft that contributed to the success of the meeting, and to the comfort and the entertainment of the members of the Grand Parlor and accompanying visitors.

GOOD WISHES EXTENDED

NOTED HISTORY PROFESSOR.

The following resolution was adopted by the Grand Parlor without a dissenting vote:

"Whereas, Herbert Eugene Bolton has served as Professor of Pacific Coast History at the University of California since 1910, during which time he has made valuable and extensive contributions to research in the history of California and has published many books on various phases of the subject;

"Whereas, Since the inception of our Native Sons of the Golden West history fellowships Professor Bolton has supervised the work of our fellows, first as professor only and since the death of Morse Stephens as head of the history department of the University, and won the esteem of such outstanding members of early history committees as Coombs, Davis, Hayes, Byington, Knowland, Troy, Jarvis and Cutler, as well as the present California History Board;

"Whereas, The rules of the University of California make it mandatory for Professor Bolton to retire June 30, 1940, he having attained the full-time service age limit for active service, and will, after July 1, 1940, be classified as professor emeritus; now therefore be it

"Resolved, That the Grand Parlor express its appreciation to Professor Bolton; that we thank him for his interest in our Order and its history work, and that it is the prayer of each and every member of this Grand Parlor that God will spare Dr. Bolton to us, in health and happiness for many years yet to come; be it further

"Resolved, That the Grand Secretary be instructed to send a copy of these resolutions to Professor Bolton, a copy to The Grizzly Bear Magazine for publication, and a copy to the President and the Regents of the University."

HENRY S. LYON OF PLACERVILLE, El Dorado County, affiliated with Placerville Parlor No. 9, became the Grand President of the Order of Native Sons of the Golden West at the Sixty-third Grand Parlor, which met in Bakersfield, Kern County. Addressing the assembled representatives of the Subordinate Parlors from all sections of California following his induction into office, May 23, Grand President Lyon said:
"Worthy Past Grand Presidents, Fellow Grand Officers, Brother Native Sons, Sister Native Daughters, Ladies and Gentlemen: For many years last past I have inwardly cherished a keen desire to become Grand President of this group of American patriots dedicated to carry forward commendable and splendid ideals that, through undertaken the undermining of our democratic form of government.

"We must devote ourselves to the re-kindling of the patriotic aims of our Order and of our Nation. In this we must not be passive, but aggressive, with the idea of traveling the highway that leads not to War, but to Peace, with real happiness and prosperity for our people and with the reins of government at all times in the hands and in the control of the people of our country, trained and imbued with the true spirit of Americanism and Patriotism. With these conditions and aims at hand, I am not unmindful of the responsibilities I am assuming, and I sincerely trust that your confidence in me will not be misplaced. I wish also at this time to acknowledge the many letters of encouragement and congratulation that I have received from all over this great State.
"With your help and with the assistance of all patriotic organizations, the Native Daughters and citizens generally, I am sure that success will be ours. I am optimistic, as I come before you today, for the upbuilding of our great Order. I commend to the adopted sons and daughters of this State an examination of our aims and all the years since our birth, have challenged the energies of so many of our brothers and imbued them with inspiration and willingness to give their time, efforts, learning and money to promote the good of our Order in guiding us through both prosperous and distressing times.

"This is, indeed, one of the happiest moments of my life, and I wish at this time to express my deep appreciation of entrusting to me the serious but pleasurable duties of Grand President for the ensuing year. Perhaps there never has been a year since the World War in which our motives and activities will be watched, commended and criticised more closely than during the coming year. I say this advisedly, because of the trouble abroad, the untold suffering there, the destruction of homes, industries and farms, the taking of so many innocent lives and the maiming and crippling of people for life. One of the most serious concerns of mine and, I am certain, of yours, is the attempt of so many abroad, and likewise in our own native land, who have un-purposes, and I respectfully request them to join with us, to the best of their ability, in furthering these aims and purposes and the upbuilding of our State and Nation.

"I know that you do not expect me to enumerate in detail at this time all of my plans for the coming year. However, I do wish to call to your attention some of the more important ideas I have and hope to carry into execution. I have to the best of my ability made my appointments, and the names will appear in the next issue of The Grizzly Bear Magazine. Without thought of criticism I would like, with your co-operation, to see all of the district deputy grand presidents memorize their work letter perfect. Without doing so, it is hardly fair for them to expect and demand that the officers of the respective Parlors in their jurisdictions know their work before being installed. The installation charge is not impressive unless delivered from memory. You should be the leaders in your respective com-

GLENDALE — GRAND PRESIDENT Orinda Giannini of the Order of Native Daughters of the Golden West began her sojourn in this part of the state with an official visit May 1 to Verdugo No. 240 and Los Angeles No. 124 Parlors in joint session here. Gorgeous flower arrangements added to the brilliance of the occasion. Presidents Ethyl Kern and Louise McNary made a striking picture as they led their officers, gowned in white and carrying fluffy parasols, in the opening ceremonies of the meeting, which was preceded by a sumptuous dinner. Nineteen candidates were initiated for Los Angeles and twelve for Verdugo.

"Americanism" was the theme of a well-worded address by Grand President Giannini. Fifteen southern California Parlors were represented by delegations, along with the deputy grand presidents, headed by Supervising Deputy Olinda Thomas. Receiving honors with the Grand President were Grand Vice-president Hazel B. Hansen, Grand Trustees Evalyn Towne and Mary Noerenberg, and Past Grand President Grace S. Stoermer. The San Francisco visitors included Mrs. Charlotte Gunther, mother of Mrs. Giannini, Past Grand President Anne C. Theusen and Alice M. Lane, former grand trustee. The closing ceremonies were marked by a song composed and sung by Elsie Bledsoe of Verdugo. During the afternoon Grand President Giannini was welcomed by Glendale executives, and she participated in a broadcast arranged for the occasion. The Parlor's sewing club met May 21 at the Burbank home of Betty Butler. The breakfast at the La Crescenta home of Marguerite Piuma was well attended.

Verdugo is featuring a barbecue at Campo de Cahuenga, 6:30 p.m. of June 1. Admission fee, 65c. Evalyn Wilson is chairman of arrangements. There will be music, dancing, entertainment and games for all the family. June 14, Gussie Anderson will entertain for the Americanism and the history and landmarks committees. For all social activities of the Parlor, reservations may be made with Florence Cook, CI 1-2398.—D.G.R.

the Native Sons of the Golden West, was won May 6 by Frank Wolf of Los Angeles High, to whom Past Grand President Eldred L. Meyer presented a gold medal. C. Harry Davis presided, and the judges were Dr. Rockwell D. Hunt, George M. Cuthbertson, John O'B. Bodkin and Hervey L. Kitchin. Other contestants were James Robinson of Garfield High, Kathleen Chapman of Bell High, Theta Wood of Wasco, Kern County, High, Alice Ruth Curry of Long Beach Polytechnic and Robert Mair of North Hollywood High. Sidney Gorman gave a splendid talk.

Mrs. Orinda Giannini, Grand President N.D.G.W., was a guest of honor at the East Los Angeles Breakfast Club May 9. Walter E. Smith, Grand Trustee N.S.G.W., presided, and the principal speaker was Leo V. Youngworth, Ramona Parlor No. 109 N.S.G.W.

La Reina Parlor No. 267 N.D.G.W. was officially visited by Grand President Orinda G. Giannini May 9. Preceding the meeting she was entertained at an informal dinner attended by members of the Parlor only. For the official visit the hall was beautifully decorated with spring flowers and tall white lighted candles. Six candidates were initiated. Following a very interesting talk, Mrs. Giannini was presented a silver olive spoon, the presentation being made by Past President Madaline Pitney. The Parlor also presented Grand Vice-president Hazel Hansen with a bouquet of red roses and Deputy Dorothy Rava with a bouquet of gladioli.

Some 1,500 people witnessed May 17 ceremonies, conducted by the Native Sons of the Golden West, attendant on the placing of an old hitching ring, embedded in a block of granite taken from the old Los Angeles County Courthouse, in front of the Los Angeles County Hall Records. Sheriff Eugene W. Biscailuz was chairman of the day, and among the speakers were Past Grand Presidents Herman C. Lichtenberger and Eldred L. Meyer, Grand Trustee Walter E. Smith, Boyle Workman and Marco Newmark. Captain William J. Bright of the sheriff's force planned the event.

At impressive ceremonies May 19, the Native Sons and the Native Daughters of Los Angeles County presented to San Gabriel Mission a fountain, built to conform, in architecture and looks, with the 169-year-old mission building. Owen S. Adams, who had charge of the fountain's construction, was the master of ceremonies, and presentation addresses were delivered by Past Grand President Grace S. Stoermer and M. U. Rosenthal. Father Raymond accepted the gift. Following the ceremonies a program of Spanish music and dances was enjoyed.

The Native Sons and Native Daughters have been invited by the Los Angeles Pioneer Society, Joseph Mesmer president, to participate in the erection of a monument to Pioneer William H. Workman, early day Los Angeles mayor.

Long Beach—Long Beach Parlor No. 278 N.S.G.W. has undertaken the task of staging an Admission Day, September 9, celebration here. Invitations to participate will be sent all southern California Parlors of Native Daughters and Native Sons. John M. Johnston and Paul Traynor, in charge of arrangements, are being assisted by numerous subcommittees.

June 7, Los Angeles Parlor No. 45 N.S.G.W. will have an open meeting for the families and friends of its members and those of neighboring Parlors. Motion pictures of the New York World's Fair will be shown, and there will be other entertainment and refreshments. June 21, a caravan of Los Angeles' members will proceed from the Parlor's meetingplace to San Pedro, where a fraternal visit will be paid Stephen M. White Parlor No. 263. June 28 has been set aside for initiation, with refreshments.—F.F.

Lindley Bynum, field representative of the Henry E. Huntington Library and Art Gallery, San Marino, will be the principal speaker at the second of a series of monthly dinner meetings being featured by Hollywood Parlor No. 196 N.S.G.W. Date, June 12, 6:30 o'clock. Contact Secretary William Hortensine for the place.

In observance of Flag Day, June 14, the Interparlor N.S.G.W. and N.D.G.W. Committee will present United States of America and California State (Bear) Flags to Los Angeles County, at ceremonies to be held at the Temple-street side of the Hall of Justice, 9:15 to 9:30 a.m., and to the new union passenger station, at ceremonies to be held in the main park, 10:30 to 10:45 a.m.

TO CELEBRATE TWELFTH BIRTHDAY.

A perfect day was provided Californiana Parlor No. 247 N.D.G.W. for the official visit of Grand President Orinda O. Giannini, May 7. Grand Trustee Mary B. Noerenberg, chairman of the day, and Mrs. Alphonse H. Fares, program chairman, worked out a delightful program in honor of Mrs. Giannini and Carrie Jacobs Bond, noted composer. Miss Grace Vejar and committee used artistic ability in arranging the decorations of lovely spring blossoms. One hundred and fifty guests were served at luncheon, following the reception to the Grand President and her mother, Mrs. Charlotte Gunther. Other honor-guests were Sheriff and Mrs. Eugene W. Biscalluz, Grand Vice-president Hazel B. Hansen, Grand Trustee Evalyn Towne and Past Grand President Grace S. Stoermer. Mrs. Leland Atherton Irish paid tribute to Mrs. Bond, now seventy-seven years of age.

The speaker of the day, Dr. W. Ballentine Henley, dean of the co-ordination department, University of Southern California, made a masterly address on "Our American Heritage." He said we are confronted with a crisis, and expressed the hope that the United States would keep out of the European conflict. Mrs. L. S. Rounsaville presented a group of talented students from Hollywood High School, who pleased with musical numbers, and the program closed with the singing of "The End of a Perfect Day" by Glenn Levitt.

During the business meeting following luncheon, eight candidates were initiated, and the members of the Junior Auxiliary, in white dresses and carrying an ivy rope, escorted the Grand President and other grand officers to their stations. In her address to the Parlor, Mrs. Giannini expressed appreciation for the many courtesies extended her, stated her joy because of the juniors, and complimented the Parlor for honoring the Pioneer Mothers, who went forward with such great courage.

The regular meeting of Californiana was held at Casa Adobe the morning of May 14, with Marcella Palethorpe as the hostess. A potluck luncheon was enjoyed at noon, and the Gertrude Sewing Circle met in the afternoon. June 3 the Circle will meet at the Bender ranch in Glendora, and July 1 at the home of Chairman Margaret Harris in Inglewood. The twelfth birthday of the Parlor will be celebrated at Hollywood Bowl June 11 with an all-states luncheon. Reservations with Marcella Palethorpe, CA 8653. Honor guests will be Mrs. Harvey Mudd, national president Girl Scouts; Miss Carmelita Rosecrans, district commissioner Los Angeles Girl Scouts, who will deliver an address on "Inspiring Ideals for Youth;" Past Grand President Grace S. Stoermer, Grand Vice-president Hazel B. Hansen, Grand Trustee Mary B. Noerenberg and past presidents of the Parlor. Wear your rose-colored glasses!—O.L.

ANNIVERSARY BANQUET.

Ramona Parlor No. 109 N.S.G.W. will celebrate its fifty-third institution anniversary at a banquet at the Los Angeles Athletic Club the evening of Saturday, June 8. At the head table, Past Grand President Herman C. Lichtenberger will represent the older members, and Past President O. Benton Worley will represent the younger ones. Speeches will be few, but noteworthy. Music will be supplied by Don Jose Arias and his troupe, and Lee Keener, "poet of the banjo," will entertain. Dancing will conclude the festivities. Arrangements are in the hands of President William R. Blaha, Hervey Lindley Kitchin, Earl McGee and Ralph Clavelot. All Natives and their families are invited.

June 14, Ramona will have initiation, the ceremonies to be followed by refreshments. June 21, a fathers and sons dinner will be held at Campo de Cahuenga, Lankershim boulevard opposite Universal City. For transportation, contact Secretary Joe Fonte.

PRESIDENT TO ENTERTAIN.

Los Angeles Parlor No. 124 N.D.G.W. honored Supervising Deputy Olinda Thomas and Deputy Evalyn Wilson, May 15, with a "duplication" of the Grand President's official visit. The color scheme was black umbrellas, and the officers wore black crepe paper. The honor-guests received bouquets of cauliflower, asparagus, radishes, onions and carrots, and the Parlor presented them with gifts. The "duplication" was quite a surprise, and produced much laughter.

June 5, Los Angeles will have its last initiation for the term; refreshments will follow the

Special Terms to Native Sons and Daughters

FIFTY-FOURTH N. D. G. W. GRAND PARLOR

(CLARENCE M. HUNT.)

MONDAY MORNING, JUNE 17, AT 9:30, the Fifty-fourth annual Grand Parlor of the Order of Native Daughters of the Golden West will convene at Oakland, Alameda County, for a four-day session. Grand President Orinda Gunther-Giannini of San Francisco, affiliated with Orinda Parlor No. 56, will preside throughout the deliberations and, at their conclusion, will automatically become the Past Grand President. The Grand Parlor sessions will be held in the Madison Street Temple, 1433 Madison.

This will be the fourth time in the Order's history the Grand Parlor has met at Oakland. The Twenty-eighth Grand Parlor was held there in June 1914, with Grand President Alison F. Watt of Grass Valley presiding; the Forty-fourth in June 1930, with Grand President Esther R. Sullivan of Marysville presiding, and the Forty-seventh in June 1933, with Grand President Anna M. Armstrong of Woodland presiding.

Reports of grand officers and committees to the Fifty-fourth Grand Parlor will show the Order to be in a flourishing condition. The finances are in excellent shape, and the membership is increasing. All of the Order's many projects have been advanced during the Grand Parlor year.

Grand Secretary Sallie R. Thaler will report the institution of a new Subordinate Parlor since the San Francisco (1939) Grand Parlor: Yerba Buena No. 273, San Francisco; a daylight Parlor, it has grown rapidly, now having a membership of 175.

The 1939 (San Francisco) Grand Parlor enacted legislation to the effect that the entire personnel of a Grand Parlor must pay a registration fee of $2.00. Grand Secretary Thaler advises that visitors to the Oakland Grand Parlor will be accorded the same privileges as delegates, insofar as social activities, badges and seats are concerned, on payment of the $2.00 registration fee.

MEMBERSHIP.

The Order is composed of 179 Subordinate Parlors, located in practically every county of California. The Grizzly Bear requested from each Parlor its membership-figures and, from responses received up to publication-time, the following has been compiled:

By Castro Parlor No. 178, San Francisco—"Any Secretary having served a Parlor ten consecutive years shall be given the honor of Past President of said Parlor."

By Miocene Parlor No. 228, Taft—"Amending the Grand Parlor law so that Subordinate Parlors may "be allowed to hold picnics or civic activities on Sunday with the proper dignity."

By Past Grand President Edna B. Briggs, Sacramento—"That the sum of $1,000.00 be included in the budget for the next year to be used for the purpose of marking historical landmarks."

CANDIDATES GRAND PARLOR OFFICES.

By communicating with all the Subordinate Parlors and the many "rumored" candidates, The Grizzly Bear is enabled to announce the candidacies of several aspirants for Grand Parlor office honors. There continue to be whisperings, however, that other candidacies will be revealed at the Oakland session. Be that as it may, here is the authentic information gathered by The Grizzly Bear to the time of going to press:

Grand President—Grand Vice-president Hazel B. Hansen, Verdugo Parlor No. 240.

Grand Vice-president—Grand Marshal Claire ceremonies. June 12, the history and landmarks committee will serve a 6 o'clock tamale supper at Plummer Park; 35c per person; the supper will be followed by a showing of Dr. Mars Baumgart's pictures of early Los Angeles. June 23, from 3 to 5 o'clock, President Louise McNary will entertain the members of the Parlor at a tea at her home. June 29, Marguerite Miller, a new member, will entertain the homeless children sewing group at her home, 3636 West Sixty-first street; she will be assisted by several recent initiates; refreshments will follow an afternoon of sewing. "Remember, the babies must be clothed," says Recording Secretary Edna T. Neikirk, "so come and do your bit."

"CHINA'S NEW LIFE MOVEMENT."

Dr. Shan Hong Chan, lecturer on Chinese culture at Pomona College, and his wife, Mrs. Lily Chan, will be honor-guests at the N.S.G.W. Friday Luncheon Club's meeting June 7 in the Rosslyn Hotel, Fifth and Main streets. Mrs. Chan will speak on "China's New Life Movement." Sheriff Eugene W. Biscailuz will be chairman of the day.

President John B. Hass of the Club has named Past Grand President Herman C. Lichtenberger, Boyle Workman and Percy G. Eisen a committee to investigate the feasibility of developing a Civic Center landmarks restoration project. It provides for the setting of the sixty-two-year-old Baker Block in the center of a park between Main and Los Angeles streets and the conversion of it into a recreation hall. It is planned, too, to include the Pico House, as headquarters for the Native Sons and Native Daughters.

MOTHERS HONORED.

Long Beach—Long Beach Parlor No. 154 N.D.G.W. was hostess May 2 to Compton Parlor No. 258, Rudecinda Parlor No. 230 of San Pedro, and Long Beach Parlor No. 278 N.S. at a banquet honoring Grand President Orinda Giannini. Others among the 120 present were Grand Vice-president Hazel Hansen, Grand Trustees Mary Noerenberg and Evalyn Towne, and Past Grand Presidents Grace Stoermer and Anne Theusen of the Native Daughters, and Past Grand President Eldred L. Meyer, Grand Trustee Walter C. Richards and Grand Organist Roger M. Johnson of the Native Sons. President Nell Cooke presided, and made the introductions.

After the banquet Long Beach, Compton and Rudecinda Parlors met in joint session, for the Grand President's official visit. Long Beach officers opened the meeting, when grand officers were introduced and conducted to their stations by an escort team; Rudecinda officers exemplified the initiatory ritual, at which time eleven candidates were initiated, and Compton officers formed a cross around the altar in special closing exercises. All three Parlors joined in the regalia march, after which Compton and Rudecinda served refreshments in the dining hall.

Mothers of the members of Long Beach were honored at a breakfast May 19. A program in observance of Mothers Day, Flag Day and I Am An American Day was presented by Chairman Leola Temby. Mrs. Kate McFadyen, "mother" of the Parlor and its first president, was an especially honored guest. One hundred members and guests attended a membership tea given by President Cooke at the home of Dorothy Foote May 26; it proved a very delightful affair.—E.S.

PAST PRESIDENTS NIGHT.

Santa Monica—Santa Monica Bay Parlor No. 267 N.S.G.W. sponsored a benefit booster show and smoker, May 14, that attracted a large crowd. Tom Hume directed the activities.

June 11, the Parlor will feature past presidents night, with Sheriff Eugene W. Biscailuz as the honor-guest. Entertainment will be provided and refreshments will be served. June 18, a large class of candidates will be initiated. June 25 has been set aside as a social night for the families and the friends of the members. Cards will be played and there will be refreshments.

STATE FLAG PRESENTED.

Canoga Park—Preceding the official visit of Grand President Orinda Giannini, Topanga Parlor No. 269 N.D.G.W. entertained at dinner May 10. Decorations featured an old-fashioned garden with a wishing well. Seven candidates were initiated during the evening. Other visitors included large delegations from Los Angeles, Californiana and Long Beach Parlors, Grand Vice-president Hazel B. Hansen, Grand Trustees Mary Noerenberg and Evalyn Towne, Past Grand President Grace S. Stoermer, Supervising Deputy Olinda Thomas and Mrs. Charlotte Gunther.

Orcutt Park was the setting for a dedication ceremony, May 25, attended by some 2,000. Peace Justice O. Benton Worley was chairman of the day and, on behalf of Topanga, Mrs. Margaret Tann presented a California State (Bear) Flag to fly over the park.—L.J.C.

PERSONAL MENTION.

A native son, Robert Leigh Jack Jr., arrived April 26 at the home of Robert L. Jack (Los Angeles NS).

Mrs. Marvel Thomas-Tempest (Los Angeles ND) and baby daughter, Linda, arrived by plane from Mexico City for a visit with the former's mother.

THE DEATH RECORD.

Miss Nora E. Biller, daughter of John B. Biller (Ramona NS), died April 28, at the age of 45.

Henry Brodek, affiliated with Los Angeles Parlor No. 45 N.S.G.W., died May 13, survived by his wife and two children. He was born at San Francisco, June 19, 1864. Funeral services were conducted by the Parlor.

Passing of the California Pioneer

(Confined to Brief Notices of the Demise of those Men and Women who came to California prior to 1870)

Mrs. Martha Ann Flinn-Humphreys, native of Missouri, 97; came across the plains in 1856 and resided in Los Angeles, Mariposa and Fresno Counties; died near Tollhouse, survived by five children.

WAR

IRVING S. IRVING

O God, the creator of men, man, creator of the world and land,
Creator of the Universe,
Look down upon our people's pain,
The heart of war, that from the earth
That saps from every nation, life.

Down upon the dawn of nations, O God,
The conquerors have cursed the earth.
Awhile they sway their brutal power,
Yet always comes that fatal hour
When low-browed Neros have their day,
And Caesar reigns the price must pay.

High in the air the bombing plane
Upon the helpless cities rain
Its hissing bombs and deadly sound
And litter streets with ghastly dead.
O God, will ever Powers abhor
The frightful curse of modern war?

O why should mankind maim and kill
Their fellow-men? This world to fill
With desolation, grief and dread;
Leave millions mourning o'er their dead?
The widows' moans, the mothers' wall,
O God, what does cruel war avail?

Great scourge of earth, O war accurst
With screaming shells and bombs that burst,
With soldiers tramping through the mud
To waste in rivulets of blood!
O Europe, to curse of war you yield,
With every foot a battlefield.

Great Prince of Peace, O God of love,
Look down from Heaven's Throne above
And see your children's weary plight—
Cast over them the shining light
Of truth, and love, and lasting peace,
And let grim war forever cease.

FIRST ANNIVERSARY CELEBRATED.

Berkeley (Alameda County)—Sequoia Parlor No. 272 N.D.G.W. has had several very successful whists for the benefit of the drill team. At a mammoth whist party May 23 a beautiful afghan, donated by Bellah Wakefield, was disposed of for the benefit of the Parlor's Admission Day fund. May 29 Sequoia celebrated its first institution anniversary at a dinner in San Francisco.

TRIBUTE PAID TREASURER AT PARLOR'S BIRTHDAY PARTY.

Petaluma (Sonoma County)—Petaluma Parlor No. 222 N.D.G.W. observed its eighteenth birthday at a dinner in Santa Rosa. Among the many in attendance were nine charter members. Past Grand President Emma G. Foley, Supervising Deputy Alice Munz and Deputy Leopolda Vier were guests. Florence Anderson and Zoura Tompkins had charge of the beautiful table decorations. Tribute was paid Josie Tagliaferro, Petaluma's treasurer eighteen years. Dancing concluded the joyous occasion.—A.B.

GRIZZLY GROWLS

NOTE—Expressions of opinion in these "Growls" are, unless indicated otherwise, those of the Managing Editor.

Clarence M. Hunt

A well-planned scheme to designedly lead this country into the European fracas is gaining momentum day by day. Limitless propaganda is being dispatched, both from within and from without government, by those who, suffering with the war-, the dollar- and the power-itch, would again willingly sacrifice the lives of Americans—yea, gamble the future of this Nation as a democracy,—upon the altar of greed.

The so-called world war now raging in Europe is, as was its predecessor that cost these United States so much in human- and dollar-wealth, but a continuation of the ages-old struggle for power in Europe. The pretension that the future of democracy is at stake there is camouflage, for in Europe there is no genuine democratic government. Regardless of the outcome of the conflict now raging, war in Europe will continue until such time as the peoples of sorely afflicted nations shake off self-declared rulers—dictators, kings, queens, etc.—and establish "ruling houses" of their own choosing—governments of the people, for the people, by the people.

A vast majority of the citizens of this country are in favor of adequate home defense, but they are opposed to the country's participation, directly or indirectly, in any foreign-soil war. Regardless of that sentiment, however, clever propagandists and high-powered agents of war-munitions manufacturers, both home-bred and foreign, are making, and will continue to make, every effort to reverse the anti-war sentiment. Yes, so determined are the war-minority to have this country become involved in the European mess they will not hesitate to "frame" a disaster that would result in the loss of American lives.

Be constantly on guard, majority! Be not swayed by the comments and the pleadings of warmongers! Vociferously and unitedly oppose the participation of your country in any foreign war! Give wholehearted support to plans for the protection and the defense of your homeland! Failure to be constantly on guard will result in your United States of America being again led, by the minority, into the war-hell of Europe!

Here are some figures, made public by the Tax Digest, which should be of interest to every California taxpayer, for they tell the story of the outrageous mounting cost of government:

Federal taxes—Increased from $94,674,184 for the 1932-33 fiscal year to $308,969,135 for the 1938-39 fiscal year.

State taxes—Increased from $90,879,770 for the 1932-33 fiscal year to $311,850,709 for the 1938-39 fiscal year.

Local property taxes, county, city, school district, special district—Increased from $263,855,718 for the 1932-33 fiscal year to $297,973,000 for the 1938-39 fiscal year.

Total taxes collected in California increased from $449,409,672 for the 1932-33 fiscal year to $918,792,844 for the 1938-39 fiscal year.

These enormous increases were piled up during depression years, when the tax-load should have been decreased. And there will be no lessening of the load until the people unite in their might, take government out of the control of political racketeers, and put in office those who will demand economy, efficiency and honesty in government.

Henry Ford, the Nation's first citizen, has announced active co-operation with the National Farm Youth Foundation by providing scholarships for 20,000 farm youths throughout the United States. Says Ford:

"Young men of the farm have not realized their opportunities on the home soil. And young men of the city have not appreciated the career a farm offers. As a result, farming has been neglected. The family system of farming has suffered and we want to see it rebuilt. As a matter of fact, the Foundation seeks to help the young man of the farm to realize his aspirations for happiness and prosperity. . . . Better farming methods today will mean better farms tomorrow, and rural youth will be inclined to stay close to the soil."

Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh, outstanding young American qualified to lead and to advise, in the course of a radio address said: "Let us not be confused by this talk of invasion by European aircraft. . . . We are in danger of war today not because European people have attempted to interfere with the internal affairs of America, but because American people have attempted to interfere with the internal affairs of Europe.

"Our danger in America is an internal danger. We need not fear a foreign invasion unless American peoples bring it on through their own quarreling and meddling with affairs abroad. The course we have been following in recent months leads to neither strength nor friendship nor peace. It will leave us hated by victor and vanquished alike, regardless of which way the tide of battle turns. One side will claim that we aided its enemies; the other, that we did not help enough. . . .

"But regardless of which side wins this war there is no reason, aside from our own actions, to prevent a continuation of peaceful relationships between America and the countries of Europe. If we desire peace, we need only stop asking for war. No one wishes to attack us, and no one is in a position to do so."

Gold-dredge operations are, at last, being publicly condemned, and it is likely state agencies will endeavor to restrict them. The dredges have made worthless many acres of California's richest agricultural land.

Some years back the Federal Government put a stop to the operations of hydraulic miners who, in search of gold, washed mountains into streams. The silt eventually got into rivers that overflowed and damaged crops; the soil, however, was enriched. Now, the dredgers wreck the land, by turning under that rich soil and leaving in its place hideous piles of rock. The Federal Government should be consistent, and put a stop to the operations of the dredgers.

Some now howling about the "fifth column" in this country, a short while ago advocated, by voice and deed, the sowing of the seed and encouraged the growth of the plant. The "fifth column" is another folly, created to please aliens, that, eventually, will cost this country plenty.

The newspapers of California are complaining bitterly because the courts have ruled that they, too, must pay a state sales tax on their circulation. The Grizzly Bear has paid the tax ever since its levying. That accounts, in part, for the terrific advance in the cost of operation.

Circulation should not be taxed, but if the powers-that-be decree otherwise, the tax should, in justice, be collected from all daily and weekly newspapers and publications of every nature.

Writing to the United States News, Andrew Hildebrand of South Bend, Indiana, inquired: "Government can compel its officers to serve without pay. Why not reduce by one-third the pay of officers of the legislative, executive and judicial branches and use the money to buy ham and eggs for poor farmers?"

Why not reduce the cost of government? Then the farmer, and others, would have money to buy ham and eggs.

The California Third District Court of Appeal has decided that a Nevada divorce is illegal, where residence is established solely for the purpose of obtaining a divorce.

That being true, Los Angeles' purity squad should get busy and purge the "Angel City" of many residents with Nevada divorce decrees, including "stars" of greater and lesser brilliance, illegally posing as husband and wife.

Declaring "our heart is where our money is," United States Senator Hiram W. Johnson of California, one of the nation's foremost isolationists, says he will vigorously oppose any attempt to repeal or modify the Federal law bearing his name which prohibits American credits or loans to nations that have not paid their debts to this country. Says the Senator:

"Any attempt to repeal or modify the act which bears my name will be vigorously contested. Experience in the last war taught us that the surest way to get into war is to let our money precede us. Then when more money is needed by the belligerents, we let them have it and then go into the struggle to protect our money. This is exactly what a lot of decent citizens and others not so disinterested are advocating."

Addressing the Pacific Ocean Commerce Section of the Commonwealth Club of California, Dr. James A. B. Scherer, noted authority on the Orient, urged adoption of the Schwellenbach mandatory embargo on shipments to Japan.

"When President Franklin D. Roosevelt urged the 'quarantine' of Japan," he said, "we who know Japan confidently expected him to follow up with acts. Nothing happened. I've always associated the Panay incident with that speech because the Japanese despise a bluff. Nothing has injured us more in the eyes of the Japanese military party than the apparent half-heartedness of Washington's policy; nothing impressed them more than our notice of treaty abrogation. They really expected an embargo."

"But we continue to ship war materials to Japan on almost every ship. In 1939 there were heavy increases in Japan's imports of American copper, steel and metal-working machinery for war purposes. In 1940 this increase continues. . . . An embargo might well coincide with a Japanese business revolt against the military."

"Never in human warfare has there been such widespread devastation as China has suffered since the military took control of Japan in 1937. If Japan succeeds, with our aid, in conquering China, the military party will have vast stores of raw materials which they can and will use to build up a constant and deadly menace to our welfare and safety. Except for personnel, the Japanese invading force is virtually an American army. From the standpoint of the first law of nature, self-preservation, as well as that of moral obligation, it behooves us to cease this partnership in the wholesale devastation of China."

Senator Reynolds of North Carolina has proposed in the Federal Congress legislation to restrict the number of Mexicans in this country to the number of Americans residing in Mexico. Nothing wrong with the proposal, therefore it should be approved.

"The most vital need of our country and of the nations of the world is a moral and spiritual revival," declared Mrs. William H. Becker, President General of the Daughters of the American Revolution. Amen!

Congressman Marcantonio of New York has before the Federal Congress a bill to permit the naturalization of Filipinos now in this country. The measure should be unmistakably swamped for, as Congressman Van Zandt of Pennsylvania declares:

"We have an Asiatic exclusion act which denies citizenship to persons ineligible for admission to this country, and if we begin granting citizenship to members of the yellow race now, soon we'll have to open our doors to all of them."

The Citizens Economy Bloc of California has been organized by a nonpartisan group for the avowed purpose of leading a revolt against taxes. Says George J. Hatfield, Merced farmer:

"If the debauch of extravagance, relief racketeering and reckless misuse of public funds is allowed to continue, California will be plunged into moral and economic bankruptcy." If sincere in their declared aims, the leaders of the movement should have plenty of backing, for the need of leadership in a tax-revolt is outstanding.

Addressing the Commonwealth Club of California at San Francisco, United States Senator Burton K. Wheeler of Montana offered this sound suggestion:

"We must stop bitterness, hatred and intolerance: we must sit around the table—business leaders, labor leaders, financial leaders—and decide our problems, not in the interests of a few, but on the basis of what is best for the country as a whole. The same things have destroyed every civilization—greed, graft and selfishness. It will take the combined effort and intelligence of all groups to get together to settle our problems under democracy. If we don't do it that way, it will be done in some other way."

THINK THIS OVER

The Order of Native Sons of the Golden West is, we believe, with the exception of the Order of Native Daughters of the Golden West, the only organization that limits membership exclusively to NATIVE-BORN AMERICANS.

Knowing the serious conditions in this country today, this fact alone should impel every native son of California to immediately SEEK AFFILIATION with that American-born and American-operated institution, the man-power and wealth of which are pledged to the protection of American institutions in times of peace as well as in times of war.

SAN PEDRO HISTORIC POINT FIRMIN Lighthouse was marked May 2 with a bronze plaque provided by Rudecinda Parlor No. 230 N.D.G.W. and Sepulveda Parlor No. 263 N.S.G.W. The inscription reads: "1874-1940. Point Firmin Lighthouse Dedicated by Native Sons and Native Daughters of the Golden West of San Pedro May 2, 1940." Marcella Sandoval of Rudecinda's history and landmarks committee was chairman of the program, which included a dedicatory address by Grand President Orinda Giannini. Among the many others in attendance were Grand Vice-president Hazel B. Hansen, Grand Trustee Mary B. Noerenberg, Past Grand President Grace S. Stoermer and Supervising Deputy Ollinda Thomas. Lucy Ascolesi had charge of a luncheon preceding the dedication.

This lighthouse, built of pine wood and brick by the Federal Government in 1874, is the only one of its kind still in use. In 1927 the property was acquired by Los Angeles City, which continues to operate it. The first keepers were sisters, named Smith, who came to the then little fishing village of San Pedro for their health. The light, changed in 1925 from an oil burner to one of 6,000 candlepower, is 154 feet above water and flashes its friendly rays eighteen miles.—K.D.

BARBECUE AT WHITE'S POINT.

San Pedro—A barbecue outing, to which all Natives, their families and friends, are invited is being arranged for by Stephen M. White Parlor No. 263, Santa Monica Bay Parlor No. 267 and Long Beach Parlor No. 273 N.S.G.W. The date, June 9; the place, Royal Palms Grove, White's Point, San Pedro.

At noon, a California-style barbecue will be served; 75c for adults, 35c for children. In the afternoon, there will be dancing and games of all sorts. Everyone is assured a fine time.

CALIFORNIA'S CHANNEL ISLAND NATIONAL MONUMENT.

Gradual recovery of the natural characteristics of the Channel Island National Monument, comprising two of California's Channel Islands, Anacapa and Santa Barbara, off the southern California coast, is planned by the National Park Service.

Once connected with the mainland, these land fragments represent the peaks of mountain masses now submerged beneath the sea. This submergence took place so long ago and so gradually that much of the animal and plant life originally common to the entire area has had time to evolve in the Channel Islands along lines that show marked differentiation from that on the mainland deriving from the same ancestral stocks.

Santa Barbara is an important rookery of the California sealion. This island is treeless. Anacapa, however, possesses several small groves and scattered trees at the head of the ravines. The toyon is not typical of the mainland form of this tree, and neither the island oak nor cherry tree is to be found at all on the adjacent mainland. That these trees should have been able to survive for thousands of years on this tiny, windswept and lonely island is one of nature's marvels of adaptation. Anacapa's most outstanding single wildlife exhibit is approximately 2,000 pair of California brown pelicans. Besides these, hundreds of Farallon cormorants and three or four pairs of American eagles are permanent residents of Anacapa.

Future plans for the Channel Islands National Monument include complete protection for all native species of plant and animal life. Particular attention will be given to the protection of the California sealion which, in the past, has suffered extensively from the depredations of poachers. The Channel Islands once were an important stronghold of the southern sea otter. It is hoped that ultimately these animals, which have been recently observed in increased numbers off the coast of Monterey, may be encouraged to return.

"When you are so devoted to doing what is right that you press straight on to that and disregard what men are saying about you, there is the triumph of moral courage."—Phillips Brooks.

SAN FRANCISCO

WHEN THE CURTAINS UNFOLDED on the 1940 season of the Golden Gate International Exposition, May 25, a spectacle was revealed that put to shame the fantastic tales of the Arabian Nights. Only in California, with its colorful traditions of old Spain, the golden memories of the pioneer days, and the ever-present influence of the mysterious Orient, could such a picture be endowed with life.

Treasure Island, at the crossroads of the world, lives again—a new and fuller life during 130 glorious days and nights that will mark the span of the 1940 California World's Fair. This man-made isle in the center of San Francisco Bay has undergone changes that make it scarcely recognizable as the Treasure Island of your age.

Drab, weather-worn hues have been replaced with the warm colors for which California is known throughout the world. The 1940 Golden Gate International Exposition combines the voluptuous and bizarre effects of the Orient with the golds, purples, blues, reds and oranges of the state's mountains, hills, lakes and valleys. Co-ordinated with the new color scheme, the exposition gardens of 1940 present a pattern of blooms that blends with the rich hues of the fountains, statuary and statuary.

The 1940 Golden Gate International Exposition is not only a thing of beauty, but it presents a timely new educational, entertainment and amusement features that will set it apart from all other expositions.

N.D. DEPUTIES BREAKFAST HOSTESSES.

The San Francisco deputies were hostesses at the N.D.G.W. Home breakfast May 12. Supervising Deputy Rena Taube extended greetings, and Marshal Claire Lindsey led the flag salute, and Deputy Merle Sandell offered prayer. Speakers included Edith Wilson, assistant district attorney, whose subject was "Pioneer Women," and Diane Hampton, winner of the N.S.G.W. Northern California public speaking contest, whose subject was "John A. Sutter." Vocal sections were rendered by Loretta Winter, accompanied by Helen Hunemin, and Ethel Dethelsen.

On the deputies' behalf, Supervising Deputy Taube presented an electric iron to the Home, and a birthday gift to Past Grand President Dr. Mariana Bertola, chairman Grand Parlor Home Committee. Twenty-two deputies were in attendance, and twenty-one Subordinate Parlors were represented. The occasion closed with the singing of "God Bless America."—E.G.F.

"BABY" N.D. PARLOR RECEIVES OFFICIAL.

President Mary Augusta Cuneo presided at the reception-luncheon which preceded Grand President Orinda G. Giannini's official visit to Yerba Buena Parlor No. 273 N.D.G.W. May 16. Pink and blue predominated in the decorations and the "baby" Parlor, the centerpiece at the main table was a baby doll reclining in a basket, both adorned with the pastel colors.

At the opening of the Parlor session, six members carrying wands topped with baby heads and streamers of pink and blue escorted the Grand President to her station of honor. The Parlor's vocal, Mrs. Ethel Edwards chairman, presented music for the ceremonies. "My Sunny California," composed by Mrs. Roberta Lewis and dedicated to Yerba Buena, was sung for the first time by Mrs. Harmon Skillin, with Mrs. Alfred Blancher as accompanist.

Grand President Giannini was the recipient of a shower of gifts. For the Parlor, Mrs. Mae Goss presented her a check for $80 for El Cedrad Mission restoration fund, the sum having been raised at a card party. Historian Rheta Zimmerman spoke of the campaign, approved by the Grand President, to have five and one-half acres in Laurel Hill Cemetery, San Francisco, set aside as a Pioneer Memorial Park. The Parlor has "adopted" a homeless baby, called "Mary Augusta" in honor of President Cuneo. Mrs. Virginia Gottung was chairman of arrangements for the official visit.

N.D.G.W.—NEWS PARAGRAPHS.—N.S.G.W.

Honoring Grand President Orinda Gunther-Giannini, the San Francisco Native Daughters deputies are sponsoring a reception-luncheon at the Palace Hotel, June 1, 12:30 noon. The arrangements are in charge of Supervising Deputy Rena Taube, general chairman, Deputies Charlotte Keohane, Ruby Weber and Ann Duddy.

Golden State Parlor No. 50 N.D.G.W. had its golden anniversary dinner May 8, and the occasion was a joyous one. Past Grand Carrie Roesch-Durham was a special guest; she granted the Parlor its charter in 1890. The three surviving charter members—Miss Louise Meyer, Miss Johanna Meyer and Miss Anna Lembke—and Deputy Jessie Ormonde were also among the many in attendance. Mrs. Durham and the three charter members were remembered with personal gifts, and every member and guest received a very appropriate and lasting memento of the memorable evening—a replica of a California bear with cub upon a base of California redwood. Mrs. Juliana Hagerty was chairman of the affair.—E.P.

The welfare committee of Orinda Parlor No. 56 N.D.G.W. visited the boys' and girls' tubercular wards of the San Francisco Hospital May 1 and presented candy and funny papers to the children; visits are made monthly to the hospital. May 10 the Parlor had a party for members born in May, and each was presented a gift. May 15 the mothers of members were entertained at a banquet and given remembrances. The tables were beautifully decorated, and the evening was greatly enjoyed. June 17, Orinda will celebrate the birthday of Past Grand Emma G. Foley at a luncheon in Oakland. All members of the Order and friends will be welcome; reservations must be made with members of the Parlor.

Dan Tinney of Rincon Parlor No. 72 N.S.G.W. is now the general agent of the Northern Pacific Railway in San Francisco, having been named to that responsible position May 1. Tinney started his railroad career in 1912.

Stanford Parlor No. 76 N.S.G.W. had its annual spring outing at Fairfax, Marin County, May 5. Arrangements were made by a committee composed of Bill Gunther, chairman, Harold Meyer, Fred Meyer, Gino Lucchesi, Niles McKannan and Jack McArdle. May 14 was "Les Vogel night" in Stanford. Several candidates rounded up by him were initiated, and he also provided the refreshments.

Southard Marcus Modry, a delegate from Bay City Parlor No. 104 N.S.G.W. to many Grand Parlors, died April 24. He was born at San Francisco, April 28, 1892.

The drill team of Golden Gate Parlor No. 153 N.D.G.W. was entertained May 2 by Mrs. Lorrie Haskins, the team's newest bride. May 5 the team participated in the citizenship parade in San Francisco, and assisted in the distribution of small California State (Bear) Flags to new citizens. The team also participated in the Sunset District parade May 14, and the opening of the 1940 Golden Gate Exposition May 25. It will be a competitor in the Oakland Grand Parlor drill contest.—B.M.N.

At the anniversary dinner of Arguello Parlor No. 257 N.D.G.W. the engagement of President Dolores Silva to Bayard Merrill was announced. The wedding will be a June event. Miss Genevieve E. Martel was chairman of the evening.

REGULATIONS FOR THE 1940-41 PUBLIC speaking contest sponsored by the Grand Parlor have been announced. The contest is open to students of high schools of the state who do not graduate before the 1941 spring term. The contest will have three phases: an elimination contest in each high school, county elimination and state elimination. The high school contests shall be held prior to January 1, 1941; the county contests between January 1 and February 15, 1941, and the state contests between February 15 and April 1, 1941. The final contest will be held at the 1941 Grand Parlor.

Subjects from which contestants may choose include: "Thomas Baker and the Opening of the Lower San Joaquin Valley," "Santa Catalina, Isle of Dreams," "David C. Broderick, 1820-1859," "Fremont's Party at Carson Pass, January 1844," "Eusebio Kino, Padre on Horseback," "Mount Shasta, Sentinel of the North," "San Diego, Mother of the Mission," "Patrick Breen of the Donner Party," "The Oregon House of Yuba County," "John Muir and the Discovery of Yosemite," "Senores, Senoras and Senoritas of the Halcyon Days," "The Discovery of Mountain Lake, Later called Tahoe, January 14, 1844."

Fifty-Year Emblems Presented.

Hayward—The annual municipal and oldtimers night featured by Eden No. 113 attracted one of the largest crowds in the Parlor's history. Charter members present included William Bellina, who has resided in the Hawaiian Islands for forty-five years, John Geary, Neal McConaghy and James Smalley. Also present were officials and employees of the City of Hayward and the County of Alameda, and many members of San Francisco, San Mateo and Alameda Counties Parlor.

Grand President Jesse H. Miller was the main speaker. On Eden's behalf, Grand Secretary John T. Regan presented fifty-year gold emblems and life membership certificates to E. K. Strobbridge, John Madsen and George Madsen. Brief remarks were made by Grand Second Vice-president Edward T. Schnarr, and Grand Trustees Wayne Millington and Richard McCarthy. The Hayward American Legion band, directed by Art Phillips, rendered instrumental numbers, Bill Bassett pleased with vocal selections, and there were a number of wonderful vaudeville acts. The Parlor's good of the Order committee, Frank Leonard, chairman, Arthur Costa and Frank Marshall, served a sumptuous turkey dinner.

Tribute Paid Noted Historian.

Berkeley—The dinner, sponsored by the Grand Parlor California History Board, in honor of Dr. Herbert Eugene Bolton, noted historian who, having reached the age of seventy, has been retired by the University of California, was a pleasing success. Past Grand Edward J. Lynch, chairman of the Board, presided, and Dr. Rockwell D. Hunt delivered an invocation and led in the flag salute. Mrs. Dorothy Shuler, accompanied by Miss Helen Heinemann, favored with vocal selections. Grand Organist Mae Ethel O'Keefe of the Native Daughters was accompanist for the group singing, and also rendered accordion selections.

"The Landmarks of California" was the subject of an address by Past Grand Lewis F. Byington, and Past Grand Esther R. Sullivan of the Native Daughters was also a speaker. Past Grand Judge Fletcher A. Cutler and Dr. Herbert I. Priestley of the University of California paid tribute to Dr. Bolton, who responded and expressed pleasure that his work was appreciated. Grand Historian Dr. Peter T. Conmy introduced the following, among the many other Native Sons and Native Daughters in attendance from all parts of the state:

N.S.G.W.—Grand Second Vice-president Edward T. Schnarr, Grand Third Vice-president Lloyd J. Cosgrove, Grand Secretary John T. Regan, Grand Trustees Charles A. Redding and Richard F. McCarthy, Past Grand Charles L. Dodge, History Board Members Frank C. Merritt, Emmett P. Joy, James A. Snell, William C. Latham and Joseph E. Tinney. N.D.G.W.—Grand Secretary Sallie R. Thaler, Grand Inside Sentinel Doris Treat, Past Grands Gladys E. Noce and Anne C. Thuesen.

N.S.G.W.—NEWS PARAGRAPHS.—N.S.G.W.

Sacramento—The State Fair Board has appropriated $2,000 to help defray the expenses incident to the statewide Admission Day celebration to be held here September 7, 8 and 9. Arrangements for the festivities are being made by a joint committee representing all the Sacramento County Native Sons and Native Daughters Parlor.

Sutter Creek—Amador No. 17 and Amapola No. 80 N.D. had their annual spring get-together May 16. Following a turkey supper, and a program presented by members of both Parlor, dancing was in order. Past Grands Clarence E. Jarvis and Gladys E. Noce addressed the gathering.

Sacramento—Some 500 Sacramentans attended May 9 a testimonial dinner honoring Peter J. Shields of Sunset No. 26, superior judge of Sacramento County since November 26, 1900. The dinner was sponsored by Sacramento Elks Lodge, and Alex J. Ashen was chairman of the evening. Among the speakers were Stephan W. Downey, Chief Justice William H. Waste of the California Supreme Court and Superior Judge Malcolm C. Glenn. Judge Shields was born near Mills, Sacramento County, April 4, 1862.

Jackson—Under the auspices of Excelsior No. 31, the grand officers, headed by Grand President Henry S. Lyon, will dedicate Amador County's new Court House Saturday, June 29. The Parlor will present to the Board of Supervisors a California State (Bear) Flag, and the American Legion, Post No. 108, will present the United States of America Flag.

Elk Grove—Elk Grove No. 41 and Liberty No. 213 N.D. are sponsoring a July 4 all-day community picnic at Elk Grove Park, fifteen miles south of Sacramento on the Stockton highway. An interesting program will include formal dedication of the new park. The joint arrangement committee includes Grand Marshal Walter Bailey, Guy G. Foulks and Raymond Russell of No. 41, and Nell Christiansen, Helen Hanner and Isabelle Grover of No. 213.

Bakersfield—Bakersfield No. 42 and El Tejo No. 239 N.D. observed Mothers Day at a joint meeting May 15. President Hal Bannister presided. Richard Skinner was the soloist, Miss LaBrier the organist, and Rev. William E. Patrick delivered a eulogy. Jerry Giggy, Florence Rea and Dorothy Poe were flower girls. Other participating in the program were William Goodale, Mrs. Price Edwards, Mrs. Jenni Brown, Frank Espitalier, Carl Luick and Jaci Armistead.

Oakland—Oakland No. 50 received May 1 from Mrs. Laura Goss of Berkeley a United States of America Flag claimed to have been carried in a Sacramento parade by Leonard Goss in 1858. Said the donor: "I want to give this flag, which has lived through nearly a century of American freedom and democracy, to a group which will continue to love and cherish it."

Saint Helena—Christopher Mills, a charter member of Saint Helena No. 53, died May 4 survived by his wife and five children. He was born at San Francisco, March 13, 1861.

Auburn—Auburn No. 59 and Auburn No. 23 N.D. presented United States of America and California State (Bear) Flags to the Placer County Superior Court May 6. Harry Roserberry, representing No. 59, introduced Grand First Vice-president Henry S. Lyon, who spoke on "Americanism." The flags were accepted by Superior Judge J. B. Landis of Silver Star No. 63, Lincoln.

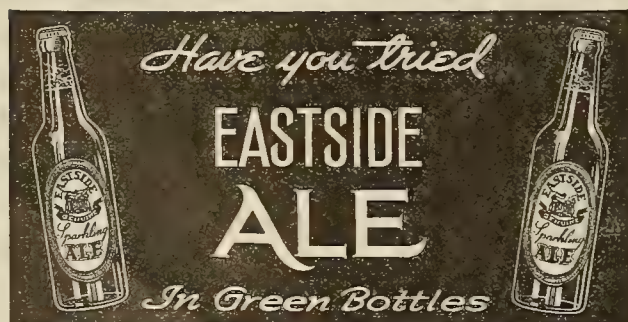

Calistoga—The fifty-fourth institution anniversary of Calistoga No. 86 was celebrated at banquet May 11. Members of Lower Lake No. 159 were guests.

Ferndale—Ferndale No. 93 has entered team in the local softball league; J. W. Trigg the manager. The Parlor plans the initiation of a large class of candidates in June.

Los Angeles—Publicity Director Jack Jamieson of the Golden Gate International Exposition at Hervey Lindley Kitchin of Ramona No. 109 are discussing plans for a statewide initiation to be held on Treasure Island some time prior to September.

Sebastopol—Sunday, June 9, at 10:30 a.m., tablet will be placed by the Grand Parlor Historic Landmarks Committee at the Jack London ranch at Glen Ellen, Sonoma County. W. Borba of Sebastopol No. 143 will be chairman the day, and Past Grand Joseph R. Knowlton will be the principal speaker. The drill team and drum corps of Piedmont No. 120 and Piedmont No. 87 N.D., Oakland, and the American and the Western Writers Guilds will participate in the ceremonies.

Oakland—Fruitvale No. 252 staged its annual

BAKER BLOCK WORKMAN PASSES.
Editor Grizzly Bear—Now that much is being written about the Baker Block [Los Angeles] thought the enclosed might be of interest to readers of The Grizzly Bear:

Rodolph C. Carr, who recently passed away, came to Los Angeles from Kentucky in 1875 with his parents. He was the last surviving workman on the now historic Baker Block. As a lad of 14 he learned his trade of brick mason on this building, his father, George Carr, being the contractor. Surviving relatives of Rodolph Carr, all affiliated with Los Angeles Parlor No. 124 N.D.G.W. are Miss Leonore Carr, a sister, and Mrs. Nina C. Hart and Miss Leonore C. Hart, nieces.—NINA C. HART, San Gabriel, California.

N.S. GRAND PARLOR

the Grand Parlor, teams from South San Francisco Parlor No. 157, San Francisco, and Long Beach Parlor No. 278 represented, respectively the northern and the southern sections of the state. Twelve candidates were initiated for Bakersfield Parlor No. 42. The following composed the teams:

Long Beach Parlor—Clarence S. Hunt, president; Elmer Haun, senior past president; Robert Castro, junior past president; Paul Cook, first vice-president; Jack Pinnel, second vice-president; Homer Weston, third vice-president; Paul Traynor, marshal; Bruce French, inside sentinel; Lawrence Ferguson, organist.

The judges—James F. Stanley, Stanford Parlor No. 76; June J. Longshore, Sacramento Parlor No. 3; John Schroder, Presidio Parlor No. 194; Norman Walker, Precita Parlor No. 187, and Judge Donald E. VanLuven, Arrowhead Parlor No. 110—awarded the prize to the team of South San Francisco Parlor; score, 957½ to 904 points.

As a special reward for winning the Grand Parlor membership contest five consecutive times, Grand President Jesse H. Miller, on behalf of the Grand Parlor, presented to Arrowhead Parlor No. 110, San Bernardino, a beautiful metal and glass seal of the State of California.

NOTES OF THE SESSION.

United States Attorney Benjamin Harrison of Arrowhead Parlor No. 110, San Bernardino, forcibly called to the attention of the Grand Parlor the danger of so-called "fishing boats" manned by ineligible-to-citizenship aliens.

Grand President Orinda G. Giannini of the N.D.G.W. visited, and extended greetings on behalf of that Order. She was accompanied by Grand Vice-president Hazel B. Hansen, Grand Marshal Claire Lindsey, Grand Trustees Mary Noerenberg and Evalyn Towne, Past Grand President Anne C. Thuesen, Supervising Deputy Grand President Margaret Carlisle, and a large delegation of Bakersfield and visiting Native Daughters.

The delegates from the Humboldt County Parlor let it be known that at next year's Grand Parlor Eureka will ask for the 1942 session.

Peace Justice Charles L. Poulson, totally blind delegate from Santa Barbara Parlor No. 116, entertained the Grand Parlor with piano selections of his own composition.

Past Grand President Herman C. Lichtenberger suggested a pilgrimage through the Mother Lode counties, to terminate at Sonora, Tuolumne County, where an outdoor group initiation of candidates from all the Parlor in those counties would be held. The suggestion was most favorably received, and arrangements for the event are to be made by those interested.

The Past Grand Presidents had their annual banquet May 21, with Judge Frank H. Dunne, the dean, presiding. Eldred L. Meyer was added to the "college" and presented with the gold emblem which all Past Grands wear with great pride. Others gathered about the festive board were Lewis F. Byington, Joseph R. Knowland, Herman C. Lichtenberger, Edward J. Lynch, William P. Cauby, Chas. A. Koenig, Harmon D. Skillin, Hartley Russell, Joseph J. McShane, Charles L. Dodge, Charles A. Thompson and John T. Newell.

ON THE SIDE.

The entertainment features, arranged by Bakersfield Parlor No. 42 and Taft Parlor No. 276 N.S.G.W., and Miocene Parlor No. 228 (Taft), El Tejon Parlor No. 239 (Bakersfield) and Desert Gold Parlor No. 250 (Mojave) N.D.G.W., were carried out as outlined in The Grizzly Bear for May, and everyone had a delightful time.

The attendance at the Sunday night reception was exceptionally large, and the program, for which Harry C. Sweetser of Santa Barbara Parlor No. 116 brought some talent from the "Queen City," was excellent. Larry Butler of Santa Barbara charmed with baritone selections, and a mixed chorus from the Taft Junior College rendered several pleasing numbers. Spanish dance and musical numbers were presented by Teresa Janssens, Byron Abrahams, Lucy Pensa, Leslie MacKinnon, Juan and Rosita Cota, and Fred Craviotta's orchestra of Santa Barbara; Lois Knowles, Mr. and Mrs. Larios and Johnnie Blanco of Bakersfield.

MUST ASSUME

and should assume an active part in your Parlor. With you as leaders, there should be carried on membership drives, and your assistance should be given to the Parlor whenever possible. In addition, the supervising district deputies will in every manner possible co-operate with the deputy grand presidents and the various Parlor.

"With your whole-hearted support, I want to be able to report at the next Grand Parlor that we have had a substantial and healthy increase in membership. I want every brother in the Order to consider himself on the membership committee, and every brother who secures ten members prior to the next Grand Parlor will have his name placed on a membership honor roll to be published in the proceedings of the next Grand Parlor. In fourteen counties of this State we have no Parlor of Native Sons, for which there is no valid reason except inactivity on the part of ourselves and those within the counties who are eligible but not members.

"Every native-born son of California should be proud to join with us, for in unity there is strength. We should have a membership of at least thirty thousand. Such an organization, with its members working in unison, motivated by ideals of Friendship, Loyalty and Charity, marching forward and onward under the Banner of Freedom in a democratic country, would present one of the best and mightiest forces for good in our State, and one of the strongest arguments against dictatorship, and it would be a safeguard of our true democratic institutions.

"In our drive for membership, the other activities of our Order will not be slighted, but will be carried on with all the sincerity and enthusiasm at our command. Particularly, I want to encourage more publicity for our Order. I want you to feel free to call upon our Grand Historian to deliver a message to any large gathering of members or of non-members, because you cannot help but be impressed and inspired to greater efforts after listening to his messages.

"Each Parlor should have a publicity director working in co-operation with our State Director of Publicity, and at this time I respectfully request each Subordinate Parlor to immediately appoint such a director, advising the Grand Secretary of the appointment in order that the brothers named may be contacted. We must publicize our activities, not only because to do so will benefit our Order but, in addition, will be of service to our communities and our State and Nation. We must assume our rightful position of leadership and service in every part of this State. By that I mean active, aggressive leadership and service.

"We are but soldiers marching on and on, protecting our great heritage, 'a free government,' and preserving and promoting the ideals of our benevolent Order. Let us keep in step with each other and, in tune to the strains of "The Star Spangled Banner" and "God Bless America," go ahead full speed, never, never turning back. As we are marching onward beneath the folds of Old Glory, I am reminded of these words:

"What shall I say to you, Old Flag!
You are so grand in every fold
So linked with the mighty deeds of old
So steeped in blood where heroes fell
So torn and pierced by shot and shell
So calm—so still—so firm—so true
My heart thrills with pride at sight of you,
Old Flag!"

At Taft, Wednesday afternoon, following a barbecue, a replica of Sutter's Fort—a massive adobe structure built by Kern County to house federal, state and county offices in that city—was dedicated by Grand President Jesse H. Miller, Past Grand President Eldred L. Meyer, Grand First Vice-president Henry S. Lyon, Grand Second Vice-president Edward T. Schnarr and Grand Third Vice-president Lloyd J. Cosgrove.

At the Grand Parlor banquet, Wednesday night, Alfred Harrell of Bakersfield Parlor No. 42 was the toastmaster, and Richard Skinner of that Parlor sang "I Love You, California." Past Grand President Lewis F. Byington delivered a fine talk on "Americanism," and Grand First Vice-president Henry S. Lyon spoke on "The Future of Our Order." Past Grand President Joseph J. McShane presented the Order's gift, a silver service, to Grand President Jesse H. Miller.

"Unless you bear with the faults of a friend, you betray your own."—Syrus.

"The best way to keep good acts in memory is to refresh them with new."—Cato.

Native Daughters of the Golden West

PLACENTIA (ORANGE COUNTY)—MAY 6 was a red-letter day for members of Grace No. 242, the occasion being the official visit of Grand President Orinda G. Giannini. In the forenoon Grand Trustee Mary B. Noerenberg escorted the Grand President and her mother, Mrs. Charlotte Gunther, through the southland to an Orange County broadcasting station, where Mrs. Giannini broadcast a most inspiring and instructive talk on the projects of the Order.

Following a delicious luncheon the party proceeded to Riverside where, after a sumptuous banquet, Grand President Giannini paid her official visit to the Parlors in District 33—Santa Ana No. 235, Lugonia No. 241, San Bernardino, Grace No. 242, Placentia, and Ontario No. 251. Approximately 200 members of the Order were on hand to greet Mrs. Giannini, Grand Vice-president Hazel B. Hansen, Grand Trustees Mary Noerenberg and Evalyn Towne. Santa Ana conducted the opening ceremonies, Lugonia exemplified the ritual, Ontario conducted the business, and Grace conducted the closing ceremonies. Seven candidates were initiated.

Under good of the Order, Helen Anderson of Grace delighted the assemblage by likening the honored guests to the ingredients of a fine cake, and all gave happy responses. In her remarks, Grand President Giannini expressed deep appreciation to the members of the four Parlors, and especially to Supervising Deputy Matilda Enfield, for the fine co-operation and splendid spirit shown in carrying out the very successful meeting, and spoke highly of the escort team. Gifts were presented Mrs. Giannini by the four Parlors. Deeply impressed by the message from the Grand President on the fine projects of the Order, those assembled voted the meeting one of the finest ever, and pledged anew their loyalty. —N.M.C.

First Long Distance Phone Line.

French Corral—Columbia No. 70 sponsored the placing here of a marker, dedicated May 19, commemorating the building of the first long-distance telephone line in California. It extended from French Corral, Nevada County, to French Lake, in the Sierra, a distance of about sixty miles, and was erected in the fall and winter of 1877-78.

A historic brick structure built in the early '50s and owned by the Milton Mining Company, housed the telephone and was also used as an office by the operating company. Prominent figures in the mining world of the '70s and '80s were N. C. Miller and V. G. Bell of French Corral and H. C. Perkins of the Malakoff Diggings near Bloomfield, famous when hydraulic mining was at its height.

Columbia featured a program consisting of a

N.D.G.W.—NEWS PARAGRAPHS.—N.D.G.W.

Past Grand President Esther R. Sullivan, chairman Grand Parlor California History and Landmarks Committee, is anxious to locate California's oldest living native-born White woman. If there is anyone in your vicinity claiming that distinction, have the date of her birth certified and send to Miss Sullivan, 720 "C" street, Marysville.

Placerville—Marguerite No. 12 will present a large California State (Bear) Flag to the Placerville Grammar School June 7. June 23, at 12:30 noon, the Parlor will place a plaque at the Church of Our Savior, Episcopal, in honor of Rev. Charles Callie Pierce, founder and for forty years rector. This is the oldest church building in Placerville, and was erected seventy-five years ago. In the afternoon, Marguerite will join Placerville No. 9 N.S. in celebrating at a picnic in Coloma the fiftieth anniversary of the unveiling of the Marshall monument [referred to in "Fifty Years Ago" in The Grizzly Bear for May]. Miss May Bailey, a charter member of Marguerite, died May 4. She was born July 24, 1860, at Smith Flat.

Napa—Eshcol No. 16 was hostess for a district meeting in charge of Supervising Deputy Ruby Brien. Entertainment was provided by La Junta No. 203, Saint Helena, Vallejo No. 195 and Eshcol. The banquetroom and tables were artistically decorated. Arrangements were made by Sidonia Geiger, Billie Banchemo and Jane Ezette.—E.I.

"All members are earnestly urged to remember The Grizzly Bear Magazine, which is recommended to every Native Daughter as a means of education, inspiration and entertainment, most beneficial in its every influence, and worthy of a place in every home."—Past Grand President Bertha A. Briggs, Chairman Grand Parlor N.D.G.W. Publicity Committee.

Portola—A district meeting participated in by Naomi No. 36, Downville, Plumas Pioneer No. 219, Quincy, Las Plumas No. 254, Portola, Loyal No. 264, Loyalton, and Sierra No. 268, Alleghany, was held here April 30. Marie Costa, a charter member of Naomi, was given a place of honor. Among the speakers were Supervising Deputy Edith Grother and Deputy Imelda Winn. May 14, Las Plumas observed Mothers Day and Memorial Day with a fitting program.

San Andreas—Grand President Orinda G. Giannini officially visited the Calaveras County Parlors in joint session here. Prior to the gathering Mrs. Giannini, Deputy Mae Waring, Past Grand Carrie Roesch-Durham and Supervising Deputy Emma B. Wright were guests of Grand Inside Sentinel Doris Treat on a motor trip to Calaveras Big Trees. The group were particularly fortunate in finding a great number of snow-plants in bloom in the beautiful state grove of sequoia gigantea. Participating in the joint meeting, which was preceded by a dinner at Angels Camp, were Ruby No. 46, Murphy, Princess No. 84, Angels Camp, and San Andrea No. 113. Two candidates were initiated, an entertainment was provided by Esther Mellie Ethel Scott, Lucille Bernasconi, Edgar Jones and Don Jones. Also in attendance were Past Grand Gladys E. Noce and Deputy Gertrude Leonard.

Sutter Creek—Amapola No. 80 celebrated its forty-sixth institution anniversary April 21. During the Parlor's Public Schools Week program a complete baby layette made by the girls in the sewing class of the sixth and seventh grades at the Sutter Creek Grammar School was presented Past Grand Gladys E. Noce who, in turn, sent it to Secretary Mary E. Brusie of the Central Homeless Children Committee. Mrs. Noce expressed the appreciation of the Native Daughters for the commendable work of the students.—M.S.

Tracy—El Pescadero No. 82 entertained Charter Members Alice Murrell, Emma Frerich, Emma Cox, Susie Frerichs, Alice Frerichs and Clara Ludwig May 3. Among the 140 in attendance were Grand Trustee Ethel C. Enos and Supervising Deputy Algie Gossett. Decoration and refreshments for the occasion were in charge of Vanadine Huck and Lily Mae Peter.

Plymouth—Forrest No. 86 is raising funds to place a marker at the site of an early day Amador County hotel and stage station, the Central House, erected in 1853 by John Grambart. The lumber for the structure came around Cape Horn in a sailing vessel.

Salinas—Allel No. 102's forty-second birthday was fittingly observed with a program which included a candle lighting ceremony. Gifts to the Parlor were opened by President Helen Tubbs. Deputy Viola Clough was a visitor. Mrs. Clara Lanini was chairman of another successful dinner-dance. Santa Lucia No. 97 N.S. was represented. Mothers of the members of Allel were entertained May 9, and each was presented a vase. Refreshments were served at table prettily decorated with spring flowers. Mr. Marjorie Burden was chairman of the occasion.—R.R.

Hollister—Birthdays formed the theme of the social session of Copa de Oro No. 105 who honors were paid members born in April, May and June. The refreshment tables were appropriately decorated for each month, and games added to the merriment of the evening. May Day decorations featured the May 1 social session of the Parlor. Sweetpeas were used in abundance, and a dainty maypole centered the head refreshment table. The history contribution was a story of "Mails in Early California Days" and, commemorating Citizenship Week, a discussion concerned the proper display of the United States of America Flag on all occasions. Resolutions were adopted favoring the "Mother of America" movement and endorsing the Sheaf and bill [pertaining to the manning of fishing boats], now pending in the Federal Congress.

Oakland—Aloha No. 106 entertained mothers of the members May 14. Irma Murray headed the arrangements committee. The Parlor preparing to participate in the Sacramento Mission Day festivities.

Chico—Mothers of the members of Annie Bidwell No. 168 were entertained May 9. varied program by members was augmented with vocal selections by Miss Ida Marie Gibson accompanied by Mrs. Lucille Leisure, director of music at Chico High School, and accordion and guitar numbers by Misses Emma and Emil Uhl of that school. The banquet tables were adorned with sweetpeas of pastel shades artistically arranged. Mrs. Margaret Kime, aged 87, was the oldest, and Mrs. Leona Gerhardt was the youngest mother present. The card party for the benefit of the homeless children was financial success. May 23 the Parlor, through its civics committee, presented a California State (Bear) Flag to the Butte County District President Lucy Girdler endeavors to have every meeting interesting and entertaining.—C.B.

Fresno—The California Poppy Club of Fresno, 187 was entertained during May at the homes of Mrs. Mary Aubrey and Ila Busby. A truck dinner was served at the home of Mrs. Osborne May 22. Several members of the club went to Bakersfield May 11 to attend the official visit of Grand President Orinda Glannini to El Tejon and Micoeno.—M.C.C.

San Diego—May 4, San Diego No. 208 enjoyed and profited by an official visit from Grand President Orinda Glannini. At a dinner preceding the meeting the tables were decorated in silver and white. Representing San Diego No.

108 N.S., President Henry Hache presented a bouquet of red roses to Mrs. Glannini, and Deputy Grand President Albert V. Mayrhofer told of the landmarks activities of the Natives in San Diego County. At the meeting, eleven new names were added to No. 208's membership-roll, and Grand President Glannini gave an instructive and interesting talk on the Order's projects, particularly stressing Americanism. Among the many other visitors from southland Parlor were Grand Vice-president Hazel B. Hansen, Grand Trustees Evalyn Towne and Mary Noerenberg, and Deputy Virginia Burke.—S.M.

Petaluma—At a largely attended meeting, Petaluma No. 222 celebrated "Leopolda Vler nite" May 7 in honor of Deputy Vler, who was presented with gifts from the Parlor and various members. Zoura Tompkins, chairman of the evening, and committee served delicious refreshments at tables decorated with miniature dolls set in candy favors.—A.B.

Santa Ana—Members of Santa Ana No. 235 enjoyed another pilgrimage to places of local interest May 10, Santa Ana Botanic Gardens being visited; a picnic lunch followed. The Parlor's annual pioneer mothers tea was held May 13. Guests were received by Miss Gladys Edwards and a group of past presidents. Gifts were presented Mrs. Carrie Flag, the pioneer mother who has resided in Orange County the longest period, since 1873; Mrs. Elizabeth McLeod, oldest pioneer mother present; Mrs. Hannah Kerr, oldest member of the Parlor; Mrs. Margaret Culver, oldest native daughter; Mrs. Don Crumley, youngest native daughter. Arrangements for the successful event were made by Mms. Walter Hiskey, Lillian Gant, Adeline Marschall, Mae West, Rose Ford and Mildred Wheeler. May 20, Santa Ana sponsored a public tea at which "Sutter's Gold" was reviewed by Miss Fannie Goddard. Mms. Marschall and Wheeler were in charge of the affair.—G.A.R.C.

Sacramento—An outstanding event of early spring was a millinery show and card party sponsored by Rio Rito No. 253, and the latest in headgear was displayed. President Marie Poletti was chairman of the evening, Matile Glick was the commentator, and the models were Esther Grow, Edna Kauffman, Edna Lowery, Dora Orr, Myrtes Orr, Isabelle Parker, Muriel Paul, Alma Skinner, Gertrude Soligan and Doris Wittington. Music was furnished by Anna Rose Shalag, Myrtes Orr and Eleanor David. Arrangements for the party were made by a committee which included Laurette Thill, chairman, Catherine Bennett, Esther Grow, Edna Kauffman, Edna Lowery, Dora Orr, Muriel Paul, Gene Sady, Gertrude Bradbrook and Iva Langness.—C.B.

"All members are earnestly urged to remember The Grizzly Bear Magazine, which is recommended to every Native Daughter as a means of education, inspiration and entertainment, most beneficial in its every influence, and worthy of a place in every home."—Past Grand President Bertha A. Briggs, Chairman Grand Parlor N.D.G.W. Publicity Committee.

Albany—Albany No. 260 honored nine mothers with a Mothers Day program May 8, and also had a birthday party for six members. Mrs. Marie Vargus was in charge.

Sebastopol—In a setting of pioneer decorations, with many interesting relics on display, Sebastopol No. 265 had its first afternoon card party, which was a success in every way; Anice Badger was in charge. May 17 Mothers Day was observed. A potluck supper was served, and each guest was presented a corsage. Alice Gannella and Martha Roberts sang "Mother," Alice Clapp read a short story, and a skit, "The Country School," was presented by Alzuma Singmaster, Gladys Simoni, Harriet Jackson, Alice Gannella and Martha Roberts. Josephine Chenoworth, 85, and Mrs. M. Werts, 81, native Californians, were the oldest mothers in attendance. Martha Roberts, chairman of the enjoyable occasion, was assisted by Alice Gannella and Gladys Simoni. News of Sebastopol's mothers: a son was born to Vivian Winton May 1, a daughter to Georgia Triggs May 9, and a son to Hazel Baker May 15.—M.R.

Fresno—Wawona No. 271 had an official visit from Grand President Orinda Glannini. She was accompanied by her mother, Mrs. G. C. Gunther, and a sister, Mrs. Charlotte Ludemann, both members of Orinda No. 56, San Francisco. Supervising Deputy Elnore Mills was also a visitor. A dinner and entertainment preceded the meeting, at which two candidates were initiated. On the Parlor's behalf, Jane Black presented a gift to the Grand President.—M.C.

In Memoriam

MAMIE HARWICK.

To the Officers and Members of Ruby Parlor No. 46 N.D.G.W.—We, your committee appointed to prepare resolutions of affection and respect to the memory of our departed Sister Mamie Harwick, submit the following in a spirit of loving remembrance:

Whereas, The Supreme Ruler of the Universe has called this sister to the Native Daughter Home on High;

Resolved, That we extend our deepest sympathy to her bereaved family; that copies of these resolutions be sent to her family, and also to The Grizzly Bear Magazine for publication, and that the resolutions be spread upon the minutes of Ruby Parlor.

Sincerely and fraternally submitted in P.D.F.A., MARY WELSH,
AGNES RABER,
CORA DENSLOW.
Committee.

Murphys, April 19, 1940.

MARY JANE LITTLE.

To the Officers and Members of Argonaut Parlor No. 166 N.D.G.W.—We, your committee entrusted with the sad duty of drafting resolutions of love and respect in memory of our dearly beloved Charter Member Mary Jane Little, submit the following:

Whereas, God has seen fit to send His angels to carry lovingly and tenderly our beloved sister to answer the roll call of that Grand Parlor on High, we humbly submit; but she shall be greatly missed by we who held her dear, and there shall ever be a vacant chair. She dearly loved her Parlor, and her Order as well, and was ever ready to serve in its interest and welfare; therefore, be it

Resolved, That our deepest heartfelt sympathy be extended to her bereaved family, that a copy of these resolutions be spread upon the minutes of our Parlor, a copy sent to her family, and a copy sent to The Grizzly Bear for publication.

Respectfully yours in P.D.F.A., EVELYN FAVINI,
ADA SPILMAN,
IRMA CATON,
CLAIRE STRANAHAN.

SANTA BARBARA

(JAMES FRENCH DORRANCE.)

Outstanding events for Santa Barbara's Native Sons and Native Daughters in June came within a week as the month drew to a close. Most significant in accenting co-operative relations with other organizations in the Santa Barbara area was the ceremonious burning of the out-moded American Flag which had served Reina del Mar Parlor No. 126 N.D.G.W. forty years. The cremation was conducted by officers of Starr King Post, Womans Relief Corps, the constituted authority for flag disposal under commission from the American Flag Association. Santa Barbara Parlor No. 116 N.S.G.W., under whose sponsorship the Native Daughters Parlor was instituted April 20, 1901, was represented by a delegation under the chairmanship of John P. McCaughey. Mrs. Martin J. Haider, spokesman for the W.R.C. group, said, in part:

"Our American Flag is the foundation upon which the Native Daughters have built their ritual. From the first, the flag has been associated with the basic principles of the Order. This particular flag, a gift of Santa Barbara Native Sons, has been unfurled on many important occasions in the forty years it has served. In war times of 1918 the flag urged on the Daughters in their service to childhood with the setting up of the family milk fund. It has appeared in connection with the homeless children endeavor, conducted jointly with the Native Sons, which has resulted in placing over 5,000 children in fine California homes. Admission Day, over the years, the flag has been featured at programs honoring the American Pioneer."

"The Order of Native Daughters of the Golden West has membership representing all nations and all creeds. It has helped preserve the culture of other races, and the flag has stood as symbol of a united Americanism. Above all, the Order has gained protection and power from the flag to continue steadfast in its veneration of spiritual and moral ideals. To the Daughters, the Bear Flag symbolizes love of state, the American Flag love of country. Long may they both wave!"

Mrs. Clarence Longmire presided, and was assisted by past presidents and seven charter members. A pleasing program feature was the singing by Mrs. Garnet P. McManus of a new anthem march, "Democracy Forever," words by Miss Martena C. Tenney, music by Joseph McManus.

"TROJAN BOATS" DANGEROUS.

June 23, Santa Barbara Parlor No. 116 N.S.G.W. assembled a large company of friends at the barbecue pits on the Edgar W. Stow ranch near Goleta for its annual barbecue. The program featured Federal Judge Benjamin Harrison, former United States attorney for the southern district of California, who brought a message of statewide interest. His subject was "Trojan Boats," and he was introduced by O. F. Huffman, after President W. H. Rutherford had welcomed guests.

Judge Harrison, who is affiliated with Arrowhead Parlor No. 110 N.S.G.W., San Bernardino, pointed out the evil of having fishing boats manned by aliens operating off the southern California coast. He considered this a dangerous evil and reviewed pending legislation, as well as possible future legislation, that will curb the practice. He pointed out that barring aliens from fishing off the coast is one of the major projects of the Americanization Committee of the Native Sons Grand Parlor. Delegations of Sons from Bakersfield, Taft and Ventura attended the feast.

SAN BERNARDINO

San Bernardino—Some 200 attended the annual fathers and sons banquet of Arrowhead Parlor No. 110 N.S.G.W., June 5. Superior Judge Samuel R. Blake of Los Angeles, a member of Hollywood Parlor No. 196, was the main speaker. An elaborate program of entertainment followed the dinner. June 12 the Parlor elected officers, and J. Avery Anderson was advanced to the post of president.

At a special meeting of Arrowhead at the Crestline Clubhouse June 22 twenty candidates were initiated. In keeping with the mountain atmosphere, officers of the Parlor wore '49er costumes. Dinner preceded the initiation. Arthur O. Johnson was chairman of the affair.—N.B.

SEW FOR THE RED CROSS.

Ontario—Ontario Parlor No. 251 N.D.G.W. elected officers June 13, Frances Mitchell being chosen president. Installation will be held July 11. Three candidates were initiated June 27. The sewing group met June 12 at the home of Adele Frankish and decided to sew for the Red Cross.

Ontario had charge of the Southern District breakfast at the Oakland Grand Parlor June 18. Frances Mitchell was the chairman, and Vada Austin made the placecards.

CALIFORNIA FIFTY YEARS AGO

Thomas W. McAuliffe, Historian Sacramento Parlor N.S.G.W.

(COMPILED EXPRESSLY FOR THE GRIZZLY BEAR MAGAZINE.)

GENERAL JOHN C. FREMONT, prominently identified with the early history of California, died July 13, 1890, at the New York City home of an adopted daughter at the age of 77. Out of respect for the General, a California Republic (Bear) Flag was flown at half-mast over the headquarters of the Associated Society of California Pioneers of 1849 in Boston, Massachusetts.

Fremont, then a captain, was in California in 1846 at the head of an exploring expedition sent out by the Federal Government, and is said to have aided the revolting Americans who raised the California Republic Flag at Sonoma in June of that year. Captain Fremont raised the United States of America Flag at San Juan Bautista, San Benito County, July 18, 1846, and January 16, 1847, he was appointed military governor of California by Commodore Robert F. Stockton.

Independence Day, the national holiday, was generally observed throughout California July 4.

A SOLDIER'S PRAYER: 1939

(WILLIAM J. MITCHEL JR.)

FORWORD: The paper is the author's conception of a soldier's prayer in a universal sense. It is not the prayer of an English, a German, a Polish, or a Chinese soldier in particular. Nor is it the prayer of a Catholic, a Jew, a Mohammedan, or a Protestant. It is the prayer of millions of human soldiers today.

"O God, why this war?"

"Do You show Your wrath because we men are sinners? If this is why, God, remember that when You created us, You made us weak. Or is it because our leaders have forsaken You. But leaders are men: they have assumed Your power as their own and are too human to admit their grave mistake. Do you let us kill each other because this war is of our own making? God, I do not understand.

"I am not a soldier of my own will. My generals tell me that I fight to protect my country, my home, and those You have given me in love. They assure me that in fighting for these things, I fight for You.

"And yet does not my enemy believe that he too fights for these same things and YOU? Have I the right to take his life; has he the right to take mine? O God, why do we kill each other if we are both waging a battle for You? Is it right and just that we deprive each other of the thing that is Yours to create or destroy? God, I do not know.

"I am bewildered. This world seems to be founded on uncertainty. I doubt all in this moment save that You, God, are the only Truth. Until this moment I have never known true prayer. Until now I have never felt this true sense of communion with One I sometimes doubted to exist.

"Perhaps it is the nearness of death that brings You so close to me. In a sense You are death:

"This morning I saw a man die. He too was a soldier and a sinner. But when that moment of incomprehensible transition approached, he thought not of material success, life's pleasures, or worldly happiness. He cried to You instead, and You took him.

"God, give me the patience to await death. Give me the courage to face it. And above all, give me the assurance that You will not take my life from me in vain—that some small part of this strange world will be better because I die.

"And when You call me, God, take me quickly—in the passing of a second, unheralded. Do not let me linger for minutes or hours or days. O God, I almost want You to take me now.

"Forgive my anguish. I am human. Forgive my incomprehensibility. You alone can give me the faith which supplants knowledge. I only seek justification in my soul for this terrible conflict.

"Why this war, O God?"

(The above came to The Grizzly Bear from Mrs. Jennie Nagle of Minersa Parlor No. 2 N.D.G.W., San Francisco, with the statement that it was written in October 1939 by her 18-year-old nephew, William J. Mitchel Jr., a native of San Francisco, "as an essay for his English class at Dartmouth College."—Editor.)

THE FIFTY-FOURTH GRAND PARLOR of the Order of Native Daughters of the Golden West, with Grand President Orinda G. Giannini of Orinda Parlor No. 56, San Francisco, presiding, was in session at Oakland, Alameda County, June 17, 18, 19 and 20. Members of Orinda, gowned in dainty summer formals and carrying white garden hats filled with pink snapdragons, escorted the grand officers, attired in gowns of blue taffeta, to their stations.

In a welcome-to-Alameda-County gesture, members of the Alameda County 1940 Grand Parlor Committee, in dotted swiss formals, made an attractive entrance in three groups, carrying, respectively, gladioli of red, white and yellow. Grand Secretary Sallie R. Thaler, the committee chairman, extended greetings and, on the committee's behalf, presented to Grand President Giannini a gavel with an inscribed gold band. Also on behalf of the committee, Grand Trustee Dora E. Brayton presented a gold mesh bag to Past Grand Carrie Roesch-Durham, who was observing the fiftieth anniversary of her grand presidency, and Supervising Deputy Olinda Kardoza presented a silver mesh bag to Past Grand May C. Boldemann, who was observing the twenty-fifth anniversary of her grand presidency. "California, Beloved of God," composed by Laura Jennings of Albany Parlor No. 260, was sung by Marjory Allen, accompanied by Margarette Hull.

In their reports to the Grand Parlor, Grand President Giannini gave an extended account of her successful reign, and Grand Secretary Sallie R. Thaler gave a detailed report of the numerous transactions of that important office. The reports showed the Order to be in a flourishing condition, with a substantial membership increase the past year and a cash balance May 31, 1940, of $24,199.25 in the Grand Parlor General Fund.

In most instances, the reports of grand officers and committees dealt with matters heretofore given publicity in The Grizzly Bear. Follows a summary of the Oakland Grand Parlor proceedings, with no reference, however, to proposals that failed of passage:

LEGISLATION ENACTED.

Art. X, Sec. 11, Constitution Grand Parlor, amended to read: "Members fifty years of age or over . . . who wish to transfer to other Parlor are allowed to continue as beneficiary members, provided they comply with provisions governing Grand Parlor Death Benefit, excepting they be not required to take another physical examination."

Art. XI, Sec. 20, Constitution Grand Parlor, amended to provide that Subordinate Parlor may "hold picnics or civic activities on Sunday with the proper dignity."

Art. IV, Sec. 7, Constitution Subordinate Parlor, amended to read: "The Recording Secretary, Financial Secretary, Treasurer and Trustees are not permitted to hold more than one office at any one time."

Recommended, that Subordinate Parlor "budget their finances on a yearly basis and, where necessary, readjust income to meet current expenses."

Ordered, that Subordinate Parlor "whose funds do not total $5.00 per member amend their bylaws and suspend payment of sick benefits until their treasuries are replenished."

Allowing the deputy grand president "to, under extenuating circumstances, designate the junior past president of the Parlor to which she is appointed to take her place during auditing of the books of the Parlor."

Ordered, that before markers designating historic and other sites are placed by Subordinate Parlor, the design and wording must be submitted to the chairman of the Grand Parlor History and Landmarks Committee for approval.

Ordered, that Subordinate Parlor, "in the interest of Americanism, stress the presentation of the California State [Bear] Flag." The Parlor are also instructed to ascertain if flags "have been placed . . . in accordance with recent State legislation."

Ordered, that when a junior group is to be organized, all rules and plans must be submitted to the chairman of the Grand Parlor Junior Auxiliaries Committee before institution, and the charter will be issued by the Grand Parlor.

Ordered, "That the practice of introducing Grand Parlor [committee] chairmen and charter members of Subordinate Parlor be discontinued."

Ordered, "That the practice of calling Grand Parlor [committee] chairmen 'state' chairmen be discontinued."

Ordered, "That the holder of an expired withdrawal card joining another Parlor must pay the initiation fee."

PROCEEDINGS OAKLAND N.D. GRAND PARLOR (CLARENCE M. HUNT.)

Ordered, that in Subordinate Parlor "God Bless America" be sung following the salute to the flag.

Ordered, "That if a Parlor so desires it may use an altar cloth suited to the arrangements of the room."

Slight changes were made in the Ritual, new dedication ceremonies were approved, and the odes were ordered reprinted "in proper key."

BUSINESS TRANSACTED.

The per capita tax was fixed at $1.00, payable 50 cents in July 1940 and 50 cents in January 1941, and the Home assessment was fixed at 50 cents.

Los Angeles City was selected as the meeting-place for the Fifty-fifth (1941) Grand Parlor.

The granting of a charter to Yerba Buena Parlor No. 273, San Francisco, was approved, and the surrender of the charter of Lakemont Parlor No. 259, Oakland, was also approved.

On recommendation Grand President Giannini, $100 was contributed to the Soledad Mission restoration fund.

Ordered, that suitably inscribed metal plaques be tendered Permanent Members of the Grand Parlor. To take care of the expense, $50 was appropriated.

The Grizzly Bear Magazine was re-endorsed as the official publicity organ of the Order, and financial provision was made for the publication therein of the Official Directory of Subordinate Parlor.

The incoming Grand President was allowed $500 "for the extension of the Order through good publicity," and an additional $250 was set aside for the use of the Grand Parlor Radio Committee.

Resolved, "that to indicate a full co-operative public spirit the Order of Native Daughters of the Golden West unite with our brother organization, the Native Sons of the Golden West, in requesting the Postmaster General of the United States to issue a United States postage stamp depicting the raising of our Bear Flag."

Ordered, that the regulations pertaining to scholarships sponsored by the Grand Parlor be amended to make eligible "any member or daughter of a member in good standing."

Justices of the United States Supreme Court were commended for a decision upholding a law making mandatory salute of the Flag of the United States of America by schoolchildren.

To assist in carrying on one of the outstanding projects of the Order, the placing of markers to designate historic landmarks, $100 was appropriated.

To complete compilation of a roster of California Pioneers, $100 was set aside for use by the Grand Parlor Roster Committee.

A marker design for use by Subordinate Parlor desiring to designate historic sites was approved; its use, however, is not compulsory.

Ordered, that fifty-year pins of an approved design be presented by the Grand Parlor to all members who have been affiliated with the Order for fifty and more years.

With contributions previously made as a nucleus, the Annie L. Adair Memorial Scholarship Fund was established. It is planned to raise at least $1,500, and the fund will be used to provide a business or a social science scholarship for either a son or a daughter of a Native Daughter or a Native Son.

Ordered, that $3,250 of Grand Parlor funds be transferred from the savings to the commercial account.

For activities sponsored by the Order at the Golden Gate International Exposition, $150 was appropriated. Members of the Order are to assist as hostesses the second and fourth Saturdays of each month.

The incoming Grand President was directed to appoint a committee to confer with a committee from the N.S.G.W. and draw up a joint installation ceremony for consideration by the next Grand Parlor.

Rules for the conduct of drill team and drum corps contests were adopted.

NEW GRAND OFFICERS.

At the election for grand officers, 396 ballots were cast, and the following were chosen:

Grand President—Mrs. Hazel B. Hansen of Verdugo Parlor No. 240.

Grand Vice-president—Miss Clarice E. Cook of Caliz de Oro Parlor No. 206.

Grand Secretary—Mrs. Sallie R. Thaler of Aloha Parlor No. 106.

Grand Treasurer—Mrs. Agnes M. Curry of Portola Parlor No. 172.

White of Piedmont Parlor No. 87; Mrs. Ethel C. Enos of Morada Parlor No. 199; Mrs. Loretta M. Cameron of Twin Peaks Parlor No. 185; Mrs. Evalyn G. Towne of Miocene Parlor No. 228.

They, together with Mrs. Orinda G. Giannini of Orinda Parlor No. 56, who automatically became the Past Grand President, were publicly installed by Worthy Supreme Grand President Edna B. Briggs of La Bandera Parlor No. 110 assisted by Supreme Grand Chairman Mary B. Noerenberg of Californiana Parlor No. 247; Supreme Grand Marshal Claire Lindsey of Golden Gate Parlor No. 158, and Supreme Grand Organist Mary Miller of Verdugo Parlor No. 240.

Numerous presentations were made at the close of the ceremonies, including an official ring to Past Grand President Orinda G. Giannini which was presented on the Order's behalf by Past Grand President Emma G. Foley. Miss Rena Taube of Genevieve Parlor No. 132, representing the supervising deputy grand presidents and the deputy grand presidents, presented to her a silver service.

Grand President Hazel B. Hansen was escorted to her high station by an escort team of sixteen members of her home-Parlor, Verdugo No. 240, attired in pink taffeta and carrying old-fashioned bouquets. She, too, was the recipient of numerous gifts, including a remembrance from her husband and two sons who, with many other relatives, were present to witness the installation.

NOTES OF THE SESSION.

Prior to the Grand Parlor opening ceremonies Mayor William J. McCracken addressed the assemblage and welcomed them to Oakland.

Past Grand Carrie Roesch-Durham of Joaquin Parlor No. 5, who has attended every Grand Parlor, was again the chairman of the Credentials Committee.

Community singing was led by Ruby Bried of El Vespero Parlor No. 118, with Music Chairman Lucile Russell as accompanist.

Speaking for the Oakland Chamber of Commerce, Phil Ray extended a cordial welcome and congratulated the Order for its splendid work in the field of Americanism.

Members of the Grand Parlor were guests of Joseph R. Knowland, Past Grand President N.S.G.W., at the National Horse Show Wednesday afternoon.

Elena Page of Richmond Parlor No. 147 favored the Grand Parlor with a solo, "I Love You, California," during the Wednesday balloting.

"Mission Soledad Parlor No. 1940" was convened Monday evening for exemplification of the ritual by the Alameda County deputies.

Donations of $50 each for the Soledad Mission restoration fund were made by the San Francisco deputies and John A. Corotto, Grand Treasurer N.S.G.W.

Grand Inside Sentinel Doris Treat emerged from an encounter with a wall bed with a broken finger.

Past Grand Florence D. Boyle instructed the Grand Parlor on how to properly salute the flag.

Past Grands Cora B. Sifford and Dr. Mariana Bertola contributed $35 each to the Annie L. Adair Memorial Scholarship Fund.

Past Grand Ariana W. Stirling, chairman N.S.G.W. and N.D.G.W. Central Homeless Children Committee, was appointed timekeeper for the nominating speeches.

Past Grand Emma Lou Humphrey was chairman of the Legislation Committee, and Grand Vice-president Hazel B. Hansen was chairman of the Laws and Supervision Committee.

Serving on the election board were Past Grand Grace S. Stoermer, inspector; Past Grands Mamie G. Peyton and Ethel I. Begley, judges; Laura Updike, Eldora Parlor No. 248, and Mae Shea, Orinda Parlor No. 56, clerks.

Grand President Henry S. Lyon extended greetings on behalf of the Order of Native Sons of the Golden West. Accompanying him were Grand First Vice-president Edward T. Schnarr, Grand Second Vice-president Lloyd J. Cosgrove, Grand Secretary John T. Regan, Grand Treasurer John A. Corotto, Grand Trustees Richard

MRS. HAZEL BRUSCHI-HANSEN OF Glendale, Los Angeles County, affiliated with Verdugo Parlor No. 240, became the Grand President of the Order of Native Daughters of the Golden West at the Fifty-fourth Grand Parlor, which met in Oakland, Alameda County. Addressing an assemblage of representatives of the Subordinate Parlors from all sections of California, numerous friends and relatives following her induction into office, June 20, she said:

"On the shelves of most of the important libraries of California are to be found a series of volumes entitled 'Native Daughters of the Golden West—Proceedings.' Those books tell the world about our Order. Tonight we begin the compilation of another volume to be added to the series.

"It is with sincerity and humility I now accept the office of Grand President of the Order of Native Daughters of the Golden West, fully realizing the responsibility that comes with such an honor, profoundly aware of the duty to see that every page of this new volume will give account of purposes and accomplishments worthy of record, each page bespeaking the light of divine guidance and the idealism and the moral courage of true Californian women.

"In compiling this 1940-41 volume, we know that time is not going to wait on us. We must start the record, and we start it now. There can be no postponing, no defaulting; we must be unafraid. I ask you to go forward with me from this moment with determination and faith that this shall be a year of growth, accomplishment and harmony, a year in which our patriotism as Americans and Californians shall shine forth as never before.

"The pleasure I feel in accepting the honor of this office is greater than I can express in words, and my impulse at this time is to dwell much upon these sentiments. But it is more important to express to you, as clearly as I can, the program and the principles by which I hope to serve you during the year.

"This is the only opportunity I shall have of addressing you as a body, until my year of office is ended. Therefore, I feel I can best serve you by giving you a message to take back to your parlors, so that every member will know the objectives toward which my energies shall be directed.

"This Grand Parlor brings to a happy close a year of progress. I congratulate Orinda on what she has accomplished, and praise the way she has represented the Order.

"We should not lose momentum as we pass from one year to another, and this is another reason why I have chosen to speak to you tonight in plain, rather than eloquent, terms regarding my program. My aim is to promote the growth of this Order, not during just one year, but through all the years ahead. As Grand President, I am not so much concerned about the year of my term of office as with what the year may contribute toward the steady advance of the Order.

"Above all else, I ask the co-operation of every member and Subordinate Parlor of the Order. Without that, my service to you as Grand President will be of little value. We are a group, and every member counts in making up the whole. Everyone must have a part, and I ask each individual to assume her part, actively and faithfully.

"From a long-range point of view, we are entering this year upon a decade of unparalleled importance. What we do during the next ten years, the kind of enlightenment we demonstrate, will have consequences reaching far into the future. It is my earnest hope that our Order will this year continue to build constructively and unselfishly, to be worthy of the great destiny which the next ten years will unfold for us as citizens of this state and nation.

"For the citizens of California, it happens that 1940 is the beginning of a decade which will bring an extraordinary sequence of historic anniversaries. We should begin thinking about them now, for there will be many calls upon us to give leadership and support in the celebrations incident to them, and we shall need much strength in personnel and organization in order to take our rightful place in the observance of these historic occasions.

"The first will come in the fall of 1942, the our hundredth anniversary of the discovery of California by Juan Rodriguez Cabrillo. Then will follow a great succession of centenary dates: 1946 will mark the one hundredth anniversary of the raising of the Bear Flag at Sonoma and the one hundredth anniversary of the raising of the American Flag at Monterey; January 24, 1948, will mark the one hundredth anniversary of the fateful day when John Marshall found a gold nugget in Sutter's millrace on the American River in El Dorado County.

"The whole of 1949 will, of course, be given over to celebrations commemorating the passage of a century since the gold rush—the coming of the American Pioneers by covered wagon, sailing vessel and side-wheel steamer. And then will come September 9, 1950,—surely to be one of the most unforgettable days ever experienced—the one hundredth anniversary of the admission of California into the Union!

"Thus the next ten years will be years of exceptional meaning to the Native Daughters of the Golden West, and we should begin preparing for them now. Let us consider also what this year and the other years of the decade will mean to the history of our nation.

"You and I are living in, and we are part of, one of the most critical eras in the history of the entire world. The dangers to our American institutions and to our civilization which we have occasionally caught sight of as threatening clouds in the far distance, today are no longer matters of future possibility. These dangers are upon us now. And what you and I do today to meet and vanquish them will decide the destiny of the children of California for generations to come!

Mrs. Hazel Bruschi-Hansen,
Verdugo Parlor No. 240, Glendale,
Grand President N.D.G.W.

"Events have moved our nation with shocking speed from the neutral position we desire and have tried to maintain, to the position of a non-belligerent nation with definite and stated sympathies in the world-wide conflict which now rages across the sea.

"As a nation, we have publicly acknowledged that the enemy of democracy in Europe is the enemy of our democracy. We have found that we live in a world which is bound so closely by cables, telephones, airplanes and trade relations, that no civilized nation, great or small, can remain aloof from the rest of the world, no matter how intensely it desires to do so. As Americans, we love peace, but we love liberty more. If we are to preserve either peace or liberty in this hemisphere, we must defend ourselves.

"When each of you entered the circle of membership in the Order of Native Daughters of the Golden West you took a solemn vow to defend the Flag of the United States of America and all that it represents. Today, as I become your Grand President, I feel an uplifting pride in the knowledge that this Order was the first fraternal organization in California to include the oath of allegiance in its ritual. And I call upon you to each day of these crucial times remember that pledge and be prepared, in every way, to abide by its demands.

"We exist as an organization because our united action is worth more than our action as individuals. Let us not for a moment lose sight of our character as a statewide organization. Let us turn sternly away from sectional or personal interests, from jealousies or competitions which would divert us from our goal of unity for the welfare of all.

"The Order of Native Daughters of the Golden West was founded by a group of young women who had vision and a capacity to grow. Six of those charter members are still affiliated with this Order, fifty-four years after their first meeting in the Mother Lode town of Jackson, Amador County. I wish to pay my sincere tribute to these living charter members, and to the memory of those who have gone on, especially our late Founder, Lily O. Reichling Dyer.

"I have reflected a good many times upon the motives and ideas of those young women who assembled at Jackson in the late summer of 1886 to found this Order. As I have traveled through the mountainous mining region where they lived, I have thought of the restrictions of geography which hedged them and of their lack of easy communication with the rest of the world at that period, fifty-four years ago.

"All of these charter members were daughters of genuine dyed-in-the-wool forty-niners. It would have been the most natural thing in the world for them to have founded an ancestor-worshipping organization with membership limited to daughters or descendants of American Pioneers. But their vision was much broader than that. They founded an organization for all the daughters of this soil, regardless of ancestry or creed. They recognized in themselves the capacity for tolerance, vision and growth, and they framed an organization that could grow. As a tribute to that vision, I wish to bring to this Order during my year as Grand President every helpful plan for growth, progress and efficiency.

"When Lily Reichling, Carrie Roesch and the other girls of their generation went to the first Grand Parlor, they traveled by steam railroad. Those trains represented the last word in efficiency then, but they were covered with projecting pipes, smokestacks, handles, bells, whistles, lanterns and lamps that stuck out from the bodies of the engine and the coach in all directions, like so many barnacles. Today our engines and coaches are streamlined. Science has proved that all those protruding attachments were needless obstacles of progress. They set up resistance and cut down speed. So today engineers have streamlined them.

"Streamlining means efficiency and smoothness. It means going ahead faster by removing the needless obstacles to advancement. Underneath, the same essential elements remain. The train still runs by the same principles. The lamps are still necessary for the same old purpose of giving light in dark places. But they are modernized in shape and style.

"Let us, too, streamline! Let us not waste our energies by clinging to outmoded customs. Let us streamline our methods, so as to give our organization every possible encouragement and means for growth. This does not imply that I recommend the slightest change in or deviation from the foundation principles, aims or objects of the Order of Native Daughters. It means retaining the same interior, but modernizing the exterior so as to keep in step with the march of progress.

"To accomplish this, I recommend first, the conscientious modernization of our Parlor meetings. By this, I mean to simplify and condense our routine business. Primarily, the way to do that is to elect officers and name committees reliable and competent, and then leave the details to them!

"Let us abandon forever such waste of time as arguing on the floor of the Parlor over what time and on what corner a food or rummage sale is to be held. Let the committee in charge decide whether it is to be at 501 or 609 Main street. If the committee is not capable of attending to that, it is not a very good committee, and another should be named. Let us eliminate all unnecessary floor discussions of minor details. Then, when we have conserved the time of our members by cutting down the essentials of business, let us put that time to the best and the most intelligent use possible.

"The objectives of our Order include an ample range of interest, broad enough in scope to supply splendid subject matter for every meeting of every year. Let us have more and better speakers on California history. Let us devote meetings to interpreting our homeless children work in interesting ways.

"As an organization, we have competition today. The neighborhood movie, the radio pro-

OAKLAND—MISS MARY E. BRUSIE OF Argonaut No. 166, secretary N.S.G.W. and N.D.G.W. Central Homeless Children Committee, had on display at the Grand Parlor a quantity of beautiful "baby things" contributed by N.D.G.W. Subordinate Parlor, and photos of some of "our kids," showing their development. In the course of her report, always a Grand Parlor feature, Miss Brusie said, in part:

"When I began to prepare this report for you, I remembered that it was in Oakland in 1914, during the Grand Presidency of Alison F. Watt, that I gave my first report to Grand Parlor. And I remember her ability and dignity and kindness, and that my misgivings and nervousness vanished as my pride increased in being one of that body of fine women devoted to their California's past, present and future.

"The inspiration which I gained that day, the moral and financial obligation accepted by you in 1909, increase with each passing year. I know now of your million-and-one acts of kindness, your unselfish response to all humanitarian needs, your love for your Native Daughters Home and your veterans, and your deep and abiding affection for the homeless children. To my mind, no other women's organization can compare with the Order of the Native Daughters in willingness to give generous, spontaneous service to any cause which its members consider constructive for California and these United States. . . .

"Please, may I again remind the members that all new applicants for children are required to wait one year at least before we can make them happy, and please remember that until our supply of children comes nearer meeting the present demand we cannot place children with parents who have one child in the home. Many fine childless men and women in our state, several of them recommended by Native Sons and Native Daughters, cannot understand why they must wait so long for a child. We fill the applications in the order of their receipt, you know, without fear or favor. . . . It really isn't fair, you know, if it can be helped, to let applicants get all excited about getting a baby without letting them know that patience must be one of their virtues. . . .

"In these tense days of horror and uncertainty and groping, we all are wondering why this beautiful world should be smashed to bits by the selfishness and brutality of man. We are heart-sick over the thousands who have died in useless battle, and will die today, and tomorrow, and the next day, and the next, and every day for we do not know how long, all, as someone has said, 'Swept by the void of Battle's Iron Broom.' And we ask: 'Why must these awful things go on? Has God forsaken us?'

"Children will continue to be brought into this world. We, who are here today, are to assume the care of some of them—children from the Old World as well as our own—who otherwise would not have even the feeble protection of parents, educational advantages and freedom. And unless we mind our thoughts and guard our tongues, and do our best for the job of caring for children which we have mapped out to do, we shall find ourselves an influence for ill, our work forsaken and neglected."

Red Cross Pledged Aid.

Santa Ana—Santa Ana No. 235 had its annual party for new citizens, and welcomed the Americanization class sponsored by the adult education program of the local high school. Superior Judge Harry Westover told of the privileges and benefits of American citizenship, and Mrs. Golden Weston and Nell Hunt spoke briefly. United States of America and California State (Bear) Flags were presented the class, and Organist Wanda Fischer played "God Bless America." Refreshments were served in the dining-room, decorated in red, white and blue, and presided over by Chairman Genevieve Hiskey.

A potluck dinner preceded the June 10 meeting of the Parlor, at which members born in May and June were honored. Secret sisters of the past year were revealed and new ones were selected. Mrs. Howard Timmons explained the needs of the Red Cross, and was pledged the aid of Santa Ana's thimble club. May 23 the club had a house warming at the new Balboa Island home of Lillian Gant, and sewing sessions were held June 7 and 13 at the homes of Evelyn Farrar and Elizabeth Randle.

N.D.G.W.—NEWS PARAGRAPHS—N.D.G.W.

Napa—Eshcol No. 16 initiated three candidates and elected Anita Land president June 10. A donation was made to the Red Cross, and it was voted to observe "Fly the Flag Week."—E.I.

Sutter Creek—Amapo'a No. 80 elected officers June 13, and selected Marye Milich for president. Readings appropriate to Flag Day were given by Edith Murphy and Adelle Tallia, and the assemblage sang "The Star Spangled Banner." Refreshments were served.

San Jose—June 12, Vendome No. 100 had Flag Day exercises, and showered with gifts Miss Madeline Chargin, who became the bride of Kenneth Malovos of Observatory No. 177 N.S. June 26. The Parlor had a decorated auto in the June 14 Flag Day parade. The sewing club had a picnic at Vendome's pioneer cabin in Alum Rock Park June 10. The afternoon card parties are a success.—C.A.G.

Hollister—Copa de Oro No. 105 welcomed a large delegation from San Jose No. 81, Vendome No. 100, San Jose, and El Monte No. 205, Mountain View, on a goodwill visit June 5. They came in costumes of varied types and presented clever sketches, "Lost by Strategy" and "The Mystery Package." Wilda Ennes, blind protegee of Vendome, favored with many pleasing vocal and instrumental numbers. Groups from Santa Cruz No. 26 and El Pajaro No. 35, Watsonville, accompanied by Supervising Deputy Mary Gregory Antonetti and Deputy Viola Clough, were also honored guests. Appetizing refreshments were served at the close of the happy affair. Copa de Oro has given a California State (Bear) Flag to the Hollister Grammar School, and will give smaller flags to any school in San Benito County in need of one.

Oakland—The monthly whist of Aloha No. 106 was held June 4 at the home of Hazel Andrews. June 8 the Parlor sponsored a barn dance, with many side attractions. Anne Ferreira, chairman of the evening, was assisted by Emmy Lou Henry, Alma Lillenthal, Gladys Farley, Johanna Kramer, Sarah Kramer and Phyllis Butzbach. June 28, Aloha's drum corps had a telephone whist at the homes of Allen Westling, Thelma Dobyne, Eldon Andrews and Vera Butzbach.

Sutter Creek—Mrs. Harriet C. Marchant, sister of Miss Mary E. Brusie of Argonaut No. 166, Oakland, secretary N.S.G.W. and N.D.G.W. Central Homeless Children committee, passed away May 23 after a long illness. She was a native of Indiana, aged 73, and came to California in 1869.

Daly City—The social activities of El Carmelo No. 181 for the term will be brought to a close with a whist party under the leadership of President Pauline Quirolo. The drum corps continues to win glory, receiving second prize in the state competition at the Oakland Grand Parlor June 16.—H.K.

Fresno—Fresno No. 187 initiated two candidates and re-elected Letha Joy Mutton as president June 12. A Flag Day program was presented under the direction of Millie Burton, who was assisted by Mrs. Mutton, Doris Gleim and Ila Busby. Guests included Supervising Deputy Elinor Mills and Deputy Bessie Snyder. At the home of Ora Osborne, a linen shower was given for Leah Mae Hansen, who will be wedded to Howard Mortensen in July. Ella Donnohue was hostess to the California Poppy Club June 5, and Millie Burton entertained June 19. Maude Crosby had charge of a public card party June 26.—M.C.C.

Byron—Donner No. 193 presented the Byron Library a silk United States of America Flag June 12, Ruth Boltzen making the presentation address. A talk on flag etiquette was given by Chairman Anna Pendry of the Parlor's Americanism committee.

Petaluma—Petaluma No. 222 initiated four candidates June 18. At the meeting's conclusion delicious refreshments were served at a table beautified with Flag Day favors and sweet peas. Julia Bettinelli was chairman of the arrangements committee.—A.B.

Bakersfield—Mrs. Sarah E. Green, mother of Minnie B. Heath and Martha E. Cheney of Miocene No. 228, Taft, and Georgia F. Sanders of El Tejon No. 239, died at her home here at the age of 91; four sons also survive. She came across the plains via the Oregon Trail in 1853.

San Bruno—Under the leadership of President Anne Rosekind, San Bruno No. 246 has advanced noticeably during the past year; twenty-four new members have been received. The drill team, under the direction of Winona Blough, was awarded a trophy on its first public appearance. Stella Zanetti, the newly-elected president, has many interesting plans for the coming year.—T. B.

Albany—With Mrs. Laura Isom as chairman, Albany No. 260 had a very interesting meeting June 12. A movie, "Land of the Free," was presented by Mr. Isom. At election of officers Mrs. Marie Vargas was chosen president.—M. R.

The Music Teachers Association of California will have its thirtieth annual state convention at Riverside July 9-12.

Independence Day, July 4, celebrations will be featured by several California communities.

The Santa Barbara County Fair is to be held July 24-28 at Santa Maria.

ORDER RECOGNIZED AS POWERFUL GROUP OF PATRIOTIC CITIZENS.

Past Grand Bertha A. Briggs, reporting to the Oakland N.D.G.W. Grand Parlor for the Publicity Committee, of which she has long been chairman, said, in part:

"The Bible tells us, 'With all thy getting, get understanding.' Our well-founded understanding of the final objective of publicity is that it is not an END, but a MEANS to an END, and that end is the creation of an informed and intelligent public opinion.

"During this official year, your publicity workers in all sections have been a great co-operative enterprise, participating in their own way in an ardent desire to create understanding, and adding to the constantly growing sum total their individual contributions that have helped immeasurably to establish that desired well-informed public opinion. All have labored unceasingly to keep this ever-ascending gradient directed toward higher levels. They have rendered genuine service in enlightening the public regarding our influence as a definite factor in community and state welfare. They have painted a true picture of our interested and intelligent personnel, and the loyal devotion of our membership; of our ever-widening range of activities, and our increasing effectiveness of service. They have made apparent our TRUE strength as a practical, effective humanitarian agency, and they have awakened a clear realization of our capacity for even greater achievements. We should be deeply grateful to these earnest workers for valiant service well rendered. . . .

"Through active interest in legislation enacted at Sacramento and at Washington, our Order has come to be recognized as a powerful group of patriotic citizens with the welfare of State and Nation sincerely at heart. . . .

"The overwhelming majority of publicity units report generous co-operation of their community newspapers, with little difficulty in having press copy printed—an encouraging manifestation of awakened interest in our activities. . . .

"Once every month there comes to us the official voice of our organization,—THE GRIZZLY BEAR MAGAZINE—without which local groups may be as much in the dark concerning authentic happenings among other units as the average citizen is without his newspaper. The keynote of this valuable and informative journal is, first of all, to render service to subscribing Native Daughters, Native Sons and their friends. Its second duty, to translate the general ideals of two kindred patriotic organizations into terms that may be understood by a wider community whose outlook regarding our purpose, it is to be hoped, may broaden with the years. Let us pledge ourselves to each succeeding issue and make OUR magazine a bond uniting the many groups of native-born Californians into closer fraternalism. Support The Grizzly Bear consistently, with your news contributions and your regular subscriptions. . . .

"In these troublous days, we have made it our purpose to 'Let the World Know' that our Order is attuned to the times—that it vibrates in harmony with the best thought. Those who can read the signs of the present period of our national life know that atheism, disrespect for law and order, arrogant interference with individual liberties are the evils which every right-minded citizen must combat. It is for us to practice the principles we preach and thus constitute an organized force prepared to battle those un-American tendencies. We want 'The World to Know' that, at every meeting of every unit of our organization, upon the altar lies the open Bible—the word of truth—God's law. Beside the altar stands the American Flag—a symbol that we owe no allegiance save to the country which Old Glory represents. We hurl defiance to those who would undermine American institutions. The sacrifice of our forefathers must not be in vain. As they had the courage, the perseverance and the vision to carry on in the face of dangers and trials, surely there must be today the loyalty, the valor and the fortitude to hold untarnished and undiminished their gift to us.

"Who were these men, these builders of the State
Whose deeds we honor and commemorate!
Plain, toiling folk of humble birth and name,
Who carried in their hearts a living flame
That, in God's time, should light the western skies
With Freedom's fires, and gladden all earth's eyes.
Yea! They were men of common clay, and frail,
Who, stubborn, sought and found the Holy Grail."
"So, our foremost obligation must be to broadcast to the world that we, Native Daughters of the Golden West, are of the rank and file of America, too,—that we are of the great common people who have fought and won the victories of mankind from the beginning of time. It must be our purpose to continue to carry on and to reach out for the great prize of mankind—LIBERTY!"

OTHER COMMITTEE REPORTS.
Veterans Welfare, Susan Mattei, Vendome Parlor No. 100, chairman: Subordinate Parlors responded most generously to the calls for donations, and were more than liberal in looking after individual veterans and their families.

History and Landmarks, Past Grand Esther R. Sullivan chairman: Referred to the oldest living native-born California woman, Alta Alvarado, born San Juan Bautista, San Benito County, June 23, 1840, and now residing at Tres Pinos. A telegram of greetings was ordered sent her.

Pioneer Relics, Past Grand Mamie G. Peyton chairman: Many more relics have been added, and the Order should find a proper place to house the collection.

Radio, Past Grand Grace S. Stoermer chairman: More programs should be sponsored, as much time is available; stations are often looking for fifteen-minute programs.

Americanism, Ann Dippel, Mission Parlor No. 227, chairman: All Subordinate Parlors very patriotic, and carry out the ideals of Americanism in their programs.

Pioneer Roster, Past Grand Florence D. Boyle chairman: More registrations are being received, and a file is to be made up for public display.

Drill Teams and Drum Corps, Margaret Barrett, Buena Vista Parlor No. 68, chairman: These auxiliaries are much in demand for public functions, and they respond generously.

Junior Auxiliaries, Bess Elmore, Morada Parlor No. 199, chairman: Six now functioning: Stockton No. 1, Marinita No. 2, Argonaut No. 3, Morada No. 4, La Bandera No. 5, Presidio No. 6; the groups are an asset to the Order.

LOS ANGELES CITY AND COUNTY

THE LOS ANGELES COUNTY PARLORS of the Orders of Native Sons and Native Daughters of the Golden West sponsored an observance of National Flag Day, June 14,—also the ninety-fourth anniversary of the birth of the California Republic (Bear) Flag, now the official State flag, at historic Sonoma, June 14, 1846,—that attracted wide attention to these patriotic groups of native Californians. The program was arranged by Past Grand President Eldred L. Meyer, who was assisted by Marion Parks-Partridge, Hervey Lindley Kitchin, Mrs. Dexter Monroe and Robert Pesqueira.

At the Hall of Justice at 9:30 a.m., some 500 people witnessed the presentation of United States of America and California State (Bear) Flags to Star Post of the American Legion. Grand Trustee Walter E. Smith and Grand First Vice-president Hazel B. Hansen made the presentation addresses, to which Sheriff Eugene W. Biscailuz of Santa Monica Bay Parlor No. 267 N.S.G.W. and Commander Charles Kesky responded.

The Natives then proceeded to the Union Passenger Terminal where, in the presence of 1,000, flags were presented by Sheriff Biscailuz and Marion Parks-Partridge of Californiana Parlor No. 247 N.D.G.W. Superintendent George E. Donnatini accepted the colors.

Concluding the program, Sophia Stewart of Los Angeles Parlor No. 124 N.D.G.W., accompanied by Grand Organist Roger E. Johnson, led the assemblage in singing "God Bless America." Bugler Milton Eisenhart Jr. of the drum and bugle corps of Santa Monica Bay Parlor participated in the ceremonies, and Past Grand President Meyer led in the pledge of allegiance at both presentations.

TO PLAY BALL FOR "KIDDIES."

July 31 will be Native Sons and Native Daughters night at Gilmore Field. At that time a scheduled Pacific Coast League baseball game will, thanks to the generosity of Business Manager Oscar Reichow of the Hollywood Baseball Association, be played for the benefit of the homeless children. Hollywood and Sacramento will be the contesting teams.

There should be a great outpouring of Natives and their friends, as the cause is a most worthy one and baseball is the great American sport. Arrangements are in the hands of Hervey Lindley Kitchin, Captain William J. Bright and Percy Eisen, representing the N.S.G.W. and N.D.G.W. Interparlor Committee and the N.S.G.W. Friday Luncheon Club.

"BIG GIRLS" BIRTHDAY PARTY.

Californiana Parlor No. 247 N.D.G.W. is quite a "big girl" now, having celebrated June 11 its twelfth institution anniversary. The day was a delightful one, and the luncheon tables were beautifully and appropriately decorated for each month of the year. At the speakers' table, gay with flowers, were Mrs. Beatrice Wahrmond, president; Mrs. Alphonse B. Fages, program chairman; Miss Grace S. Stoerner, Past Grand President; Mrs. Mary B. Noerenberg, Grand Trustee; Miss Carmelita Rosecrans, commissioner for Los Angeles Girl Scouts, and five past presidents who related outstanding events during their terms of office.

The speaker of the day, Miss Rosecrans, had for her subject "Inspiring Ideals of Youth," and she explained the work done for and by the Girl Scouts. Past Grand President Stoerner, who assisted in the organization of Californiana, reminisced about the Parlor and mentioned that it was first to pay in full the N.D.G.W. Home loyalty pledge.

July 23 the newly-elected officers of Californiana, with Mrs. Isabel Lopez-Fages as president, will be installed. Then the Parlor will vacation until September 10. Members of the Gertrude Sewing Circle spent a delightful day at the Bender ranch June 3; a potluck luncheon was enjoyed in the shade of giant oaks. The Circle's final meeting of the term will be held July 1 at the Inglewood home of Chairman Margaret Harris.—O.L.

"PREPAREDNESS" ADDRESS THRILLS.

"Old Glory and Its Meaning to the United States" was the subject of Judge Frank G. Tyrrell's stirring address at the June 14 session of the N.S.G.W. Friday Luncheon Club. Walter H. Odemar was chairman of the day.

Lieutenant Commander Franklin W. Peck, U.S.N.R., commander of a submarine chaser during the World War, gave a talk on "Preparedness," June 21, that thrilled his hearers. In concluding his address, he said: "We would deserve the eternal condemnation of posterity if we, as a nation, grown rich and fat and soft, forgot the indescribable sufferings and heroic sacrifices of those who founded this republic, and, if casually taking for granted our blessed heritage, had failed to make full and adequate preparations for its defense. We should then justly deserve the fate of the vanquished, and by our own wanton stupidity and negligence forfeit forever our right to a hard-won liberty and freedom."

ESCORT TEAM VISITS OAKLAND.

Glendale—Verdugo Parlor No. 240 N.D.G.W. had guests, June 11, from all the southern Parlors who joined Verdugo's members in wishing Grand Vice-president Hazel B. Hansen all success during her approaching term as Grand President of the Order. To add interest to the evening, Florence Dodson Schoneman presented Mrs. Hansen a beautiful French comb, a treasured heirloom, to wear installation night.

The escort team from Verdugo that added beauty to the installation ceremonies at the Oakland Grand Parlor included Evalyn Wilson, Olive Zimmer, Ethyl Kern, Ellen Puthuff, Marie Giotfelty, Marie Louise Hallett, Esther Black, Inez McDonnell, Phyllis Hirst, Elsie Bledsoe, Geraldine Leonetti, Mary Stubbs, Beverly Butler, Harriette Weeks, Gertrude McDonnell and Renee Gambastiani. The newly-elected officers of the Parlor, with Mary Miller as president, will be publicly installed July 23.—D.G.R.

produced as the toastmaster Edwin A. Meserve. Past Grand President Herman C. Lichtenberger responded to the toast "Ramona Parlor in the Nineties," and Judge O. Benton Worley spoke on "Ramona Parlor Today." Among others in attendance were Grand First Vice-president Hazel B. Hansen and Grand Trustee Mary B. Noerenberg of the Native Daughters; Past Grand Presidents John T. Newell and Eldred L. Meyer, and Grand Trustee Walter E. Smith of the Native Sons.

Commander Frank Ziegler of the fishing boat Virginia, with Skipper Larson at the wheel, took twenty-three members of Ramona on a fishing trip to the Coronado Islands June 15 and 16. The weather was ideal and the catch was fine, according to reports. The Parlor featured a "fathers and sons" night at historic Campo de Cahuenga June 21. Chairman Ralph Clavelot of the good of the order committee had charge of the affair, and Chef Geraldo Guzman served a fine steak dinner. Troop 109 Boy Scouts of America and Scoutmaster Herbert Otto were guests of honor.

July 19, Ramona will visit Los Angeles Parlor No. 45, so its meetingplace will be dark. July 26 the Parlor's newly-elected officers, with Captain Ralph Clavelot as president, will be publicly installed. All Natives and their families and friends are cordially invited. Refreshments will be served.

ARRANGING FOR ADMISSION DAY.

The N.S.G.W. and N.D.G.W. Interparlor Committee is sponsoring a celebration of Admission Day, September 9, in Long Beach. Outstanding features will be a daytime parade, and a grand ball at night in the Municipal Auditorium. Long Beach No. 124 N.D.G.W. and Long Beach Parlor No. 278 N.S.G.W. will be, respectively, the hostess and host Parlor. All southern Parlor will be invited to participate.

Fred Leonetti is the chairman, and John Johnston the secretary of an administrative committee. Other subcommittees, in charge of details, are: Parade—Chester D. French, chairman. Organization and participation—Claude Agard, Gertrude Allen, Elizabeth Campbell, Mary Dalton, Eppie Gomez, Dell Hudson, John W. A. Off Jr., Joseph Smith, Matt Soares. Publicity—Hervy Lindley Kitchin, chairman, Mrs. Dexter Monroe, Fred Taylor, William Blaha, Robert Bushnell. Decorations—Fred Taylor, chairman, Hervy Lindley Kitchin. Dance—Captain Ralph Clavelot, chairman, Margaret Tann, Will Heyne, Carl Martin. Invitations and attendance—Carl Fletcher, Mayor Francis Gentry, Will Heyne, John Johnston, Hervy Lindley Kitchin, Mrs. Dexter Monroe, Glen Packer, Harriette Weeks. Parlor participation—Chester D. French, Glen Packer, Arthur Green, Ella Steinbeck, Betty Butler, Lura Pesqueira, Myrtle Brooks, William Blaha. Parking—Homer Weston, chairman. Traffic—Jack Pinnel, chairman.—H.L.K.

NEWS BRIEFS

A joint installation of the officers-elect of Los Angeles Parlor No. 45 N.S.G.W. and La Reina Parlor No. 267 N.D.G.W. will be held July 19 at the former's meetingplace, I.O.O.F. Temple, Washington and Oak streets. Dancing and refreshments will follow the ceremonies. July 5, Los Angeles will pay a fraternal visit to Ramona Parlor. July 26 the new officers, headed by President Robert M. Pesqueira, will conduct initiation.—F.F.

Los Angeles Parlor No. 124 N.D.G.W. participated June 22 in the dedication of the new $3,000,000 Postoffice Terminal Annex by the presentation of a United States of America Flag for use in the executive offices. July 17 the Parlor's newly-elected officers, with Miss Helen M. Lee as president and Mrs. Ella Steinbeck as recording secretary, will be publicly installed. A cordial invitation to attend is extended all Natives and their friends. July 24 a potluck supper will be served in Ferndell, Griffith Park.—E.T.N.

Hollywood Parlor No. 196 N.S.G.W. had its annual corn feast June 19, steaming-hot corn, fresh from the ranch of Albert Sandoval being served. The July dinner-meeting will be held at 6:30 of the 10th. All Native Sons are welcome to participate in these congenial and informal gatherings. For the place, contact Secretary "Bill" Hortenstine.

East Los Angeles—East Los Angeles Parlor No. 266 N.D.G.W. sponsored a monte carlo party which was a grand success. The hall was decorated to resemble a mining camp of the days of '49, and those participating were attired in costumes of the past. Dorothy Camy of the SAN FRANCISCO—THE BOARD OF Grand Officers met June 15 in Native Sons Building. In attendance were Grand President Henry S. Lyon, who presided, Junior Past Grand Jesse H. Miller, Grand First Vice-president Edward T. Schnarr, Grand Second Vice-president Lloyd J. Cosgrove, Grand Third Vice-president Wayne R. Millington, Grand Secretary John T. Regan, Grand Trustees Richard F. McCarthy, Joseph E. Tinney, Eben K. Smart, Walter C. Richards, R. G. Power, Louis Bosch and Walter E. Smith.

Ordered, that no premium charge be this year made against Subordinate Parlors for bonds of officers.

A membership in the California Safety Council Inc. was authorized.

An invitation to conduct a dedicatory ceremony at Elk Grove, Sacramento County, July 4 was accepted.

An installation ceremony for grand officers, exemplified at the Bakersfield Grand Parlor, was adopted.

Ordered, that Subordinate Parlors continue to sing the opening and closing odes, and that "God Bless America" be sung after the pledge of allegiance. Permission to sing "God Bless America" has been obtained, but printed or mimeographed copies of the song must not be made.

A committee of three was authorized to investigate a charge that the California State (Bear) Flag is not displayed on all public buildings. The committee will report to the Grand President, who was given power to act.

A committee composed of Grand Third Vice-president Millington, Grand Trustee Tinney and Junior Past Grand Miller was appointed to investigate the proposal made at the Bakersfield Grand Parlor (Resolution No. 27) that a statewide campaign be sponsored for acquisition of lands in Santa Cruz and San Mateo Counties for a state park.

Ordered, that cords of appropriate colors be part of the new regalia approved by the Bakersfield Grand Parlor.

A design for a twenty-five-year-membership emblem authorized by the Bakersfield Grand Parlor was approved.

A committee composed of Junior Past Grand Miller, Grand First Vice-president Schnarr and Grand Second Vice-president Cosgrove was appointed to make to the Subordinate Parlors such suggestions pertaining to income and social security taxes as the committee believes are for the best interests of the Order.

Ordered, that a committee of three be appointed to prepare "rules and regulations to take care of all demands on the Grand Parlor or Board of Grand Officers to reimburse Subordinate Parlors for losses."

Visiting grand officers were directed to furnish the Grand Secretary copies of their itineraries for official visits.

The Grand Trustees reported they had organized by the election of Richard F. McCarthy as chairman, and Joseph E. Tinney as secretary.

Home Parlor Surprises Grand President.

Placerville—Grand President Henry S. Lyon was honor-guest of Placerville No. 9, his home Parlor, May 28. Preceding the meeting there was a parade, led by the drum corps of Sacramento No. 3. Among the many others in attendance were Grand Marshal Walter Bailey, Grand Trustees Eben K. Smart and R. G. Power, and George Hofmeister, Placerville's sole surviving charter member.

The surprise of the occasion was the presentation of a silver service to Grand President Lyon by the Parlor, Robert E. Roberts making the presentation address. During the evening, fifty-year-membership pins were presented A. B. Carpenter, Charles W. Martin, Harrison M. Beth, William Rust, Wallace Rust, L. A. Reeg, John A. Raffetto Sr., Charles H. Rieher, Charles B. Raffetto, F. M. H. Wulff and F. W. Zies. Marguerite No. 12 N.D. sent floral greetings to the Grand President and the Parlor. Refreshments terminated an outstanding event in the history of Placerville.

Admission Day Arrangements.

Sacramento—Arrangements for the statewide Admission Day celebration to be held here September 7, 8 and 9 are progressing, and a fine program is assured. Details are in charge of a committee made up of representatives of all the Sacramento County N.S.G.W. and N.D.G.W. Parlors, with these officers: June J. Longshore chairman; Edward E. Reese, vice-chairman; Albert W. Katzenstein, secretary; L. P. Ferron treasurer.

The festivities will begin Saturday, September 7, with a golf tournament, and a reception at Native Sons Hall in the evening. Sunday the activities will center at the State Fair grounds where dancing, games, contests and dedication of a Pioneer Memorial Grove will be featured. The main event for Monday will be a spectacular Admission Day parade participated in by Native Sons and Native Daughters from all sections of the state. Low transportation rates are assured and advance reservations indicate there will be an immense crowd in the Capital City for California's birthday festival.

Five Brothers Affiliate.

Hayward—Eden No. 113 had a largely attended meeting June 10, among the number being many visitors from Washington, Estudillo and Fruitvale Parlors. The occasion was election of officers, at which Lawrence Lafleur was chosen president, and the initiation of a class of candidates. Officers of Fruitvale No. 252 exemplified the ritual, and among the initiates were the five Serpa brothers and "Pop" Manuel Silva, the father of three members of the Parlor. The initiation of five brothers at one time believed to be a record. At the meeting's conclusion a wonderful ravioli dinner was served. The Parlor has entered a soft ball team in the City League, which began activities on June 24.

Eden and Hayward No. 122 N.D. had their annual joint outing for members and their families in Contra Costa County June 16. The largest crowd ever attended, and all had a fine time. Among the attractions were swimming, tennis and footracing. The annual soft ball game between the benedicts and the bachelors. Eden was a feature; the benedicts were victorious, score 11 to 4.

and was affiliated with Marysville No. 6. From 1892 to 1903 deceased was district attorney of Yuba County.

Jackson—Excelsior No. 31 presented fifty-year membership emblems to J. Sam Avis and John Gubbins June 17.

Ione—Ione No. 33 is sponsoring a team which has been entered in the local softball league. Dr. Stanley Sinclair is the manager.

Grass Valley—Quartz No. 58 and Hydraulic No. 56, Nevada City, held joint memorial services here June 3. Elmer Stevens eulogized the departed members of both Parlor, and A. C. Casel rendered vocal selections.

Ferndale—The observance of Memorial Day here was, as usual, under the auspices of Ferndale No. 93. A parade proceeded to the cemetery, where a program, with District Attorney J. R. Scott as the speaker, was presented. June 3 the Parlor initiated a class of candidates and elected officers, Walter Oeschger becoming president. A feast of strawberries concluded the meeting. The soft ball team sponsored by the Parlor and managed by J. W. Trigg is giving a good account of itself in the local league.

Livermore—Las Positas No. 96 had as visitors June 13 Grand First Vice-president Edward T. Schnarr and a large delegation from Fruitvale No. 252. Two candidates were initiated, the ritual being splendidly exemplified by the officers of Fruitvale. The social committee provided a feast of turkey after the meeting. Grand First Vice-president Schnarr and Grand Secretary John T. Regan June 8 took part in the Livermore rodeo parade, in which Las Positas had a float.

San Diego—In recognition of Flag Day, San Diego No. 108 sponsored flag-raising ceremonies at Old Town Plaza June 14. Deputy Grand President Albert V. Mayrhofer presided, Judge Edward Kelly delivered a patriotic address, and the marine band provided music.

Sonoma—Many members of Piedmont No. 120 journeyed from Oakland to old Sonoma for their annual outing June 9, and were welcomed by the members of Sonoma No. 111. At flag raising ceremonies at the Bear Flag monument in the Sonoma Plaza, Grand Trustee Richard F. McCarthy was a speaker. A baseball game between teams of the Parlor was won by the Sonomaites. In the evening there was an open-air banquet at which Grand Trustee Louis F. Bosch was a speaker. Sonoma's reception committee included President Preston Cornelius, J. P. Serres, Ray Tynan, H. Maysonnave, John Steiner and R. Barrachi.

Sebastopol—June 9 the Grand Parlor Historic Landmarks Committee unveiled near Glen Ellen a monument commemorating Jack London and his famed "Valley of the Moon." W. S. Borba of Sebastopol No. 143 presided, and speakers included Grand Historian Dr. Peter T. Conmy, Past Grand Joseph R. Knowland, Mrs. Charmian London, Mrs. Nell Wilson, Grand President Orinda Giannini of the Native Daughters, and Sonoma County Supervisor Howard Knight.

Berkeley—Chief Justice William Henry Waste of the California Supreme Court, a member of Berkeley No. 210, died June 6, survived by his wife and two children. He was born at Chico, Butte County, October 31, 1863. Justice Waste, an outstanding citizen, faithfully served the people as a member of the State Assembly, a superior judge of Alameda County and, since 1921, a justice of the State Supreme Court.

Santa Ana—Governor General Walter Hiskey of the Past Presidents Association officially visited the following Assemblies: San Francisco No. 1 and East Bay No. 2, June 21, jointly at San Francisco; Fred H. Greely No. 6, June 22, at Weaverville, Trinity County; General John A. Sutter No. 10, June 26, at Sacramento; Peninsula No. 15, June 27, at Mountain View, Santa Clara County. Governor General Hiskey, affiliated with Santa Ana No. 265, was accompanied by his wife, Mrs. Genevieve Hiskey, actively identified with Santa Ana No. 235 N.D.

"THE NICKNAME 'OLD GLORY' was first given to the American Flag by Captain William Driver of Salem, Massachusetts, in 1831. He was just ready to embark on a trip around the world when his gallant ship was presented with a beautiful new flag. Upon accepting it, he referred to the flag as 'Old Glory'—a name by which it has now become known far and wide." —New Age.

gram, the automobile and the open road, the sorority, the woman's club, all offer counter-attractions in one form or another. We cannot escape this fact, and we must meet it, if we are to increase our numbers or even retain our present position.

"Our meetings are no longer neighborhood affairs. To attend them, members must plan ahead and save the time out of crowded schedules; they often have to spend hours enroute and travel many miles for the privilege of spending an evening with our group.

"I urge, therefore, all presidents and program chairmen to see that every meeting is made worthwhile. This is the only way we can attract and hold the forward-looking young women whose vigor our Order must have. It is the only way in which we can continue to grow in membership, and retain members after they have been initiated.

"Let's have fun, too, and then let's not spoil our pleasures by arguments or petty jealousies. For our personal relationships, as Native Daughters, I offer you the motto of one of my friends, who says: 'Let us be blind to the things we should not see; let us see doubly the things we should.'

"The third way in which we must streamline for progress is by holding joint meetings for the Grand President's official visits. I long looked forward to the day when, as Grand President, I could visit each Parlor individually, but we have grown to such an extent that this happy privilege has become a physical impossibility. No matter how much we would like to continue the practice, it is one of the joys we have to sacrifice in order to advance.

"Just let me explain with some calendar statistics: There are 365 days in a year, and there are 182 Subordinate Parlors of Native Daughters. It sounds simple, doesn't it? But, of course, we must eliminate Saturdays, Sundays and holidays. That takes out fifty-two Saturdays, fifty-two Sundays, and eleven state and national holidays. This year we have to deduct two days for general elections, and we always have to take out the week of our own Grand Parlor, as well as the days the Grand President must devote to visiting the Grand Parlor of Native Sons. Moreover, I have learned, in conferring with Past Grand Presidents, the Subordinate Parlors do not wish to have official visits in January and July, because those are installation months. And in addition I find this further complication: Seventy-five percent of the Parlors cannot receive the Grand President at any time except regular meeting days.

"From this you can see that practically the only thing on the calendar I don't have to consider is Chinese New Year. The result is that I have remaining just exactly 160 days which I can call my 'working days,' and there are 182 Parlors to visit! And I have not yet accounted for time for travel from one section of the state to another, time for district meetings which our constitution requires, or any opportunity of visiting our Junior Auxiliary groups! I would love to visit every Parlor separately; I'm sure you know that. But since I can't, I ask your indulgence and friendly help, so that we may work out the official visits in a way that will be satisfactory to everyone.

"I heartily congratulate all who have just been elected grand officers of this distinguished organization, and I am happy to welcome them as my official family. Regarding the appointments to be made, I am sure you will know that I have sought to show thought and honesty in every selection. I have had only one criterion by which to choose—what does the individual offer to the organization?

"To my supervising deputies, deputies and state committee chairmen, allow me to outline some of the most important aspects of the program for the year, so that we may leave this meeting not only remembering the happiness of the occasion, but inspired with the knowledge that we have worthy tasks before us, and that NOW is the time to begin our work.

"Success of our program will depend greatly upon the state chairmen and their committees, and I ask the chairmen to permit nothing to delay them in preparing and issuing their circulars regarding this year's activities. A year, after all, is a very short period of time, and the accomplishments of our several committees will depend upon the kind of information and stimulation you give, and the promptness with which your suggestions are prepared for the Subordinate Parlors.

"If we value our Order and its objectives, it is our duty to form new Parlors and increase the membership of Parlors already existing. I ask that the state chairmen of these two committees give diligent attention to our needs and opportunities in this direction.

"As to extension of the Order, I particularly desire to have afternoon parlors organized in Alameda, Sacramento, San Joaquin and San Diego Counties. They are large enough to support afternoon parlors, and we therefore should contact organization-minded women who are not able to attend evening meetings. I also shall welcome constructive efforts toward forming new parlors in any localities where strong groups of desirable women can be enlisted in our ranks.

"As to membership, let us make every effort to grow. But as we do so, let us pay careful heed to the character of new members. If a new member is of fine character, she is an asset to the Order as a whole. If she does not possess desirable qualities, she is a liability to her local Parlor and to the Order as a whole.

"When we admit a new member, we accept her, because of the fraternal nature of the Order, as more than a friend. We accept her as a sister. Let us therefore hold to the highest standards in womanhood and citizenship when we ask eligibles to join. I wish to go definitely on record as being opposed to the lowering of dues and initiation fees, or the lowering of our standards in any way for the sake of membership drives. Let us reflect this same ideal in every expression of our lives as Native Daughters. In our homes, with our neighbors, at public functions, let us reflect the best and the highest.

"One philosopher has said, 'Of what shall a man be proud if he is not proud of his friends?' I want to think of every member of the Order of Native Daughters of the Golden West as my friend, and when I say I am a member of this Order I want to be able to say it with pride, and I know that every one of you present here tonight shares this sentiment with me.

"It is essential, to the continuance of our Order, that we maintain a large membership of young women. It should be the purpose of the state chairman to bend her best efforts to stimulate their interest and participation. Likewise, we older members must remind ourselves that the leadership of young women cannot forever be considered a thing of the future. Let us give our younger women a chance to display their talents by serving the Parlors as officers.

"Of course, all are not natural-born leaders. This would be a dangerous world if all tried to be leaders at once. Just as keenly as we need intelligent leadership, we need intelligent followship. And if you are a follower, be a good one. Don't be a drag; don't be dead weight. Perhaps you have heard what the old darky ferryman said on this subject as he was taking his boat across the Mississippi River. He was working hard, bending over the sweep. The sweat was running down his face, as he held his craft against the current. Between strokes he looked around to see what his son Sambo was doing—and Sambo was leaning on the rail, gazing off into space. The old man gave him a long, intense look, and then said, 'Sambo, is you powah on this boat, o' is you freight?'

"Let's ask ourselves, whatever our role in the Order, are we freight or are we power? Are we helping this ship to go forward, breast the waves, and keep on an even keel? Or are we freight, just riding along? We all have a part and, whatever it be, we should be the best of whatever we are.

"If you can't be a pine on the top of the hill,
Be a scrub in the valley, but be
The best little scrub by the side of the rill;
Be a bush if you can't be a tree.

"We can't all be captains, we've got to be crew.
There's something for all of us here.
There's big work to do and there's lesser to do,
And the task we must do is the near.

"California history and landmarks was one of our first, and has always been one of our most important activities. Knowledge of history, and patriotism, go hand in hand. We feel a surge of love for our flag, because we know its history. The privilege we feel in being native daughters of the most beautiful country on earth is intensified because we know the story of the land. Let us hold fast to our aims. Let us know California ourselves and be sure that its story is taught well to others.

"We have assembled a valuable collection of historic articles which should be exhibited where they may best be seen by the greatest number of people. Obviously it is not feasible at this time to maintain a museum building of our own; therefore I shall appoint a special Museum Committee, requesting that arrangement be made to place our central collection on exhibition either at the Golden Gate Museum in San Francisco, or the State Library or the Sutter's Fort Museum in Sacramento. This will assure suitable exhibition space and scientific care for the collection and will bring recognition to the Order for one more constructive service to California.

"It will not be news to you that I regard the homeless children work of our organization as an activity which demands our undiminished attention and support. I have given my special service to the Order through this channel and as Grand President, I shall ask the Central Committee to co-operate with me in an aggressive enthusiastic homeless children program. This work brings us recognition not only throughout California, but all over the United States. What we have done has been taken as a model in other places, and our record in this work should be one of our greatest sources of pride.

"Our constitution provides for the observance of a 'California Poppy Day' every year. I shall ask for statewide observance of this day. Announcement of the date will be released through our Central Committee, the office of the Governor of California, through co-ordinated programs, publicity in the press and on the radio.

"Publicity is the interpretation of an organization such as ours to the public, through the press and other means of communication. This interpretation should be favorable and frequent, in order that we may win support for our projects and increase our membership. Radio gives us a far-reaching opportunity for the expression of our aims and principles. We have been very fortunate during the past year in the work accomplished by this committee, and the fine report rendered shows what great potentialities there are for us in this field.

"The further development of our Junior Auxiliary groups is of the highest importance. These young girls are the future leaders of this organization, and this project merits our most painstaking care. Our Civic Committee is designed to stimulate participation of Native Daughters in civic affairs, both directly and through co-operation with other agencies. Our Parlors and their representatives should demonstrate leadership qualifying them for recognition in the civic programs of their communities.

"Every Parlor should discuss legislation and study government, particularly at this critical time. We must, as citizens, be alert to the political developments. In many women's groups today members are inclined to misconstrue provisions of their bylaws which make them non-political, thinking that this prohibits discussion of government and legislation. As a result, often that which has nothing to do with politics, in itself, but is of vital concern to good government, is left untouched, when it should have our first attention.

"As Native Daughters, we should be cognizant of the bills that go before our Legislature, particularly those pertaining to child labor and welfare, to the labor and legal status of women, the migrant labor problem, bills that affect our economic order and, particularly, legislation which may affect our homeless children work. We should understand and endorse the national defense program, and we should be familiar with all projects aimed to defend American institutions.

"Let us analyze our duties as Americans and, through this Order, let us fulfill them. I ask specifically, through the Grand Parlor Chairman of Americanization, that every Parlor dedicate programs during the year to the study of the Declaration of Independence, the Constitution of the United States and the Bill of Rights. Native Daughters should be thoroughly familiar with these great documents, and I know no bet-

SAN FRANCISCO

SOUTH SAN FRANCISCO PARLOR NO. 157 celebrated its fiftieth institution anniversary at a banquet, June 15, that was an outstanding event in Native Sons circles. Following the singing of "I Love You, California," Judge George W. Schonfeld, chairman of the banquet committee, introduced as the toastmaster Grand Secretary Jen T. Regan, who extended greetings to the 30 in attendance.

On behalf of the Parlor, Past Grand President William P. Cauby presented fifty-year-membership emblems to Charter Members Philip Herold, Richard J. Hanley, Louis Nonnenmann, John O'Connor and Daniel Paulus.

Responding to the toast "Fifty Years of Progress," President Gerald E. Gallagher gave a brief history of South San Francisco, which was instituted June 18, 1890, with forty-nine charter members. It has progressed steadily, and at the close of 1939 had 843 members enrolled with assets of approximately $60,000. During fifty years of existence, the Parlor has paid its members more than a quarter-million dollars in benefits. Other speakers, and their subjects, were:

Junior Past Grand President Jesse H. Miller, "San Francisco;" Grand President Henry S. Regan, "The Native Sons of the Golden West;" Past Grand President Lewis F. Byington, "California." Following the singing of "God Bless America" by the assemblage, a group of professionals entertained with singing and dancing. The following committee had charge of the fiftieth anniversary banquet: Judge George W. Schonfeld, chairman, James W. Brady, Daniel J. Collins, J. Oscar Crossley, Wm. G. Fanning, Past Grand President Gerald E. Gallagher, Philip Herold, Richard J. Hanley, Louis Nonnenmann, John O'Connor, Daniel Paulus, Harold J. Regan, John M. Reid and Grand Secretary John T. Regan.

D.G.W.—NEWS PARAGRAPHS.—N.S.G.W. Honoring those members who made the supreme sacrifice during the World War, some 60 members of the Orders of Native Sons and Five Daughters of the Golden West attended memorial services in Redwood Memorial Grove, Golden Gate Park, June 2. Lewis F. Byington, Past Grand President N.S.G.W., the speaker of the occasion, said California had sent more volunteers to the World War than any other state in the union.

Addressing Pacific Parlor No. 10 N.S.G.W. during Citizenship Week, Perry Harris remarked: "There are gathered here those whose ancestry dwelt in nearly every land on the face of the globe. No matter what differences there be in our faith, these differences are naught compared to the tie that binds us all in American citizenship. . . . It is a grand thought that running through our veins is the blood of many 'little races.'" At election of officers, J. Emmett Chapman was chosen president of the Parlor.

Stanford Parlor No. 76 N.S.G.W. featured an 80th birthday night June 25, and there was a very large attendance. Entertainment was provided and refreshments were served. During the evening fifty-year-membership pins were presented to Charter Members E. J. Angelo, Wm. J. Murray, Wm. Fuller Sharp, Edward Casey, Frederick J. Meckfessel, Chas. D. Steiger, Robert Almuk, Rich J. Mier and D. H. Watkins; Frank Scherer, Wm. H. Daly, Ed. V. Pasquale, Henry Lombard, Harrison Houseworth, Ed. Schwerin, S. P. Sweeney, Chas. T. Rice, W. F. M. Kinney and George Filmer. A large committee of arrangements was headed by Arthur T. Pohelm. The 8 and 9 the Parlor had a week-end party at the Santa Cruz Mountains.

The newly-elected officers of Castro Parlor No. 178 N.D.G.W., with Mary Luhr as president, will be publicly installed July 31. Alice Lane is in charge of arrangements. The Parlor's drill team is planning a whist party for July 10; refreshments will be served after the play. Yerba Buena Parlor No. 273 N.D.G.W. had a program tea at the Native Daughters Home June 8. President Mary Augusta Cuneo was assisted by Mms. Grace Richardson, Virginia Gotting and Irene Schonfeld. Appearing on the program were Florence Alice Smith, Mms. Jerome Vernazza, Rosalie Blancheri, Pearl Johnson and Rose S. Seibert, and Miss Lillian Pelletier. The guests at the Home were honored, as was Past Grand Dr. Mariana Bertola, who gave a brief history of the Home's founding. A gift of silverware was presented the Home by the Parlor. A check for $10 has been sent the Red Cross. Proceeds from the sale of "My Sunny California," composed by Mrs. Roberta Lewis and dedicated to Yerba Buena, will go to meet choral expenses; a copy of the song may be secured from any member of the Parlor for 35 cents. President Cuneo entertained her officers and chairmen at luncheon at her home June 25.

TO A PIONEER MOTHER

I tried to see you in a house of gold
With all the saints—and you with snow-white wings,

A happy spirit in the Heavenly fold
And free from worry of all earthly things.
Around the moon and through its rays of light
I thought you might be looking with new eyes
Or when the stars were diamonds in the night,
You might be visioning some great surprise.

Concerned with holy dreams? O, no, you live
In dawn-touched skies. The singing birds are part

Of you, and every desert flower can give
The sympathetic beauty of your heart.
You walk with God, the same as in the past,
Your hands still do the kindly deeds that last.

The first "upstream-engineer" was the beaver, which set an example the engineers of the Federal Government's Soil Conservation Service are following. In the few areas where beavers are plentiful, erosion is usually under control. By building their low dams along streams, beavers create hundreds of thousands of small reservoirs which serve to break the force and reduce the crest of floods, allow silt to settle, prevent channel erosion, increase the ground water supply, and keep streams flowing.

Historic Monterey celebrated with a "Merienda" June 3 its one hundred and seventieth anniversary.

ways and means committee was chairman of the event. In the Memorial Day parade the Parlor had an oldtime phaeton beautifully decorated with poppies. In it rode members gowned in pastel formals and carrying small parasols.—L.A.

Santa Monica—Santa Monica Bay Parlor No. 267 N.S.G.W. honored Past President Eugene W. Biscailuz June 11. There was a large attendance, including several visitors from Glendale, Los Angeles, Santa Ana and Ramona Parlor. Reminiscences were related, and Harry Dalley and Walter Hiskey announced a new parlor may soon be instituted at Fullerton. July 23, Santa Monica Bay will initiate a large class of candidates. July 30 will be a social night for members, their families and friends, and a big time is promised.

Canoga Park—Topanga Parlor No. 269 N.D.G.W. elected officers June 14, selecting Marguerite Tann president; they will be installed July 26. After the meeting, mothers and many friends were entertained with a movie, "The Middleton Family at the New York Fair." Refreshments were served. Saturday night, July 13, the Parlor will have a card party at the Canoga Park Woman's Clubhouse; Grace Kizer is in charge of arrangements.—L.J.C.

BIRTHDAY PARTY.

Long Beach—Long Beach Parlor No. 154 N.D.G.W. elected officers June 6, Nell Cooke being chosen president. At an open meeting June 20 a talkie film was shown and refreshments were served by the hostess committee, Bertha Hitt, chairman, Clara Fay, Kate McFadyen, Leola Temby and Lucille Laughlin. With Lois Watson as chairman, a cooked-food sale will be held July 13 at the Municipal Market.

San Diego Parlor No. 208 and East Los Angeles Parlor No. 266 have been asked by Long Beach to be its guests July 18, when five candidates will be initiated. There will also be a party for those having birthdays from January through June. A table will be appropriately decorated for each month. Chairmen include Alice Waldow (January), Lucille Laughlin (February), Ruth Loucks (March), Victoria Thompson (April), Grace Poole (May), Helen Suggs (June).

THE DEATH RECORD.

Mrs. Fannie Deveroux Claiborne Hortenstine, mother of William I. Hortenstine (Hollywood NS), died May 24 at San Francisco. She was a native of Tennessee, aged 81.

SAN PEDRO THE BARBECUE GIVEN jointly by Stephen M. White Parlor No. 263, Santa Monica Bay Parlor No. 267 and Long Beach Parlor No. 278 N.S.G.W. at Royal Palms Grove June 9 was a huge success, a crowd of approximately 600 being in attendance. The committee of arrangements included: Santa Monica Bay, Past Grand President Eldred L. Meyer and R. A. Haun; Long Beach, Bob Castro and Charles Walte; Stephen M. White, Jack Mele, Hampton Neergaard and Dewey Richards.

Stephen M. White Parlor entertained a large delegation of Los Angeles Parlor No. 45 members June 21. Many enthusiastic addresses were made, and refreshments were served. Captain Ray Cook has been appointed one of the pilots for the Port of Huene, Ventura County, which will be officially opened July 6 with water sports and boat races.—W.R.

DEPUTY REMEMBERED.

San Pedro—Rudecinda Parlor No. 230 N.D.G.W. June 10 re-elected President Dessie Buyo to head its corps of officers for the July-January term. Deputy Ernestine Aylward paid an official visit. Ann Churchman was hostess for the evening, and on behalf of the Parlor presented a gift to Mrs. Aylward.—K.D.

THE LETTER BOX

Comments on subjects of general interest and importance received from readers of The Grizzly Bear.

SOCIETY CALIFORNIA PIONEERS LIBERALIZES ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENT.

Editor Grizzly Bear: Wonder if you can run the accompanying information, which should be of great interest to readers of The Grizzly Bear? I am a member of Stanford Parlor No. 76 N.S.G.W. and chairman of the membership committee of the Society of California Pioneers. Any help you can give by publicizing these facts will be greatly appreciated. [The request is complied with, and the information follows.—Editor.]

The original Society of California Pioneers restricted membership to actual Pioneers in California prior to January 1, 1850, and to the descendants of the original members. This excluded the descendants of actual Pioneers not members of the Society, the descendants of members of local pioneer societies, and the Spanish-Californians. And, because the old Spanish-Californians have numerous descendants, the Society considered the original requirements no longer just.

Accordingly, a year ago the constitution and by-laws were amended to make eligible any man descended from an actual Pioneer, whether male or female, who resided in California on or before January 1, 1850. This change was never called to the attention of the general public, but the Society now desires to get into the fold all persons eligible for membership in order to expand its work and to realize its purposes to the full. Will appreciate anyone who knows of men now eligible for the Society communicating with me at the Society's headquarters, 456 McAllister street, San Francisco. Many native sons, heretofore excluded by the rule imposed by the Society's original founders, are now eligible to join.—I. M. PECKHAM, San Francisco, California.

Eureka, Humboldt County, will stage the Ninth District Agricultural Fair and Horse Show July 1-4.

The Sonoma-Marín Counties Fourth District Agricultural Fair is to be held at Petaluma July 26-28.

Salinas, Monterey County, is to feature its annual California Rodeo July 18-21.

A National Horse Show is billed for Coronado, San Diego County, July 23-28.

Santa Barbara City will have a horse show July 31-August 4.

Alturas, Modoc County, will feature a rodeo July 3 and 4.

Group No. 3 (communities of more than 50,000 population)—Gabrielle Parlor No. 139, San Francisco, prizewinner; Long Beach Parlor No. 154, Long Beach, special mention.

In Memoriam

ELLEN GORTON.

To the Officers and Members of Forrest Parlor No. 86 N.D.G.W.—We, your committee appointed to draft resolutions of love and sympathy to the memory of our departed Sister Ellen Gorton, submit the following:

Whereas, The Angel of Death has again visited among us and another of our beloved members has been called from our midst, and that in the passing of Ellen Gorton the world loses a branch and shining example of true womanhood in every sense of the word; deep motherhood in all its sweet and tender devotion; loyal friendship in all sincerity, its kindness, its unselfishness; and surely such an influence for good will live on and prove a guiding star to all.

Resolved, That the heartfelt sympathy of the members of Forrest Parlor be extended to the bereaved family; that a copy of these resolutions be spread upon the minutes of the Parlor, a copy sent to the family of the deceased sister, and a copy sent to The Grizzly Bear for publication.

Respectfully submitted,
LAURA G. WESTON,
Chairman,
SADIE TIPPETT,
ALDA NINNES.

Plymouth, May 31, 1940.

FRANCES FLAMONDON.

To the Officers and Members of Vendome Parlor No. 100 Native Daughters of the Golden West—We, your committee appointed to draft resolutions of respect to the memory of our late Sister Frances Flamondon, herewith submit the following:

Whereas, Our Parlor has been visited again by the Angel of Death, who has taken our beloved sister to her Heavenly Home, and her passing has brought sorrow to our members, who shall always recall her devotion to our Order of the Native Daughters of the Golden West, and her kindly disposition and respect for her fellow members; and

Whereas, While we pay loving tribute to her memory, we are not unmindful of the sorrow that has come to her loved ones; therefore, be it

Resolved, That we extend the sincere sympathy of Vendome Parlor to her bereaved family, that a copy of these resolutions be spread upon the minutes of our Parlor, one sent to the family and one copy to The Grizzly Bear Magazine for publication.

Respectfully submitted,
ANNA M. DOUGHERTY,
ALICE ROLL,
DOROTHY SALAS.

ter way to bring this about than through action on the part of our Parlor.

"We have many other avenues of useful service and self-expression, but I shall not attempt to deal with all of them at this time, except to again remind every member that there is a place for each of us, according to our interest and inspiration, a need for each of us, and a challenge for every one of us to do our part.

"The founders of our Order took as their model the character of the California Pioneer, and especially, the Pioneer Mother. Her chief virtues and guiding ideals they made the guiding ideals of this society—love of home, loyalty to state and nation, and an abiding faith in God. Let us never lose sight of these high purposes.

"Our California Pioneers achieved their destiny by unity, vision, determination and hard work. In their hearts they visioned a commonwealth which would take its place among the greatest in this grand union of states, where liberty and self-government are the inalienable right of every man. This is our heritage from them.

"We have exemplified love of home as a principle of this Order by maintaining the Native Daughters Home in San Francisco. Let us be ever mindful of our responsibility toward this worthy project, and give our whole-hearted support, not only for the sake of its physical maintenance, but because of the pleasures and comforts we are thereby able to give to our young women who travel, and to our older members who are facing the sunset of life.

"We reaffirm our faith in God at each of our Parlor meetings. Let us equally reaffirm this faith in all of the commonplace, daily expressions of our lives. 'God is everywhere apparent, and yet everywhere concealed. God is manifest all about us, in trees and flowers, in storms and rainbows, in friends and strangers. . . and reverence is more than duty; it is the innate courtesy of the soul.'

"To my Heavenly Father I give thanks for His guidance and protection these many years as I have traveled from Parlor to Parlor, and for the health and strength I have been given to accomplish the desire of my heart.

"On becoming Grand President, I thank the Past Grand Presidents and the friends who first suggested to me the thought of aspiring to office in the Grand Parlor. To the members of my own Parlor, Verdugo, I extend my deep gratitude and affectionate appreciation for the faith, the loving kindness and the loyalty they have unfailingly accorded me during this period of endeavor. To this beautiful escort team,—you who have traveled from Glendale to honor me—I am thankful for the friendship which prompted you, and I am proud because of the beautiful way in which you have carried out this gracious act. I know the members of this Grand Parlor appreciate, with me, this expression of your devotion. To the Past Grand Presidents and other members and friends of this Order of Native Daughters of the Golden West, sincere thanks for your support and co-operation.

"And I know you will allow me the privilege of introducing those especially near and dear to me. This is the opportunity I have waited for, that in some way I might express by heartfelt thanks for all they have done for me. First to you, Louis, for your unselfishness in permitting me the opportunity of serving this Order. Your loyalty, your kindness, the sacrifices you have made—if any glory or success is mine tonight, it is truly in part thine. To my sons, Louis Junior and Willard Hansen, mother is indeed grateful for your understanding and love. Many years ago, in the little town of Coulterville, Mariposa County, my father held in baptism a baby girl. Little did he realize then that someday this baby, grown to womanhood, would be the second 'mother' in the Hansen household. My dear friend, Mrs. Ana McVey, has been just this when I have been away from home attending the meetings of the Native Daughters. My friend and business associate, who has been encouraging, loyal and true, my beloved Homer B. King, is here, and it is my great joy to acknowledge his presence tonight.

"I am proud, as I think a Native Daughter should be, that I had two sets of grandparents who were forty-niners. Each had eleven children, and of their descendants not one is living outside of California or has been buried away from his native land. With this background, you will understand how it happens that I have the pleasure of welcoming a number of relatives here tonight. I will not attempt to introduce them individually, but I would like to have them rise for a bow.

"To each and every one of you, my most sincere thanks for the honor of serving this splendid Order, the oldest organization of women on the Pacific Coast.

"Being Grand President is something that does not just happen, and I did not achieve this office of myself alone. Whatever I have so far accomplished is due to the support of my family, my friends and my co-workers. All those whom I have thanked had a part in bringing me to the position I accept tonight.

"It will not be different in the future. I shall be able to function for the honor and benefit of this Order only in the degree that you sustain me. You brought me to this point, and it is not a point of departure, where either you or I go on separately. It is simply the commencement of one more climb in the journey onward and upward that we are all making together.

"I could not make this journey alone, if I wanted to. Certainly I shall be happiest making it in your company, with your help and your interest as my chosen friends. Let us go into the new year together, confident that there is not a goal too high nor a star too far distant for us to endeavor to reach as Native Daughters of the Golden West.

"May you all be kept in safety,
In the hollow of God's hand,
No matter where you wander,
O'er sea or land,
And under His protection,
May you life's highs ascend,
Will be the prayer I'll offer daily,
The benediction of your friend."

F. McCarthy, Joseph E. Tinney, Walter C. Richards and Louis Bosch, Grand Historian Dr. Peter T. Conmy, Past Grand Joseph R. Knowland and Governor General Walter E. Hiskey of the Past Presidents Association.

IN MEMORIAM.

In remembrance of those members of the Order who passed away during the year, memorial services were held the morning of June 17.

Eulogies of Past Grands Genevieve Watson-Baker, Eliza D. Keith and Ella E. Caminetti were pronounced, respectively, by Past Grands Dr. Mariana Bertola, Anne C. Thuesen and Gladys E. Noce. All other departed members were eulogized by Grand President Giannini. Concluding the ceremonies, Marjory Allen sang the Twenty-third Psalm.

PAST GRANDS' REUNION.

The annual reunion dinner of the Past Grand Presidents Association was held the evening of Tuesday, June 18, with Evelyn I. Carlson as the hostess. A table color scheme of pink and silver honored Edna B. Briggs, received as the "baby" member, and May C. Boldemann, celebrating her twenty-fifth anniversary as presiding officer of the Grand Parlor.

"Baby" Edna was presented a bib, a rattle and a glass of milk, indicative of her status as a mere infant in the "College of Past Grands." Emma Lou Humphrey and Bertha A. Briggs were re-elected, respectively, president and secretary-treasurer. Commemorating her quarter-century anniversary as Grand President, Mr. Boldemann received a gift from the Association. Each Past Grand named the year of her initiation into the Order, the years of service as president of her local Parlor and as Grand President of the Order, and related interesting events associated with her administration.

In attendance at the reunion were Past Grand Carrie Roesch-Durham, Dr. Mariana Bertola, Cora B. Sifford, Ariana W. Stirling, Emma Foley, Emma Lou Humphrey, Mamie G. Peyto, May C. Boldemann, Mamie P. Carmichael, Grace S. Stoerner, Mary E. Bell, Bertha A. Briggs, Mattie M. Stein, Amy McAvoy, Mae Hime Noonan, Esther R. Sullivan, Evelyn I. Carlson, Irma W. Laird, Gladys E. Noce, Anne C. Class A Drum Corps—First, Genevieve Parlor No. 132, San Francisco, $15; second, El Carme Parlor No. 181, Daly City, $10; Mission Parlor No. 227, San Francisco, trophy.

ENTERTAINMENT.

The Grand Parlor entertainment was planned by a joint committee of representatives of the Alameda County Parlor, with the following officers: Grand Secretary Sallie Thaler, chairman; Irma Murray, secretary; Gladys Farle, treasurer. Hospitality was unlimited, and everyone had a delightful time. The program was carried out as outlined in The Grizzly Bear for June.

At the Sunday night reception, Past Grand Sue J. Irwin presided, and Grand President Orinda Giannini was the main speaker. The Nadine Sherwood Trio, Adelaide Carrothers, J. Goodman and Mrs. Randolph entertained with instrumental and vocal selections.

At the Wednesday luncheon, Miss Irwin again presided, and Mayor Frank Gaines of Berkeley was the speaker. Irma Frazier, accompanied by Helen M. Beesley, entertained with interpretive dances. A fashion show, supervised by Jess Culbert of Piedmont Parlor No. 87, was presented, and a trio directed by Edna Mae Ruzick provided music.

SANTA BARBARA'S OLD SPANISH DAYS FIESTA

Santa Barbara—Until after August 17, Santa Barbara Parlor No. 116 N.S.G.W. and Reina del Mar Parlor No. 126 N.D.G.W. members will be thinking, dressing and living in the Spanish mood. For, the Old Spanish Days Fiesta, one of the most noted of California's many attractions, will open August 14 and carry through August 17.

As a matter of fact, the Natives' activities will begin the Sunday before the Fiesta actually opens, as August 11 they will have a tea at which pioneers of the Spanish era and officers of the Fiesta organization will be publicly honored. To the Native Daughters falls the honor of selecting from their ranks the young woman who will represent Saint Barbara throughout the celebration.

SHERIFF POSSE SUPPER

Santa Barbara Parlor of Native Sons has named a committee including A. C. Dinsmore, chairman, C. W. McCormick, Leland Holiday, Isaac Bonilla, Raymond Romero, Frank Huffman, Leland Smith, George Dow, President W. H. Rutherford and Harold T. Campbell to arrange for the eighth annual sheriff posse supper, to be held the evening of Thursday, August 15.

This supper-party, an outstanding event of the Fiesta, is sponsored by Santa Barbara Parlor in honor of Sheriff Eugene W. Biscailuz and his uniformed mounted posse of Los Angeles County that always participate in the wonderful historical parade. Year after year the number of reservations are increased, but always many are turned away.

This year, beautiful Samarkand has been selected as the scene of the festivities. There will be a reception at 6 o'clock, supper will be served at 7:30, and then will follow entertainment and dancing. But five hundred reservations are available, and they will go, in order, to those first making application and putting the money on the line.

"This posse supper is not a public affair," cautions the committee, "and reservations positively must be made in advance. Native Sons and Daughters, their families and friends are eligible to make arrangements." Any so desiring may communicate with Chairman A. C. Dinsmore, 909 East Carpinteria street, Santa Barbara.

SAN BERNARDINO THE "GATEWAY COUNTY"

San Bernardino—Arrowhead Parlor No. 110 N.S.G.W., had its annual Independence Day barbecue at the Crestline Clubhouse. Amusements of all kinds were provided for both the youngsters and the oldsters. Avery Anderson was the general chairman.

July 24 the Parlor had initiation, and observed its fifty-third institution anniversary. Charter Members Joseph E. Rich and Albert A. Burcham were honor-guests of the evening. For the forty-sixth consecutive year, John Andreson has been installed as treasurer of Arrowhead. H. George Cunningham, a member of the Parlor residing in Barstow, has been elected chairman of the California State Board of Pharmacy.

N.S. PAST PRESIDENTS.

Arrowhead Past Presidents Assembly No. 14 N.S.G.W. had a well-attended stag party—dinner and show—at the Crestline N.S.G.W. Clubhouse July 27. James A. Olivas was the general chairman. The proceeds will go to entertain delegates to the General Assembly, which meets at San Bernardino in October.

August 8 the Assembly will meet at the home of Governor General Walter E. Hiskey, 1501 South McClay street, Santa Ana. Following a 7 o'clock dinner, the officers-elect will be installed by Herma Taylor. All past presidents are invited.

UNUSUAL WEATHER CHANGED

DOWNTOWN SAN FRANCISCO LOCATION.

The present location of the downtown business district of San Francisco was not selected by city planners and surveyors, but by California's unusual weather. If it had not been for that, San Francisco skyscrapers might have been built in what is now the Presidio, several miles from their present location. These conclusions have been reached by Dr. J. N. Bowman, historian, working with George W. Hendry, assist-

PIO PICO AND THE CALIFORNIA CIVIL WAR OF 1845

Dr. Peter T. Conmy, Grand Historian N.S.G.W.

(WRITTEN ESPECIALLY FOR THE GRIZZLY BEAR MAGAZINE.)

THE YEAR 1845 WAS A TRYING ONE in the political affairs of California. It was the culmination of two previous years of growing and increasing discord and discontent. In 1836, dissatisfied with the administrations of governors who had been sent from Mexico, the Californians revolted, and Juan Bautista Alvarado became governor. At first considered an insurgent, he was at length recognized by the central government in Mexico City, and served until the close of the year 1842. Alvarado might have continued in office indefinitely, however, had it not been for his refusal to follow one law enacted in Mexico. This was an act repealing the law of 1835 which decreed secularization of the missions. Notified of the repeal, Alvarado steadfastly refused to proclaim the same in California. The church, on the other hand, desired that the process of mission secularization cease. It was, therefore, necessary for the Mexican government to appoint a new governor who would conform to the wishes of the administration in Mexico City.

The governor selected was Manuel Michelorena, a brigadier-general in the Mexican army. He bore a good reputation. In addition, he had a kind and an affable personality. His appointment was made January 22, 1842. He was given broad powers, in both military and civil matters, and was charged with reorganizing the official defenses of the Department of Alta California, which were thought to have decayed somewhat.

At the outset, the appointment of Michelorena was objectionable to many Alta Californians. First of all, Governor Alvarado did not wish to retire from office. Second, many of the people of the department desired the secularization process to continue, and naturally resented a governor who came for the avowed purpose of promulgating the repeal of the secularization law. Third, a local or sectional spirit had been developing in California. Alvarado, a native of the department, Vallejo, Hillo and Bandini, leaders in the secularization movement, were natives of the soil and were so known by the Spanish expression, "hijos de la tierra." The advent of a Mexican governor was repugnant to these leaders. Fourth, the assumption of the governorship by Alvarado in 1846 had given California an administration in which local problems were solved in a local way. Now, the coming of a governor from Mexico seemed to bring with it a standardization or domination of California and Californians to Mexican rules, customs and general policies. This, consequently, led to antipathy toward the new governor.

Notwithstanding these factors, which militated against his success, Governor Michelorena might have overcome them by the force and ability of his personality had it not been for the fact that he brought with him into California an army which was distasteful to the general population. The soldiers, recruited in Mexico, numbered about five hundred, of whom two hundred were regular soldiers and the balance were militia.

A professor of agronomy on the Berkeley campus of the University of California, in a study of adobes and other features of early central California history. Bowman's evidence shows that all ships of consequence anchored in the old Spanish anchorage 700 feet east of Fort Point between 1815 and 1824, with the exception of the Walers, which used an anchorage at Sausalito, across the Golden Gate. Then, in the late winter of 1824, came a tremendous storm, the worst in the known history of the port. Ships were blown from their moorings and sought shelter in Yerba Buena Cove, which included what is now much of downtown San Francisco. The Spanish government ordered the ships back, but they refused to go, and four years later it officially recognized the new anchorage in the cove.

Here, in 1835, Governor Figueroa founded a village for the convenience of shipping. For a time the pueblo around the old Presidio was continued, but later it was drawn to the cove, to become part of the nucleus of the San Francisco of today. In this move San Francisco, or Yerba Buena as it was then known, went against Spanish custom and tradition, which decreed that the Presidio should be the center of the settlement, a custom that was followed at San Diego, Santa Barbara and Monterey.

ance, about three hundred, were convicts. Such an army lacked military discipline and high ideals. Arrived in California, the conduct of the men aroused public indignation, and it was not long before the term "cholos" was used to describe them; "cholos" is a Spanish word signifying halfbreed. It is a word used to express degradation, and implies about the lowest type of man. The army arrived in San Diego August 25, 1842, and was described by Alfred Robinson, an eyewitness, as follows:

"They presented a state of wretchedness unequalled. Not one individual among them possessed a jacket or pantaloons; but naked, and like the savage Indians, they concealed their nudity with dirty and miserable blankets. The females were not much better off, for the scantiness of their mean apparel was too apparent for modest observers. They appeared like convicts, and indeed the greater part of them had been charged with murder or theft. And these were the soldiers sent to subdue this happy country."

Another early Californian, Mrs. Ord (nee Maria De la Guerra), wrote the following statement about these soldiers: "The troops that he brought were insufferable; all the officers but five or six were worthless; the soldiers were petty thieves, who every day committed crimes of some sort, and the officers were worse than the men."

Michelorena took over the office of governor December 31, 1842. The year 1843 passed quickly enough, and so did the first half of 1844. As the latter year wore into its final months the Californians found the presence of the "cholos" more and more obnoxious. Things came to a head November 14th, when a party of about fifty Californians, under the leadership of Jose Castro, drove off the government's horses from Monterey and proceeded to San Juan Bautista, where they seized government munitions and implements of war.

The news of this revolt spread quickly, and the 22nd the governor led his forces north through the Salinas Valley looking for the rebels. While this was going on the insurgents were recruiting help from their fellow Californians and from a number of sympathetic foreigners, so that by the 28th of the month they had amassed a force of about 220 men. The opposing men met near San Jose. For two or three days there were maneuvers in which there was no loss of life. The 29th of November Governor Michelorena, sensing the nature of his opponents, requested a conference. This was granted, the spokesman for the insurgents being the former governor, Alvarado. By December 1st both sides had agreed on terms, which were signed December 2nd. This is known in California history as the Treaty of Santa Theresa. It provided that the governor should have three months to send away his battalion of "cholos" and, on his part, the governor granted full amnesty to those who had participated in the revolt. Thus what might have been a bloody encounter was peacefully terminated.

Had the Treaty of Santa Theresa been adhered to, no further steps would have been taken against Michelorena; for, although he was not generally liked, nevertheless, once the most obnoxious difficulty of the battalion had been removed, he would have been respected. The governor, however, apparently never had any intention of living up to the treaty, and had accepted it only as a diplomatic move while he was sparring for time. One of his purposes now was to get aid, which he secured from General John A. Sutter, Thomas A. Larkin and Isaac Graham. January 1, 1845, Sutter marched a command of two hundred men to the aid of the governor. The 4th of the month Michelorena proclaimed the City of Monterey under martial law. The Californians, however, seemed to understand the geographical strategy of their country. Accordingly, January 2nd they moved to Los Angeles, which they seized the 20th. As soon as they had possession of the southern center, Alvarado addressed numerous gatherings there, convincing the people not only of the justice of the cause but also of the governor's treachery in not living up to the Treaty of Santa Theresa. In addition, the insurgents interviewed a number of members of the junta, the departmental assembly, and enlisted their aid.

A meeting of the junta was called by Pio Pico, the senior vocal, January 28th. The matter of Michelorena's conduct was considered, and the conclusion of those present was that he was persecuting the native Californians to whom he had given his word in the Treaty of Santa Theresa. After a number of meetings the assembly voted to petition the Mexican government for another governor, and declared the office vacant during the interim. This decision was conveyed to the governor, who by now had marched as far south as Carpinteria. He refused to accede to the demands of the junta, and proceeded to Los Angeles to attack the insurgents.

February 20th they met near the Cahuenga Pass. To the credit of both sides, he it said that every effort was made to win by strategy and to avoid the shedding of human blood. This attitude persisted until the end, and not a single life was lost. Michelorena, seeing that he was outnumbered, surrendered under a flag of truce. A treaty of peace was speedily made, the Treaty of Campo de San Fernando, which was signed Sunday, February 22nd. This document provided for the return of Michelorena to Monterey, for the dissolution of his army, and for the taking over of the governorship by the senior vocal of the assembly, who was Pio Pico. Michelorena obeyed the provisions of this treaty, and Pico had no further trouble from this source.

The overthrow of Michelorena was intimately connected with the matter of the secularization of the missions. One of his successor's early acts was to proceed with secularization. This has given rise to the belief that the matter of the "cholos" was only an excuse for revolt; that the hidden meaning was to continue the exploitation of the missions. This is sustained by Bancroft, who says: "The statements of Alvarado and other Californians, representing the story of the cholos at Monterey as causing a reign of terror in which vice, robbery, outrage and murder were rampant, must be regarded as the exaggerations of men in search of a justification for later revolt."

If this view is correct, and it is backed up by good evidence, then the civil war in California in 1844-45 must be regarded as the final step in the process of mission secularization.

"Your every voter, as surely as your chief magistrate, exercises a public trust . . . People should support their government; its functions do not include support of the people."—Grovver Cleveland.

ADMISSION DAY THREE-DAY FESTIVAL AT SACRAMENTO

(LEONARD J. HOOPER.)

colorful Admission Day parade, a tree planting ceremony, golf, softball, baseball and other team contests are but a few of the features planned by the Sacramento County Parlor of the Orders of Native Sons and Native Daughters of the Golden West to entertain visitors to Sacramento for the Admission Day festivities, September 7, 8 and 9. In charge of all arrangements is a large general committee offered by:
J. J. Longshore, chairman; E. E. Reese, vice-chairman; A. W. Katzenstein, secretary; L. P.
Brown, treasurer.

The Admission Day, September 9, parade will be through the Capital City's downtown district. It will be composed of fourteen divisions of uniformed marchers, bands, drum corps, drill teams and floats. F. A. Lafferty is chairman of the parade committee.

Approximately thirty units from Parlor of Native Sons and Native Daughters will, according to Chairman J. G. Fitzhenry of the contest committee, engage in the drum-and-bugle corps and drill team competitions. These will be held at the State Fair grounds.

Tree-planting ceremonies on the State Fair grounds, September 8, a Pioneer Memorial Grove, with a tree representing each of California's fifty-eight counties, will be dedicated.
Miss Genevieve Didion heads the committee arranging that feature.

Native Sons and Native Daughters Parlor are interested to contact A. W. Katzenstein, secretary of the general committee, regarding their plans for participation in the three-day conclave.

CALIFORNIA'S EIGHTY-SIXTH ANNUAL STATE FAIR

It's a far cry from the little hall on Bush and Montgomery streets, San Francisco, where the first California State Fair was held, to the modern 220-acre plant in Sacramento where the 1940 State Fair opens August 30 and runs through eleven days, including September 9.

California's 228 economic crops—possible only because of the state's varying climate and soil—will be fully displayed at twenty-nine county exhibits. Farm and road machinery of all types will be exhibited, and the mining display, representing one of California's basic industries, will be startling.

Outstanding stables will enter their star horses in the harness and the running races, and the horse show, with five new classes added and an old favorite re-established, will be the tops of such events on the Pacific Coast. A most exceptional entertainment program, headed by three of the nation's famous bands, will be offered.

Installed in fourteen buildings erected for the exclusive use of the Future Farmers of America and the 4-H Clubs, will be the new Junior Division, a good-sized fair in itself.

Featuring a colored map identifying all the buildings and points of interest, a most attractive folder describing the California State Fair will, according to Secretary-Manager Kenneth
R. Hammaker, be sent anyone on request.

MAGNIFICENT SEQUOIAS ADDED TO KINGS CANYON NATIONAL PARK.

The addition of the Redwood Mountain area —approximately 10,000 acres of magnificent sequoias, canyons and forested mountain country—to the General Grant Grove of Kings Canyon National Park, California, has been announced by the Federal Interior Department.
Inclusion of the mountain affords protection to one of the finest remaining virgin groves of sequoia, the oldest and largest living things.

Kings Canyon National Park now embraces 464,000 acres of some of the nation's most beautiful and rugged wilderness country. Included among its outstanding features are huge domes which tower two-thirds of a mile and more above the surrounding country, great yawning canyons, 13,000- and 14,000-foot peaks, sparkling streams, crystal-clear lakes, spectacular falls and cascades, and a wide variety of animal and floral life.

Reduced petroleum production accounted for a drop in the 1939 total value of minerals pro-

JACKSON—UNDER THE AUSPICES OF Excelsior No. 31, the Amador County Courthouse was dedicated by the grand officers June 29 to "Truth, Liberty and Toleration." Several hundred people witnessed the ceremonies and enjoyed a fine program. Patriotic selections were played by the Amador County Band, directed by Frank Johnson, and vocal numbers were rendered by Robert Sargent, Leah Peters and Frances Schacht. Chairman D. V. Ramazzotti of the Board of Supervisors presided.

Grand President Henry S. Lyon spoke on American ideals, and in the course of his address complimented Amador County and its supervisors for having completed such a splendid building without benefit of federal or state aid, and without a bonded debt. For Amador Post No. 108 American Legion, Ralph McGee presented a silk United States of America Flag, and for Excelsior Parlor, T. G. Negrich presented a silk California State (Bear) Flag. For Amador County, the flags were accepted by Superior Judge A. L. Pierovich. Others on the program were Rev. M. J. Kearney, District Troop No. 78 Boy Scouts of America, District Attorney Allen Martin and Rev. R. W. Plannette.

The dedicatory ceremonies were conducted by Grand President Henry S. Lyon, Grand First Vice-president Edward T. Schnarr, Grand Second Vice-president Lloyd J. Cosgrove, Grand Trustee Joseph E. Tinney and Grand Secretary John T. Regan. Also in attendance were Grand Trustee Eben K. Smart, Grand Marshal Walter N. Bailey and Grand Historian Dr. Peter T. Conmy.

On behalf of the Native Daughters, Supervising Deputy Emma Boardman-Wright dedicated a plaque covering the old Courthouse well. The plaque is inscribed: "Under this Tablet is the Court House Well, dug in 1851, 52 feet in depth. For generations it was a main source of domestic water for the community. Gone is the ancient equipment, but still the living waters flow. Tablet dedicated June 29, 1940, by Ursula Parlor No. 1 Native Daughters of the Golden West and the Board of Supervisors of Amador County."

Membership Prize Winners.

Grand Secretary John T. Regan July 19 announced the following Subordinate Parlors as winners in the membership campaign sponsored from January 1 to April 15, 1940, by the then Grand President Jesse H. Miller:

Largest net gain—Bakersfield No. 42, Bakersfield, net gain of 35, first prize, $100; Yosemite No. 24, Merced, net gain of 33, second prize, $50.

Largest percentage gain—Pebble Beach No. 230, Pescadero, net gain of 32, 235 1/2 percent, first prize, $100; Las Positas No. 96, Livermore, net gain of 26, 31 percent, second prize, $50.

Parlors with less than 25 members—Nicasio No. 183, Nicasio, net gain of 8, either a trophy or $15 cash.

Alameda County Parlors will sponsor a reception and banquet honoring Grand President Henry S. Lyon in the Ivory Court of Hotel Oakland. Arrangements are in charge of a committee comprising the district deputy grand presidents, with Supervising Deputy Louis J. Zimmerman as chairman.

Following the banquet, which will be attended by public officials, grand officers, members of the Order and candidates for membership, the ritual will be exemplified by a picked team. The Alameda County Parlors' enthusiastic participation in the affair assures at least fifty candidates, who will be known as the "Admission Day Class." All members of the Order are cordially invited to attend; the fee is $1.50 per plate.

Visitors Royally Entertained.

Cambria—Cambria No. 152 had several visitors July 13 and they were royally entertained. A fine barbecue preceded the meeting at which one candidate was initiated and officers of the Parlor, with Leo Nock as president, were installed by District Deputy Harold Semichy. Reports showed the Parlor, recently reorganized, is making good progress. The visitors, who were welcomed by District Deputy George Gillespie, a charter member of Cambria, included:

Grand Trustee Walter C. Richards, Supervising Deputy Roy W. Tarleton and Stanley Sargent of Compton No. 273; District Deputy Dewey Richards and Matt Soares of Stephen M. White No. 263, San Pedro; Lewis Giegerich of Pacific No. 10, San Francisco; Supervising Deputy

James P. Call and S. M. Marinello of Mountain View No. 215; District Deputy Harold Semichy John R. Sullivan, Joseph Lawrence, Lauren Paradiso and Ernest Lorentz Jr. of San Jo No. 22.

Community Playground Dedicated.

Elk Grove—Under the auspices of Elk Grove No. 41 and Liberty No. 213 N.D., this community's playground, Elk Grove Park, was dedicated at a rousing Independence Day celebration participated in by nearly all the townspeople and numerous visitors. The program opened with the pledge to the flag. Robert Krull was the soloist of the occasion, and also led the assemblage in singing "The Star Spangled Banner" and "God Bless America." Florence Markoff was the accompanist. Master of Ceremonies Guy G. Foulks gave a history of the park.

Grand President Henry S. Lyon, the speaker of the day, delivered a thrilling patriotic address. Other speakers were Past Grand Edw. B. Briggs of the Native Daughters, whose subject was "Pioneer Mothers and Fathers," and Grand Marshal Walter N. Bailey. Plaque placing ceremonies were conducted by Grand President Lyon, assisted by Grand First Vice-president Edward T. Schnarr, Grand Trustee Joseph E. Tinney and Grand Marshal Bailey, and Presidents Larry Nicolaus and Ann Kloss unveiled the monument.

The joint arrangements committee included: Native Sons—Raymond Russell, chairman, Guy G. Foulks, Walter N. Bailey, Larry Nicolaus; Native Daughters—Nellie Christiansen, chairman, Isabell Grover, Helen Hanner, Ann Kloss; Francis Wackman.

Initiation at Historic Site.

Sacramento—General John A. Sutter Park Presidents Assembly No. 10 is arranging for initiation of a class of more than a hundred candidates at the Marshall monument near Coloma, El Dorado County, Sunday, August 2, in honor of Grand President Henry S. Lyon. A picked team will exemplify the ritual.

All Parlors in the Sacramento Valley and the Mother Lode district are expected to participate in the event. After the initiatory ceremony luncheon for members and their families will be served in the park adjacent to the monument. Albert W. Katzenstein of Sutter Fort No. 21 is the chairman, and Supervising Deputy J. Fitzhenry is the secretary of the arrangements committee.

There are thousands of fine eligibles just waiting to be extended an invitation to affiliate with the Order Native Sons of the Golden West. Be a recruiter. extend the invitation today, not tomorrow!

Placerville. Declaring "There are thousands of native-born Californians eligible for membership in the Order of Native Sons of the Golden West, and they should be a working part of an organization devoted exclusively to the best interests of our state," Grand President Henry S. Lyon has launched a statewide campaign for new members.

He urges the active and united co-operation of all of the 137 Subordinate Parlor of the Order, that the goal he has fixed—a total membership of 30,000 by the end of 1940—may be realized.

"The history of the Order of Native Sons," says Grand President Lyon, "is studded with achievements in the interest of California and Californians. The campaign is designed to bring into Parlor of the Order all eligible citizens interested in the promotion and preservation of Americanism and California history." To add impetus to the drive, individuals and Parlor obtaining increases in membership will be liberally rewarded.

speakers of the occasion was Peace Justice Percy G. West. Entertainment was provided and refreshments were served.

Modesto—Solomon Philip Elias, an oldtime member of Modesto No. 11 and an authority on earlyday Stanislaus County history, died July 19, at the age of 71. From 1922 to 1931 he served his native city, Modesto, as mayor, and in years gone by represented Modesto Parlor in the Grand Parlor.

Santa Rosa—Thomas J. Hutchinson, charter member of Santa Rosa No. 28 and a former supervisor of Sonoma County, died July 13. He was born near Yuba City, Sutter County, June 23, 1860.

Nevada City—In the course of the Independence Day literary program here, Grand Trustee Eben K. Smart, on behalf of Hydraulic No. 56 and Quartz No. 58, Grass Valley, presented a California State (Bear) Flag to the Nevada County Superior Court, and Frank Finnegan of Hydraulic, on behalf of the Grass Valley and Nevada City Elks Lodges, presented a United States of America Flag. For the county, the flags were accepted by Cary Arbogast of Hydraulic, chairman Board Supervisors.

Auburn—A party of trail riders sponsored by Auburn No. 59, in co-operation with the United States Forest Service, July 28 marked a twenty-two mile section of the emigrant trail across the Sierra traversed by the Donner Party. Wendell Robie was active in making arrangements.

San Rafael—Mount Tamalpais No. 64 celebrated its fifty-fifth institution anniversary July 1. At a dinner preceding the meeting Grand Historian Dr. Peter T. Conmy spoke about "Kit Carson, Master of Scouts." Among others in attendance were Grand Trustee Louis Bosch, Charles A. Redding, Marin County treasurer, and Louis J. Peter of the Grand Parlor California History Board.

Weaverville—Mount Baldy No. 87 was host to Fred H. Greely Past Presidents Assembly No. 6 Saturday, June 22. The ritual was exemplified and a banquet was spread. The following day the groups, augmented by Native Daughters, had their annual outing at Minersville. A feature of the day was the placing by Mount Baldy, in co-operation with the Trinity National Forest management, of markers at the sites of Ridgeville and Sebastopol, Trinity County "ghost" towns. Among the guests of the occasion were Past Grand Florence D. Boyle of the Native Daughters, Governor General Walter E. Hiskey of the Past Presidents General Assembly, Grand Trustee R. G. Power of the Native Sons, Governor Burton L. Smart and Past Governor Frank Boyle of Past Presidents Assembly No. 6.

Downieville—Downieville No. 92 was visited July 22 by Supervising Deputy Robert W. Kohler and a large delegation of Quartz No. 58, Grass Valley, members. During the evening the officers of Downieville and Golden Nugget No. 94, Sierra City, were jointly installed, S. N. McCormick and Joseph Zerga becoming the respective presidents. Grand Trustee Eben K. Smart addressed the gathering. District Deputy August Costa was in charge of arrangements for Downieville.

Ferndale—At its July 1 meeting, Ferndale No. 93 decided to get new-style regalias for its officers, and to present silver emblems to thirty-five members who have been affiliated with the Parlor for twenty-five years. C. H. Rasmussen was named publicity director. Refreshments

GLENDALE—ANOTHER BRILLIANT evening went into the history of Verdugo Parlor No. 240 N.D.G.W. July 23 when, with traditional dignity, surrounded by beautiful flowers, and with a complete ensemble of acting grand officers from Los Angeles Parlor, the officers-elect of the Parlor were publicly installed. All participating officers were gowned in white and carried bouquets of red roses.

Mrs. Ione Gillett, chairman of the evening, greeted the large assemblage, and Mrs. Ada Steele, acting grand marshal, conducted to her station Miss Ann Schiebusch, deputy grand president, who officiated. Mrs. Mary Miller was installed as president and, addressing the members of Verdugo, said her theme for the year would be "Friendship and Tolerance."

Grand President Hazel B. Hansen, also gowned in white and carrying a huge bouquet of red roses, was given a rousing welcome home. In the course of her address she stressed the Order's objectives, and directed attention to the evening's predominant colors: red for love and courage, and white for purity. Past Grand Anne Thuesen of San Francisco reviewed her official visit to Verdugo, and Past Grand Grace S. Stoermer was enthusiastic about a check for $100 handed her by the Parlor for the 1941 Grand Parlor fund. Supervising Deputies Genevieve Hiskey of San Diego County and Evalyn Wilson of Los Angeles County spoke briefly, and Ethyl Kern, retiring president of Verdugo, was presented a past president ring. Eight district deputies were among the many in attendance, and fourteen Subordinate Parlors were represented. The delightful evening closed with an informal reception and refreshments.—D.R.

SIXTY-ONE NEW MEMBERS THE GOAL.

Long Beach—Officers of Long Beach Parlor No. 278 N.S.G.W. were installed July 17 by District Deputy Dewey Richards, Paul B. Cooke becoming president. In retiring from the presidency, Fred C. Walker suggested this slogan: "Attend meetings, bring in new members, promote the welfare of the Native Sons of the Golden West." Among the visitors were Supervising Deputy Roy W. Tarleton and delegations from Stephen M. White Parlor, San Pedro, and Compton Parlor. Groups of Long Beach's members are visiting the southland Parlors "talking up" the Admission Day, September 9, celebration in Long Beach.

The Parlor has a civics and public relations committee appointed to co-ordinate the Parlor activities in city-wide civic affairs. It includes City Councilman Carl Fletcher, chairman, Mayor Francis H. Gentry, City Councilman Martin L. Moxley, Municipal Judge Percy Hight, Deputy District Attorney Clarence S. Hunt and Robert Castro. The Parlor has under way a membership drive, and has set as its goal sixty-one new members for the July-December term.

GET-TOGETHER FOR SPORTS MINDED.

Beautifully gowned in white formals and carrying fans of blue lace with spokes of pink delphinium, the officers of Los Angeles Parlor No. 124 N.D.G.W. were publicly installed July 17. The hall was attractively decorated, and many members and friends witnessed the ceremonies. Deputy Marion Johnson, who officiated, was assisted by members of Californiana Parlor, and Miss Helen M. Lee was seated as president. In the course of her installation address, she particularly stressed the homeless children and the history and landmarks projects of the Order, and concluded her remarks with words of patriotism.

Past Grand Grace S. Stoermer and Supervising Deputy Evalyn Wilson spoke briefly, and Alphonse Fages, accompanied by Jose Arias and his group, entertained with vocal selections. Louise McNary, retiring president, and President Lee were the recipients of numerous remembrances. Past presidents of the Parlor were out in force, headed by Charter Member Lou Robinson. Among the many others introduced were Mary B. Noerenberg of Californiana Parlor, former grand trustee, and Grand Organist Roger Johnson of the Native Sons. Refreshments concluded an enjoyable evening.

By vote of the Parlor, Los Angeles will have no meetings during August. For the "sports minded" members, however, there is to be a special get-together the evening of August 7 at the home of President Lee, 3146 West Seventy-sixth street. Those interested in tennis, bowling, swimming, etc., are especially invited to attend.—E.V.S.

PAST PRESIDENTS NIGHT.

Ramona Parlor No. 109 N.S.G.W. entertained a large delegation of Los Angeles Parlor's members July 12. The main event was an address by Grand Historian Dr. Peter T. Conmy on "The Founding of the Native Sons of the Golden West July 11, 1875." A specially interested listener was Charles Smith, now a member of Ramona, the first secretary of the original society, organized in San Francisco by General A. M. Winn, out of which grew the Order of Native Sons. Other attendants were Past Grand John T. Newell and Grand Organist Roger M. Johnson.

Officers of the Parlor, with Ralph L. Clavelot as president, were publicly installed by District Deputy Clarence S. Hunt July 26.

Ramona will feature a past presidents night August 30. On that occasion the ritual and regalias of a half-century ago will be in use, and fifty-year-membership pins will be presented Past Grand Herman C. Lichtenberger, Edwin A. Meserve and Isidore B. Dockweiler. Appropriate refreshments will be served. Initiation is billed for August 23.—H.L.K.

CHARMING PICTURE.

President Isabel Lopez-Fages and her corps of officers began their year of service to Californiana Parlor No. 247 N.D.G.W. at beautiful and impressive installation ceremonies, July 23, in the foyer of the Town and Gown on the University of Southern California campus. The hall, lovely with large vases filled with varicolored blooms; the installing team from Reina del Mar Parlor, Santa Barbara, in effective gowns; the delightful and lively music by the Jose Arias family, and the officers-elect in trailing gowns of blue taffeta, carrying arm clusters of pastel-colored daisies, presented a very charming picture.

Deputy Lydia Rose, clad in white, officiated. Mrs. Mary Noerenberg, gown in blue, was the acting grand marshal, and a sextet of the California Juniors acted as an escort team. Alphonse B. Fages, the husband of the new president, was the soloist of the afternoon, rendering "Princesita," in honor of his wife. "The Old Reuben," in honor of the mothers present, and "The Star Spangled Banner." Mrs. Beatrice Wahrmond, the retiring president, and Mrs. Fages were presented many gifts.

President Fages' installation address was woven around the Biblical verse which concludes with "And the greatest of these is charity." She stressed some of her ambitions for the Parlor, and promised co-operation in the Order's objectives. Grand President Hazel B. Hansen spoke briefly, and said this was her first visit to a southland Parlor since she became head of the Order. Other speakers were Past Grand Anne Thuesen, Supervising Deputy Evalyn Wilson, former grand officers, deputies and presidents of Parlors. The happy event closed with the serving of refreshments to 200 members and guests.

Californiana will not meet again until September 10, when luncheon will precede the first business session of the term. Mrs. Beatrice Wahrmond, former president, was honored by her officers and committee chairmen with a pleasant luncheon at which she was presented a handsome handbag as a parting gift. —O.L.

JOINT PUBLIC INSTALLATION.

Officers of Los Angeles Parlor No. 45 N.S.G.W. and La Reina Parlor No. 267 N.D.G.W. were jointly installed at well-attended public ceremonies July 19. Deputies Lee Conger and Marcella Palethorpe officiated, and Robert and Laura Pasqueria, husband and wife, became the respective presidents.

Assisting in the conduct of the impressive ceremonies were Supervising Deputy Roy W. Tarleton, Deputy Marion Johnson, President Lee Winters of Santa Monica Bay Parlor, Mary B. Noerenberg of Californiana Parlor and Grand Organist Roger M. Johnson. Among the speakers of the evening were Supervising Deputy Evalyn Wilson, Past Grands John T. Newell and Eldred L. Meyer, and Grand Trustees Walter C. Richards and Walter E. Smith. The latter, on behalf of Los Angeles Parlor, presented a past president emblem to District Deputy Robert Leigh Jack. Members of La Reina Parlor entertained with instrumental and vocal selections, and refreshments were served.

Los Angeles Parlor's August schedule includes: 9th, oldtimers night; all Native Sons invited; refreshments. 23rd, initiation; refreshments. 30th, Parlor goes visiting.—R.R.

MANY GUESTS.

Long Beach—Long Beach Parlor No. 154 N.D.G.W. had as guests July 18 Supervising Deputy Evalyn Wilson, Deputy Harriette Weeks, seventeen members of San Diego Parlor and eleven members of East Los Angeles Parlor. Chairman Lois Watson reported $27.92 cleared on the July 13 cooked-food sale. Officers of the Parlor, with Nell Cooke as president, will be installed August 1.

Long Beach plans a benefit waffle breakfast for Sunday morning, August 4, at the home of Margaret Burch, 124 East "Q" street, Wilmington. Plans are also going forward for a carnival and bean supper Saturday evening, August 10, at Community Hall, Ninth and Lime avenue, Long Beach, with Margaret Burch as chairman. The public is invited. —E.S.

NEWS BRIEFS

Among the many who witnessed the elevation of United States Attorney Benjamin Harrison of Arrowhead Parlor No. 110 N.S.G.W., San Bernardino, to a federal judgeship were Past Grands John T. Newell and Eldred L. Meyer, San Bernardino Police Judge Donald E. VanLoven, Isidore B. Dockweiler, Sheriff Eugene W. Biscailuz, Walter H. Odemar, John O.B. Bodkin, Willard F. Allen, Louis A. Duni and Armand Jewell of the Native Sons, and Assistant United States Attorney Betty Graydon of the Native Daughters.

At Griffith Park Recreation Center, July 26, Sheriff Eugene W. Biscailuz, on behalf of the Native Sons and Native Daughters of Los Angeles County, presented a California State (Bear) Flag to Star Post American Legion. Arrangements for the presentation were made by a committee which included Past Grand Eldred L. Meyer, chairman, Walter D. Gilman, Captain William J. Bright, Fred Leonetti and Hervey L. Kitchin.

364 Third Ave., Venice, California

Hollywood Parlor No. 196 N.S.G.W. is to meet in Odd Fellows Hall, 1089 North Oxford, the first and third Fridays of each month. The opening meeting in the new quarters, August 2, will be devoted to installation of officers and initiation. District Deputy Dewey Richards will officiate, and F. D. Hudson Jr. will become the new president. The Parlor has decided to make a determined effort to increase attendance at meetings.

Glendale—The officers of Glendale Parlor No. 264 N.S.G.W., with Claude E. Agard as president, were installed July 16 by District Deputy Robert Leigh Jack. The Parlor plans a dinner barbecue in the near future.

Compton—District Deputy Clarence S. Hunt installed the officers of Compton Parlor No. 273 N.S.G.W. July 16 in the presence of many members and visitors. Exemplifying the spirit of the pioneers of the West, Arthur E. Summons came from a sick bed to be installed as president. Supervising Deputy Roy W. Tarleton was among the speakers of the evening.

Canoga Park—Topanga Parlor No. 269 N.D.G.W. honored Ida Gates Ball with a bridal shower, and a surprise birthday party was given Clara Tucker, retiring president. July 26 officers of the Parlor, with Marguerite Tann as president, were installed by Deputy Ruth Ruiz. —L.J.C.

LOOKING AHEAD.

Santa Monica—The officers of Santa Monica Bay Parlor No. 267 N.S.G.W. were publicly installed July 16 by District Deputy O. Benton Worley, Lee Winters becoming president. On the Parlor's behalf, Past Grand Eldred L. Meyer presented diamond past president pins to District Deputy Lee Conger and Albert Seaman. Refreshments were served.

Santa Monica Bay will observe its fourteenth institution anniversary in October, and at that time a large birthday class of candidates will be presented for initiation. Sheriff Eugene W. Biscailuz, the charter past president of the Parlor, will be the chairman of the event.

PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS.

Peace Justice Percy G. West (Sunset NS) of Sacramento was a visitor last month.

SAN PEDRO—WITH A LARGE NUMBER of members and friends attending, the officers of Rudeinda Parlor No. 230 N.S.G.W. and Stephen M. White Parlor No. 263 N.S.G.W. were publicly installed at joint ceremonies July 22. The hall was tastefully decorated with large bouquets of seasonal flowers.

The install 12 officers for the Native Daughters—Deputy Luelle Adams and staff from Captain Parlor—wore gowns of rose pink, with sashes of gardenia and sweetpeas. The official select of Rudeinda, with Dessie Buvo as president, were attired in gowns of white and steel shades, with corsages of talisman roses and sweetpeas. District Deputy Lee Conger, assisted by President Lee Winters of Santa Monica Parlor, officiated for the Native Sons, and at Soares became president.

President Buvo of Rudeinda, addressing the assemblage, referred to the primal objects of the Orders, and stressed the importance of true Americanism in these troublous times. President Soares of Stephen M. White expressed thanks for all favors, and was presented a gavel by his two small daughters. From Stephen M. White Parlor, Mrs. Buvo received a basket of beautiful flowers.

Short messages of congratulations and good wishes were delivered by Grand Trustee Walter Richards, Supervising Deputy Evalyn Wilson, supervising Deputy Roy W. Tarleton and Florence Dodson-Schoneham, former grand trustee. Following the ceremonies the good of the order committee of Rudeinda, Catherine Hackett chairman, served refreshments.

were enjoyed at the meeting's conclusion. July 15 officers were installed by District Deputy Herbert Newell. Walter Oeschger becoming president. On the Parlor's behalf, H. E. Giacometti presented a past president emblem to Earl Cox. Half Moon Bay—Officers of Seaside No. 95 and Vista del Mar No. 155 N.D. were jointly installed at public ceremonies July 25. Deputies M. R. Mattel and Alice Mattel officiated. A program followed the ceremonies, and refreshments were served.

Santa Clara—Santa Clara No. 108, through Deputy Grand President Albert V. Mayrhofer, has presented a California State (Bear) Flag to Camp Hual-cu-culsh, a beautiful campsite for all the Boy Scouts of America in San Diego and Imperial Counties. Harvey Atherton, council president of the area, accepted the flag for the boys. This permanent camp is located in the Cuyamaca Mountains near Cuyamaca Lake. In the course of his presentation address Deputy Grand President Mayrhofer traced the history of the flags that have flown over California since its discovery.

San Bernardino—H. George Cunningham of Barstow, affiliated with Arrowhead No. 110, has been elected president of the State Board of Pharmacy. He is active in San Bernardino County civic and political affairs.

Santa Ana—At a joint meeting here July 15 the officers of Arrowhead No. 110, San Bernardino, and Santa Ana No. 265 were installed by District Deputies Julian Lecrevain and Leon Gregory. J. Avery Anderson and Tom P. Gislser becoming the respective presidents. A team from Arrowhead Past Presidents Assembly No. 14 exemplified the ritual for a class of candidates. Supervising Deputy Roy W. Tarleton was among the many in attendance.

Sonoma—Officers of Sonoma No. 111 and Sonoma No. 209 N.D., with Ray Roberts and Oma Roberts as the respective presidents, were jointly installed July 15. Deputies Charles Bacigalupi and Pearl Hickey officiated, and Evelyn Fassio was the organist. Among the many others in attendance were Grand Trustee Louis Bosch and Grand Outside Sentinel Zoua Tompkins. At the conclusion of the ceremonies an excellent supper was served by a committee of Sonoma Native Sons, Bert Kerner, Emil Andrieux, Ray Barrachi, L. Pellandini, Tony Serres, Fred Fassio and Tony Barrachi.

Hayward—Officers of Eden No. 113 and Hayward No. 122 N.D. were jointly installed July 11 by Deputies Allen Norris and Mae Rutan. July 14 a number of the members of Eden gathered at the beautiful esplanade of Frank Leonard, financial secretary and treasurer of the Parlor, and enjoyed a wonderful barbecue. The occasion was a farewell party for Leonard and his wife, Greta, who departed July 18 for Havana, Cuba, where he represented the Hayward Lions Club at the International Convention of Lions Clubs. After much entertainment and oratory the guests wished them bon voyage and a safe return home.

Oakland—Piedmont No. 120 will have its fifty-first annual picnic and family reunion August 4 at Madrone Park, Redwood Canyon, Contra Costa County. There will be dancing and other amusements.

Sebastopol—Members of Sebastopol No. 143 were entertained by Sebastopol No. 265 N.D. at a fathers night sociable. Mrs. Earl Singmaster headed the committee that arranged a program of entertainment and served refreshments. Officers of the Parlors, with D. O. Todd and Martha Roberto as the respective presidents, were jointly installed July 19 by Deputies Carl Plow and Esther Reinhardt.

Tracy—Officers of Tracy No. 181 were installed July 18 by District Deputy Henry Harrison, John Boggetti becoming president. Plans for the dedication of the new Tracy Hall of Justice were discussed, and refreshments were served.

Pescadero—Pebble Beach No. 236 and Año Nuevo No. 180 N.D. sponsored a card party for the benefit of the Red Cross in the garden of the home of Mrs. Frank Dias July 2.

Oakland—Officers of Fruitvale No. 252 and Fruitvale No. 177 N.D. were jointly installed at public ceremonies July 12. Deputies Ernest Ranft and May Fields officiated, and James Lomba and Rowene Fernandes became the respective presidents. Fruitvale N.S. plans to present twenty-five-year-membership pins to fifty-two of its members.

The Grand Parlor Transportation and Mileage Committee—Joseph Berry, chairman, William H. James and Edward E. Cleese—has arranged for very low railroad rates from all points in California to Sacramento for the statewide Admission Day celebration.

GRIZZLY GROWLS

NOTE—Expressions of opinion in these "Growls" are, unless indicated otherwise, those of the Managing Editor.

Clarence M. Hunt

Be a worthwhile citizen, and vote at the August primary! Look well to your ballot, and consider carefully the records, not the promises, of those who desire to represent you in the Federal Congress and the State Legislature.

Support only those you are certain will faithfully endeavor to lessen the outrageous cost of government by insisting on honesty, economy and efficiency, and by doing away with needless and expensive boards, commissions, etc. Dispense with pork-barrel yesmen, tools of the boss politicians; retain the economy minded, and increase their numbers.

One of the best laws enacted by the Federal Congress in recent years is that requiring all aliens to register and be fingerprinted. The Immigration Division of the Justice Department will conduct the fingerprinting and registering at postoffices, and a stiff penalty is provided for any who neglect to comply with the new law.

★ ★ ★

"State Employees Will Divide $860,000," headed a recent news item from Sacramento. Another case of robbing Peter to pay Paul—the near-bankrupt taxpayers being Peter, and the too-numerous state employees being Paul.

★ ★ ★

Considering the course being taken by the national administration, no thinking person can honestly doubt for an instant that the way is being well greased for slipping this nation into the war between Great Britain and Germany for the control of Europe. Wall street and the munitions makers, apparently, have again so decreed.

★ ★ ★

Mr. Cupid—of Massachusetts, not of Bowdoin—, is headed straight for movie stardom. He seeks a divorce.

★ ★ ★

By far the most dangerous fifth columnists in this nation are those ineligible-to-citizenship aliens colonized at strategic points throughout California and other Western states.

★ ★ ★

Little tin jesuses,—the big I boys—home-grown and from over there, are becoming so numerous in this country a house of lords soon must be provided to care for them.

★ ★ ★

The population of Los Angeles has increased from 5,728 (1870 federal census) to 1,496,792 (1940 federal census). The number of residents of the Angel City on relief has increased mightily, also.

★ ★ ★

Poor old China, too, got a stab in the back when Great Britain closed the Burma road.

★ ★ ★

Although the receipts increased $6,843,725, the California State Government spent $27,399,437 more than its income during the 1939-1940 fiscal year, thus bringing the deficit to an all-time record high of $28,110,559. Time to wake up, voting taxpayers!

★ ★ ★

Conscription in peace-time is a long step toward war and dictatorship.

★ ★ ★

A Washington State tax token killed Oscar the octopus. Federal and state taxes are rapidly killing off little business, the backbone of the nation.

★ ★ ★

Commenting on the much-talked-about Monroe Doctrine, General Hugh Johnson said: "Let's not go off half-cocked where we have nothing to gain and everything to lose. Let's see all the cards in this game. Let's get the true facts and use some sense." If all the U. S. cards were shown, there probably would result an upheaval that would rock this democracy to its very foundation.

★ ★ ★

The Federal Census Bureau says Washington, D. C., has reported the largest population increase in the 1940 count. Not strange, considering the number of new faithfuls delegated to feed at the federal trough.

Quoting a Chinese proverb: "Good steel is not used to make nails; good men should not be used as soldiers."

The El Dorado County Fair is to be held at Placerville August 23-25.

N. D. G. W. NEWS PARAGRAPHS

Stockton—Joaquin No. 5 had as guest of honor July 9 Mrs. Carrie Roesch-Durham, who is this year celebrating the fiftieth anniversary of her Grand Presidency. A golden hue symbolized the evening. The Parlor's gift to Past Grand Durham, a gold locket and chain, was concealed in a bouquet of gold and orchid flowers; Mrs. Evelyn Wells made the presentation address. Joaquin's greetings were extended by Alta DuFrene, who presided, to Mrs. Durham, Past Grand Mamie G. Peyton, Grand Vice-president Clarice Cook and Deputy Georgia Storm.

Napa—Officers of Eshcol No. 16 and Napa No. 62 N.S. were jointly installed July 15 by Deputies Celia Barsky and M. Gonsolin, Anita Land and Eugene Paglia becoming the respective presidents. Dancing followed the ceremonies.—E.I.

Grass Valley—Officers of Manzanita No. 29, attired in white formals, were publicly installed July 16 at Elks Hall, luxuriantly decorated with greenery and summer flowers. Chairman Bessie Rush welcomed the 275 in attendance. Deputy Esther Joyal officiated, and Katherine Gallino became president. The Parlor's drill team, dressed in yellow formals and carrying arm bouquets of white gladioli, conducted the escort work. Harold Hansen, accompanied by Camille Cornish, favored with vocal numbers and, on behalf of the Native Sons, Grand Trustee Eben K. Smart extended greetings. Others present were Supervising Deputy Anne Whiting, and Charter Member Flora Seymour of Ursula No. 1, Jackson. During the evening entertainment was provided by Alice Tinloy, Aileen Merrigan, Kenneth Snyder, Jean Barnfield, Ardyne Raddue, Aileen Merrigan, Thais Zocchi, Irene Eldridge and Melita Hutchinson.

San Jose—Vendome No. 100 members were dinner guests July 2 of Sheriff William Emig, who gave an instructive talk on the equipment of the office and conducted his guests on a tour of the Santa Clara County Jail. The Parlor made a five-dollar donation to the local Red Cross. With Winifred Lafey as chairman, the sewing club enjoyed jolly outings at the Mattie ranch in Pescadero and Alum Rock Park. Officers of Vendome were publicly installed July 24 by Deputy Ivy Rost, Mrs. Ada Fox becoming president. Past Grand Mamie P. Carmichael has returned from a visit with her daughter in Portland, Oregon. Miss Tillie Brohaska is vacationing at Lake Tahoe. Mrs. Clara Gairaud attended the Bach Music Festival in Carmel.—C.G.

Hollister—Copa de Oro No. 105 members motored to the country home of Elma Libao for a potluck picnic dinner on the banks of tinkling Tres Pinos Creek. After the feast all gathered about a crackling fire for stories and community singing. Following the July 3 meeting of the Parlor refreshments were enjoyed in the beautiful garden of Edna Hansen. In commemoration of Independence Day the tables were adorned with red, white and blue flowers. Gina Hill, a recent bride, was complimented with a miscellaneous shower of useful and attractive gifts. The Parlor is now in recess until September 4.

Fresno—Deputy Rachel Dozier, assisted by Florence Tisher and Carmelita Harris, July 10 installed the officers of Fresno No. 187, Letha Joy Mutton becoming president. The California Poppy Club, service unit of the Parlor, was entertained July 3 at a garden party at Edna Wolfe's home. July 17 Verna Justice was the club hostess. With Maude C. Crosby as the chairman, an outdoor public card party was held July 25 at the home of President Mutton. Several members of Fresno accompanied Deputy Doris Gleim to Madera, where she installed the officers of Madera No. 244 at public ceremonies July 11.—M.C.C.

Byron—Officers of Donner No. 193, with Jeanette Gauger as president, were installed July 17 by Deputy Elinor Aljets, assisted by a team from Las Juntas No. 221, Martinez. Among others in attendance were Supervising Deputy Ruth Boltzen, Deputies Olive Burris and Marie Mehrtens. The Parlor's Americanism chairman reported presenting flag codes to the ten public schools in the district. Members of Donner are making dresses and knitting sweaters for the Red Cross. August 7 the Parlor will have a card party.—A.P.

San Rafael—Officers of Marinita No. 198 and Mount Tamalpais No. 64 N.S. were jointly installed at public ceremonies July 8. Deputies Julia Kelso and Arthur Hecht officiated, and Elidia Hecht and Tony Martin became the respective presidents. The lodgeroom was beautifully decorated in a patriotic theme. Muriel Miller sang "Wishing," and several presentations were made, including a past president emblem to Evelyn Griffin. Dainty refreshments and dancing concluded the evening. Dorothy Vossbrink and Marston Hecht were co-chairmen of general arrangements.—B.E.W.

Modesto—In the Fourth of July parade Morada No. 199 had a covered wagon in which rode members dressed in pioneer costumes, and the entry was awarded a prize. Officers of the Parlor, with Clara Steele as president, were installed July 24 by Deputy Lillian Stammerjohan. Mrs. Emma Dezzani headed the committee of arrangements. July 27 a potluck picnic was held in Legion Park. During the term just closed the Parlor gained in numbers and finances. Regardless of the warm weather, the sewing club is very active; summer meetings are held in the park.—E.E.

Petaluma—With Deputy Jimella Cook officiating, officers of Petaluma No. 222 were publicly installed July 16. President Josephine Filippini, gowned in white lace and wearing a corsage of gardenias, was escorted to her station by the drill team, wearing blue gowns and bonnet-shaped hats, and carrying small pink paper parasols that formed an archway. Violet Patocchi sang "Alice Blue Gown." Grand Outside Sentinel Zouza Tompkins captained the drill team, and presented the Parlor's gift to Past President Pearl Hickey. Supervising Deputy Kathryn Branstetter was a visitor. Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Hickey presented an immense United States of America Flag to the Parlor. At the close of the enjoyable evening refreshments were served.—A.B.

Santa Ana—Santa Ana No. 235 had a potluck dinner, July 8, at which birthday anniversaries were celebrated. Deputy Leola Temby was a guest. The thimble club met July 11 at the home of Myrtle Ellis, the new chairman; much sewing for the Red Cross was completed. Announcement of the marriage of Gertrude Etzold and Theron Means has been made; they honeymooned in New York. President Gladys Edwards entertained at a delightful luncheon; to each of the twenty-seven guests she presented a gift of china painted by herself. Following the luncheon the group enjoyed cards at the home of Mrs. Ann Head.—G.A.R.C.

Sacramento—At public ceremonies July 11, officers of Rio Rito No. 253, with Mrs. Myrtle Orr as president, were installed by Deputy Lavinia Blakly, assisted by members of Sutter No. 111. On the Parlor's behalf, Miss Maria Polett

EMIGRANT TRAIL SIGNED BY N.S.G.W. EXPEDITION

Auburn—Guided by Pioneer William A. Levee, a trailmarking expedition sponsored by Auburn Parlor No. 59 N.S.G.W. and the United States Forest Service traversed July 28 a little-known section of the old Overland Emigrant Trail, tragic route of the Donner Party across the high Sierra during the winter of 1846-47, between Bear Valley and Steep Hollow.

Over fifty metal signs supplied by Auburn Parlor were used to sign the trail, and three of the large wooden signs of the Forest Service were installed to mark major historical sites. Among those making the trip were Wendell Robie and K. D. Robinson of the Native Sons, Supervisor Guerdon Ellis and Grazing Chief Leland Smith of the Tahoe National Forest, and Rangers John Hodgson and Anselmo Lewis.

Starting from Bear Valley, north of Emigrant Gap, Placer County, the party rode west by way of Mule Springs and Nigger Jack Hill, where emigrant trains frequently camped. The terrain of the trailmarking party was at the foot Steep Hollow, north of Gold Run, Placer County, twenty-two miles from the take-off point. Emigrant journals say that Steep Hollow was named because wagon wheels had to be locked and trees dragged behind in order to make descent without total destruction of the wagon train.

A similar trailmarking expedition in 1900 posted the route of the early-day emigrants between Donner Lake and Bear Valley. The party was led by R. L. P. Bigelow of Hydraulic Parlor No. 56 N.S.G.W., Nevada City, for twenty-eight years supervisor of the Tahoe National Forest.

The California State Fair will continue operation at Sacramento through Admission Day, September 9.

SACRAMENTO, 1940 ADMISSION DAY CITY, OF HISTORICAL IMPORTANCE

Dr. Peter T. Conmy, Grand Historian N.S.G.W.

(WRITTEN ESPECIALLY FOR THE GRIZZLY BEAR MAGAZINE.)

BY VIRTUE OF A RESOLUTION adopted at the Sixty-second (San Francisco 1939) Grand Parlor of the Order of Native Sons of the Golden West, it was decreed that the 1940 observance of Admission Day should be in the City of Sacramento. It is true that all of the cities of California which, from time to time, have been honored by the Grand Parlor by selection of the seat of an Admission Day observance are of historical importance. This fact, however, adds with doubled force to the City of Sacramento, state capital since 1854, home of historic Sutter's Fort, gateway to the Sacramento Valley, and to the northern section of the Mother Lode, laid out by Pioneer John A. Sutter, and one of all the varied activities of the pioneer.

The term Sacramento has today a fourfold application as a place name in California geography. There is the Sacramento River, the Sacramento Valley, the County of Sacramento and the City of Sacramento. The name came to be applied in a most interesting manner. The great parlor valley of California was practically ignored by the Spanish until 1806, when Moraga made his famous exploration. As he went from the San Joaquin River into the Sacramento he decided to call it by a religious name, the one sacred being Jesus Maria River. Proceeding down the stream he came at length to the tributary which we now call the Feather River. Moraga named this the Sacramento River. The name, however, brought about a substitution of the names. The Sacramento River came to be known as the Rio de las Plumas, because of the large amount of plumage found floating in its waters. The Americans translated this into English as the Feather River, by which name it is now known. As regards the name of the principal stream which had been called the Jesus Maria River, the pious inhabitants did not like the using the name Jesus as an every-day place name. To them, the name Jesus represented a sacred character and meaning to be used in this manner. Therefore, it came to be known by a substitute name, the Sacramento River, naming the Sacramento of the Eucharist, or the Lord's Supper. The Jesus Maria River, now known as the Sacramento, gave its new name to the valley. The little settlement which grew three miles from Sutter's Fort, at the embarkment on the Sacramento River, came to be known as Sacramento also. February 18, 1850, the California Legislature gave the name to the new county being formed around the vicinity of the City of Sacramento.

The Sacramento Valley was first explored by Moraga in 1806. In 1817 Don Luis Arguello undertook an exploration on the Sacramento and the San Joaquin Rivers. He was accompanied by Franciscan friars, Ramon Abella of Dolores Mission and Narciso Duran of Mission San Jose. His is Father Duran's diary that historians are indebted for the record of this exploration. The original diary has been in the possession of the University of California at Berkeley since 1897. In 1911 it was translated into English by Charles E. Chapman, first Native Sons of the Golden West Fellow in California History. The closing paragraphs of the diary contrast the Sacramento and San Joaquin. These explorers loved the Sacramento better, because of the presence of shade trees. Said the good padre on this point:

"There is this difference between the Sacramento and the San Joaquin: the latter carries its water although in some places it is wider, but in all that part which we have traveled there is nothing but tule, without a tree under which the navigator may find shade, nor a stick of firewood with which to warm himself; whereas the Sacramento, when it is not flooded has its land on both sides covered with poplar groves, as has been said, and it seems to carry a greater abundance of water."

Overland trappers passed through the Sacramento Valley during the 1820s and 1830s. One of these parties was that of Ewing Young in 1810, of which party the famous Kit Carson was a member. The first settler arrived in 1839, in the person of John Augustus Sutter, who landed at where the famous Sutter's Fort now stands, August 12th of that year. Sutter was the first settler not only of the City of Sacramento but of the entire valley. He dominated affairs there for a number of years. He held from the Mexican governor at Monterey the commission of Guardian of Justice on the frontiers of the Sacramento. His establishment, known as New Helvetia in those years, long was proud and independent.

The years, however, brought the change that seems inevitable in human affairs. The Mexican government broke down on the one hand, and American settlers came in large numbers on the other. The raising of the Bear Flag at Sonoma, June 14, 1846, was followed by the raising of the Stars and Stripes over Sutter's Fort, July 11th of the same year. The honor of raising this flag is claimed by both Fremont and Sutter, and there is evidence that the ceremony may have been performed by Lieutenant Kern. The raising of the American Flag over the fort placed the entire Sacramento Valley under the United States.

In Remembrance of THE CALIFORNIA PIONEERS

ADMISSION DAY 1940

"All honor to those men of old
Who came here to this land of gold,
Giving us this priceless gift,
MOST WONDERFUL CALIFORNIA."

The discovery of gold forty miles up from Sacramento on the American River, January 24, 1848, brought thousands of wealth seekers to the vicinity of Sacramento. Sincere, hard-working men came into the gold rush. Along with them came the indolent, the dishonest and the violent. Law and order were sadly needed, but there was none. In the late summer of 1849 it was decided to organize a city government for Sacramento. One of the leaders in this movement was Albert Maver Winn, who was elected first mayor in September of that year. Winn was a Pioneer who had migrated from Tennessee. His grave in the Pioneer Cemetery at Sacramento is a shrine calling to mind the days of forty-nine. To honor Winn, who founded the Native Sons of the Golden West in 1875, the Grand Parlor in 1888 erected a monument over his grave. Since that time the Sacramento Parlor have provided a flagpole on each side of his resting place. General Winn took more than a civic interest in the young city; he was philanthropic, as well. He organized the Odd Fellows Widows and Orphans Association. He also succeeded in getting the Masons and the Odd Fellows to operate jointly a hospital for their indigent sick and poor. He was also active in founding one of the first churches in Sacramento, Grace Episcopal Church.

For the years 1892, 1893, 1901, 1903, 1904, 1918 and 1921 the Grand Parlor sponsored no general celebration of Admission Day, but local celebrations were held in various communities.

The gold rush brought the beginnings of business to Sacramento. The first merchant was the Mormon, Sam Brannan, who operated a store near the fort. In the middle fifties Leland Stanford opened a store there. From the group of business associates of Stanford who frequented this store came two things. First of all, they became interested in financing the idea of a railroad propounded by the great engineer, Judah. In order to get the State of California, as such, interested in the railroad, Stanford became a candidate for governor, to which position he was elected in 1861, and his name remains as one of the most illustrious men ever to have served as chief executive of this state.

In 1860 the City of Sacramento donated land to the State of California for the building of a capitol. Work was begun the same year, but was abandoned two years later because of floods and the exhaustion of the appropriation. In 1863 Governor Stanford recommended the issuing of bonds to complete the capitol. After many years of difficulties in financing the project, mismanagement and changing architects the new capitol was ready for occupancy November 25, 1869. The total cost of the completed building came to $1,447,477. The dome rises 237 feet from the base of the structure.

For many years the capitol was the only large structure in Sacramento. In 1889 the completion of the Catholic Cathedral provided a second massive structure, and until the development of the modern downtown section these two buildings, cathedral and capitol, stood outstanding for miles around, symbolic of the spiritual power of the church on the one hand and the temporal authority of the state on the other. The building of these two structures was, in each instance, a tribute to the geographical importance of Sacramento.

Prior to being moved to Sacramento, the state capital had been at Monterey, San Jose, Benicia and Vallejo. Its final location at Sacramento was a recognition of the central location of the city. It was not until the capital had been at Sacramento for six years, and the city was proved to be a satisfactory location, that the permanent buildings were erected. The same is true of the building of the cathedral. Catholic interest in early Sacramento consisted in the establishment of a church only. In 1860 it was decided that northern California should have a diocese of its own, and this was centered at Marysville. In 1863 this location was changed, and the Diocese of Grass Valley took its place, as it was believed the best center was in the Mother Lode. Following the resignation of Bishop O'Connell in 1884, the new Bishop of Grass Valley took steps to have the diocese moved to Sacramento, which he recognized as the real center of northern California. This was done in 1886, and he at once set to work building the great cathedral, the central tower of which is sixteen feet square at its base and rises 226 feet.

Sacramento has always been a center of the Native Sons of the Golden West. The second expansion of the Order was to Sacramento, March 20, 1878, when Sacramento Parlor No. 3 was instituted. Another Parlor, Sunset No. 26, was organized in January 1884. Those two Parlor have continued to flourish throughout the years. The third Grand President of the Order, who served 1879-1880, was Henry Clay Chipman of Sacramento No. 3. Frank D. Ryan of the same Parlor served as Grand President 1889-90. A third Parlor is Sutter Fort No. 241. A number of Admission Day celebrations have been held in Sacramento. The first was in 1895, and one of the features was an evening electrical carnival and parade. This was a great celebration, and was attended by all the gaities of the nineties. However, it is expected that the 1940 observance will outshine all previous Admission Days in Sacramento.

RESTORING HISTORIC FORT—Roop's Fort, earlyday trading post in the heart of Susanville, Lassen County, is being restored. It was built in 1854 by Pioneer Isaac N. Roop, following the destruction of his Shasta County property by fire, and was the forerunner of Susanville.

IT MAY BE THAT YOU ARE SEEKING A fresh field for business or professional endeavor as the West expands into the great empire of the future. It may be that you are seeking escape from a rigorous climate and want more chance to enjoy the freedom of outdoor life. It may be that you are planning to retire and are seeking an environment for your new home which will not be surrounded by the whirl of a pleasure resort or the stagnation of a colony of thumb-twiddlers.

But whatever it is, you will find in Sacramento that rare combination of an energetic city, rich in cultural resources, and a geographical base from which you can reach in no time at all any part of the great California wonderland.

The little house, the little garden you've been dreaming about, they're waiting for you in Sacramento, and so much else besides.

You may be thinking of a tiled-roof Spanish bungalow, or a rose-covered shingled cottage, or a snug apartment, or a half-acre close to town where you can be a bit of a gentleman farmer. Any one of these is right here.

We won't deceive you into thinking we have eternal sunshine. They tell us that gets a bit monotonous. But you will be as grateful as we are for our showers when you see the abundance of flowers, fruits and other bounties of nature they produce.

Our climate gives you blessed relief from the tortures of asthma and other annoying ailments that go with a region that's too dry, too wet, too cold or too windy.

Of course you don't have to be told you will be coming to the very spot upon which the whole world seemed to converge in the glamorous days of '49. Here you'll have that whole colorful panorama unfolding in front of your doorstep.

Almost in the center of the city is Sutter's Fort, with a museum rich in relics of pioneer days. About it hover the shades of old General John A. Sutter, of Kit Carson, of John Fremont, of "War is hell" Sherman and all the other sturdy adventurers and empire makers whose exploits tingle the blood of every American.

Within a few miles, in El Dorado County, is the exact spot upon which James Marshall discovered gold, and for miles spread the old diggings, some now prosperous communities, some only silent ghost cities.

Here is the region in which Stanford, Huntington, Armour, Studebaker, Macy, D. O. Mills and a dozen other great names in American business had their beginnings.

And if you must look for some reminder of the revolutionary days of 1776, there is the modest grave of Alexander Hamilton's son, one of the unsung martyrs in helping claim California for the nation.

After settling in Sacramento you can keep occupied for months exploring the public buildings, educational institutions, churches, business houses, industries and other activities of this busy Western city.

The imposing State Capitol will first attract your eye. You can spend countless hours in beautiful Capitol Park studying thousands of varieties of flowers, trees and shrubs gathered from the four corners of the earth.

The classic portals of the State Library will invite you to enter "the highlands of the mind," and the Crocker Art Gallery will offer rich enjoyment of great masterpieces and contemporary exhibits.

Your children will have the benefit of a modern school system, which includes the second largest junior college in America, where they can receive two years of university instruction right at home.

The State College of Agriculture is half an hour away at Davis, Yolo County, and a morning's drive brings you to Stanford and California, two world ranking universities.

Here life is up to the minute . . . every minute.

Broad highways beckon at every point of the compass in Sacramento. They lead to mountains or ocean, towering redwoods or rolling vineyards, rushing streams or quiet rivers, complete isolation or teeming crowds—whatever it is you crave at the moment.

Here, a two-hour round trip will take you to pine-covered foothills for a majestic view of the Sierra, or through today's gold fields where giant dredges continue the tradition of '49, or to the world's largest winery, or through the rich delta of the Sacramento River whence comes the asparagus supply for most of the world.

For a comfortable all-day jaunt, you can choose between the glories of Lake Tahoe, the fascination of historic Virginia City, the scenic charm of Bret Harte's Mother Lode country, Sacramento Chamber Commerce.

Jack London's Valley of the Moon, a visit to the cities which surround the Golden Gate, or to the beach resorts along the Pacific, where there's diversion and accommodations to fit every purse if you wish to remain a day or a week.

Living in Sacramento, you can have your cake and eat it too. Which is to say that you can have your snow sports when you want them, but you'll never have to shovel out your home driveway or go slushing around in the muck of a thaw.

The reason is that the California snow zone doesn't intrude upon the pleasures of city living. It keeps its safe distance in the altitudes of the Sierra Nevada Mountains.

California's State Capitol.

The man who has lived close to the soil all his life won't have a chance to grow lonely in Sacramento. When you want to have the feel of ploughed ground under your feet or sniff the fragrance of hay in the loft, you'll find the varied agricultural life of the Sacramento Valley beginning just outside the city limits.

A branch of the College of Agriculture at Davis, fourteen miles distant, is the scene of year-round conferences and other farm activities to which you will be welcome.

As the capital of the state, Sacramento is a natural center both of state and national political importance. Aside from politics, the governmental activities which center in Sacramento provide stimulating contacts.

The Federal Government is making Sacramento the base for many of its important Western operations. Here are the headquarters for the great Central Valleys Water Project. The Army Air Corps Repair Depot and Supply Base and Mather Field, a short distance away, are being developed into great units in the national air defense program. Sacramento is becoming a second Washington.

SACRAMENTO HISTORY IN BRIEF

Sacramento, founded August 12, 1839, by Captain John A. Sutter, was the first settlement of White men in interior California. It was first called "New Helvetia." The present townsite was surveyed in 1848-49, and Sacramento was incorporated by act of the first California Legislature, February 27, 1850. It was made temporary capital in 1852, and permanent seat of state government March 1, 1854.

Sacramento played a momentous part in early pioneer history—as center of the great gold rush of '49 and '50 following discovery of gold by James W. Marshall, one of Sutter's men, January 24, 1848; in building the first railroad in California, Sacramento to Folsom, 1856; Western terminus of the Pony Express, 1861; and in construction of the first transcontinental railroad (Central Pacific, now South Pacific), 1863-69.

Sacramento is governed under special charter, which became operative July 1, 1921, and provides for the council-manager form of government. Under this plan of operation the city has made a record of greater progress in the last ten years than in any previous twenty-year period. Its population has increased from 61,908 in 1920 to 105,748 in 1940. It ranks six largest in California, largest interior city on the Pacific Coast, and one of the most rapidly growing cities in America.

Sacramento's public school system includes all classes from kindergarten to junior college, the latter accredited for two years of university work. Two high schools, aggregating in value $2,500,000, and a Junior College, costing $1,200,000, on a sixty-one-acre campus, are typical of the splendid facilities provided.

California's capitol buildings in Sacramento constitute the finest state governmental plant in the United States, second only in size, value and facilities to the National Capitol in Washington, D. C. The majestic central building, surrounded by seven major structures which, beauty, modern facilities and conveniences, are unmatched by any other state capitol.

The Municipal Auditorium, a million-dollar monument to the memory of Sacramento's war heroes, was opened to the public February 2, 1927. It is one of the most completely equipped auditoriums in the West, and serves to attract many conventions to the Capital City. The main auditorium will seat 5,000, with a little theater and a memorial hall in the two wings seating respectively, 300 and 200.

EARLYDAY ELECTIONS-- HOW THEY DID IT IN 1850

The first California state election was held January 1850. Hon. Peter H. Burnett was chosen as governor. The two great interests of the state were mining and stock-raising. They gave rise to the appellations of "Mining Counties" and "Cow Counties."

The California Legislature named the first Monday in April 1850 for the election of county officers. The first officers of Placer County were: county judge, Gordon N. Mott; county attorney, Wm. Fisher; county clerk, T. B. Reddon; sheriff, John Poole; recorder, George Pearson; treasurer, Willard Post; assessor, W. Monroe; judges Court of Sessions, P. W. Thomas and T. H. Rolfe.

The election for the location of the county seat, also held in 1850, was a spirited affair. Four places entered the lists, Auburn, Nicolai, Ophir and Miners' Hotel. Polling places were held where convenient, and it is said that ballot boxes were fastened to trees along the roadside.

Each town and district voted to the utmost stretch of its population and conscience. The election resulted in the selection of Auburn as the county seat of Sutter County. The name of the area was later changed to Placer County, named from extensive placer mining. The majority vote for Auburn was very large.

One historian reported as follows: The favorable location of Auburn, its preponderance of population, and the inexhaustible powers of voting possessed by its citizens and partisans decided the contest in favor of Auburn by a majority considerably exceeding the entire population of the county.—Ivan H. Parker in the Placer Herald.

"CIVILIZATION FOLLOWS THE PLOW" was the motto frequently quoted in support of the homestead policy of the United States, said H. A. Miles, United States Department of Agriculture economist. "Today," he comments, "we find that in some places degradation follows the plow. Land has been put into cultivation that was not suited for permanent cultivation."

Forest experience shows that individual trees of the same species vary widely in rate of growth, branching habits, strength and stiffness of wood, resistance to cold and drought, and insect attack and disease. Such characteristics both favorable and unfavorable to good growth are handed down through the seed.

A Grape and Wine Festival is to be held September 13-15 at Lodi, San Joaquin County.

"For nothing is so productive of elevation of mind as to be able to examine methodically and truly every object which is presented to the eye."—Marcus Aurelius.

El Tejon, Al Specht of Taft and Mary Pinkham of Miocene were the respective chairmen. Wonderful barbecued steaks were served. Fine music was provided by the Kern County Boy Scouts Band, led by Guinn Johnson, and Joe Larius, his wife and Johnson entertained with accordion, guitar and saxophone.

A delegation of Bakersfield Parlor members headed by Grand Outside Sentinel Hal Bannister and President Armond Strauss will be in the Sacramento Admission Day parade. September 18 the Parlor will initiate a large class of candidates. A fine program is being arranged by Dolph Harges and Jimmy Fix Jr. El Tejon and Bakersfield Parlor will have their annual tea honoring the pioneers of Kern County the afternoon of Sunday, September 15. Madge Fote and Hal Bannister are co-chairmen of arrangements.

September 20, 21 and 22 Bakersfield will have its annual Frontier Days celebration, and Native Sons and Native Daughters will, as usual, take an active part. A float will be entered in the parade of the 21st, and a concession stand will be operated at the fair grounds. American Legionnaires and Native Sons will raise United States of America and California State (Bear) Flags during the program. The Frontier Days Association promises a bigger and a better show this year.

Hall of Justice Dedicated.

Tracy—Under the auspices of Tracy No. 186, the grand officers August 18 dedicated the Tracy

Hall of Justice in the presence of three hundred people. Secretary R. J. Marraccini was master of ceremonies, and speakers included Grand President Henry S. Lyon, N. J. L. Pieper of the FBI, City Attorney George W. Wadsworth and Police Chief Floyd G. Wise. Instrumental numbers were rendered by the Native Sons Band and Robert L. Hayes favored with vocal selections.

The dedicatory ceremonies were conducted by Grand President Lyon, Grand First Vice-president Edward T. Schnarr, Grand Second Vice-president Lloyd J. Cosgrove, Grand Third Vice-president Wayne R. Millington, Grand Secretary John T. Regan and Grand Trustee Eben K. Smart. At the conclusion of the ceremonies the grand officers were guests of Tracy Parlor at a buffet luncheon.

Instill Spirit of Americanism.

Urging all Native Sons to observe Admission Day, September 9, the ninetieth anniversary of California's admittance to statehood, the Grand Parlor Admission Day Observance Committee—A. L. Pierovich, chairman, William J. Brigham, Edward E. Reese, Richard M. Hamb and Henry S. Spaulding—says, in a letter addressed to all Subordinate Parlor:

"This is a day and age of unrest and serious concern for all real Americans. This is a day and age in which the principles of Democracy are being weighed in the balance, and we Californians, as sincere citizens, must do our share to instill the spirit of Americanism and democracy into the hearts of the people of our State. By the enthusiastic co-operation of every Native Son on September 9, we can make a grand gesture of true Americanism."

Big Doings in Humboldt.

Eureka—Friday night, September 27, the grand officers, headed by Grand President Henry S. Lyon, will initiate a large class of candidates for the Humboldt County Parlor—Humboldt No. 14, Eureka, Arcata No. 20 and Ferndale No. 93. The following day they will be taken on a tour of the redwoods, and in the evening they will be the guests of the Veterans of Foreign Wars at a venison dinner.
